THE DOWNFALL OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

Anybody who has for the last twelve months watched the progress of a political tide knows that the Republican party is rapidly sinking into a popular minority in the United States...

In this State last August, we witnessed victory from the Republicans, showing a total change of 10,000 votes, Caldwell's majority in 1873 having been 1,973, and Freely in 1874, 14,000. Freely polled 50,317 votes, Farnell but 54,181.

In New Hampshire, the change was more remarkable. In 1873 (Graw Rep) beat the Democratic nominee for Governor 2,000 votes. In '74, Weston (Dem.) beat McMillan (Rep) 2,000 votes.

The revolution in Massachusetts is equally thorough and complete. Gess, a Democrat, was elected by a splendid majority—the first time in fifty years a Democrat has won the gubernatorial chair of the old Bay State...

Ohio, New York, Connecticut, Oregon, Arkansas and other States last fall witnessed a grand uprising against the party of corruption and overwhelming Democratic victories were gained.

In these bright days of Democratic ascendancy will North Carolina take a backward step? Will she return to the first embrace of the party she repudiated?

During the campaign last summer, the Republican candidate accused the people that Congress would not pass the civil rights bill, and if it did Grant would certainly veto it.

When Mr. Redding Bagamuffin Richard was abusing the Gastons, Mangums, Moores and Grubams at Cary the other day, an aged friend of his father's said pitifully: "I wonder the old man (the great Gen. R. Badger, don't you see) is in his grave!"

Mr. R. R. Badger says he is a "snuffin." He might believe him if he didn't wear a blue shirt and a standing collar, and draw five or six thousand dollars a year from the government.

What white men at still and hold their breath while eighty thousand negroes, led by a few thousand carpet-bagger and native radicals march to take upon the seats of power in North Carolina?

Myos was best last August for many countenances. 499 votes, and Kerr, the other nominee, went by the board to the land of the forgotten.

Put the Republicans in power, and you will have to pay eleven millions of special tax bonds, issued by their party.
