The City.

THE CITY TICKET.—Below you have it. Shall we elect it by standing square up to every name on it, or shall we scratch a single name and help the opposite side to run right over us? No, we will elect it, and electing it means for every man to work for it and vote the whole ticket, and this we will do.

FOR ALDERMEN:

FIRST WARD—
JOHN C. ARMSTRONG,
JAS. H. McKEE,
H. J. HAMMEL.

THIRD WARD—
W. C. STRONACH,
R. R. BRADLEY,

J. G. R. LITTLE,
JOHN C. BLAKE.

FIFTH WARD—
J. RUFFIN WILLIAMS,

P. C. FLEMING

William Whitford, Esq., of Newbern, was in the city this morning.

There are six hundred and seven prisoners in the penitentiary.

In noticing the illness of Solicitor Strudwick yesterday the types made us say "brilliant fortune" when we wrote "brilliant future."

The State Agricultural Journal has passed into the hands of Col. John D. Whitford. Col. Whitford means business in everything he undertakes and the Journal under his management will show the motive power that is behind it.

HARNETT COUNTY.—Mr. D. D. Senter is in, from Harnett county. He says there's no news, that they are all staying at home and boarding at the same place, and after the laugh all around had saddened down, Mr. Senter told us that "the fruit was all killed," the forward wheat was hurt, the corn that had come up was all killed, and the corn just sprouted was dead down to the grain itself

A SIXTY CENT PISTOL.—It was a sixty cents cast iron pistol that did the suicide yesterday evening. The victim bought it from one of the hardware stores. We think Mr. Rumbaugh must have been the same man that attempted suicide the other day at a hotel in Baltimore, at any rate, the Baltimore papers published the man as a cigar man from Richmond. It was going off in cheap style to take one's life with a sixty cents pistol.

THE NUMBER OF REGISTERED VOTERS.—The registration books for this city closed to-day with the following result:

1st Ward—216 white; 64 colored.
2nd Ward—130 white; 202 colored.
3rd Ward—157 white; 24 colored.
4th Ward—47 white; 231 colored.
5th Ward—295 white; 242 colored.
Total white 849; total colored 753.
Making a grand total of 1602 registered voters in the city.

THE COUNTY INSANE.—We are informed at the Auditor's office that the cost to the State for the support last year of those unfortunates who cannot get place in the Asylum here and are maintained by their respective counties, was thirty thousand and seven hundred and fifteen dollars and thirty-nine cents. The counties that show the largest number of insane as supported above are as follows: Chatham, Craven, Edgecombe, Franklin, Gaston, Granville, Iredell, New Hanover, Orange, Person, Rutherford, Stokes, Surry, Union, Wake, Wilkes and Yadkin. Since 1873 Wilkes county has reported the support of 35 lunatics and idiots, Wake 39, New Hanover 28, Chatham 32, Iredell 16, Edgecombe 14, Gaston 16, Stokes 15, Rutherford 13, Person 14, Edgecombe 14, Granville 11, Franklin 11, Surry 17, and Orange 16. We find only one from Wilson, one from Yancey, and two from Warren.

BRINGING DOWN PRISONERS.—The sheriffs and the people at home are laboring under a mistake. A recent law of the Legislature gives a sheriff two dollars a day and all actual necessary expenses, in bringing prisoners to the penitentiary, and allows him one dollar a day for the actual necessary expenses of the guard. He is allowed one guard for every three prisoners provided he will make affidavit before the clerk of the court of his county of the necessity of such guard. But the point is this: If he bring but one convict, or if he brings two, he is allowed no guard. It seems some of the sheriffs have been advised differently and have been put to no little annoyance in bringing a guard here with one or two convicts. But the Attorney General has decided the true meaning of the law allows no guard to less than three prisoners, and it will save the sheriffs much future annoyance by having this impression corrected.

Paymaster General Bridge of the United States navy has been a guest at the National Hotel for the past week. He has his lady with him and is in this city for the sake of his health.

A FRUITFUL SQUARE.—Raleigh has a fruitful block that the frost can't hurt. In the block bounded by Blount, Person, Davie and Martin streets, there have been eight births in less than twelve months, two boys and six girls

FIRE.—A fire broke out this evening away over in the southeastern portion of the city, the house of Bibb Matthews, a negro, being burnt to the ground. The firemen couldn't make the engine work on account of the washers to the suction hose being misplaced. We learn the house stood on the land of J. W. R. Watson and was his property.

