

Published by J. D. WHITAKER, STATE PRINTER AND BINDER. RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily Sentinel 1 year in advance $10.00

Daily Sentinel

VOL. X. RALEIGH, N. C. TUESDAY, JUNE 29, 1875. No. 277.

The City

Two Thousand Cords of Wood—plow for sale and delivery cheap by J. D. WHITAKER.

If you want a wide collar, wear the Warwick. Ask any first-class furrier for it.

Twenty fine horses and mules just received and for sale by George W. Wynne & Co. June 28-19.

They have postponed the poll tax business until next court.

UNIVERSITY OF VA.—This time honored old University closes its fiftieth year to-morrow and will be celebrated by the Alumni at a semi-centennial occasion.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—At a regular session of Raleigh Lodge, No. 65, I. O. O. F., held last evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

A SAD FATE.—Howing a boat in a pond near Tarboro' were two young ladies, each fresh sixteen, and one, Miss Hester Pippin, just on vacation from the famous St. Mary's of this city.

THREE RICHMOND DOCTORS.—It was Dr. McGuire of Richmond, Va., that injected Mr. Putney's wife with five drops of morphia, just above the elbow, and she died the same night.

THE CITY

A gold headed cane will be presented Rev. A. W. Mangum this evening.

A number of bastardy cases in court this evening and the negro women from the country flocked the courthouse door like four and twenty black birds all in a line.

Mr. Jefferson Lovejoy has taught school in this city ever since he was twenty years of age and has never missed a single day. He has taught fifteen hundred boys.

A young foreman is he, hardly just free, Mr. Seymour Whiting, the excellent clerk at Andrews' clothing store, and a model young man of the town.

THE BLIND.—The deaf mutes and blind have all gone home to take a vacation and mingle among friends, all gone save three, one little girl, and two little boys, all blind, no home, no pa rents, and nothing to remember save the poorhouse they were sent from.

Question by Dr. Welford: What was your opinion of my belief as to the cause of her death? Answer: You said nothing to make me believe that you thought it was caused by morphia, but I was fully convinced that it was from what I saw and what she told me; and if the doctors had expressed a contrary opinion it would not have changed my belief in the matter.

Question by Dr. Welford: When did you learn my opinion as to the cause of your wife's death? Answer: I first learned it from the report in the June No. of the Virginia Medical Monthly, and was much surprised when I read that report.

Question by Dr. Welford: Do you know what Mrs. W.'s opinion? Answer: She was as much surprised as I was when she read the report, as she had heard nothing from you to make her think you had that opinion. This was a month after the occurrence.

WILMINGTON.—Cabbages in market that will weigh 15 pounds.—Bishop Atkinson preached Sunday at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Six children buried during last week.—We take from Star and Journal.

NOT HEARD FROM.—The Chairman of the late County Convention, Mr. G. H. Alfred, addressed notes to the State Treasurer and to the Attorney General in accordance with the resolutions passed. No answer as yet has been had from either of these high officials.

CHARLOTTE.—The shoemakers are going to have one, we mean a picnic.—Little child of Mr. and Mrs. Melts of Wilmington died at Central Hotel of diphtheria.—W. H. Bailey and D. M. Fiches want to be Judge in Mitchell's place.—Two killed and five wounded from an accident on the Carolina Central Road.—We take from Observer.

SUPREME COURT.—The court got through the 8th district and took up two State cases and argued them from the 9th. State vs. Burke of Rutherford for highway robbery, and State vs. Gladden of Cleveland for murder. Gladden was a one armed man and struck and killed a man with a stick, hit with his left hand. The killing was admitted and the argument plead manslaughter and not murder.

