THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Editor.

THURSDAY, MARCH 25, 1875.

JOHNSTON COUNTY.

We spent Tuesday and Wednesday at Johnston court where Judge Watts presided, and the following gentlemen made up the bar: Hon. W. T. Dortch, H. F. Granger, from Wayne, T. Bunn, General Gee, A. M. Lewis, T. M. Argyle, G. Harris, W. H. Pace and George V. Strong, of Wake. The resident lawyers were Messrs. Woodall and Eldridge. There were some 70 cases on the civil docket, one capital removed from Wake. This was the case of Shacklefort Charles who was tried for killing a negro by the name of Richardson, who with others assailed him for voting the Democratic ticket, which ended in Shacklefort's fatally stabbing Richardson. This fatal stabbing has established the right of the colored man in this city, to vote, in the end judgment dictates. It was a hard, hard lesson to teach, but ignorance would not learn without it. The trial was progressing when we left yesterday. The general impression was that Shacklefort would be acquitted. Logan Harris, the solicitor, appeared alone for the State, and Messrs. Cox and Strong for the prisoner.

Sam Rowland, the cotton press man, was on hand as usual. No man enjoys Tuesday of Johnston court more than our neighbor Sam. Rowland, unless it is Van Smith, Bob Jeffreys and — Pool. Sam with something stronger in it than buttermilk, tips glasses with the whole court green, and Tuesday morning is the first up to break jokes and remark upon its being red eye time with the friends who drank with him the night before. Byron, Fox, Goldsmith and Sheridan ever enjoyed their rich, junk-ations so much as the London clubs this Bost Rowland does at Johnston court. The English poetry just named would often get pay joking and traveling, but not so with them and the Johnston gentry. Wit and wine flowed the time and no one drinks so deep as to get like Byron, Fox, Goldsmith or Sheridan pass navigating. Nor have we ever seen them like the court "exhausted."

We had different accounts from different persons as to the advancement and improvement of the county in morals, politics and agriculture. One said there was improvement in the labor; it was more steady and reliable. Another said it was getting worse, while most agreed it was about the same. While one would report the religious and moral sentiment of the county as on the advance, another would say there was little or no perceptible change for the better since the war. While one would declare that agricultural improvement was apparent, others would dispute it sternly.

On Tuesday in the presence of Sam Rowland and his friends we notified Mr. ——, a republican, that he must take his ring rogues back home and out of our party. That they had run Holden and his administration and stolen all the money, bonds and credit of the State, leaving only the State House, piney courthouses, one canal and three railroads to the State. He flatly refused to receive them back.

Our friend Willie Saunders introduced us to his friend And main man Tom Smith. Zeb. Lemay standing by, said if Tom Smith had been educated at College as Vance was, he would have ranked with him. Tom Smith replied, "Well, Zeb, it is well enough as it is; if I had been highly educated I would have been hung, or what is worse, had Turner advertising me for stealing State bonds or editing ring papers with railroad money.

We met with Drury Barnes, Esq., an old gentleman from Wayne. He is 69 years old and would not vote for Greeley. He can split twenty rails to Manager Stone's one. He walks 18 miles to court to attend a vexatious law suit, and his new wife has a baby three weeks old. He reported one of his radical neighbors as having been so thoroughly cured of his negro-phobia by the passage of the "silver rights bill," as the negroes of Wayne call it, that he will not let a negro live on his land, and never wants one again to vote on his side.

We found the people greatly excited over the division of the county and the removal of the county seat to Selma or some other point on the railroad. There was much dissatisfaction expressed as to the caucus management of the county in making candidates nominate. We took occasion to allude to it in our speech and to tender a bit of advice, which was to stand by the caucus a minute even when a little click lacked in making the candidates.

Our speech and what we said about Convention, usury, 12 1-2 and 18 per cent. must be the subject of another editorial. The CH constable this by hitching the Chief of Police of the town of Smithfield, Bill Nichols. Bill belonged to Judge Clark's regiment of Kirk's late Holden brigade. He was a dashing Lieutenant under Col. Clarke, and is now Chief of Police in Smithfield. We had been speaking but a little while before a man with his badge of office on his coat put in to interrupt us by impudent questions and foul language. He came and stood before us, and when he turned around we discovered a full grown brick bat in his hand which he attempted to conceal under his coat tail. He soon came upon the porch of the hotel from which we spoke, and stood behind us with a brick under his coat tail and a long jack knife open in his pocket. Mr. Lemay came forward and stopping us in our speech announced that an assassin was standing behind the speaker in a threatening attitude with a brick bat under his coat to strike the speaker. We turned and faced the gallant Lieutenant and called on him to show his brick bat. Sam Roland and his brigade came with a rush upon the stand ready for action, and the brigade broke more "cuss" words over the brick bat policeman than Logan Harris, the Solicitor, did over Gov. Holden. We ordered Sam Roland and his brigade to leave our platform, that we might conclude our speech, which he did in a manner hereafter to be told. We must say this much in vindication of Brick-bat Bill, that his sister, Mrs. Gurley, was much mortified at his conduct, and said she ought to be put in the penitentiary for his behavior towards Jo Turner." Well, "all's well that end well."