AN OLD SALTWATER MEMBER.—He never did care much about pronunciation, the good old member from one of our seacoast counties, but he was a careful reader of the Bible and would call the Scriptural names in the sort of English that suited his tongue the best. For instance in one of his speeches one day in the House he spoke of the time "when the Queen of Sheby was riding about the country with Solomon," and at another time when he was speaking to a fish bill, a little spry looking republican hopped up and asked him "if the whales down in his country were big enough to swallow up the minnows?" "Yes," said the old man, "and a thousand such Jonys as you besides." The little rad wiggled like a strung eel.

THE LADIES.

It thou wouldest please the ladies, thou must endeavor to make them pleased with themselves.—Fuller.

The woman never yet lived who could cast a true love out of her heart because the object of that love was unworthy of her.—Wilkie Collins.

KISSING IN CHINA.—It is a singular fact that the custom of kissing is altogether unknown in China. The Chinese, indeed, have no word or term expressing love as we understand the tender passion. An American navy officer, voyaging Canton ward, narrates an amusing experience of the ignorance of the Chinese maidens of the science of kissing. Wishing to complete a conquest he had made of a young mei jin (beautiful lady,) he invited her —using the English words—to give him a kiss. Finding her comprehension of his request somewhat obscure, he suited the action to the word and took a delicious kiss. The girl ran away into another room thoroughly alarmed exclaiming, "Terrible maneater! I shall be devoured." But in a moment, finding herself uninjured by the salute, she returned to his side, saying, "I would like to learn more of your strange rite. Kee-es me!" He knew it wasn't right but he kept on instructing her in the right of "kee-es me" until she knew how to do it like a native Yankee girl, and, after all that she suggested a second course by remarking, "Kee-es me some more seen jin mee-lee kee!" (Anglice—American.) and the lesson went on until her mamma's voice rudely awakened them from their delicious dream.—Herald

A Baltimore lady loses her headpiece. In these degenerate days, when the fashions of ladies' wear have taken such grotesque and apparently useless forms, bonnets seem to be worn more for ornament than head covering. An amusing incident occurred on Sunday, which caused considerable laughter to witnesses of it. A gentleman and his wife were returning home from church; the lady was leaning gently upon her husband's arm, when suddenly their conversation was arrested by some one behind calling, "Madame, madame, does this belong to you?" Upon turning around a gentleman advanced toward the lady with a bonnet in his hand. I imagine the surprise of the lady as well as her husband, to find that they had walked nearly a block without discovering the loss. The somewhat disconcerted husband took the bonnet and bestowed it upon his wife.—Gazette.

Edward Bayer, Esq., Horton, Kings Co., N. S., writes that an astonishing cure has been effected on his daughter by the use of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment The whole spine became diseased, she lost the use of her limbs, and her back was rounded up like a bow, in consequence of taking cold after having been inoculated for the kine pock. She is now well.

We pledge our reputation on the assertion that any educated physician, after a careful examination of the recipe, will say that Parsons' Purgative Pills possess more merit than any other pill now offered for sale.

BEWARE of imitations. Buy only the genuine folded edge collars, Elmwood and Warwick. They are the best made.

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. Calvin H. Wiley preached in the town of Washington last Saturday and Sunday.

At a fair in Petersburg for the First Baptist church over a thousand dollars was raised.

Union prayer-meetings, tri-weekly, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, will be held in the First Presbyterian church, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, of the days above mentioned. Services will be 30 minutes. The public are invited to attend.—Char. Observer.

Four crowded revival meetings were held in London on the 16th. One of the meetings, specially held for students, occurred in Spurgeon's Tabernacle. Mr. Moody's address on "Christian Work" was rapturously applauded and upon his invitation to "go into the streets and work" thousands arose, ready for action.

FINE PRINT.

Tim Morris played in Wilmington Wednesday night.

R. W. Allison is a candidate for convention in Cabarrus county.

A fire company from Greenville, S. C., will attend the Charlotte Centennial.

The Observer says the business prosperity of Charlotte is largely due to the enterprise of the Jews in its midst.