THREE RICHMOND DOCTORS.—It was Dr. McGuire of Richmond, Va., that injected Mr. Putney's wife with five drops of morphia, just above the elbow, and she died the same night. She was complaining at the time of a pain at the pit of her stomach, her husband was afraid a labor pain, but the doctor said it was colic. Ten minutes after McGuire left Mrs. Putney remarked that she felt composed but had not been asleep, and told her husband to dismiss the nurse and come to bed. He sat by the bed and in fifteen minutes was alarmed by the heavy breathing of his wife. He shook her and applied ice, and she seemed startled and told him that the morphia was affecting her as it did her mother, that she felt it all over her, and begged him to use the ice and bay rum. He then noticed her hands twitching and she was soon struggling in his arms in a spasm. This time he sent for Dr. McGill and when the doctor came, Putney said to him, "My wife has had morphia inserted into her arm and is insensible." McGill immediately wrote a prescription. Then came Dr. Welford and he and McGill consulted together and Welford also wrote a prescription. The lady died. The result gave rise to talk implicating the professional character of Dr. McGuire, and this led to a personal difficulty some days since between McGuire and Welford in the Academy of Medicine. But Welford and McGill have since appeared in a card in the Richmond Enquirer showing themselves clear of any insinuating or unprofessional words against Dr. McGuire, and besides giving the following evidence from Mr. Putney the lady's husband, as questioned by Dr. Welford:

Question by Dr. Welford: Who was present at the house during this time? Answer: Mrs. W. and a servant woman were the only persons in the room, and the only grown person about the house. Mrs. H. and Mrs. J. came in after the death. Mrs. S. came during Dr. Welford's absence after medicine. Question by Dr. Welford: What medical opinion did I express toward you during the whole time? Answer: You expressed no medical opinion except to state that she was extremely ill. Question by Dr. Welford: What was your opinion of my belief as to the cause of her death? Answer: You said nothing to make me believe that you thought it was caused by morphia, but I was fully convinced that it was from what I saw and what she told me; and if the doctors had expressed a contrary opinion it would not have changed my belief in the matter. Question by Dr. Welford: When did you learn my opinion as to the cause of your wife's death? Answer: I first learned it from the report in the June No. of the Virginia Medical Monthly, and was much surprised when I read that report. Question by Dr. Welford: Do you know what Mrs. W.'s opinion? Answer: She was as much surprised as I was when she read the report, as she had heard nothing from you to make her think you had that opinion. This was a month after the occurrence.

Question by Dr. Welford: Who was present at the house during this time? Answer: Mrs. W. and a servant woman were the only persons in the room, and the only grown person about the house. Mrs. H. and Mrs. J. came in after the death. Mrs. S. came during Dr. Welford's absence after medicine. Question by Dr. Welford: What medical opinion did I express toward you during the whole time? Answer: You expressed no medical opinion except to state that she was extremely ill. Question by Dr. Welford: What was your opinion of my belief as to the cause of her death? Answer: You said nothing to make me believe that you thought it was caused by morphia, but I was fully convinced that it was from what I saw and what she told me; and if the doctors had expressed a contrary opinion it would not have changed my belief in the matter. Question by Dr. Welford: When did you learn my opinion as to the cause of your wife's death? Answer: I first learned it from the report in the June No. of the Virginia Medical Monthly, and was much surprised when I read that report. Question by Dr. Welford: Do you know what Mrs. W.'s opinion? Answer: She was as much surprised as I was when she read the report, as she had heard nothing from you to make her think you had that opinion. This was a month after the occurrence.

Question by Dr. Welford: Who was present at the house during this time? Answer: Mrs. W. and a servant woman were the only persons in the room, and the only grown person about the house. Mrs. H. and Mrs. J. came in after the death. Mrs. S. came during Dr. Welford's absence after medicine. Question by Dr. Welford: What medical opinion did I express toward you during the whole time? Answer: You expressed no medical opinion except to state that she was extremely ill. Question by Dr. Welford: What was your opinion of my belief as to the cause of her death? Answer: You said nothing to make me believe that you thought it was caused by morphia, but I was fully convinced that it was from what I saw and what she told me; and if the doctors had expressed a contrary opinion it would not have changed my belief in the matter. Question by Dr. Welford: When did you learn my opinion as to the cause of your wife's death? Answer: I first learned it from the report in the June No. of the Virginia Medical Monthly, and was much surprised when I read that report. Question by Dr. Welford: Do you know what Mrs. W.'s opinion? Answer: She was as much surprised as I was when she read the report, as she had heard nothing from you to make her think you had that opinion. This was a month after the occurrence.

