PERSON COUNTY.—Sheriff J. C. Barnett of Person county brought down this morning a white man named W. T. Dixon sentenced to the penitentiary five years for fighting. The Sheriff reports all the green stuff knocked out of Person county by the cold weather.

COMING TO THE CENTENNIAL.—Dr. Willie J. Palmer, the Raleighite in Canada, has written Mr. Dewey at Charlotte that he will visit the Centennial on the 20th, and Mr. Dewey has sent on invitations to twenty Canadians, Mr. Palmer's friends, who will leave Belleville, Ontario, with him, for a peep for the first time into the old North State. We trust Dr. Palmer will not give his old friends the go by but will tarry a few days with us on his return from Charlotte.

A TRAMP IN CONCORD.—Charlie Harris tells us of a visit paid his office, the Concord Sun, by a tramp printer, who wore a squirrel skin game bag and carried an old flint and steel rifle on his shoulder. Charlie drove a bargain with him and invited him home to dinner and the fellow took his rifle with him, said he might see some squirrels on the way. He proved the best kind of printer and staid with Charlie till one morning in September he stepped up to him and remarked it was just the time of moon for him to be moving and he shouldered his rifle and tramped. The fellow is now editing a little paper in Wyoming Territory.

BUILDING UP.—We are told the country between Cary and Apex is fast building up. These two little towns are only six miles from each other and each is trying to outstrip the other in growth and enterprise. Two brickyards have just started operations between the two villages and it keeps them busy supplying the demand on either side. Besides there are three blinds and sash factories, one at Apex, and one at Cary, and the other on the road between the two places. What if they finally connect the two together and make it all one town! Raleigh might then look out. There are three or four unfinished houses now at Apex and John W. Thompson is putting up a beautiful dwelling house, in fact it is now being painted and will soon be ready to be occupied.

BOOK NOTICES.—The May number of Lippincott is exceedingly attractive, illustrated with the handsomest engravings and filled with a variety of reading matter the most choice and entertaining "Three Feathers" an excellent story by William Black is now on its 33d chapter and is intensely interesting. "How Lady Louisa Moor amused herself," by the author of "Blindpits," is well worth the sitting, it is so spicily and ingeniously written. In fact the whole number is a literary gem.

Scribner's for Girls and Boys, the May number is the best of all, and we hardly thought there could be any room for improvement. Every household should have Scribner for the children, it is better than a year of schooling.

Ehrich's Fashion Quarterly, New York City, is valuable for the ladies, every latest style is given and finely illustrated.

A TALK LAST NIGHT.—We moved up to two fine old gentlemen last night at the National Hotel, one of whom has recently married, and his wife is on a short visit to her friends, and lo they were talking about the ladies. One said we had the prettiest women in Raleigh in the State. The grass widower didn't wait for the whole sentence to get finished before he clamped it with "that's so." We mildly suggested that Wilmington and Newbern might possibly dispute that palm with Raleigh. The first gentleman replied he believed the eastern ladies were of a handsomer type than the western. A handsome young man sitting by remarked he had been commended to Greensboro for pretty women but he was just from there and saw nothing of the style of girl we could show in this city. The grass widower observed that Salisbury didn't have much in that line to boast of either. We thought him mistaken in this but said nothing. The first gentleman remarked that Charles Dickens said truly when he declared the Southern women the prettiest type of woman in the world. That the English women were all hale ruddy cheeked fine looking women but they all had big feet and all looked alike, when in the South there was a mixture of all bloods, they all had little feet and small hands, and all were beautiful and each one differed in appearance from the other. The grass widower here exclaimed another emphatic and most earnest "that's so." We left them still choking each other on this topic and we merely wish to let our ladies know how highly they are esteemed and admired by the venerable fathers in this city.

The following are the graduates from this State at the Theological Seminary, Hampden Sidney, Va. James L. Currie of Alamance county; Kenneth McDonald of Fayetteville; Alfred James Morrison of Cottage Home; and Silas F. Pritchett of Greensboro.

LATER FROM THE LOTTERY.

GREENSBORO', N. C., April 20.—The grand gift drawing commenced at ten o'clock this morning. Ticket No. 63349 drew the Benbow House—capital prize; No. 99033 drew $5,000; No. 94350 drew $2,000; No. 1333 drew $1,500. The drawing continues to-morrow. A good many smaller prizes were drawn. Prizes scaled to one-sixth. Large crowd here.

GREENSBORO LOTTERY.—Somebody's heart in this city is turning somersets if telegraph tells the truth. It is said that forty-five hundred dollars has been drawn by somebody in the city. We hear that Smithfield got the next largest prize. The prizes were scaled one-sixth. It is a gratifying feature of these lotteries that editors who do all the bulling up and sell all the tickets are never known to draw a copper cent's worth—and besides take tickets for pay!

