WINNER DATE.

The City.

United States Senator Reason is in

The best Kentucky horses in market,

House of Col. F. M. Parker (of 30th N. C. Reg.) lived near Raleigh, he has the sympathy of all who know that humble soldier and gentleman.

Can't Gov. Judge Battle inform us he cannot attend the Centennial at Charlotte as the Episcopal Convention meets in New York about that time and he designs being present at it.

The first thing after a pretty young woman says her prayers at night and falls her hair up in curls is to wonder if to-morrow will be a pretty day and if the new goods at Sicker's have come. The Tucker in their advertisement to-day say the new goods have come—and now for the truth.

Nov. TARRANT—James H. Fowler, of Hesse Creek Township, this county, was indicted for the non payment of his poll tax. He was in court yesterday with his old mother aged 90, to prove he was fifty-four years of age, and therefore not liable for poll tax. This poll tax business is vexatious.

RALEIGH WARRIOR—Rev. Mr. Derwall called on Governor Brocken this morning in regard to a petition from Orange county for pardon of a young man Dester who is in the penitentiary for stealing a horse from Newton Clark of that county. The petition is signed by many of the prominent citizens of Hillsboro and by Mr. Clark himself. Mr. Derwall reached at the penitentiary last Sunday, and say the authorities spoke well of the behavior of DeSter and he would state that if the young man was in bad health.

MATT AND DICKINSON—They will be heard Thursday night, Mrs. Dickinson at Tucker Hall and Judge Watts at the Metropolitan. There is a prejudice in North Carolina against all western women but this should not be a hindrance to Mrs. Dickinson. She is pure, gifted and cultivated, and it is seldom an opportunity is offered to hear such a lecturer. The negroes will all be out to hear Judge Watts. They know his gifts, quizzes and puns, whether as jurist, lawyer or State bonds, or spiritualist, with-out all telling it, and to tell it would be a laborer.

OUR ARTILLERY COMPANY—Captain Alex. Strong with thirty men and two guns, fifteen to a gun, is making arrangements to visit the Charlotte Centennial.
Col. Buford has furnished transportation for the guns to Charlotte and return. The company will have drill every night until the 30th of May. Out Brass of Charlotte has written to Capt. Strong that they will furnish the ammunition and horses for the company. We want our artillery to make a good show in every way, and to this end we learn that Adjutant General Gorman will immediately procure uniforms for the rifles for every man in order that their equipment and look may be complete.

A BRASS BAND—Mr. Henry
Wall, of Goldsboro, and Miss Nina Rosenthal, daughter of Mr. E. Rosenthal, of Wilson, this State, were married in Raleigh on the 30th of last month at the Halcyon Street, Hebrew Temp. The bride was attended by her sister Miss Mattie Rosenthal, and Miss Sarah Bischoff, of Boston. The groomsmen were Mr. S. Wall, of Goldsboro, and Mr.
David Gillingham, of Fayetteville. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr.
Benjamin Bagley. The bride wore a white satin dress with a high collar and orange ribbon, with red and white orange buds, but no jewelry. The bridemaids were dressed in white Hilston and lace. Miss Bischoff's dress was elaborately trimmed with tulle and wreaths of roses. Over the dress was draped a large fur stole and wreath of roses and calla; enclosed within the wreath was a monogram in orange diamonds. The rabbi proposed the ceremony with an address, the subject of which was "Light, Joy and Honor," the concluding source of household happiness."

GLYCERINE—Maybe the country girls haven't found it out yet. They've just commenced it here. Glycerine is the very best thing to rub on the skin and prepare it for powder, makes the complexion look fresh and pretty. Also rub the skin of the head with it. It enriches the hair and keeps it from coming out.

The subtlest collar you can wear is the Bad for the gizzard, We are credibly what was the matter with him. All mediseemed to do him any good, till an old