Question by Dr. Welford: Who was present at the house during this time? Answer: Mrs. W. and a servant woman were the only persons in the room, and the only grown person about the house. Mrs. H. and Mrs. J. came in after the death. Mrs. S. came during Dr. Welford's absence after medicine. Question by Dr. Welford: What medical opinion did I express toward you during the whole time? Answer: You expressed no medical opinion except to state that she was extremely ill. Question by Dr. Welford: What was your opinion of my belief as to the cause of her death? Answer: You said nothing to make me believe that you thought it was caused by morphia, but I was fully convinced that it was from what I saw and what she told me; and if the doctors had expressed a contrary opinion it would not have changed my belief in the matter. Question by Dr. Welford: When did you learn my opinion as to the cause of your wife's death? Answer: I first learned it from the report in the June No. of the Virginia Medical Monthly, and was much surprised when I read that report. Question by Dr. Welford: Do you know what Mrs. W.'s opinion? Answer: She was as much surprised as I was when she read the report, as she had heard nothing from you to make her think you had that opinion. This was a month after the occurrence.

Question by Dr. Welford: Who was present at the house during this time? Answer: Mrs. W. and a servant woman were the only persons in the room, and the only grown person about the house. Mrs. H. and Mrs. J. came in after the death. Mrs. S. came during Dr. Welford's absence after medicine. Question by Dr. Welford: What medical opinion did I express toward you during the whole time? Answer: You expressed no medical opinion except to state that she was extremely ill. Question by Dr. Welford: What was your opinion of my belief as to the cause of her death? Answer: You said nothing to make me believe that you thought it was caused by morphia, but I was fully convinced that it was from what I saw and what she told me; and if the doctors had expressed a contrary opinion it would not have changed my belief in the matter. Question by Dr. Welford: When did you learn my opinion as to the cause of your wife's death? Answer: I first learned it from the report in the June No. of the Virginia Medical Monthly, and was much surprised when I read that report. Question by Dr. Welford: Do you know what Mrs. W.'s opinion? Answer: She was as much surprised as I was when she read the report, as she had heard nothing from you to make her think you had that opinion. This was a month after the occurrence.

Question by Dr. Welford: Who was present at the house during this time? Answer: Mrs. W. and a servant woman were the only persons in the room, and the only grown person about the house. Mrs. H. and Mrs. J. came in after the death. Mrs. S. came during Dr. Welford's absence after medicine. Question by Dr. Welford: What medical opinion did I express toward you during the whole time? Answer: You expressed no medical opinion except to state that she was extremely ill. Question by Dr. Welford: What was your opinion of my belief as to the cause of her death? Answer: You said nothing to make me believe that you thought it was caused by morphia, but I was fully convinced that it was from what I saw and what she told me; and if the doctors had expressed a contrary opinion it would not have changed my belief in the matter. Question by Dr. Welford: When did you learn my opinion as to the cause of your wife's death? Answer: I first learned it from the report in the June No. of the Virginia Medical Monthly, and was much surprised when I read that report. Question by Dr. Welford: Do you know what Mrs. W.'s opinion? Answer: She was as much surprised as I was when she read the report, as she had heard nothing from you to make her think you had that opinion. This was a month after the occurrence.

