—GOV. Brogden returns from Newbern to morrow.

—The walks in the capitol grounds are being overlaid with sand where they were washed by the recent heavy rains.

—We direct attention to Mr. Wynne's advertisement. He keeps the best horses and vehicles, and is always courteous and exactly just in his dealings with those who patronize his stables. He has reduced the fare on his omnibus line to 25 cents.

We publish to-day a communication from J. W. Glenn, Esq., of Greensboro, relative to Billy Smith's speech at that place during the campaign. Mr. Glenn is an excellent young lawyer, and his report of the meeting merits implicit confidence. We commend the letter to the attention of the readers of the SENTINEL.

THE EXCURSION.—At 10 1-2 a. m. to-day, the excursion train on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad arrived in this city from Henderson, loaded with a joyous crowd of young, and old, and middle-aged citizens, from Franklin, Kittrell and Henderson. They brought provisions with them and pic-nicked in the Capitol grove. All during their visit, the park was thronged with hundreds, and numbers found their way up to the dome of the Capitol to view our beautiful City of Oaks. Our visitors seemed to have enjoyed themselves much. They departed for home at 3:15 this evening.

CASE OF POISONING.

STRYCHNINE ADMINISTERED TO A POLICEMAN!

Bob Crossan is a colored policeman, and a very efficient officer, retained on the force by the aldermen because of his efficiency. Yesterday he was on tramp after one Sandy Long, a negro man accused of robbery. As he passed the bar-room of Warren Hare, near the central depot, Hare stopped him and entered into conversation with him. The conversation was about Sandy Long, the criminal, who is a friend of Hare's.

Crossan remarked that he intended to catch Sandy before 11 o'clock last night. Whereupon Warren Hare said: "Crossan, you are hoarse, what's the matter?"

Crossan replied that he was not well. Hare then said, "Come in, and I'll give you something that will ease you."

Crossan went into the bar room. Warren Hare poured out a small drink of whiskey, and then mixed with it something from a vial.

Willie Hare and Frank Yarborough were present, they both being clerks in the groggery.

Crossan drank what was handed him, and walked out, to proceed in his search for Sandy Long. He had gone not more than a hundred yards when he began getting blind and dizzy. He succeeded in getting into a house just at hand, where he was seized with a violent fit of vomiting and griping.

He was carried thence to his home, where he was attended by Drs. *H*ines, Haywood, Little, Towles, and Dunn. During the night he had a number of violent spasms. At one time his heart and pulse ceased to beat, and it was feared that life was extinct. But through the skillful treatment of the attending physicians, he passed safely through the dangers, and is to-day considered out of danger.

The opinion among the physicians is that he was poisoned with strychnine. The vomit has not yet been analyzed, nor the vial from which the dose was poured been found.

Warren *H*are, Willie Hare and Frank Yarborough have been arrested, and are now lodged in the guard house, awaiting examination before his Honor, the Mayor. The trial will take place on Monday.

The contemplated insurrection in the counties below Augusta, Ga., is a failure. The negroes have all dispersed and gone to their homes. Arrests continue and the two ring leaders are being hotly pursued.

Bloody Work.

ESCAPE OF CONVICTS!

TWO PRISONERS KILLED!!

Early this morning fifty negro convicts were taken from the penitentiary to the lunatic Asylum brick-yard to work as usual. They were in charge of A. B. Moore, Esq., the overseer, supported by a guard of eight men, all white, armed with single-shot rifles.

The detachment was marched into the brick-yard; and there thirteen of the convicts were detached from the main body to work at the kiln. As they moved off the whole thirteen broke and ran for the bushes in the ravine near by. As quick as thought the guards leveled their rifles and let a volley fly at them. Two of the rascals fell bleeding to the ground. The guards reloaded and fired again. This time one shot only took effect, wounding one in the arm which stopped him.

The remaining ten escaped in the direction of Goldsboro, down the Millfield road, with two of the guard in hot pursuit. These two were soon after joined by five others, and three policemen from the city; and at last accounts they were pursuing the villains.

The negroes killed were William Bentley, of New Hanover, convicted of larceny and sentenced to six years imprisonment, from April 9, 1875; and William Stuart, also of New Hanover, convicted of larceny and sentenced to five years imprisonment. The wounded man is Simeon Johnston.

Bentley and Stuart were shot dead on the spot, the one through the body from back to front, the other from side to side. Guardsman Lee Wynn killed Bentley and wounded Johnston; Thos. Wynn killed Stuart.

There was no sign whatever of this break, before it occurred. The convicts who did not join in the escapade all say they knew nothing of the conspiracy. Bentley was the ring-leader.

No blame is attached to the guard or overseer. A break of this kind cannot be warded off. However alert the guard may be they are at all times liable to be surprised by these sudden "breaks."

The dead convicts were brought to the penitentiary and buried to day.

It is impossible to give any description of the escaped convicts at this time. The overseer himself could not without reference to the books of the penitentiary, give the names and descriptions, &c. This requires some hours of investigation, &c. The next SENTINEL will contain full descriptions of all who got away.

A VEXED QUESTION SETTLED—DR. WILCOX A DEMOCRAT.—Says the Raleigh News: We received yesterday morning from the editor of the Asheville Citizen the following letter which needs no comments. It is definite and authoritative enough in itself.

CITIZEN OFFICE,
ASHEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 17.

