VOL. X. RALEIGH, N. C. TUESDAY, MAY 18, 1875. NO. 248.

The City.

A meeting of the ex-Union soldiers will be held to-night at the Insurance office of S. D. Wait, for the purpose of making preliminary arrangements for memorial day.

THE COLD WEATHER.—A strapping young farmer can be found in this county, who yesterday morning, the 17th of May, 1875, wrote his name in the frost on his plantation. But as he wants no office and never expects to steal anything from the people he is dead down against his name being published. We placed another log of wood on the fire and comply with his request.

A CARGO OF DOCTORS.—The train this morning from the West contained a number of Doctors on their way to Wilson where the Medical Society holds its annual meeting. They were mostly from Rowan, Cabarrus and Orange. We had a list of them but it was mislaid. Dr. Carr of Chapel Hill joined them at Durham. Dr. Hines and others joined them at Raleigh and on they went to Wilson. Dr. and Mrs.
Wheat were on the train going to the Episcopal Convention at Newbern.

ST. MARY'S.—The voice musical at St. Mary's last night was, in every way a recherche affair. The programme was rich and varied, just such as the public could expect from a musical scholar of the taste and professional skill of Prof.
Grotz. The presence of our military companies, in full uniform, swords and all, lent a peculiar charm to the scene, in fact, everybody was happy and promenaded all; the grand old hall brilliantly lit up, and a band of music in full play in the next room, the writer has no regrets for keeping awake over half the night's looker on in Venice." The pen would call the name, but the blush on her cheek tells her maiden modesty, of a certain young lady of our city who rendered a piece from Donizetti, a song that Muraka sang here, and gave it with such birdlike and melodic sweetness as to hold the crowded hall in silent and admiring audience.

A KIDNAPPED BOY RESTORED.— Nearly eleven years ago the yankee army carried off from here a boy named Edward Alston, the son of Mrs. Emily Alston, who was then Mrs. Emily Jones, and lived in this county about twelve miles from Raleigh. Ed at that time was just eleven years old and a bright and promising lad. The family mourned him as dead and nothing was heard or known of his fate till twelve months after he wrote to Dr. James Beckwith his uncle, from a place called Vermillion in Edgar county, Illinois.
The boy had a hard time of it. He worked in the field awhile next in a blacksmith shop, then in a carriage shop, and from there he joined the United States army. As a soldier he fought the Indians two years on the Yellow Stone River, and from there he was ordered to Shreveport in the Louisiana troubles. It was from here he was finally restored to his home in this county. His friends worked faithfully after him. Mrs. Dr. Beckwith, his aunt, who has just left this office, and who told us the news, made untiring efforts in behalf of her sister's son.
During his absence both Dr.
Beckwith, his uncle, and Mr. Lee Jones, his father-in-law, had died. The car of government was besieged by ex-Gov. Holden, Gov. Pennington, Hon.
Sam Phillips, and also Hon. A. M.
Waddell, and the boy's history was told, how he had been taken the same as a fine horse or a rosewood piano, and the government immediately ordered his discharge from the army, and Edward Alston weighing 100 pounds and 22 years of age, landed at home last week, a man every inch, and knows a thing or two about this old world that they don't teach in school books.

A man has just been sentenced to imprisonment for eight days, and a fine of 100 francs, for having interrupted a marriage ceremony in the Church of Notre Dame des Victoires. He was a disappointed lover of the bride, and by way of revenge he had strewn the floor of the church with a quantity of fulminating pistols, which exploded at each movement of the bridal party and the spectators with so much noise at some moments as to compel a suspension of the service. Buy when you return."

ATTENTION, DEMOCRATE.—There will be a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Conservative-Democratic party of Wake County at the courthouse in Raleigh on Saturday, 29th inst.
A full attendance is earnestly desired as matters of great importance will be presented for the consideration of the Committee.

A VENERABLE TREE TOAD.

In Lexington, Ky., a few days ago, a remarkable discovery of a living frog in the heart of a large tree was made. A section of a sycamore tree, four feet in diameter and three feet wide, intended for a butcher's block, was cut into two equal sections with a cross-cut saw, thus making two blocks of the same size. In the centre of the tree an irregular feature was discovered, which measured six inches in length and three eighths of an inch in width, and extended into each block. One of the blocks was placed upon its end, the newly-cut surface being upward. One of the workmen, happening to look into the narrow crack, noticed the green and slimy surface of what he supposed was a snake. Having procured a small stick, he thrust it into the orifice, when a green frog jumped out, and fell, apparently lifeless, upon the surface of the block. In a few minutes it commenced to breathe. The pulsations of the blood could be plainly seen on the under surface of the throat, and it soon revived. It was placed in a glass jar, half filled with water, when it immediately climbed up the slippery surface and stuck to the side of the glass, where it could be plainly observed. Its back was bright green, and the under part of the body was of a pale blue, like the colorless appearance of vegetables which have grown in a dark cellar.
It was about three inches in length, and was evidently a tree frog. (see Ad.)

At latest reports it was still alive, and made the night melodious with singing.—Lexington (Ky.) Journal.

Telegraphic News.

GEN. BRECKINRIDGE.

LEXINGTON, May 17.

The condition of Gen. Breckinridge remains unchanged. He is still cheerful and seems to be much less concerned at his condition than those around him.
He has the papers read to him, and converses with his few chosen friends who are admitted. Some of his more hopeful friends entertain hopes of his remaining among them some time, but experienced persons see he cannot survive much longer, and is liable to be called away at any moment. His pulse is very weak. Many of his relatives and friends from abroad are here to be with him in his last hours.

RAILROAD MATTERS.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 17.

The Chancellor denied and overruled the motion of Branch Sons and others to be made parties to the proceedings for the sale of the Western Railroad and have the sale set aside. He said that any right they had could be asserted quite as well in a separate bill and he could not delay the proceedings by sustaining their petition.

AN ABSCONDED BANK CLERK.

LYNCHBURG, May 15.

Arthur E. Galt, 19 years old, a clerk in the Lynchburg National Bank, has absconded with $10,000 belonging to the bank. It is thought he is traveling under the assumed name of H. B.
McDonald. Galt had been sent to the express office with the money for the Treasurer at Washington and returned to the bank with a forged receipt.

The young lady students of the Syracuse Medical College are very earnest.
Recently three of them purchased the body of an Auburn convict, and after cutting it up threw the pieces into a vacant lot, causing intense excitement in the vicinity, the general opinion being that a dismembered human had been committed.

from the consul at Panama announces the death, at Guayaquil on the 7th inst., of Hon. Thos. Biddle, United States Minister to Ecuador.

having made a full and open statement of the grounds and evidence in support of the line of boundary claimed for the said States respectively, the arbitrators adjourned at Washington city on Saturday to meet again on the 30th of June next at the Fifth Avenue Hotel