Question by Dr. Welford: Who was present at the house during this time? Answer: Mrs. W. and a servant woman were the only persons in the room, and the only grown person about the house. Mrs. H. and Mrs. J. came in after the death. Mrs. S. came during Dr. Welford's absence after medicine. Question by Dr. Welford: What medical opinion did I express toward you during the whole time? Answer: You expressed no medical opinion except to state that she was extremely ill. Question by Dr. Welford: What was your opinion of my belief as to the cause of her death? Answer: You said nothing to make me believe that you thought it was caused by morphia, but I was fully convinced that it was from what I saw and what she told me; and if the doctors had expressed a contrary opinion it would not have changed my belief in the matter. Question by Dr. Welford: When did you learn my opinion as to the cause of your wife's death? Answer: I first learned it from the report in the June No. of the Virginia Medical Monthly, and was much surprised when I read that report. Question by Dr. Welford: Do you know what Mrs. W.'s opinion? Answer: She was as much surprised as I was when she read the report, as she had heard nothing from you to make her think you had that opinion. This was a month after the occurrence.

Question by Dr. Welford: Who was present at the house during this time? Answer: Mrs. W. and a servant woman were the only persons in the room, and the only grown person about the house. Mrs. H. and Mrs. J. came in after the death. Mrs. S. came during Dr. Welford's absence after medicine. Question by Dr. Welford: What medical opinion did I express toward you during the whole time? Answer: You expressed no medical opinion except to state that she was extremely ill. Question by Dr. Welford: What was your opinion of my belief as to the cause of her death? Answer: You said nothing to make me believe that you thought it was caused by morphia, but I was fully convinced that it was from what I saw and what she told me; and if the doctors had expressed a contrary opinion it would not have changed my belief in the matter. Question by Dr. Welford: When did you learn my opinion as to the cause of your wife's death? Answer: I first learned it from the report in the June No. of the Virginia Medical Monthly, and was much surprised when I read that report. Question by Dr. Welford: Do you know what Mrs. W.'s opinion? Answer: She was as much surprised as I was when she read the report, as she had heard nothing from you to make her think you had that opinion. This was a month after the occurrence.

THE LADIES.—The gratifying progress of the woman's rights movement was exemplified last week at Blaine, in a funeral with eight female pall-bearers.

Miss. Patti-Caux appeared at a fancy dress ball in London as Rebecca (of "Irene's") She wore a costume that was almost entirely studded with diamonds.

A Louisville girl reports her first love affair thus: "When Philander told me he loved me I was mighty tick with it and cottoned to him directly, and he sat a-grinning like a baked skunk."

A Richmond paper reports that at Christianburg, in that State the other day, a clergyman about sixty years old married a young couple, and afterwards was challenged by the bride for a foot race. The distance was measured and the old parson and the young bride took the position, and upon the drop of a hat the race began. The young lady, though encumbered by her surroundings, fairly flew ahead of the old stager for a moment. When, however, the sparin got the use of his limbs, and fairly under way, he caught up with the nimble gazelle, and passed under the pole well in the lead, to the amusement of all.

Mr. Bliven, an old bachelor of Rochester, who is much absorbed in politics, visited the widow Graham the other day, just after reading Grant's letter, and asked her what she thought of a third term. Now, the widow has been twice married, and in response to the question she made a rush for the astounded Mr. Bliven, and taking him lightly in her arms exclaimed: "O, you dear, dear man! What a happy woman I am!" At last accounts Mr. B. had locked himself in his wood-house, and was endeavoring to explain things to the widow through the keyhole.

Woman always the same. "Hannah," pleaded a weak voice, "don't swear agin me." "O, wost I tho' you brute," responded a shrill female tongue; "I'll learn you better's to come a bruisin' about house a' zero in the mornin'!" "But I didn't do nothin'!" "That's it; you never do nothin'; you sling your time away, a-foolin' about the streets and wearin' your pants off on barrels and goods boxes waitin' for somethin' to turn up, instead of gettin' around and turnin' somethin' up, while I'm kept at home a washin' and a mendin' and a nursin' Tommy, and he a teethin'!" "Is poor little Tommy teethin'?" "T'rees a comin' below and two above."

"Poor little Tommy!" "Don't cry, John." "But I can't help it, Hannah. Five little white teeth a-comin', and I won't be there when they come!" "Won't be there, John!" "No, Hannah, you've had me switched up for disturbin' the peace, and that is thirty days in the 'boose'" "Don't take on so, John. I'll go to the 'boose with you and take Tommy along."