EDITOR NEWS:—I regret to see that Dr. Wilcox, the delegate elect from Ashe, is put down by some democratic papers as a radical. This does Dr. Wilcox gross injustice. That the radicals should claim him is not surprising. It is their custom to claim and take anything they can, by fair means or foul, especially the foul, but our papers should be loth to perpetuate so great a wrong upon one who has heretofore been so true to our party, its principles and our State as Dr. *W*ilcox. It is true Dr. Wilcox is elected as an independent candidate against the regular nominee of our party; and we fully deprecate this independent business among democrats, yet in our western counties our majorities, are so large that the contest generally lies entirely between the democrats, all of whom are true to our party and its principles.

The radicals have also been claiming the delegate from Jackson as a "meet and adjourn" man. The Citizen of this week will contain a letter from that gentleman which settles this falsehood very plainly. The men of the West are true—and may always be relied upon. The convention is ours—an honest government is hereafter assured, which of course is the death knell of the republican party in North Carolina.

BILLY SMITH'S GREENSBORO SPEECH.

EDITOR SENTINEL:—Having my attention called to the following infamous card, published in the columns of the Raleigh Era, the present organ of the negro party of this State, I respectfully request that you will publish the same together with the facts in the case, in order that the white people of the State may know the real views of certain ambitious anti-civil rights (so-called) politicians of North Carolina. Here is the card:

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ERA:—The declaration made in the SENTINEL and Greensboro Patriot, that I said, "In thirty years from now the four-year old negro children will rule the country," is infamously false. The falsehood was reported to the Greensboro Patriot by a fat bob-tail lawyer, who did not have sense enough to report any person's speech correctly, if he was disposed to do so.

Respectfully,
W. A. SMITH.

Princeton, N. C., Aug. 15, 1875.

The following are the facts in the case:

Maj. Smith's audience audience was composed of negroes almost entirely, and his harangue was to them. In my report to the Patriot I did not undertake to give his exact words nor does he quote correctly the language used in the Patriot. However, fortunately for all I had not destroyed the manuscript on which I had placed his words as they fell from his lips. Here they are: "In thirty years your four year old boys will be the ruling people."

As my report has been characterized as "infamously false," I beg leave to call particular attention to the language used and the circumstances of the case. There were as nearly as can be estimated about three hundred persons in the hall—not more than between forty and fifty were white. He states the case clearly when he says "your boys," &c. Whose boys did he mean? The negroes rightly took the compliment to themselves, as the cheering from them upon the utterance of this prophecy was loud and continued.

His evident dislike and venom toward lawyers, can, I suppose, be accounted for and explained by the old couplet:

"No rogue e'er felt the halter draw
With good opinion of the law."

If upon this statement of facts the Hon. (?) gentleman tenders an issue of veracity, I must inform him that being well acquainted with his character, (both State and National) for veracity—I decline to discuss the matter further, remaining as ever indifferent to the judgment of the Hon. (?) W. A. Smith, and his rag-tag and bob-tail constituents, I am,

Very respectfully,
Jo. W. GLENN.

Greensboro, August 20th, 1875.

DR. EDWARD RANSOM.

[Raleigh News.]

MR. EDITOR:—In my conversation with your local editor on yesterday, I was misapprehended as to the position of Dr. Ransom, of Tyrrell. I intended to be understood that twelve months ago, Dr. Ransom refused to be controlled by his party, because he was opposed to civil rights, and in full accord with the white man's party. Upon the question of adjournment, I have no idea how he will vote, but if the convention is held, and a new constitution made, I believe he will act as he thinks best for the interest of the State, and not be controlled by party caucus in matters affecting for organic law.

Respectfully,
THOS. H. SATTERTHWAITE.

In addition to the above we have received from Hon. W. W. Walker, the present representative in the House from Tyrrell county the following letter:

"We have elected Edward Ransom, the people's candidate to the convention. Dr. Ransom says he is conservative and declares himself in favor of a convention."

ANOTHER COUNTY HEARD FROM.—A prominent gentleman of this city who has just returned from a trip through the counties of Ashe, Watauga and Caldwell informs us that the slightest intimation in our paper, that Dr. H. O. Wilcox, the independent democrat elect from Ashe was a republican, and that he would act with that party in the coming convention would be a gross injustice to the political character and record of that gentleman. Our informant was present in the county during the canvass and says Dr. Wilcox was supported as a democrat by a number of the most ultra democrats and conservation men in that county, all of whom believed, in fact knew, that Dr. Wilcox it is true was opposed to a call of the convention, as were at least two-thirds of the democrats of Ashe county. And because he saw fit to announce himself an independent candidate as delegate to the convention is no reason why the radicals should claim him as their own. From the information we have received and what we know of Dr. Wilcox, there is no doubt but that he will be found standing in his same old well beaten tracks, battling radicalism at every point.—Ral. News.

A CARD.

I learn on the authority of Mr. H. L. Watson, of Raleigh, that W. H. Hood, clerk for A. C. S. & Co, stated that Jno. R. Brown of Earpsboro, Johnston county, asserted in Raleigh, that Dr. Vick told negroes, at Wilder's Township, who were being influenced by a Convention negro from Smithfield, to vote against "Removal of County Seat," and for the Conservative candidates for Convention, that if they did so, they (the negroes) would vote themselves back into slavery. I hereby declare Mr. Brown's statement to be a wilful falsehood and denounce John R. Brown as a contemptible liar.
