LEA & FERRIN'S IS THE ONLY GENUINE WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE. Too much rain is the cry. Business is becoming more bleak.

Gov. Brogden returned from Newbern yesterday. Wake county produces almost no peaches this year.

The trial of the poison case did not come off to-day. Croesus is still too sick to attend court.

The Newbern Radical paper contains a full account of the Radical pow-wow. Our townsmen Gov. Brogden, Dick Badger and Ike Young were the "big bugs" of the occasion.

Why don't our Police Court have a Rogues' Gallery? The pictures of thieves kept on hand at police headquarters, would facilitate the apprehension of rogues.

An excursion will take place from this point to Salem on Friday. The trip was gotten up by the Sabbath School of Morrisville and Cedar Fork.

Restored.—It is reported that Dr. Hawkins has resigned his Presidency of the two roads—the Raleigh & Gaston and the Blue Beard or Chatham Road.

ALL OVER THE WORLD.—Lea & Ferrin's Worcestershire Sauce is appreciated for its excellent taste, appetizing and favoring qualities.

COTTON MOVEMENTS IN RALEIGH.—Receipts last week 38 bales; receipts for corresponding week last year 693 bales.

COTTON OPENING.—A friend visiting the cotton farms east of Raleigh states that the first bolls found were on Thursday the 19th at Mr. Fisher's farm.

Died at the residence of G. S. Cooley in Hillsboro, on the morning of the 23rd instant, Lizzie A., wife of William F. Cooley, and daughter of the late John F. Branson.

There are some strong personal relations between the editor of the Charlotte Democrat and W. W. Holden, and the Democrat has selected the present time as opportune for urging the removal of the disabilities imposed upon him by the court of impeachment.

Mr. Editor.—I clip the above from the Landmark. If I remember the Democrat was not for the impeachment of W. W. Holden and of course he would be for the removal of the disabilities which he would never have imposed.