"Say you won't swear agin me, Hannah." "I won't, John." "Come to my arms, old gal! I'll buy you a new calico dress, and we'll go to the fireworks on the Fourth of July. Tommy shall have a rubber ring and a bottle of syrup, and you'll come to my arms Hannah!"

Here the husband drew the little woman over the railing and frantically kissed her, while Tommy set up a jubilee of crying; and soon after John was discharged for want of evidence.—St. Joseph (Mo.) Gazette.

RELIGIOUS.—The English Baptists are prosecuting their foreign missions with especial energy and success. During the past year 3,546 converts have been baptized.

The lack of a sufficient membership to sustain a church in Kingston, N. C., has forced the Presbyterians to sell their recently erected church building to the Episcopalians.

Telegraphic News

SHOOTING AT WASHINGTON. WASHINGTON, June 28, 1875. A difficulty occurred here about half past twelve o'clock last night between Charles Goodman and Samuel Wooden, two well-known sporting characters, during which Wooden was shot by Goodman in two places, one ball taking effect in the left leg, below the hip, and the other in the right, directly below the abdomen, both of them being dangerous wounds. Before the firing Wooden made several cuts at Goodman with a pocket-knife, though none of them penetrated beyond the cloth of his coat. The difficulty originated about a woman, Goodman was arrested.

LYNCHING IN INDIANA. INDIANAPOLIS, June 28. Kurner, the negro who committed the outrage on the wife of Mr. Vaughan, near Carthage, Hancock county, in the early part of this week, was brought to Greensboro from Nashville for safe keeping. This morning, between one and two o'clock, a mob of about 100 masked and armed men, said to be from Hancock, Shelby and Bush counties, broke open the jail, took the negro out and hung him from the stails at the Fair Ground. The affair created the most intense excitement at Greensboro this morning; but no arrests of the parties implicated have been made.

SENATOR JONES' HORSES. BOERXON, Mass., June 26. Six horses, purchased in this city for Senator Jones, of Nevada, were to-day shipped to him. Among them are the noted trotters Sweet Briar and Lady Otis, for which the sum of $15,000 was paid. The others include a pair of saddle horses and a pair of carriage horses.

PERSONAL.—Henry M. Hyams, ex-Lieutenant Governor of Louisiana, died in New Orleans on Friday, aged seventy years. We learn that the Agent of the N. C. Railroad at this place has paid to shippers about $6,000 for freight destroyed by the late fire, when the Depot building was consumed.—Char. Dem.

A farmer from the upper end of the county, last week brought to the city about 100 quarts of cherries and sold them speedily at ten and fifteen cents per quart. That's better than cotton.—Char. Dem.

The prominent citizens of Norfolk, Va., gave a picnic Saturday, in compliment to the army and navy officers stationed in that vicinity, in return for courtesies extended to the Norfolk Blues on their return from Boston.

A King of the Cannibal Islands has just died in Paris, where he had lived many years comfortably on money earned by exhibiting himself in this country after the English drove him out of his own.

It is recorded that M. Thiers once had his hat knocked off by some fixture in front of a shop in Paris, and he was so pleased with the fact that he was too tall for one in his life that he often revivited the shop and became a regular customer.

Postmaster General Jewell has issued an order directing that the fee for registering a letter mailed at any postoffice within the United States, addressed to any other postoffice in the United States, or to a foreign country, be fixed, on and after July 1, 1875, at the uniform rate of 10 cents, in addition to the regular letter postage, to be fully prepaid by postage stamps affixed to such letter, and cancelled at the mailing office.

Bishop Baltes, of Alton, Ill., has placed under his episcopal ban all societies whose members or any of them send their children to the public schools, or who give balls and picnics at which malt or spirituous liquors are sold, or who fail to contribute quarterly. For non-compliance with these regulations societies cannot go to communion in a body wearing regalia, nor meet in any building belonging to the church, nor have their meetings nor business announced in the church, nor be admitted to the church wearing regalia and accompanying the corpse of a deceased member, nor give a lecture or other entertainment for the benefit of or in the name of the society in any building belonging to the church.