He got so mad with his neighbor he couldn't think of anything else to call him and so he called him a "cock-eyed bed-bug."

The passenger fare on the N. C. R. R. has been changed. First class fare is now four cents per mile instead of four and a half; and second-class three and a half cents per mile instead of three cents, as heretofore. A wise change.—Salisbury Watchman.

Mrs. D. X. Branch was accidentally burned yesterday at her residence, between Sycamore and Adams streets. While her injuries are painful they are not dangerous, and we hope no serious consequence need be apprehended.—Petersburg News.

PERSONAL.

The peach crop around Alexandria and Washington City is not seriously hurt.

The New York Legislature proposes to rule out lager beer as an intoxicating drink.

Woodson who drew ten thousand dollars in the Greensboro lottery is a Lynchburg policeman.

Some of the Truckers around Norfolk assert that all is not lost and a half crop of berries and fruit will be made.

At the Tokay Vineyard in Fayetteville all the fine table grapes which are sold for fancy prices in the Northern markets were killed.

A negro boy was sent to the penitentiary in Virginia and a suit of clothes had to be made for him, he was so small that none of the ready made clothing would fit him.

You are right, my brother, but you see these young fellows can't understand it. Says brother Stewart of the Salisbury Watchman: One of the prettiest sights we have ever seen was that of a little babe seated upon the carpet catching at the golden sun beams as they glinted through the window. With open, outstretched hand she grasped again and again the streaks of light, apparently lost in wonderment that when her hand closed it was upon nothing. Oh! the witching grace and innocence of babyhood!

TESTIMONIALS:

The Medicinal properties of the Southern Pine have long been known to the profession and as the science of medicine advances, the development of this Wonderful Tree in the healing art, has gathered around it the confidence of the medical world. Growing in our midst and clothed in perpetual verdure, it stands the Emblem of Life and Health, and offers from its resins a balm for almost every human disease.

This combination was first prepared by the soldiers and sent to the army. Its wonderful development, and the increasing demand for it was a matter of surprise to its originator. Humanity, as well as interest, demand that it go to the world. It gives relief at once. All who use it will endorse every testimonial that follows:

But for one box of Dr. C. T. McMannen's American Tar Mixture, I obtained while in the army, I should have been in my grave.

R. R. PRIDGEN,
President W. & W. R. R.

To the soldier it is invaluable. It is worth its weight in gold to all who are afflicted with a cough.

GEN. BUFORD,
Va. Cavalry.
Goldsboro, N. C.

After spending eighteen months in a southern climate to restore my Lungs, I gave up in despair, and came home to die with my children in Goldsboro, N. C. While there I obtained a box of Dr McMannen's Tar Mixture. Its first effect was to enable me to sleep; my strength began to return; hope revived; my cough gave way. After using six boxes, I was restored to health. I now weigh 140 lb. I owe my life to this mixture, and wish this published to the world.

R. E. ROBISON.

I have been afflicted with a cough for thirty years. I have used all the popular remedies for coughs. I have never found anything to remain on the stomach or give any relief, until I used Dr. McMannen's American Tar Mixture. It has enabled me to sleep well; my lungs have regained their strength, and I find myself entirely free from a distressing cough that attacked me in the morning. I am rapidly recovering.

MRS. POTTER PASCHAL.

My Lungs gave way while on my circuit. I was forced to retire from my work, and had but little hope of recovery. I used one box of Dr. McMannen's Tar Mixture, my cough improved, my strength returned, and I was soon able to resume my work. I recommend it to all who have a cough, or weak lungs.

Of all the medicine you have taken, the Tar Mixture is the only thing that has done you any good.

I was taken with an alarming cough; was fearful of its result; suffered for want of sleep. I used one box of the American Tar Mixture. From the first day I used it, I felt its good effects. I slept sound, and my strength increased; a few weeks I was myself again. I can conscientiously recommend it to all who are afflicted with consumptive symptoms or weak lungs.

W. K. STRON.
Durham, N. C.

I have used Dr. C. T. McMannen's American Tar Mixture myself, and in my family. I do not hesitate to recommend it as a remedy to be used in all cases of Cough, Colds, Sore Throat, Hoarseness and Lung diseases.
