IMPORTANT NOTICE.

The following resolution of the Board of Aldermen is published for public information:

Resolved, That the City Collector, Chief of Police and Clerk of the Market shall not take any City Scrip, or any other indebtedness of this city, for any taxes due the city except Market-house stalls, and that the City Treasurer is hereby notified not to take such evidences from any collecting officer of the city. This resolution does not apply to the present Collector, F. M. Sorrell's extension. After that none is to be taken. Also, that the Clerk give the said officers due notice."

GEO. H. WILLIAMS,
my 19-dtf City Clerk.

TO THOSE HOLDING CITY SCRIP.

By a resolution of the Board of Aldermen, all persons who own city scrip are required to file with the City Clerk before June 3rd, a list of the amounts of said orders, date of issue and to whom issued. A failure to comply will possibly involve danger of loss to the holders of the scrip.

THE BEST STRAWBERRIES

Prepared by Sommer, leading grocer, 108 Corner of the Garden, opposite Market, and shall appear in earlier days.

The City.

BEST LAGER.—J. H. Pierce & Co. have and keep Jacob Sauer's best beer, besides other good drinks.

WANTS TO KNOW.—Capt. Sergeants of the Raleigh Artillery requests that all persons who have given to the relief of the wounded artillerymen shall send him their names and the amount they contributed.

WHAT HE SAID.—On the train the other day, an old gentleman from Chatham had his seat full of bundles. He remarked that he could buy more goods, and a better article for the worth of his money, at Tuckers, than at any other store he knew of in this country.

RELIGIOUS TALK.—An Episcopalian to-day joked a Baptist over one of his brethren who had stolen fifty dollars, and the Baptist turned on him with the reply that he knew communicants in his church that gambled every day. A refreshing state of affairs, truly. Let the church sweep out.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—See the ad. of that Prince of Hardware men, Julius Lewis.

"I scream," cries the hysteric young woman, Ice Cream, cries Mosely, and the cream of it is he tells about it in the SENTINEL. Let the hot weather cremate the man that won't ateream at Mosely's.

FIGHT AMONG THE FAITHFUL.—We learn a spirited fight is afoot among the faithful, the Republicans, in regard to the appointment of Directors to fill vacancies on the Boards of the Penitentiary and Deaf and Dumb Asylum. Ellison is picked out for the Penitentiary Board, and it is said James Harris wants a place on the Deaf and Dumb Board, his desire being to oust the present Superintendent, Mr. Nichols. It seems didn't vote for Harris for Senator last summer.

A CURSING MAN.—We read of Jno. Cotton, in Shelby county, Ky., John was a swearing man and did business that way. People would say, "John Cotton is a rattler," because he would stamp his foot, you know, and swear loud when anything vexed him. But John went most too far. We see that the other morning he got up and found the frost had killed all his crops. He cursed God for it, and that same day John Cotton was attacked by paralysis, and has not spoken since."

THE PRESBYTERY BANQUET.—Mecklenburg was formed from Anson county in 1762, and the prettiest banner carried in the Centennial was borne by Mrs. Mansfield, of the Wadesboro Argus, which bears the flag likewise of the finest fabric of blue silk, and inscribed upon it in beautiful letters was "Anson is proud of her daughter!" Mr. Mansfield was presented by the Judges with a silver medal and silver cup and the ladies showered him with bouquets of flowers. By the by a sweet young lady of this city brought home a tassel from the flag, given her as a souvenir by the Anson young man. Eh, Mr. Mansfield.

DOWN SHERIFFS.—More Sheriffs brought prisoners to-day for the penitentiary. The Sheriff of Rockingham with five; Sheriff of Lincoln with one; and the Sheriff of Lenoir with four. And again there is trouble about the pistol law, and the Sheriffs are hot. The Sheriff of Rockingham had two guards expressly hired for him, and Lenoir brought one guard with the one prisoner (Robert Gurnee, a hotel) murderer. Until he is not allowed the expenses, and the Sheriff of Lenoir brought two guards with his four prisoners, and is not allowed but one. They go home mad, and don't appreciate the thing at all.

THE PEABODY CHILDREN.—It seems we can all gathering around it and a lot of visiting friends has been recently going on. Henry Wilson gave John C. Breckinridge the grip the other day as the latter lay on his death bed, and a little boy Henry and Mrs. Jefferson Davis proceeded to a strawberry shop on the streets of Memphis, and must we add from the Philadelphia Times that Jeremiah Sheridan is to play the center at his regimental ball next year, while Pat Lawrence of same will be marshal of the day, and the secretary to send to the Raleigh Sentinel that the military of this city will unite with the citizens next week in their decoration of the rebel soldiers' graves. With the above good report and the rather early season we may look for a large representation from this city.

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.

HEAD QUARTERS
RALEIGH LIGHT INFANTRY,
Raleigh, May 27, 1875.