The next election for State officers will take place in Kentucky on the 2nd day of August. California follows on the 1st of September, Arkansas on 6th, Maine on the 13th of the same month, and Ohio and Iowa on the 12th of October. Then comes Pennsylvania, New York, Massachusetts and several other States on the 2nd of November.

This Population of New York

The Hon. Alex. Delano estimates the annual increase of population in New York city at about 4 per cent, which taking the census of 1870 as a basis, and counting the 22,000 gained by annexation, and the 40,000 stamens and others on hand of vessels and temporarily absent, gives 1,200,000 as the probable footing of the census now being taken.

GREENSBORO, AT THE PEACE.—Rev. Jacob Henry Smith, Mr. Jesse Lindsey, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Gilmer and Miss Tate all came from Greensboro this morning to attend the closing exercises at Peace Institute. Rev. Dr. Hoge delivers the address to-morrow morning at 11 a. m., and the concert is to-morrow night.

EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.—The 3rd annual meeting of the Educational Association of North Carolina will be held in the city of Raleigh, commencing Wednesday, July 15th, 1875. A programme of proceedings will be published in a few days.

By order of the Executive Committee. JOHN E. DUGGAR, Secretary.

WHOLESALE CASH PRICES. Corrected by F. C. CHRISTOPHERS, Market Square.

COTTON. Badly stained, or very dirty, 11. Cleaned stained, or ordinary, 12a13. Good ordinary, 13a14. Low middling, 14 1/2.

GENERAL MARKET. Rags, domestic 2 1/2 lb. Yard 13a14. Cotton linc, 8c 1/2 lb. on hand. Flour, North Carolina, 67.00. Corn, 95a1.00. Corn meal, new 95a 1/2 lb. Bacon, N. C. hog round, 15a17. Canned ribs sides, 13. Long C H sides, 13. Shoulders, 10a11c. Lard, North Carolina, 16a18. Western tierces, 17. Beans, 17c. Coffee, prime Rio, 23. Good, 22. Common, 20a21. Syrup, S H 40. Molasses, Cuba, 50. Salt, Marshall's, 42.25. Evans', 42.25. Sugar, on basis for 10d, 44.00. Sugar, A 11a12. Extra C, 11a. Yellow C, 10a10 1/2. Leather, sole, 27a30. Hides, green, 7a8. Tallow, 9a10. Potatoes, sweet, 75a90. Irish, 1.25a1.50. Oats, shelled, 75a85. Wheat, 1.25a1.50. Fodder, 1.75. Hay, N. C. baled, good, $1.00a1.25. Chickens, grown, 30a35. Eggs, 18a20. Butter, N. C., 25a30; N. Y., 40a50. Beans, 25a30. Rags, 21. Beef, on foot, 6a8. Dressed prime, 8a11. Heavy copper, per pound, 10c. Light, 9c. Brass, per pound, 10c. Lead, per pound, 7c. Old iron, per 100 pounds, 60c.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

THE CARY COTTON GIN. It is still being manufactured at Cary, N. C., improved in some respects and warranted to give satisfaction on no trade if properly put to work. Those desiring further information send for Circular, etc., to W. M. SOBELLE, June 9-2nd dw Cary, N. C. Advocate and Recorder please copy it.

JAS. A. LEACH & CO.

Wholesale and Retail Shoe Manufacturers. THOMASVILLE, N. C. We have a large stock of our mens, women's, boys', misses' and children's shoes, which we sell at wholesale or retail, next door to Citizens' National Bank, Martin St., Raleigh. When you want good shoes, all hand-made and of the very best stock, call on us and buy the NORTH CAROLINA SHOE.

We fill orders from our store in Raleigh, or from our manufactory in Thomasville. Merchants visiting our city to buy shoes are requested to examine our stock.

