INFORMATION FOR THE PEOPLE.—The editor of the SENTINEL will address the citizens of Raleigh at the Court House on Saturday night, the 19th inst., at 8 o'clock, showing how the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line Railroad robbed the State of a part of Deep River, its locks and dams, and how under the semblance of law this corrupt corporation is daily robbing the State Treasury against the will of the Treasurer and the decision of the Supreme Court.

THE CONVICTS.—Ten of the penitentiary convicts have been farmed out in Franklin county to work on the new bridge.

Capt. Manley's Light Infantry parade this evening. No praise, no flattery, but the truth is they are the best drilled company in the State and the city is proud to boast them

FEDERAL COURT.—The Lewis case was concluded this morning and was followed by case of Satter vs. Johnston. Smith and Strong for plaintiff and Batchelor and Edwards for defendant.

SUPREME COURT.—The Wilmington charter case is still being argued. Col. Strange this morning concluded his argument for plaintiffs, was followed by Mr. Morton for defence, then Judge Fowle for same, and W. N. H. Smith followed for plaintiffs and will conclude to-morrow, when R. C. Badger will follow for defence and conclude the argument.

TWO MORE FACULTY.—In addition to the appointments published yesterday the Trustees of the University have appointed Mr. George P. Winston of Berlin adjunct Professor in the College of Literature, and Rev. A. F. Redd of this city to the chair of Natural Science. Mr. Winston is a promising young man about 24 years of age.

HAIL.—The rain storm we had here last Friday night was a terrific hail storm up the county. In Rockingham county it spread desolation in its path, and up a little further in Henry county, Va., it battered and dented houses like iron splints driven at them, and in some places even at 12 o'clock the next day bushels of hail stones could be gathered up.

WILMINGTON.—The ladies of the First Baptist church give a festival this evening.—Charles Fitzgerald died in Onslow the 7th.—The opening ball of the season, at Beaufort, night of 16th.—A sensible thing in the young men of Wilmington they are organizing an athletic club.—The Second Baptist church was set on fire on the 5th inst. Ward Boston Company put it out.

We offer Boots Reward.

GOOD HEAD-CAKE FOR A PREACHER.—There is stock in his token is a very pretty gold headed cane at the jewelry store of John C. Palmer, the stock for the handle of the wounded artillerymen Williams and Hopkins. The Hook and Ladder Company got up the cane and chances are sold for twenty-five cents. The stock is open to all who wish to invest and after several revolutions on the 19th will be held among all the shareholders in determining. Other premiums in the city shall have the cane.

NEW WAREHOUSE.—A rubber fire looking young man visited Raleigh a few days in the city yesterday building a warehouse for Judy Pennell was four old boy in last week, to see a lawyer about a man who had promised to marry her and then left her. This story appears to a most respectable man, who has left here and is now in Virginia, and who has left his wife and children here. He is a married man, and has a wife and children here. He is a married man, and has a wife and children here. He is a married man, and has a
