Harpers Magazine.

ILLUSTRATED.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prudishness or depraved taste.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause the conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

The City.

We are glad to learn Col. W. H. Harrison, who was recently paralyzed, is improving.

AN OXCURT.—Solomon King worthy farmer—this county—load of guano in cart, going home, ox dropped dead 2 miles from here, and there he was three miles from home and couldn't move a peg.

ANOTHER.—We get up this morning and find another new paper, The Noon Day Visitor. Like the rest it circulates free and lives on its advertising. Published by two young printers, small size and comes out every day at noon. Good luck to the printers.

SAD DEATH.—We learn that Mrs. Charlie McGee died in this county last Thursday morning of childbirth. She was an excellent lady and much beloved by her neighbors. It was her first child and she was forty-three or four years of age. The infant, a little girl, is living and doing well.

HOP AT THE NATIONAL.—The rain last night didn't interfere in the least with the hop at the National. The attendance of young gents and ladies was larger than has been known at the several preceding hops. Two bands of music enlivened the occasion, Stanley's and the Italians.

LITERARY LARCENY.—Ezra Thompson, school boy, this city, coming home from Mr. Scott's school, little negro boy ran up behind him, threw one hand over Ezra's eyes, snatched the books out of his hand, and away he flew like a black streak for home. Ezra has bought new books. All this comes from the spelling fever now on the country.

MISS DICKINSON AT CHURCH.—On account of a severe cold, Miss Dickinson declined lecturing again last night, but visited the Person Street Methodist Church where a revival is going on, and sat under the sound of the gospel. She leaves here this evening for Charlotte, and to the polite and literary of that city we can commend her lecture as a rare feast that delights, smiles the mouth, gushes the eye tickles the fancy, and teaches the mind. Speaking of Person Street Church they have finished the enlargment and will have seats plenty for to-morrow, wagoning the chairs now from Metropolitan Hall to that church.

PERSON STREET CHURCH.—The second quarterly meeting for this church will be held to-morrow. Rev. J. P. Moore, the presiding elder will officiate morning and evening. Prayer-meeting at 9 1-2 a. m. and 3 p. m. The ordinance of Baptism will be administered at the 11 o'clock service. The revival at this church continues with very great interest. There have been about 120 conversions, and 35 accessions to the church up to the present. Rev. R. A. Willis has been assisting in the meeting for several days, preaching as we learn, with great earnestness and power. Rev. H. P. Cole has also rendered efficient service. The addition to the church building is now ready for use, and those who attend the meeting will be comfortably seated. The improvements on the building, it is said, will make it one of the most comfortable and attractive church edifices in the city.

RELIGIOUS.

The Episcopal Convention for the State will meet in Newbern on the 1st of May.

Rev. T. J. Allison preaches at the Presbyterian church in the town of Wilson to-morrow.

The entire alphabet is found in these four lines. Some of the children may like to learn them:

God gives the grazing ox his meat,
He quickly hears the sheep's low cry,
But man who tastes his finest wheat,
Should joy to utter his praises high.

Wicket Gate (Near the South gate of the New Fair Grounds) Preaching every second and fourth Sabbath by Rev. L. Branson at 11 o'clock. Preaching every first and third Sabbath by Rev. D. F. Mescham. Sunday School every Sabbath at 9 o'clock a. m.

THE CENTENNIAL FUND.—According to the resolution adopted by the general committee of arrangements the sum of $25,000 will be necessary to properly carry out the programme at the centennial celebration, and have a certain sum for the monument. Of this amount it was thought that Charlotte ought to raise at least $4,000. Judging by reports of some of the members of the Ways and Means committee, we will do that well, if not better. When did Charlotte ever fail to do her duty in any public enterprise?—Observer.

THE LADIES.

Mrs. Goodwyn, a granddaughter of President Tyler, is about to visit Philadelphia to give a series of dramatic readings.

A reporter of the Herald called at the house of Ingersoll's father yesterday afternoon and inquired for the ex-convict. The answer was that he was quite sick—in bed, in fact—and that he could only see his most intimate friends.

The friends of Mrs. Bettie Suttle, a daughter of Mr. Thomas Branch, will be pained to hear of her death. She was raised in this city where she was much beloved by her friends for her sweet disposition and agreeable manners. She was living in Stafford county at the time of her death—Petersburg News.

Philadelphia ladies win the match. At the spelling bee at the Academy of Music to-night about fifty gentlemen and thirty ladies participated. The ladies were victorious, and the first prize was awarded to Miss Lizzie Byrne, a graduate of the Normal school; the second to Miss Sarah M. Bass, principal of a public school; the third to Miss Maria A. Wright, school teacher; and the fourth to Miss Ida C. Cresdick, a public school pupil. The first prize consisted of fifty dollars.

ALL ABOUT.

T. B. Moore, farmer near Wilson, has a cow with twin calves.

Guns have been shipped from this city to the Mecklenburg Zouaves.

Arrangements are being made for the removal of the remains of the Federal soldiers, who died here in 1865, to the United States Cemetery in Salisbury.—Salem Press.

Mr. Beecher's testimony Tuesday consisted of denials of Tilton's statement, and explanations of some of the quaint expressions used by the witness in several letters. He also described the reading to him by Tilton of "the true story," and said that he then expressed his determination to show fight. In the course of his testimony he stated that he had seen Mr. Moulton kiss Mrs. Victoria Woodhull.

PERSONAL.

Carrington of Virginia has organized a second show and will soon take the field.