SENATOR GRAHAM'S LETTER.

The Raleigh News, a ring and railroad paper, upon which President Hawkins and the Seaboard and Roanoke Road, and Boss Tweed's ring in New York has spent $25,000, contains a long letter from Senator Graham, of Lincoln, disclaiming that the bill to mortgage the North Carolina Road and sell the bonds to buy State bonds not due in 8 years was not a ring measure. That neither he or the Senator from Davidson would support a ring measure, &c. We have no idea that either of them would, nor have we ever intimated such a thing. The people of the West who invested Littlefield and Swepson's railroad plans had no idea of stealing, but we did not hesitate to say the beginning and the end of the measure was, and meant stealing on the part of the prime movers in the business. The Senate of last year which voted almost unanimously for the consolidation bill did not mean stealing, but the railroad presidents who originated consolidation meant to steal and nothing more. The North Carolina Road has two mortgages on it. Now the bill defeated by Senator Graham in his long letter proposed to put on another or a third mortgage, and issue two and a half or three millions more of mortgage bonds of the road, and raise thereby money to buy State bonds not due in 8 or 10 years. Besides the road is leased for thirty years with no possible prospect of paying the interest on such a heavy debt. The objection to the bill is that it would sell the road for the debt. The money is to go to buy State bonds not due in years to come, and the measure was conceived by ring and railroad men bent on stealing, and by the same men, too, who aided Littlefield and Swepson to rob the State. Mark the distinction. We do not say or believe that Col. Hargrave, Senator Graham and many others who favored the bill had any purpose or intention to legislate for these thieves. We will have much more to say of this bill.

THE RESOLVE OF SIX HUNDRED.

There were all of six hundred people present at Smithfield, in Johnston county, on Tuesday last, when the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the county roads leading to the Court House are ours.

Resolved, That the North Carolina Railroad is our highway leading to our markets, and we will not part with it.

Resolved, That we will vote for no man for Convention or the Legislature who will not pledge himself not to part with the State's interest in this road.

We assured the people that the bond holders who hold the construction bonds as they are called, would be willing to give up their State bonds for mortgage bonds running thirty or fifty years, and that we had talked with some of the parties holding them and we believed all of them would be willing to do so. This is the way to save the road from the clutches of Swepson's old ring and its big branch at Charlotte. Let all the people join the people of Johnston county in the work.

HORSE AND RAILROAD THIEVES.

At the close of the Revolution the country was cursed with horse thieves, who infested the country from Massachusetts to New York, and from New York to Georgia. "Pilly, Parry Grove," as Flora McDonald, and the Scotch of the Cape Fear used to call Hon. William Berry Grove, the member of Congress from the Fayetteville district, pursued one of the gang, who stole one of his fine carriages, horses and caught him in South Carolina, brought him home without assistance, prosecuted him, had him convicted and hung. A gang of these thieves were organized in the whole South and West after the close of the late war. They stole horses by day and by night. In Orange a gang of thieves were captured in camp in the woods with many stolen horses. In Raleigh horses are stolen from the back yard of the store where they are hitched, while the rider goes in to buy a pound or two of sugar or coffee. Mr. Jones, a county commissioner, hitched his fine mare in the yard of a merchant, and found her in Western Virginia after two months search, and five hundred miles travel. The horse thieves are sometimes caught, but it is against the law and the constitution to hang or whip them. We would not have them hung, but that they deserve also and thirty admits of no doubt in the opinion of every well regulated christian mind, are itself best on horse stealing.

And now for the railroad thieves. They have stolen four-fifths of the railroads of the South since the war. They have stolen some of the railroad property of this State. They have left three roads only in which the State has an interest. They have worried since 1869 to steal the North Carolina road, and the only way to head them off is for the people to resolve they will never vote for any man for convention, or for the Legislature who will vote to part with the State's interest in the three roads. The railroad thieves are all composed of the first families of the South, who have united with wall street brokers to have laws enacted by which they may steal. The greatest outrage ever practiced upon the personal liberty of the citizens was through the semblance of law in the shape of the Sheffner bill. The greatest thieving and stealing of bonds and railroads has been through acts of Assembly.