SMOKE

GOOD CIGARS. GRAY'S PRIZE MEDAL. RALEIGH FAVORITE. LEGAL TENDER.

Best Cigars and Largest Stock in the City. GEORGE HESLER, One Door North of Tarboro' House, my 28-4.

Advertisements will be inserted in this paper at the following rates per square and line, or for longer space as follows: One square one line, $1.00; one line one square, $1.00; one square one line, $1.00; one line one square, $1.00.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

SAVE YOUR LIVES! YOUR MONEY AND YOUR EYES! 40 Cents, 40 Cents, 40 Cents.

Forty Cents will buy on Gallon of Pratts' Astral Oil. We have this day reduced the price of Pratts' Astral Oil to FORTY CENTS PER GALLON.

This Oil is used in nearly 600,000 FAMILIES. It has been before the public for twelve years and never an accident directly or indirectly.

BURNS IN ANY LAMP. Beware of So Called Safety Oil. JULIUS LEWIS & CO., Sole Agents for N. C., Fisher Building, Raleigh, N. C.

CIRCULAR SAWS. At Hardware House of JULIUS LEWIS & CO., Raleigh, N. C.

SASH, DOORS AND BLINDS. Largest Stock in the State. PRICE LOWER THAN THE LOWEST. All our goods are thoroughly seasoned. Write for prices. JULIUS LEWIS & CO.

COPARTNERSHIP FORMERLY EXISTING under the name and style of Ellington, Atkins & Co., was dissolved on the 26th day of April last by mutual consent. Mr. H. M. Shearin having purchased Mr. J. McO. Ellington's entire interest in the Machinery, Contracting, Dressing and Manufacturing business, will continue under the name and style of the firm of Atkins, Thompson & Shearin. The unfinished contracts will be completed by the old firm. All persons indebted are requested to make immediate payments, and those having claims will please present them.

J. McO. ELLINGTON, GEO. W. ATKINS, H. M. SHEARIN.

ATKINS, THOMPSON & SHEARIN, Successors to Ellington, Atkins & Co. Contractors, Builders, Manufacturers, and dealers in Dressed Lumber, Doors, Blinds, Sashes, Frames, Moulding, Brackets, Slat-nails, Balusters, Scroll-work, Turned Mouldings, &c. Thanking our friends and the public generally for the liberal patronage heretofore extended to us, would most respectfully solicit a continuance of the same. Apex, N. C., June 21, 1875.

JUST RECEIVED. 500 pieces new and handsome Prints at 8 and 10 cents per yard. Coats' Spool Cotton at 70 cents per dozen. Common Spool cotton at 12 cents per dozen, and hope it will be cheaper.

NEW GOODS STILL ARRIVING. PRICES LOWER THAN EVER. One of our firm having just returned from the North, where he has been purchasing goods in all the different styles and qualities belonging to our business, in order to repair the broken lines in the various departments, we are again enabled to offer to our customers and the public at large greater inducements than heretofore.

LADIES DRESS GOODS! Black and colored silks, Summer silks, grenadines, Figured lawns and muslins, Mohair suitings, Baliste suitings, Linen suitings, Zebra suitings, Plain, printed and corded grass cloth, and linen lawns.

BLEACHED GOODS: Irish linens, Victoria lawns, Jacquets, in better qualities and cheaper than ever offered.

It is useless for us to mention particularly prices to our goods, as it only requires one trial to customers to convince themselves that the "Tuckers" cannot be surpassed in this city or elsewhere, being always up to the times.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER. PIANO AND ORGAN TUNING AND REPAIRING. By E. A. WHITAKER, Raleigh, N. C. 20 years experience. Instruments thoroughly renovated. References in Wake, Johnson, Moore, Harnett and Orange.

City Reference: Rev. A. W. Mangum, Rev. W. J. W. Crowder, Richard Battle, Jas. Esq., Col. J. P. H. Hunt, Nat. L. Brown, Esq., my 28-4.