The City.

Two Thousand Cords of Wood—pine for sale and delivery cheap. J. D. WHITAKER. If you want a white roller, wear the Warwick. Ask any first-class furnisher for it. Twenty fine horses and mules just received and for sale by George W. Wynne & Co June 25-19. A good watering place for the Raleigh editor is the town pump. The SENTINEL office was dined today at the Exchange hotel on a vegetable and ice-cream dinner, with an abundance of Mr. Turner's favorite drink, ice cool buttermilk. SICKLY.—A young man too feeble to help his father weed corn in the garden walked all over the city that night singing tenor with a serenading party, and the girls lay whispering in their dreams "pin it back, pin it back." Not.—A letter from Mr. George A. Smith, Business Manager of the Vicksburg Herald, says he puts on two shirts and four collars a day trying to keep decent, the weather is so hot. Smith has more shirts for an editor than the law allows him. WILMINGTON.—Capt. John Hinson has left for his new home in Philadelphia. Young hawks for pets are hawked about Wilmington. The Journal has started a war against the cows, the hogs, the goats, the frogs, and if Wilmington doesn't rid herself of these pests it won't be the Journal's fault.—We gather from Star and Journal. MILTON.—Dick Watkins' barn, Halifax, Va., was struck by lightning, and a negro in the field killed.—The bridge over Richmond's pond, near Milton, washed away.—Rev. Sol. Lea, Leasburg, good man and knows no harm, but will have to pray now for the accident that robbed his crib of 5 barrels of corn.—Win. Paylor, Jr., Leasburg, had his smoke house robbed of $300 worth of bacon.—We take from Chronicle.

RAMSAY AT A SUGAR SOCIAL.—There was a very pleasant and successful sugar social held at Parks Church, Hay Bay, on Tuesday evening in connection with the lodge of Good Templars at that place. The church was filled and everything passed off most pleasantly and harmoniously. Abundance of warm sugar was served, and plenty of excellent music, vocal and instrumental, at which the young ladies of the place seem unusually well skilled. Mr. J. Q. Parks was called to the chair, and addresses were given by Rev. Mr. Farcott, Mr. T. W. Casey, and an excellent speech by Mr. Ramsay, of Raleigh, N. C., much to the gratification of all present.—Napawee (Canada) Express.

WHAT A SUGAR SOCIAL IS WE MUST WAIT FOR TIME AND RAMSAY TO COME AND TELL. SORRY INDEED.—We were sorry to see two of our friends engaged in a fist-cuff before the Barboursboro House this morning. Mine host, the affable stockholder of the News instead of taking hold stood by and said "Gentlemen, gentlemen, lie, for shame, lie, lie!" But the gentlemen were too much angered for shame, and they were not parted until Wm. Russ ran from the SENTINEL office and took hold, while the stockholder in the "leading journal," yearly for one dollar, called for peace! peace! when peace finally came, neither side injured, but like the court, both "exhausted." P. S. Knox Dunn, deputy sheriff, assisted in parting the parties, who were fined five dollars by the Mayor, and we hope are good friends again.

FITZ HUGH LEE IN BOSTON.—Gen. Fitz Hugh Lee has returned from Boston and made a speech in Norfolk last Monday night. He said: Oh! how I wish I had time to tell you of the reception accorded to us by those people of Boston—of the enthusiastic crowds that greeted us upon every occasion—how the streets were lined with people pouring out their welcomes to us, and bidding us welcome, thrice welcome. I wish I could stop with you long enough to give you some of the many interesting incidents of our trip. How a sightless soldier told me, "General, your boys put my eyes out, but I am glad to see you here in our midst; how an aged gentleman grasping my hand in his, said, "General, I lost two sons in the war—the only two I had—but for public consideration and for the nation's good, I am glad to see you and your people here at this time."

SUPREME COURT.—Yesterday the following cases from the 7th District were argued: Attorney General vs. John W. Hunt, from Person. Battle & Son for plaintiff, and Edwards and Battle and Sons for defendant. John W. Scott v. Elias Bryon, from Chatham. John Manning for plaintiff, and B. I. Howas and Tourgeon, and Gregory for defendant. William J. Blackwell vs. Wesley A. Wright, from Alamance. Merrimon, Fuller and Ashe for plaintiff, and Jones and J. W. Graham for defendant. Nunnans Gunno Company vs. Wm. H. Willard, from Orange. J. W. Graham for plaintiff, and Merrimon, Fuller and Ashe for defendant. Argument commenced.

PERSONAL. One of the finest fields of wheat in the neighborhood of Richmond belongs to Fitz Hugh Lee.

RELIGIOUS. They that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. The love of money is the root of all evil; which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

THE LADIES. Miss Helen M. Ely appears as the first girl graduate of Minnesota University with the anomalous degree of "Bachelor" of Arts.

FINE PRINT. Father Tom Burke, the great Irish orator, is dying of cancer of the stomach in Dublin.

FOREIGN. Emory Dyson's mill, at Preston, Lancaster, was burned last night. One hundred hands are thrown out of employment.—The loss by the fire is $100,000.

