Telegraphic News.

BEECHER-TILTON. New York, June 26. Judge Nelson adjourned the court indefinitely, stating that if the jury should announce an agreement he would bring them in an hour after.

An afternoon paper says complaint was made by a citizen to Judge Nelson last night concerning the outside communication of parties with the Tilton-Beecher jury. The story is that certain advocates of the cause of the plaintiff have been seen to enter the jury room persuading waiters carrying the food and liquor for the jurymen. The officers in charge of the door to the jury room indignantly deny this report as a base fabrication. The Judge has, however, directed the Sergeant to keep a more vigilant watch upon the Jurors. Another paper says Mrs. Beecher dropped to the floor of her residence this morning with an attack of heart disease, before she went to the court.

REVOLUTION IN MEXICO. SAN FRANCISCO, June 25. The captain of the steamship Vasco De Gama from Lower California, reports that the revolution at La Paz is in full tide of success. Four hundred federal troops have been sent to quell the movement. The situation is very critical. The United States ship Narragansett is lying off La Paz.

THE COLLECTION OF TAX ON LIQUOR. CINCINNATI, June 26. A dispatch from Detroit, says Judge Cochran, of the Supreme Court, has granted an injunction restraining the collection of tax from the liquor dealers under the new law. The effect of this will be to stop all proceedings until the Supreme Court has passed upon the constitutionality of measure.

FROM RIO JANEIRO. RIO JANEIRO, June 26. The Minister of Viscount of Rio Branco has resigned and a new cabinet has been formed with the Duke of Caxias as President and Minister of War. Baron Cotegipo is Minister of Foreign Affairs.

FROM PENNSYLVANIA. PHILADELPHIA, June 26. The scaffolding at shaft No. 2 of the Susquehanna Coal company, at East Nauteooke, fell this morning, instantly killing 6 men. A miner was killed here this morning by falling down shaft No. 1 of D. & H. Coal Company.

INUNDATION IN FRANCE. PARIS, June 26. Eighty persons were drowned in Verdun. Eight hundred houses have fallen in Toulouse. It is said the loss of life will aggregate one thousand.

FINE PRINT. The Democrats of Illinois are talking of running C. H. McCormick, of reaper notoriety, for Governor.

A rattlesnake four and a half feet long and sporting six rattles was killed on Main street, Meriden, Conn., the other day.

Journalistic statistics show that during last year the sum of at least $8,000,000 was lost in newspaper enterprise in the United States.

A Jefferson county (Ga.) farmer owns two thousand head of sheep, which have netted him this season one dollar a head besides the increase of the stock.

A Heldon correspondent to Rowell's New York Reporter says: Mr. Jordan Stone has recently changed from business manager to associate editor of the Daily News at Raleigh.

It is known that the Duke of Edinburgh has written several pieces of music, and it is now stated that his most ambitious composition, a concerto in E minor, is soon to be published under his own name.

Last year W. P. Ragdale bought a farm in Pittsylvania county, Va., of 128 acres, for which he paid $890, and with the assistance of one hand he raised on about five acres of this land, a tobacco crop last season which brought him, after paying all warehouse expenses, the sum of $2,160.

It is presumed the finest lot of short-horn cattle in the world are now in temporary quarters in Jersey City. They are fourteen in all, and have been selected by experienced buyers from every part of the United States and Canada, at the most fabulous cost of $125,000. They are the property of Mr. George W. Fox, the foreign partner of Mr. A. T. Stewart, of New York City, and will be shipped by the steamer Holland on Thursday next to England.

PERSONAL.

It has been decided in France that if a surgeon amputates a man's leg he is entitled to full remuneration, even though he does not satisfy the man as to the disposition of the amputated part.

In one of the French departments there is a "Society for the Protection of Birds Useful to the Farmer." All nests found are reported to the society and protected by it. In the past year the society protected 213 nests, from which came 904 birds.

Vice-President Wilson in his recent trip to the South, "visited the graves of Jackson and Clay, of Taylor and Polk, of Crittenden, Hell and Benton"—the graves in fact, of men who had been President, men who should have been President, and men who wanted to be President.

In England the Methodists intend to appeal against the decision of Mr. Phillimore, which forbids their preachers the use of the title of "Reverend." Their appeal must be to the Court of Arches, and will be decided by Sir R. Phillimore, father of the other.

The Beecher jury have been out two nights and days and it was thought would probably bring in their verdict to-day. The courtroom is thronged, inside and outside, and the wildest speculations as to the result are rife. Tilton is said to be gaining ground with the Brooklynites.

"Perhaps I am too cold a man for the Presidency," said Charles Francis Adams, dropping languidly into a chair and gazing despondently at the thermometer. "But I began wrong," he muttered; "I never robbed a mother bird of her little ones, or poured molasses into my grandfather's boots."—Louisville Commercial.