Feeling grateful to a merciful and all-wise Providence for a safe return to our homes and families, we feel also that much is due to the President and have thought of our Commander and officers, therefore be it

Resolved 1st. That the sincere and heartfelt thanks of this company be unanimously extended to Maj. D. C. Manly—our Captain—not only for his manifold qualifications as a high-toned gentleman, but for his strict military discipline and impartiality as a commander, during our recent visit to the Mecklenburg Centennial.

Resolved 2nd. That as our Captain fix has our hearts' truest affection and confidence, and we trust that naught but death alone will ever sever the ties that now bind him to us.

Resolved 3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be handed Capt. Manly, and that they be also inserted in the city papers.

THREE ORPHAN BOYS ON THE TRAMP.—Three orphan boys at the Oxford Asylum ran away the other day, and started for the Centennial at Charlotte. They footed it all around and finally found themselves at Hillsboro, only 36 miles from Oxford, when they had walked every inch of ninety miles. The boys were Alexander, Graham, and Land. The Friend says: Tuesday night they spent at the justly famous Bingham School. They were very kindly entertained and the boys gave them $1.50. On Wednesday they reached Company Shops and seemed anxious for a ride. So Mr. W. D. Faucett took them in custody and telegraphed the Superintendent, who came to his relief. But he relied on a sleepy "Ward of the Nation" to awake him on the arrival of the train going East. The train quietly passed and the poor sinner was forced to spend a day at Company Shops with two wild runaways on his hands. After breakfast, the boys began to show signs of preparation for escape; but their clothes needed washing and were sent to the washerwoman while they were compelled to return to bed. The boys begged for a hundred lashes and liberty. They hated the idea of going back as prisoners to Oxford. The other boys would taunt them. The girls would laugh at them, and their joyful Centennial would be blasted forever. At 3 p. m. the train came on and the runaways to the doleful dumps turned their faces towards Oxford and arrived there on Friday at 3 o'clock, p. m.

At Home.—The boys are rather crestfallen at the idea of being brought back, but the other children have been forbidden to tease them, or in any unpleasant way allude to their escapade, at which the runaways seem very much surprised and not a little pleased. They will hardly run away again.

RELIGIOUS.

Judge Ould delivers the welcome address on behalf of the Richmond association to the Y. M. C. A. in Richmond.

Who talks of "hard times" when a single pew in Dr. Hall's new Presbyterian church brings $7,300 cash under the hammer.

The Rev. C. W. Andrews, D. D., of Shepherdstown, West Virginia, one of the most eminent divines of the Episcopal church, died in Fredericksburg, Va., on Monday evening. He was on his way to attend the Episcopal Council held in Richmond last week. When he was taken sick and stopped in Fredericksburg with Riddell. He was sixty-eight years of age.

Rev. T. T. Eaton, the newly elected pastor of the First Baptist church, Petersburg, is well known and most highly esteemed by the Baptist ministers of Richmond. He was a gallant Confederate soldier, and at the close of the war entered Washington College in Lexington, where he graduated at the head of his class. While a student he was baptized by Rev. P. Wm. Jones into the Lexington Baptist church.—Petersburg News.

Mr. Wilson, while waiting at the railway station for a train to Little Rock, Ark., the other day, was shocked by the following conundrum: "Say, is Mr. Grant going to run for President next time?" "Well, I can't tell you, my friend," was the reply; "he has not yet informed his friends and the country what his intentions are." "Well, look," returned the inquisitive party, "if he don't run will run for the Presidency next year? Will he run for the Presidency, or the train, answered the astonished Boston Globe.

Telegraphic News.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 26.

The Ponca Indians visited the President to-day, who made a speech on the subject of another location for them. He did not want them to leave their homes where they were born without their consent, but would point out the advantages of entering into an agreement that he would propose through the Interior Department. The President alluded to the great difficulty in keeping the whites away from the Black Hills, and said such recurring year the difficulty would be greater unless the Indians grant the right to go to that country. No speeches were made by the Indians, except that Spotted Tail with some show of indignation denied that he had call the Secretary of Interior was a liar.

The Attorney-General Pierrepont has issued a circular that hereafter the practice of the District Attorneys of employing substitutes must be discontinued, and no compensation for such services rendered in the Department will be sanctioned.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

NORTH.

CLEVELAND, May 20.

In the Presbyterian General Assembly a resolution was adopted regretting that the negotiation relating to fraternal correspondence with the Southern Church failed. The Assembly however deems it inexpedient to press the question through another committee, and at the same time expresses unequivocally its confidence in the integrity and christian character of brethren of the Southern church.

TERRIBLE FALL OF A SCAFFOLD.

CINCINNATI, May 20.

A dispatch from Columbus says that while some men were at work on a scaffold putting a tin roof on the Central Ohio Lunatic Asylum, the scaffold gave way precipitating six of them to the ground, a distance of seventy feet, instantly killing three, named Geo. Brown, Jerry Ryan and Albert Gottlieb, and fatally injuring the other three named Ben Smith, Wm. Harmon and Fred Kuntz.

