—Who rejoices to-night in Wake, negroes or white folks?

We warn the negroes against the repetition of the violence of election night:

The gloomy weather yesterday had much to do with the despondency in Democratic circles.

The Governor requested the Raleigh Light Infantry to go out on a hunt for Scott Parton; but the company has not yet decided whether to comply with the request.

The Convention Act makes no provisions for the pay of the members. It forbids legislation; that is one of the positive restrictions, and there can be no money got from the Treasury without legislation. What will be done about it?

Notice.—Members of the Raleigh Light Artillery are requested to meet at Metropolitan Hall for the purpose of escorting the remains of Ex-Governor Graham to the City. By order,

A. B. STRONACH,

Captain.

EXCURSION FROM MOORE COUNTY.
There was an excursion to-day on the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line from Cameron and Sanford, to this city. About 800 persons were aboard. The train arrived at 10 o'clock a. m. and left at 3 p. m. The excursionists seemed to enjoy the sights about the city, and departed as they came in fine spirits.

CITIZENS MEETING.—Upon the call of the Mayor, a meeting of the citizens of Raleigh was held this morning at 10 a. m. at Metropolitan Hall to take appropriate action in regard to the death of the late Hon. Wm. A. Graham.

The Hon. Will. H. Battle was called to the chair, and J. J. Litchford appointed Secretary.

On motion of K. P. Battle, Esq., a committee of five was appointed to report suitable action for the meeting.

The Chair announced the following resolutions:

The members of the legal profession assembled for the purpose of expressing their esteem and affection for the Hon. William A. Graham, and their sense of the loss which they, in common with the whole State, have sustained by his death do resolve,

1 Resolved, That we find in the Hon. William Alexander Graham a bright example of all the virtues of a private citizen, as well as an illustration of the able and faithful performance of all the duties of professional and official life.

2 Resolved, That as a member of the bar he was diligent and careful in the preparation of his causes, able and skillful in an argument, kind and considerate to his fellow members, and courteous and respectful to the court.

3 Resolved, That as a public officer, whether of his own State or the United States, he was always equal to the occasion, filling the many high offices to which he was called with unwavering fidelity and distinguished ability.

4 Resolved, That as a proper tribute of respect to our deceased brother, whom many of us loved and all respected, it is requested that these resolutions be presented to the Supreme Court with a request that they may be entered upon the minutes of the court.

5 Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased by the chairman.

6 Resolved, That a copy of the proceedings of this meeting be furnished for publication in all the city papers.

7 Resolved, That the chairman be requested at his convenience to select a member of the bar to deliver an address upon the life and character of our deceased brother.

Judge Battle in submitting the resolutions referred in appropriate terms to the unassisted record of the deceased as a lawyer, and after remarks by Geo. H. Snow, Esq., Chief Justice R. M. Pearson, R. C. Badger, Esq., S. A. Ashe, Esq., D. M. Carter, Esq., Judge E. G. Reade, Hon. W. N. H. Smith, and Judge Geo. W. Brooks, the resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That the Chairman appoint, as a mark of respect for the virtues of the deceased, a committee of the citizens to accompany his remains to their resting place in Hillsboro.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased and furnished to the newspapers for publication.

Mr. Battle accompanied the resolutions with remarks suitable to the occasion giving a short outline of Gov. Graham's life and public services, and was followed by Judge Morrison, Gov. Brogden, Hon. R. F. Moore and J. J. Young, Esq., each of which pronounced a handsome eulogium upon the life and character of the lamented deceased.

Judge Battle, before putting the question, added a few remarks as illustrative of the devotion that had ever actuated Gov. Graham in discharge of the various duties that had devolved Independent—Tyrrell 1.

This sums up 57 regular Republicans, and 60 regular Democrats—as ascertained beyond all question.

The death of Gov. Graham takes off one from the Democratic column, leaving 59 Democrats now living and entitled to seats in the Convention.

Jackson county sends G. W. Speake, who ran as an independent Democrat, and the Republicans say he is pledged to vote to adjourn without doing anything; our information is to the contrary, as to the judge.