THE LADIES.

Mme. Demorest, accompanied by Miss King, is taking a tour through Mexico, visiting all the places of historical interest.

Miss Neilson has acted Shakespeare's "Juliet" eleven hundred and fifteen times She will appear at Booth's Theater April 26 as "Amy Robsart."

Superstition in Georgia. In the county of Newton, eight miles from Covington, three families reside together. The first household consists of an old maid and her widowed mother; the second of husband, wife, and two children; and the third of an old lady and son. So strongly has the delusive idea implanted itself in the minds of the two latter families that the widow is a witch, and in league with the devil, that they refuse to allow her to visit or borrow anything from their houses. They say she has made witch balls from hair gathered from the tail of a tricky cow, which, if rubbed against any article, will charm any one who touches it. These people place horse-shoes over their beds and under their door-steps to kill the influence of the old woman's charms. They verily believe that she intends to witch the whole neighborhood, and bring some plague upon its inhabitants. Silver bullets have been moulded with which to shoot her in case she intrudes upon the families at night by creeping through the keyholes or coming down the chimney. Silver dimes have been nailed in the bottom of the churn and well bucket to prevent the witch from taking an underhand advantage of her neighbors.—Covington Enterprise.

RELIGIOUS.

Good advice from a Bishop: At the session of the Newark (N. J.) Methodist Conference, last week, Bishop Bowman addressed the class just admitted into full connection, in which he made a seeming reference to the Beecher case in cautioning the candidates against indiscretion in their relations with women: and to the Gladdening case, in relation to which he said that ministers who gave proper attention to their charges would have no time to play croquet. The bishop also said that though an occasional article, well written, from the pen of a young minister, might add spice to a newspaper, some of them wrote articles, to the neglect of their parishes, which sometimes brought them into difficulty.

A false prophet in New Jersey. The greatest excitement has been created in and around Glassboro' by the preaching of an "Advent Preacher." According to his teaching, "grace and mercy and peace" were to have "ceased" on Wednesday last. Christ is to come to the earth to-day and the great fire which is to consume the earth will take place in the fall. These predictions have been accepted by some of the more ignorant and superstitious of the persons living in the vicinity, and many have desisted from their labors in order to make preparations for the Judgment Day, unexpectedly seen at hand. The more sensible portion of the people feel aggrieved at his teaching, and some have threatened him with bodily harm unless he leaves the place. In every case in which these threats have been made the preacher has caused the arrest of the parties making them. They have given bail to appear before Justice Conover for examination on Friday of this week. Residents of the town contemplate organizing to drive him away.—N. Y. Times.

TESTIMONIALS.
The Medicinal properties of the Southern Pine have long been known to the profession and as the science of medicine advances, the development of this Wonderful Tree in the healing art, has gathered around it the confidence of the medical world. Growing in our midst and clothed in perpetual verdure, it stands the Emblem of Life and Health, and offers from its veins a balm for almost every human disease.
This combination was first prepared by the soldiers and sent to the army. Its wonderful development, and the increasing demand for it was a matter of surprise to its originator. Humanity, as well as interest demand that it go to the word. It gives relief at once. All who use it will endorse every testimonial that follows:
But for one box of Dr. C. T. McMannen's American Tar Mixture, I obtained while in the army, I should have been in my grave.

To the soldier it is invaluable. It is worth its weight in gold to all who are afflicted with a cough.

After spending eighteen months in a southern climate to restore my Lungs, I gave up in despair, and came home to die with my children in Goldsboro, N. C. While there I obtained a box of Dr McMannen's Tar Mixture. Its first effect was to enable me to shout; my strength began to return; hope revived; my cough gave way. After using six boxes, I was restored to health. I now weigh 165 lbs. I owe my life to this mixture, and wish this published to the world.
R. E. ROBISON.
I have been afflicted with a cough for thirty years. I have used all the popular remedies for coughs. I have never found anything to remain on the stomach, or give any relief, until I used Dr. McMannen's American Tar Mixture. Its use enables me to sleep well; my lungs have regained their strength, and I find myself entirely free from a distressing cough that attacked me in the morning. I am rapidly recovering.
MRS. POTTER PASCHAL.
Durham, N. C.
My Lungs gave way while on my circuit. I was forced to retire from my work, and had but little hope of recovery. I used one box of Dr. McMannen's Tar Mixture, my cough improved, my strength returned, and I was soon able to resume my work. I recommend it to all who have a cough, or weak lungs.

W. K. STYRON,

I have used Dr. C. T. McMannen's American Tar Mixture myself, and in my family. I do not hesitate to recommend it as a remedy to be used in all cases of Cough, Colds, Sore Throat, Hoarseness and Lung Diseases.