AN ACT TO CALL A CONVENTION OF THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, The present Constitution of North Carolina is, in many important particulars, unsuited to the wants and condition of our people; and whereas, in the judgment of this General Assembly, a convention of the people is the only sure, and is besides the most economical mode of altering or amending it, and believing the end in view utterly impracticable by legislative enactment on account of the great number of discordant and conflicting provisions of the Constitution as it now is, now therefore,

SECTION 1. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, (two-thirds of all the members of each House concurring.) That a Convention of the people of North Carolina be and the same is hereby called, to meet in the Hall of the House of Representatives, in the city of Raleigh, on Monday, the 6th day of September, A. D. 1875, for the purpose of considering and adopting such amendments to the Constitution as they may deem necessary and expedient, subject only to the restrictions hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. The said Convention shall consist of one hundred and twenty delegates, and each county shall be entitled to the same number of delegates that it has members of the House of Representatives under the present apportionment, and the said delegates shall have the qualifications required of members of the House of Representatives, of which qualifications the Convention shall be the judge.

SEC. 3. On the 1st Thursday of August, 1875, the sheriffs of the 8 counties shall open polls for the election of delegates to the said Convention from their respective counties, and the election aforesaid, and the registration for the same, shall be held and conducted; the officers thereof, including registrars and judges of election, appointed; the votes counted and compared; the result proclaimed and certificates issued in the same manner as is provided by law for the election of members of the House of Representatives of the General Assembly.

SEC. 4. The said delegates shall be called to order at 12 o'clock on the day fixed therefor, by the Chief Justice or one of the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court or Secretary of State, who, if there be not a quorum, shall adjourn them to the same place, and from day to day, until a quorum shall appear; and on the appearance of a quorum, he shall administer to each of them the following oath:

"You, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the delegate elect shall choose,) that you will faithfully maintain and support the Constitution of the United States and the several amendments thereto, including the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments; and that you will neither directly nor indirectly evade or disregard the duties enjoined nor the restrictions imposed upon the Convention by the act of the General Assembly authorizing your election. So help you God."

And no delegate shall be permitted to sit or be entitled to a seat in said Convention, or act as a delegate thereof, until he shall have subscribed the above oath or affirmation; and as soon as a majority of the delegates elect shall have thus appeared and been sworn in, they shall then proceed to elect their own presiding officer, and such other officers and servants as they, from time to time, shall find necessary; and if a vacancy shall occur, they shall be filled in the same manner as the like vacancies are filled by law in the case of vacancies in the General Assembly. Said Convention shall have no power to consider, debate, adopt or propose any amendment to the existing Constitution or ordinance upon the following subjects:

The Homestead and Personal Property Exemptions, the mechanic's and laborers' lien, and the rights of married women, as now secured by law, nor to alter or amend section 3 or 5, article V., of said Constitution, nor change the ratio between the poll and property tax as therein established; nor shall the said Convention have power to propose or adopt any amendment or ordinance vacating any office or term of office now existing and filled or held by virtue of any election or appointment under the existing Constitution and laws, until the same shall be vacated or expired under existing laws; but the said Convention may recommend the abolishment of any office when the present term therein shall expire or vacancies occur, and they may provide for filling such vacancies, otherwise than as now, and limiting the terms thereof. Nor shall said Convention adopt or propose any plan or amendment or scheme of compensation to the owners of emancipated slaves, nor for the payment of any liability or debt incurred wholly or in part in aid of the late war between the States, nor for the restoration of imprisonment for debt; nor shall they require or propose any educational or property qualification for office or voting; nor shall said Convention pass any ordinances legislative in their character, except such as are necessary to submit the amended Constitution to the people for their ratification or rejection, or to convene the General Assembly.

SEC. 5. The Constitution, as amended, shall be submitted to the people for ratification or rejection, and shall not be binding until the same shall have been ratified by the qualified voters of the State, and the Convention shall prescribe the mode whereby the sense of the people thereon shall be taken and recorded.

SEC. 6. There shall be printed immediately ten copies of it is act for each member of the General Assembly, and one hundred copies within thirty days after the ratification for each board of county commissioners, and the use of the registrars and judges of election in their respective counties; and this act shall be in force and take effect from and after its ratification.

Ratified the 19th day of March, A. D. 1875.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.
No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.
Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.
Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.
Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.
Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.
For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.
Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.
For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.
Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.
For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Female Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.
Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.