Central Hotel in Charlotte is to be enlarged, one hundred additional rooms to be added.

The walls of a building in Danville fell in and killed one negro and wounded several others.

Senator Gordon of Georgia declines to allow his name to be used as a candidate for nomination for Vice President.

THE RIGHT SPIRIT IN TEXAS.—Ex-Governor James E. English, of Connecticut, visited Houston, Texas, on the 5th instant, and was tendered the compliment of a serenade by the citizens, irrespective of party. The distinguished New Englander acknowledged the compliment in a felicitous speech, in which he said he had met with none of that contumely and scorn which some affirm were meted out to every Northern man who visited the South. On the contrary, he met with the most distinguished courtesy. He pointed to the stars overhead, and said they were like the States—distinct and independent of each other. He closed with the sentiment that we were all Americans, with one God, one country.

RECOVERING FROM HIS WOUNDS.—Mr. J. P. Hill, a member of Rentz's troupe, now showing in this city, has so far recovered from the wounds received by him at Macon a week or two since, an account of which appeared in our paper, as to be able to participate in the performance, which he did last night. It will be remembered that Mr. Hill received several pistol shot wounds at the hands of a wrathful "young blood" of Macon, whom he had previously chastised for presuming to inflict his attentions upon Miss Mollie Demar, a member of the troupe.—Wil. Star.

A barber shop in Charlotte is getting up in style and already looks like a New York Shebang. If we had a cousin and he lived in Charlotte and we didn't catch him in the barber shop by sunrise in the morning having his hair frizzed behind and perfumed for breakfast, like all the other young men do, we'd know that boy wasn't rising in his profession.

CURE THAT COUGH!

Dr. C. T. McMannen's

AMERICAN TAR MIXTURE,

PRICE ONE DOLLAR.

THE GREAT SOUTHERN REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.

For Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Hoarseness and all Lung Diseases, especially recommended as a Family Medicine for Children as it arrests at once every symptom of Croup, or attacks of Colic, such as children are subject to, particularly to the relief of Whooping Cough. Its combination with Sugar and other legred cats makes it not unpleasant to the taste, and no danger whatever in its use. Taken in portions of half a teaspoonful at a time whenever there is a disposition to cough, and at night when you lie down. It acts finely on the Kidneys and the Liver.

Manufactured and sold Wholesale and Retail by the Proprietor, Durham, N. C. Liberal discount to wholesale dealers. Orders solicited.

JNO. A. McMANNEN,
General Business Agent.

TESTIMONIALS.

The Medicinal properties of the Southern Pine have long been known to the profession and as the science of medicine advances, the development of this Wonderful Tree in the healing art, has gathered around it the confidence of the medical world. Growing in our midst and clothed in perpetual verdure, it stands the Emblem of Life and Health, and offers from its veins a balm for almost every human disease.

This combination was first prepared by the soldiers and sent to the army. Its wonderful development, and the increasing demand for it was a matter of surprise to its originator. Humanity, as well as interest demand that it go to the front. It gives relief at once. All who use it will endorse every testimonial that follows:

But for one box of Dr. C. T. McMannen's American Tar Mixture, I obtained while in the army, I should have been in my grave.

R. R. RIDGERS,
President W. & W. R. R.

To the soldier it is invaluable. It is worth its weight in gold to all who are afflicted with a cough.

G. C. BUFORD,
Goldsboro, N. C.

After spending eleven months in southern climate to restore my health and came home in deep grief and came home to die, with my children in the cabin, N. C. While there I obtained a box of Dr. McMannen's Tar Mixture. Its first effect was to enable me to sleep; my strength began to return; hope revived; my cough gave way. After using six boxes, was restored to health. I now weigh 140 lbs. I owe my life to this mixture, and wish this published to the world.

R. E. ROBISON.

I have been afflicted with cough for thirty years. I have used all the popular remedies for coughs. I have never found anything to remain on the stomach or give any relief, until I used Dr. McMannen's American Tar Mixture. Its use enables me to sleep well; my lungs have regained their strength, and I find myself entirely free from a distressing cough that attacked me in the morning. I am rapidly recovering.

MRS. POTTER PASCHAL.

My Lungs gave way while on my circuit. I was forced to retire from my work, and had but little hope of recovery. I used one box of Dr. McMannen's Tar Mixture, my cough improved, my strength returned, and I was soon able to resume my work. I recommend it to all who have a cough, or weak lungs.

M. J. HUNT,
N. C. Conference.

Durham, N. C.

Of all the medicine you have taken, the Tar Mixture is the only thing that has done you any good.

MRS. J. E. GREEN,
To her Husband.

Gibsonville, N. C.

I have tried almost everything for my cough. Your Tar Mixture has done me more good than all I have taken. Send me three boxes more.

LUDWIC SUMMERS.

Durham, N. C.

I was taken with an alarming cough; was fearful of its result; suffered the want of sleep. I used one box of the American Tar Mixture. From the first day I used it, I felt its good effects. I slept sound, and my strength increased; a few weeks I was myself again. I can conscientiously recommend it to all who are afflicted with consumptive symptoms or weak lungs.

W. R. STYRON.

Durham, N. C.

I have used Dr. C. T. McMannen's American Tar Mixture myself, and in my family. I do not hesitate to recommend it as a remedy to be used in all cases of Cough, Colds, Sore Throat, Hoarseness and Lung diseases.

D. C. PARRISH.

Hundreds of other Testimonials could be offered. Taken at all times in portions of half a teaspoonful or less. No danger whatever.
