The City.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Nothing of importance was done in the mayor's court today.

Too much rain in this section. But beautiful crops are expected.

It is common talk that the Union League is hard at work in this county.

Our Living and Our Dead has sixty subscribers at Raleigh Post Office. It ought to have five times as many.

Joe D. Kern, Esq., an aged and respected citizen of Raleigh was buried this evening.

The University of N. C. is to be opened on the first Monday in September. See advertisement.

Mrs. Folk, who died in Salisbury last week, was the mother of Col. G. N. Folk, of Lenoir, and of Mrs. S. D. Wait, of this city.

The Local Minister's Conference of the M. E. Church, meets at Klusion on Thursday, July 15th. Ministers and visitors returned for one day.

Delegates to the meeting to-night at Metropolitan Hall to consider the question of finding the debt of the city. Both sides of the question will be argued.

We are requested to say to those who have subscribed to the Person Street Methodist Church to call at the State National Bank, and pay over the amounts subscribed to S. C. White, Esq., Treasurer of said Church.

The delegates to the Cotton States Congress visited the Insane Asylum yesterday evening, by invitation of Dr. Grissom. They were accompanied by the Mayor of the city and a number of other gentlemen. They were shown around the building and its grounds; and were then entertained most handsomely by the polite and hospitable Superintendent. The affair was exceedingly enjoyable.

LECTURE TO-NIGHT. Major Robert Bingham will deliver a lecture to-night in the Senate Chamber at 8 o'clock, on "Higher Education." The reputation of Major Bingham as a lecturer and orator will attract a large audience. All citizens are invited to attend the lecture especially. After the lecture, general discussions will take place. We trust there will be a general turnout of the good people of our city.

BANQUET. The State Agricultural Society and Citizens of Raleigh, will give a Banquet at the Yachero House this evening at 10 o'clock, complimentary to the Cotton States Congress. Dr. Blackwell will spread himself in this entertainment; and a good time may be expected. The efficient chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, and the Secretary, have exerted themselves to the utmost to make the entertainment worthy the guests. We acknowledge invitations.

MATCHGAMM AT DURHAM. A matchgame was played yesterday at Durham between the Durham Base Ball Club and the Hillsboro Club. The game was very exciting, witnessed by a large crowd of ladies and gentlemen, and lasted for two hours. Hillsboro Club won the victory. The score stood 26 to 18. On the third inning the Durham club was six runs ahead, and the Hillsboro boys were considerably demoralized; but they picked up and came out on the home stretch 8 lengths ahead. Mr. Hertel Bragg of this city was the umpire.

GRAHAM HIGH SCHOOL.—This admirable school will soon open again. We direct attention to the advertisement appearing in another column. Our people cannot be too liberal in patronizing good educational institutions. The future glory and peace of North Carolina is much dependent upon the education of the boys, who are now growing up. They are to be the men whom we will in a score or so of years from now see filling the pulpits, the benches, the Bar, the Legislative Halls, and the Executive chambers of the State. Therefore send them now, to such schools as the Graham High School, the Lovejoy Academy, Scott & Adkinson's Institute, and many other excellent schools which we might mention.

By reference to our State news column this morning it will be seen that leading radical speakers are occupying every field; but not a word about Conservative speakers. We submit gentlemen that this will not do unless you propose to turn the State over to the radicals without a struggle. —Charlotte Observer.

The regular order of business was deferred and miscellaneous business was entered into.

The Congress decided to hold its next regular annual session at Nashville, Tennessee, at such time as the President shall appoint.

Dr. Eugene Grissom, Hon. J. J. Davis, and Prof. W. C. Kerr were invited to seats on the floor.

The following additional delegates were reported: Messrs. R. D. Wynne, of Georgia; H. N. L. Leary, of Louisiana; H. M. J. Hunt, of North Carolina; John Donnan, of Virginia; Dr. G. L. Ellis, A. M. McPheters, and G. W. Stanton, of North Carolina.

Chief James B. Thompson was added to the committee on constitution and by-laws.

