

The City.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Register! Register! Register!
—Nothing of importance in the Mayor's Court to-day.
—The news to-day is that Scott Partin has been taken in Tarboro.
—The Supreme Court is still engaged in cases from the sixteenth district.
—The Local Ministers' Conference at E. Church met at Kingston yesterday.
—Congressman Yates will canvas his district thoroughly.
—S. A. Parham, Esq., of this city, was robbed of $1400 Thursday morning.
—Register, write men! on the negroes will get you under their power again.
—A private letter informs us that Zeb Vance will take the stump in the West.
—Is not Mr. Madison Hodge, the Radical nominee, opposed to the Home-stead Law?
—The Durham and Hillsboro Base Ball Clubs played a match-game at the former place to-day.
—No disturbances reported yesterday. Very little interest was manifested in the election by the citizens generally.
—The Candidates speak at Lashley's, Buckhorn Township, to-day. That is the country of that pure patriot and amiable, Christian gentleman, D. B. Holland, Esq., one of our nominees.
—Delinquents to the SENTINEL are earnestly requested to pay up their dues. There is no Ring money at the back of this paper. It relies upon the patriotic people of North Carolina for support.
—Some sanguine radicals are counting high on the election. But they'll find that it will not turn out so well as they expect. Disappointed office-seekers will be plentiful. Their hopes will go where the woodbine twines, and the hedge-hog burroweth his hole, and the disconsolate voice of the whang-doo lie is heard in the midst.

EDUCATIONAL.—Gov. Brogden has appointed Judge Seymour to hold the special term of Edgecombe Superior Court, which convenes on Monday, Judge Moore, of that District, being at present engaged in holding the special session in Granville county.

PIE-NIC.—The Editor of the SENTINEL acknowledges the receipt of an invitation to a Pie-Nic to be given by the citizens of Henderson at the Fair Grounds at Henderson, on Wednesday the 21st inst. The committee of arrangements consists of Geo. Badger Harris, Samuel J. Skinner, D. G. Cooper and H. Lassiter. A good time is anticipated.

CONVICTS.—The following persons, tried, convicted and sentenced at the late term of the New Hanover Court have arrived at the penitentiary:
David Nixon, larceny, 20 years in the penitentiary.
Richard Bennett, larceny, five years.
Eli Dudley, larceny, five years.
Henry Johnson, larceny, three years.
Edward Gause, larceny, ten years.

IN THE CITY.—Capt. T. C. Evans of the Vicksburg (Miss.) Herald arrived in the city this morning. Capt. Evans has been ordered during the hot term to travel in this State and Virginia as correspondent and general agent for the Herald, and will return to Vicksburg about the first of October. Lewis, the Detroit Free Press funny man, has been regularly engaged on the Herald, and the paper is now copied from by every leading journal in the United States.

THE CITY ELECTION.—The following is the official report of the result yesterday:

Approved	Not approved
First Ward, 60	82
Second Ward, 42	137
Third Ward, 59	25
Fourth Ward, 41	114
Fifth Ward, 81	131

REMOVAL OF CONVICTS.—The contractors for the brick to be used in the construction of the Western Insane Asylum are here making arrangements to take fifty convicts from the penitentiary to Morganton, under the act of the last Legislature. The building committee has contracted with these parties to pay them $5.25 per 1,000 for first-class brick. Capt. C. B. Benson, of Hillsboro, one of the building committee, appointed in place of Hon. W. A. Graham, resigned, leaves for Morganton this evening. The work will be pushed rapidly; a splendid structure will be erected.

SCOTT PARTIN.

THE FINEST CAUGHT AT LAST.

A telegram received in Raleigh to-day states that Scott Partin, or rather a man answering to the description of Scott Partin, was arrested in Edgecombe to-day. Information was received here last evening from Palmyra, Halifax county that a man answering almost precisely the description of Partin had been seen in that village, and had been examined, and answered closely the description of Partin. He was engaged extensively in selling books and looking for a situation as a teacher. He will probably arrive in Raleigh this evening.

GEN. J. M. LEACH.—This war-horse of N. C. Conservatism writes that he will take the field in a day or two, in his section. He goes into the campaign heart and soul, for, says he, "we must work to win, and shall if we work well and wisely." "Moderation, economy and a good North Carolina Constitution should be our motto; and no more Radical corruption, extravagance and profligacy; no civil rights bill." &c. Verily, in hoc signo vinces!