THE LADIES.

Mrs. Tilton is to open a summer boarding house.

Seven female clerks have been appointed in the Postoffice at New Orleans.

The guests and ladies at the Central Hotel last evening, were enlivened with solos fine music, a string band occupying the hall and Miss Minnie Eddins Roberts, of Shelby, "the North Carolina Mocking Bird," presiding at the piano in the parlor. Her vocal powers are as great as when our citizens heard her last, in the summer of '73.—Charlotte Observer.

Sheridan's bride and her wedding dress. "Bandits" Phil is soon to marry Miss Irene Thacker, and the Washington Chronicle chronicles the bride in advance of the wedding. It says: The bride's dress for the interesting ceremony is of soft, white Persian silk, thick and lustrous, with a shimmering lustre to its rich, thick cords like the reflection of pearl, over which all a gleaming lace. It will be made up in diagonal folds, the youth and beauty of the bride, and not a scrap of lace, however costly, will adorn its silky whiteness, but it will be trimmed with soft, downy, fleecy (silk?) The skirt will be cut in a princess train, with a distance of intricate design. The overskirt will be a marvel of manipulation and taste, the corsage will be high, with short sleeves. The long circular will be worn over this, falling to the hem of the train in the back, and nearly to the waist in front. It will be fastened on the dark hair of the brunette bride with a cincture of orange flowers. The corsage will be decorative of point duguise, the kind, and wherever a loop or fold is placed, it will be caught together by a spray of orange blossoms. Many of the decorative fabrics of this dress are entirely new French designs. The travelling dress will be of brown silk, trimmed very elaborately with the rare shades of silk and velvet to match. A hat to match, with long, drooping ostrich plume, several elegant hats have been ordered, the dress for ladies of white silk, with a profusion of flowers and costly French laces.

ATTENTION, DEMOCRATS.—There will be a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Conservative Democratic party of Wake County at the Capitol, in Raleigh, on Saturday, the 29th inst., at 12 o'clock, m. A full attendance is earnestly desired as matters of great importance will be presented for the consideration of the Committee.

Mr. Robert R. Duval died at Oxford, his residence, in Kent county early yesterday morning, before and during business in this city, and had many friends, who will be grieved to hear of his death.—Rich. Whig.

A post mortem examination of horses that have died of the disease prevailing in St. Louis made by a number of prominent physicians and veterinary surgeons shows conclusively that the disease is certain spinal meningitis. The malady is not spreading much and yields quite readily to treatment.

Dr. J. J. Youlin, of Jersey City, mailed a letter on the 23d of last month to his daughter in London. When she received it it was saturated with water, and the explanation was that it was a part of the contents of a mail bag on the ill-fated Schiller. The envelope has been sent back to Dr. Youlin as a memento of the terrible disaster.

A stiff doctor's bill. Ezekiah Cofil, a physician, has brought suit in San Francisco, Cal., against James Lick the millionaire for $50,000 and costs for medical services rendered during a period of twenty-two years, including board and lodging in plaintiff's hospital for twelve months. The defendant urges as a set-off the occupancy by the plaintiff of a small slip of ground, which the plaintiff avers would not be worth more than $2,500 for the whole period.

Rev. Dr. Miner, of Boston, says it's all a mistake about ministers' sons being such a hard lot, and adduces convincing figures. Out of thirty such youths at Tufts College, while he was president not one went to the bad, and only five of the sons of two hundred and sixty ministers in his own (Universalist) denomination verified the old proverb, which gets no better support in the statistics of other denominations.

Palace car privileges. An important railroad suit has just been decided at Auburn, N. Y., in which William B. Thorpe of that city was plaintiff, and the New York Central and Hudson Railroad company the defendant. The plaintiff set forth that he was unable to find a seat in any of the ordinary cars of the train while coming from Syracuse to Auburn, and took a seat in the Wagner drawing-room car. The conductor demanded extra fare from him, which he refused. The porter thereupon ejected him from the car, tearing his clothing and inflicting some slight scratches, on account of which he sued the company for $10,000 damages. The jury allowed plaintiff $1,000. According to this decision railroad companies are under obligations to furnish seats for all passengers, and if they are not to be obtained in the ordinary cars the drawing room car may be occupied without extra charge.

PERSONAL.

"How to Cook Rye Grasshoppers" is the title of a new work by the agricultural editor of the Chicago Tribune.

We are requested to state that Mr. Wm. H. Hayes, the champion billiard player of Virginia, and Mr. Scotch Palmer, the champion player of South Carolina, are in the city and will give several exhibitions of their skill at Gorkin's billiard parlor this evening. Wednesday

A Brooklyn paper announces that General Roger A. Pryor will appear no more in the theatrical case. His health is far from good, the last act of the courts having produced serious effects on his constitution. General Pryor's present engagement is a sea voyage, and he will shortly go to Virginia via the Atlantic.
