THE SENTINEL.

EXTRACTS FROM JUDGE RODMAN'S CARD TO THE PEOPLE OF BEAUFORT AND PAMLICO COUNTIES:

[illegible]

I cannot consent to run as the candidate of any party. I think that party failing should not operate on such an occasion, and I do not entirely agree with either party in what I understand their views to be, in respect to what the Convention ought to do.

1. I do not fear, as some Republicans profess to do, that the Democrats, if they have a majority in the Convention, will violate the restrictions on its power imposed by the Legislature. I shall feel myself bound to observe them both by law and by a sense of good faith and fair dealing.

2. I do not agree with the Republicans, who think the Convention ought to [illegible] anything.

The present constitution is tolerable as it is, and all its defects might have been remedied by legislative action; but it is not perfect.

With possibly the exception of Judges I think the people should have the right of electing all the officers whom they now elect.

It is not a question of depriving colored men of their right to vote, on account of their color, that is prohibited by the fifteenth amendment of the Constitution of the United States, and is impossible.

3. There is one other subject to which, should I make a canvass, I will direct attention. That is [illegible] special legislation. The proper business of a Legislature is to pass general laws affecting all men equally. This is evident, because it represents the State, and not any part of it; the whole people, and not any class or interest. Notwithstanding this, a system has grown up, under which the great part of the time of the Legislature is consumed in special legislation.

[illegible] the Convention [illegible] the present State debt shall not be increased; that no county, town or city, shall incur a debt, except for the necessary expenses of its government, without the consent of the tax-payers, and that no act shall be passed giving privileges to a few which are not open to all on the same terms. In other words all special legislation should be prohibited, as far as it is possible to do it.

I respect and esteem the gentleman whom I understand has been nominated as a candidate by his friends. But it he will not pledge himself to support the [illegible] Constitution, I think that, notwithstanding his admitted private worth, I cannot think him a safe representative of our interest on this occasion.

[Your fellow-citizen,]
WILL. R. RODMAN.

Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.
The substance which this Magazine possesses for variety, satisfaction, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause the conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. TESTIMONIALS:
Goldsboro, N. C.
After spending eighteen months in a southern climate to restore my Lungs, I gave up in despair, and came home to die with my children in Goldsboro, N. C. While there I obtained a box of Dr. McMannen's Tar Mixture; its first effect was to enable me to sleep; my strength began to return; hope revived; my cough gave way. After using six boxes, I was restored to health. I now weigh 140 lbs. I owe my life to this mixture, and wish this published to the world.
R. E. ROBISON.

I have been afflicted with a cough for thirty years. I have used all the popular remedies for coughs. I have never found anything to remain on the stomach or give any relief, until I used Dr. McMannen's American Tar Mixture. Its use enables me to sleep well; my lungs have regained their strength, and I find myself entirely free from a distressing cough that attacked me in the morning. I am rapidly recovering.
MRS. POTTER PASCHAL.

My Lungs gave way while on my tour. I was forced to retire from my work, and had but little hope of recovery. I used one box of Dr. McMannen's Tar Mixture, my cough improved, my strength returned, and I was soon able to resume my work. I recommend it to all who have a cough, or weak lungs.