A PARTISAN JUDGE.—Although his Honor holds the exalted and responsible position of "Judge of the 5th Judicial District, as we are aware," and is supposed to be pledged, by every principle of honor and integrity, to keep his eye single and his mind and life devoted to the one sacred and solemn duty of administering justice to all classes of the people—still, he is now a partisan politician, a candidate for a position for which men are accustomed to "wring the stump;" and it is eminently fitting that he should mingle with the masses, and do a little vigorous canvassing, and let the rabble see one bowing and scraping for votes and popularity whom they have been accustomed to behold in an unapproachable station above them, clothed in what used to be the spotless robe of an incorruptible judiciary. —Fugate City Gazette.

THE EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

The closing session of this body was held in the Senate Chamber last night. The appointed speakers were absent, but Maj. Kerr, State Geologist, delivered a very suggestive and forcible speech. Endeavouring the address of Maj. Bingham and also of Dr. Hatchell, he incited the theory of teaching in harmony with nature, interspersing interesting illustrations. He gave an account of his experience as a student of Prof. Agassiz, to show the style of teaching practiced by the great scientist.

At the conclusion of Maj. Kerr's address, Mr. Mangum addressed the association briefly on the subject of the University of North Carolina. His thoughts and statements are commended to all interested in the noble old institution. First he showed that instead of any citizen of North Carolina murmuring about the burden of the support of the University, the great masses should gratefully rejoice, that without taxing them in any way, a few men in and out of the State have made personal sacrifices and bestowed upon the public this great educational enterprise as a gift and a blessing. Next, he showed how the University would go forward without clashing with other institutions, in Courses of Agriculture; that the terms of admission to that course were not decided by the Faculty, but prescribed by the Congressional act, and that the Agricultural and Mechanical branches are not in the studies of the academics. He frankly stated that the University was an ally and not an adversary of the denominational colleges—would work with them and not against them. He referred with emphasis to the moral feature of the old University—indicated the name of the former Faculty and affirmed that they used to suffer over the evils they could not prevent, more than any one out of the University, not always excepting even the parents of wayward sons. He alluded to those who, by-and-bye, would go howling and growling after the bones of buried evils, and he rejoiced to know that the State was united in devotion to the great enterprise—excepting a number so small as not to be regarded. As to the present movement he said that the University was to be an unexceptional one in morals as any denominational college; that the people of Chapel Hill were moving in concert with the Faculty and Trustees to guarantee proper conduct on the part of the students. He drew a picture of Chapel Hill in its degradation and its present re-education, introducing as an illustration the picture by Will Kamp of the Delinquency of Layden. He described the rising energies and hopes of the village of Chapel Hill, and said that the aspect of everything there was full of promise, and that the friends of the University should know that the renewed prosperity of the honored old institution should be regarded as secured. After some details of business, the meeting adjourned.

This is the era of statements and certificates. A citizen of Missouri recently took the liberty of thrashing one of his neighbors, and afterward fortified himself with a paper, on which a jury of the vicinage, consisting of 13 mutual acquaintances approved of the deed. In their vague and formal language they said, "We do hereby certify and consider him perfectly justifiable in whipping." &c.

A STARTLING REPORT.—It is rumored that a boat, called by Mr. John F. Flowers, and containing, besides himself, another white and two colored men, which sailed out to sea from Wrightsville on Tuesday morning, has not been heard from. It is feared that they have been lost. The news was carried over yesterday from Wrightsville to Masonboro, and we give it as we heard it, hoping that it may not prove correct. —Wilmington Journal.

The Wilmington Star says that Gov. Brogden is in love with an attractive daughter of the Governor's. A love letter from the Governor would make mighty headway, does you know it would? —Char. Observer.

The people are the masters. If they do not choose to exercise the right of voting they are unworthy of citizenship. But they can't vote unless they register.

In every township let the full conservative vote be polled. Only this can prevent the State from again falling into the hands of the Radicals.

Remember, if you want to vote for Battle, Gales, Holland and Jones put down the radicals and vote, you can't do it unless you register.

FOR BOYS.
Rev. JOSEPH M. AUSTIN, Principal.
CHARLES H. SCOTT, Principals.
The second annual session of this school will begin WEDNESDAY, September 1st, 1876. The Principals have prepared for the school the commodious and attractive residence on Newbern Avenue, well-known in Raleigh as the "Cotton Place," more recently owned and handsomely refitted by Col. H. Kingsland.
Boards continuing their Day School they propose taking a limited number of boys of good character and conduct to board in their own family.
The training of the school, as heretofore, will be full, thorough and accurate, preparing its pupils for college or for business life.
Competent assistants will be provided in all departments, as may be required. The Principals trust that it is scarcely necessary for them to say that whilst the school will continue to be conducted on Christian principles, it will be entirely without denominational bias or bias.
