

VISIT TO HILLSBORO.

In a few days Mr. William Mountford, an Englishman, resident in Raleigh, will visit this old borough to sell his various wares and dressings for leather merchants and tanners.

CANT HARMONIZE THEM.

The Chairman of the Executive Committee of Orange says he will not call another Convention in Orange. The one called recently was the largest he ever saw in the county, and if that could not give satisfaction, another would not.

ABUSING PATTERSON'S FRIENDS.

A correspondent of the Raleigh News commands us to "cease our abuse of Major Patterson's friends." The revenue Democrats of Hillsboro are not the real friends of Major Patterson, besides we do not abuse them.

ANOTHER LOT OF COUNTY ORDERS CHANGED.

In addition to the changed orders which have been published in the "Courier" in the two last issues, the following have been found. As yet no clue has been found to the scoundrels, who have been engaged in this wholesale robbery of the county.

The Courier is chasing small game. But that's the way to clear and purify the political atmosphere. It is a pity the Constitution forbids the whipping of the guilty men, who have by forgery robbed the county of Franklin.

Miss Isabelle T. Armstrong. On Thursday night the 19th inst., the citizens of this place, for the first time, had an opportunity of hearing a female orator. At an early hour a large audience assembled at the Reform Church to hear this celebrated temperance lecturer.

an eloquence that was peculiarly attractive. Miss Armstrong represented the order of Good Templars of England...

This brave woman goes bravely on, and good people everywhere encourage and applaud her. If there is one class commissioned above another to speak for temperance, it must be the women.

For the Sentinel.

CHARLOTTE, May 21, 1875.

Mr. Editor:—I am interested in the fight you wage against the corruptors of the times. I know that Major Hearse was induced to settle here by railroad men who furnished the money to him, and by leading politicians in whose praise he was led.

VINDEX.

PRIMARY MEETINGS.

Mr. Editor:—The suggestion of your correspondent "New Light" is one which will meet the views of every unbiased Conservative in the county. It is no new thing. It is adopted throughout Virginia and works well and gives more satisfaction than any other plan.

For the Sentinel.

Mr. Editor:—I am pleased with the idea of voting for candidates. I have not seen a man who does not approve it.

CHARLES LAMB, EMAYIST.

denounced all spirituous liquors as "Wet Demons." Poor fellow; he knew wherof he spoke, by sad experience, and if living would apply the same to Alcoholic Exaltation, advertised as Curialia. But there is one Tonic and Alternative in existence—the best the world has ever known—which contains no alcohol. It is Docteur WALKER'S CALIFORNIA YEMASSEE BARKER.

ABOLITION OF CO-PARTNERSHIP.

The Corporation heretofore existing under the title of Adams & Co., Apn, A. C., is this day dissolved by mutual consent. H. C. O'Brien succeeds the firm and will continue business at the same place, my interest is surrendered to him with the best wishes, believing him to be well worthy the patronage and confidence of the public.