RELIGIOUS. The Executive Committee of the American Baptist Missionary Union has requested the churches to take up on the fourth of July, which falls this year on Sunday, a collection in aid of its depleted treasury.

Mr. John Wauwamaker writes to Mr. George H. Stuart, of Philadelphia in relation to Messrs. Moody and Sankey that the most popular book in London now is their hymn book, Men and boys on the street sing and whistle "Hold the Fort" and other hymns.

The Irish Presbyterian Assembly began its annual meeting at Londonderry, Monday, June 7. The Rev. Prof. Porter was elected Moderator. The questions of the use of instrumental music and the singing of hymns is expected to come up for discussion again.

The closing services of Messrs. Moody and Sankey in the East End of London were attended by enormous congregations. The final meeting, held in Bow-road Hall, June 8, was attended by 15,000 persons, and the services of the last three days, it is estimated, were attended by 80,000 persons.

THE LADIES. A Schenectady girl at spelling school sat down on "pantalons."

"No," said Mrs. Podgers, very positively. "If I go into the country, Mr. Podgers goes with me." This city ain't no safe place to leave a man alone in."

How a woman can keep on talking while she twists up her back hair and has her mouth full of hairpins is a mystery not yet explained.—Carl Prentiss.

It is the sagacious remark of a keen observer that you can generally tell a newly married couple at the dinner table, by the indignation of the groom when a fly alights on the bride's butter.

The Southern Presbyterian General Assembly which met at St. Louis, resolved to purge its records of all references to politics. The resolution is thus worded: "That a committee be appointed to review the records of our Church courts, and to eliminate therefrom everything which would give it such (i. e. a secular) tinge; and that we here resolve and declare that we are and intend to be a non-sectarian and non-political Church."

A London correspondent says that the Princess of Wales is leading the ascotic fashions this year. Here is a description of one of her dresses: It is of Edinburgh cloth, and embroidered in part-colored garlands, into which are ingeniously embroidered the monogram and crest of the princess. The monogram is allonge in Italian fashion, and the crown embroidered upon three overlapping pieces crossing at the sides of the skirt. Similar embroidery is reproduced on the corsage, which is cut on the bias of the cloth.

STOKES COUNTY—THE CROPS THE PEOPLE WITH TURNER.

STOKES Co., June 24, 1876. Hon. Josiah Turner—Dear Sir:

Please find enclosed three dollars for my subscription for Weekly Sentinel which has been due some months. I believe there is no news in the political line at this time excepting some independent candidates who are striving to create some discord in our ranks. Farmers are very busy just now. Wheat harvest which is about over has taken us from our corn and tobacco crops, and the grass has gotten hold during the wet weather. Wheat is good in this section. A very large crop of corn and tobacco has been planted, and if the season is favorable abundant crops will be raised. The people only wish you as great success against the rings and ring papers as you had against Holden, Littlefield & Co.

With great respect, adieu, U. M. LARLEY.

CHARLOTTE.—Mr. Carter of the Lancaster (S. C.) Ledger is in town and small families adore him, he is 35 years of age, and family nine children.—The bald heads in Charlotte are much annoyed by the fly season.—Four Charlotte ladies were presented with regalia by the marshals at Davidson College.—Avery of the Observer is visiting in Johnston county.—A letter was mailed in Charlotte bearing the following direction: "Louisville, Kentucky, Mr. C. B. Cooke, the president of Collard Philology Institution, Box 13, if not, Mr. Postmaster, I wish you to place it in Mr. C. B. Cooke's box so he will get it, I am not sure of his box—being 13, but the postmaster will please be so kind as to send this letter in the Collard Philology mail."—We call from Observer.

NEWBERN.—Large flocks of pelicans visit Beaufort, the first time in many years.—Clem Manly of Newbern is mentioned among the distinguished scholars at Georgetown in Rhetoric and English Literature.—The following stockholders directors have been elected for the Atlantic Road: John Patterson, J. L. Morehead, E. B. Stanly and N. B. Dunsen.—The gauge of Atlantic Road will not be changed till approved by the stockholders in meeting for that purpose.—We take from Times.

Boss Tweed is occupying Warden Dunham's apartments in Ludlow-street jail. They consist of a parlor, reception room and bedroom. They are elegantly furnished and his hotel bill will amount to nearly as much as though he had taken rooms at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Whatever he desires to eat is furnished him. The nervous excitement of Tuesday proved too much for Mr. Tweed, and on Wednesday he was attended by his physician. He absolutely refuses to see all callers, of whom there have been several hundred, and no one but counsel and members of the family are admitted.