The delegate sent from Tyrrell county is Dr. Ransom, who ran as a "People's candidate." The Republicans claim him, but our information is that Dr. Ransom will come to Raleigh to serve the people for the Presidency who are now swarming around the springs there will be a fine opportunity for the eloquence of Moody and the organ of Sankey. A revival at Saratoga at this time would go far toward clearing the air for the next political canvass. It would imbue the politicians with a healthy public spirit; their bodies replenished by the strengthening waters and their souls chastened by the eloquence of Moody and the song of Sankey. We shall have a canvas marked with vigor, spirituality and power. Let us have Moody and Sankey in Saratoga until the 1st of September, then bring them down to New York for a little turn around during our municipal experience, and with the opening of Congress and them to Washington. Who knows but these two wandering evangelists may yet prove the salvation of the Republic? History may write that the Republic which one hundred years ago Washington founded in this great centennial year Moody and Sankey regenerated.—New York Herald.

B. F. Moore, Chairman.

C. M. Bussey, Secy.

White's Surpintacy.—The fight was well fought and once again victory is perched upon the conservative banner. The radicals used all kinds of subterfuge and artifice without effect. The white men of Surry have spoken through the ballot box for a perpetuation of white supremacy, and the radical party with its negro allies, is invited to take a back seat.—Mr. Avery Watchman.

In the election in this county gave us their support and in behalf of the conservative party of Davidson and North Carolina, we extend to them a hearty and cordial welcome. We have election merit the approval of all good men.—Lex. Central.

Whatever may be the result of the late election in North Carolina one thing is plainly visible, and it is that the conservatives ventured prematurely upon a very hazardous experiment, and in pressing it have weakened their party—and that at a very critical time.—

VIEWS OF THE PRESS.

A Lawyer.—The exceeding closeness in the result of the vote of last Thursday shows the importance of organization and of work. It is needless to say that with proper management and a little effort several counties which we have lost might have been carried by us. We have heard of conservative voters enough in this county who failed to vote to have saved the county had they done their duty. This amazing indifference astonishes us. The same might be said of many other counties. It was not the strength of the opponents, it was our own inaction and want of organization that operated against us. Gr. Patriot.

WHO WILL BE DISAPPOINTED.

If it should turn out after all that the democrats have a majority of the delegates to the convention, and it looks very much that way just now, it is a great mistake to suppose the avowed Radicals will be the most disgruntled men at the result. Not a bit of it. The were disappointed men in the land will be these "we" "us" "our" men who voted with the radicals. They have been grinning so broad for several days past that we venture to say every one of them is suffering from malignant

THE COLOR LINE.—We have carried

Davidson county, the conservative party after a strict fight has come out of the battle with banners waving in the wind and in this the honor of our great county victory, we extend words and offerings of friendship to our own race and color and ask them to come up and put themselves on the side of their own race for the welfare of themselves, their county and their State. Let us be united white men of Davidson from this time forth and forever more.—Lexington Courier.

MOODY AND SANKEY AT SARATOGA.—Moody and Sankey, the great American rivals, who, after converting Great Britain, are now on the way to the United States, will, we trust, arrive in time to take part in the convulsions at Saratoga. From what we can learn of that celebrated Baden Baden, the amount of intriguing and display of fashion worshipping and money seeking and gambling that now prevails there has never been surpassed.

Even as venerable and cautious a statesman as Governor Tilden finds political sympathy of a questionable character.

From what we hear of the machinations of the fifteen or twenty candidates for the Presidency who are now swarming around the springs there will be a fine opportunity for the eloquence of Moody and the organ of Sankey. A revival at Saratoga at this time would go far toward clearing the air for the next political canvass. It would imbue the politicians with a healthy public spirit; their bodies replenished by the strengthening waters and their souls chastened by the eloquence of Moody and the song of Sankey. We shall have a canvas marked with vigor, spirituality and power. Let us have Moody and Sankey in Saratoga until the 1st of September, then bring them down to New York for a little turn around during our municipal experience, and with the opening of Congress and them to Washington.