PERSONAL. Gabriel Max, a German artist, is said to have produced a painting with a most extraordinary characteristic. It is a representation of the face of a Savior. At a distance the eyes appear to be closed, but as one advances they open gradually until they bend upon the spectator a mournful and pathetic gaze. This remains until the visitor gets quite close to the painting when they are again closed.

PERSONAL. Harvard graduated its first class in 1637; William and Mary in 1692; Yale in 1792; Princeton in 1748; Pennsylvania University in 1753; Columbia, 1754; Brown University 1764; Dartmouth, 1769, and Rutgers in 1776, and Chapel Hill in 1798.

PERSONAL. The descendants of Samuel Adams have sent to Mayor Cobb of Boston a slab of Scotch granite to be placed in the coping of the fence of the Granary Burying Ground, on the Tremont-st. side. The slab is marked: "Samuel Adams, the Father of American Independence, born Sept. 23d, 1722; died Oct. 8th 1808."

PERSONAL. Young man, old man, you have joined the church. Be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. You say there's no use trying, you can't do it? Then you had better come out of the church and be a worse man than ever with the world.

PERSONAL. No organization is of any avail without a prompt attendance at all its meetings.

PERSONAL. It is a mistake that the Beecher trial will injure the cause of religion, on the other hand it will purify it. It is the hand of God unmasking the hypocrite, and jury or no jury, Beecher had proven himself unworthy his cloth in some secret way, or all this storm from the heavens would not now burst on his head. There is nothing more certain than at some day a man's sins will find him out.

PERSONAL. A young man has been arrested and taken to Staunton Va., for stealing a sewing machine.

PERSONAL. The Cambridge, O., Times has this advertisement: "Naked and trimmed ladies' hats at ———."

PERSONAL. Queen Victoria has created three field marshals. The first is Sir John Forster Fitzgerald, the second the Marquis of Tweeddale, and the third His Royal Highness Albert Edward, Prince of Wales. Sir John Forster Fitzgerald and the Marquis of Tweeddale stand first and second respectively in seniority on the list of general officers of the British army.

Telegraphic News.

THE GREAT EARTHQUAKE.—New York, June 24. The steamship Andes at this port from Maranhao brought further particulars concerning the recent terrible earthquake which destroyed the town of Cucuta in New Granada from persons who had reached Maranhao from Cucuta shortly before the steamer sailed. It was learned that the loss of life and property was much greater than at first supposed. Cucuta and all the surrounding villages within radius of 20 miles were completely destroyed by the severity of the shock; many serious losses of life and property also were occasioned by the rum and by band of robbers who organized immediately after the shock had passed away for the purpose of plundering the houses prostrated.

FROM WASHINGTON. Washington, June 24. Postmaster-General returns to-morrow. Work on the public buildings of Chicago stopped on account of the unfavorable report of the committee regarding foundation and material.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. CO-PARTNERSHIP FORMERLY EXISTING under the name and style of Ellington, Atkins & Co., was dissolved on the 20th day of April last by mutual consent. Mr. J. M. Shearin having purchased Mr. J. McC. Ellington's entire interest in the Machinery, Contracting, Dressing and Manufacturing business, will continue under the name and style of the firm of Atkins, Thompson & Shearin. The unfinished contracts will be completed by the old firm. All persons indebted are requested to make immediate payments, and those having claims will please present them.

PERSONAL. The case of Count Von Arnim was decided by the Kammergericht to-day. He was convicted of abstracting with intent state papers of the character of public deeds entrusted to him, and sentenced to nine months imprisonment including one month that has already expired. The court declares that there was no ground for the charge of embezzlement or offences against public order.

DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.

A new and dangerous counterfeit was discovered at the National Bank Redemption Agency of the 85 notes of the First National Bank of Canton, Ill. This is evidently changed from the plate on which the counterfeit on the Traders' National Bank of Chicago and the First National Bank of Paxton Ill., was printed.

ROMANTIC SUICIDE AND PROB- A LE MURDER.—New York, June 24. An unknown man about forty years of age, with brown hair, having three fingers missing from the right hand, hired a boat from the battery, and accompanied by a woman who gave her name as Sophie Schaeffer, aged 24, rowed to the middle of the river, ostensibly with the purpose of visiting some islands. When more than half way across, the man took a revolver from his pocket and fired three times at the woman, the balls entering the leg, abdomen and arm. He then shot himself in the breast and died immediately.

LOSS OF THIS TRIAL.—As soon as the court adjourned Mr. Beach and Mr. Everts stood up and grasped each other by the hand as they mutually congratulated one another upon their conduct of the case. Mr. Beecher was surrounded by his friends, and a sturdy-looking son of Albion, grasping the hand of the illustrious defendant, said "Mr Beecher, I am an Englishman, but I would rather shake hands with you than I would with the Queen." Mr. Beecher laughed pleasantly as he returned the friendly pressure of the stranger's palm, and with similar peculiar episodes the hundred and twelfth day of the greatest trial in Christendom closed.