A SUICIDE'S REASON FOR KILLING HIMSELF.—On Saturday last a respectable dressed man, who registered his name as John Schneider and his address as New York, took a room at French's Hotel, in that city. Within the next three days he drank freely, but was not at any time intoxicated. On Wednesday at 1 o'clock he went to his room, and a few hours later he was found stretched on the floor, his head and face beamed with blood and a navy revolver near his right hand. The following letter, written in German, to some unmentioned friends, was found on his person: "Dear Friends: The step I am now compelled to take is very unpleasant. I am shaking all over my body so I can hardly write these lines. Thousands of dollars I have lost, thousands I have invested in goods, and thousands I have trusted out. Now I cannot receive a cent from anybody, notwithstanding I am so hard up. I cannot work with my own hands, so I have to take this unpleasant step. I am sorry I have to leave this world in good health, and sorry to leave those I have helped so often. I take this step most against my will—not so much because of myself as on account of my two sons, to whom the disgrace of my death may attach. But I cannot remain in this world any longer. God is my witness. So now farewell, and if I have injured any one I ask forgiveness. But for the last four or five years there has been so much bad luck and times have been so hard, my only course now is to do what I can about it. No doubt there are more who will soon be driven to the same death. God have mercy! Here close one that is not a bad man."

A REMARKABLE HAIL STORM.—Mr. W. B. Sharpe writes us of a remarkable hail storm in Davis and Davidson counties the 12th of this month. He says: "The largest stones I heard of were at Josiah Byerley's a mile east of Yadin College in Davidson county. Mr. Byerley is a man of good judgment and undoubted veracity. He told me that stones fell in his yard larger round than the mouth of a pint cup and which measured 11 1/2 inches in circumference; the yard was covered with stones the size of a goose egg. At the College the glass windows were broken and the roof of one house literally riddled with the stones. Much damage was done the wheat on plantations about the neighborhood of Fulton.

PEACE INSTITUTE—CLOSING EXERCISES.—The address of Rev. Dr. Hoge on Wednesday morning at 11 A. M. Announcement of distinctions, exhibition of drawing, paintings, &c. The public are invited to these exercises. The annual concert on Wednesday evening at 8 P. M. Owing to the limited seating capacity of the Chapel, and the consequent inability to render comfortable so large a crowd as usually attend the concerts, the Principals are obliged to restrict the admission to the concert to those holding tickets of invitation. The Studio for the examination of the drawing and paintings of the young ladies will open to the public on Tuesday afternoon from 4 until 7 P. M., and Wednesday from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M.

SUNDAY IN RALEIGH.—Our reporter spent yesterday in Greensboro and therefore no report of Sunday appears in this paper.

CAPTURED EAGLE.—A young eagle, proud, valiant looking, strong of limb and proud in eye, is in a coop on Hargett street, the property of Mr. John B. Hill, who brought him down the other day nine miles from the city. He broke one of his wings, and now has the wounded wing bandaged up.

SUPERIOR COURT.—Wake Superior Court was to have opened to-day. Largest crowd in years seen on the green. Judge Watts, one of the angels of the Canby constitution, didn't arrive till late in the evening, and the farmers who had left their crops looking grubby hoes at him.

SUPREME COURT.—Following cases in the Eighth District were argued to-day: Rowan county: H. B. and S. M. Armfield vs. John D. Brown and others.—Chas. Price et al., vs. H. C. Eccles.—Davie county: Jas. Jordan vs. Jas. B. Lanier.—John J. Park vs. Thos. H. Galtier.

WILMINGTON.—The masons of St. John's Lodge will lay the corner stone of the temple of Israel.—Wilmington has formed a rifle club to shoot on Eagle Island. Six juvenile crews have entered a boat each for the rowing race to take place at 5:30 this evening.—Watermelons were in market Friday.—We take from Star and Journal.

A BOY DROWNED ON SUNDAY.—On yesterday, in Swift Creek, nine miles south of here, Hally Banks, a boy, aged thirteen years, and son of William Banks, was drowned, while bathing in its waters, in company with two other lads, the sons of Doctor Banks. Hally couldn't swim and suddenly found himself in six-foot water; the boys gave the cry as they saw him sink, and his Uncle, Marcellus Banks, ran to the Creek and swam to where the boy sank, and dragged him up thirty minutes after he had gone down the last time, but all efforts at resuscitation were in vain.

GREENSBORO.—Next Sunday being the fourth of July Rev. Jacob Henry Smith will preach at the Presbyterian church a national sermon in the morning, and at night a sermon on the declaration of independence. Mr. Smith also gave notice to his church that in the morning a public examination of the Sunday School would take place, the classes to be examined on the geography of Palestine. Mr. Smith declaring his surprise that so few knew anything of the way into Palestine from out of Norfolk or any other of our ports.