The following dispatch was read and referred to a special committee composed of Messrs. Wm. Johnston, Joe J. Davis and A. M. McPheters:

CHARLOTTE, N. C., July 13, 1875.

To the President of the Cotton States Congress:

Your body is asked to consider whether the ten per cent. tax on other circulation than National currency is beneficial to the cotton interests of the South, and if its repeal would not lower the rates of interest and greatly benefit the farmer.

J. Y. BRYCE,
J. E. STANTON,
Delegates to National Cotton Ex.

On motion of Dr. Jaynes, the ladies and citizens generally were invited to attend the session of the Congress.

It was agreed that the sessions of the Congress to-day be held from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m., and from 4 p. m. until six o'clock.

On motion the Congress adjourned.

THE CAMPAIGN.

County Democratic nominating on the 21st.

Major F. A. Smith has taken and stamp in Johnson.

Union county Conservatives nominate Dr. T. W. Hodson.

Senator J. T. Ledford has been nominated in Richmond vice Col. B. F. Little, withdrawn.

Hon. F. E. Shoher and John S. Henderson are the nominees in Hoke.

This will carry the county overwhelmingly.

The Republicans held their state meeting in the courthouse last Saturday and Mr. Young and Kint Rodgers were elected as candidates to the Convention.

Treasurer Jenkins goes from Charlotte, where he was yesterday, to Gaston county, as the Raleigh "Constitution" says, "to put the Republicans to work."

Don't stop now to discuss the particular amendments to the Constitution that are necessary or desirable. It is too late in the campaign for prolix arguments or elaborate discussions. The correct thing now is to urge on our people the importance of going to the polls. Don't fall how low the present Constitution is, but how much worse it will be if by our own negligence, we permit the radicals to elect a majority of the delegates.—Wilmington Star.

HOW BETWEEN THE IRISH AND NEGROES IN CLARKSVILLE.

A special from Clarksville, Tenn., says that two Irishmen attacked a negro with a knife. The next morning twenty negroes attacked the Irishmen, who took refuge in a grocery store, from whence they were taken by the police to the station for safety. The same night the negroes razed the store.

The preparing partisans of Maine are hurling at each other the hard words used on both sides in the hot campaign of 1864-65. Gentlemen, did you not hear that the cruel war is over?—Boston Herald.

The capital of the United States has been temporarily transferred from Long Branch to Cape May. The President, assisted by a few friends, took it down in a carpet bag and deposited it at Congress Hall. We trust he put it in the cloak room and got a check for it, since proprietors of hotels are not responsible for valuables left in guests' rooms. Philadelphia Times.

The South is readier than the North to celebrate the national birthday. It is the radical party that stands across the path, breathing hate and death, flourishing its bloody weapons and displaying—not the beautiful Star-Spangled Banner—emblem of liberty and law—but the black flag of subjugation, with skulls and cross-bones.—Lancaster Courier-Journal (S. C.).

The fact that there are a few Bourbons at the South, and some inconvertible malignants at the North, whose voices are still for war, amounts to nothing. They have no influence, for they are out of sympathy with the masses. All they can do is to fall—and, happily, their want of right reason is so conspicuous that its only effect is to make other people more reasonable.—Richmond Whig, (dem.)

ORANGEMEN MOBBED.

LAWRENCE, Mass., July 13.

A mob attacked the Orangemen returning from pic-nics. The Orangemen with ladies and children just disembarked from the steamer landing, several hundred Irish followed, shouting and jeering, finally throwing stones. A boy was struck three times and badly hurt; and all more or less injured during the half mile walk to the station house for refuge.

Four men were regalia. One was severely hurt. He had his oach torn off. The Mayor undertook to disperse the crowd ineffectually. The Mayor with a squad of police attempted to escort the regalia to the station, but they were held at bay by the mob. With the exception of the Mayor, every one was hurt, some seriously. The mob made a furious assault, nearly all of the Orangemen and police were killed. The police commenced firing on the Irish, who cried, Kill the 4-4 Orangemen. The mob scattered before the revolver. Some were killed outright. Two men and one woman and a boy of twelve were wounded. The riot lasted two hours and extended over a route of a mile in the most thickly settled portion of the city.
