LEA & PERRINS' IS THE ONLY Genuine WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE
aug 23-6m

—No news from the escaped convicts.

—Water melons are a drag on the market

—Hon. Josiah Turner is in Moore county to-day.

—Warren and Alamance courts are in session this week.

Bob Crossan is still too sick to attend the Mayor's Court.

—Gen. Matt. Ransom is at the Yarboro to-day. He came in from the Buffaloe Springs.

—What young men will go from Raleigh to the University? We trust that the capital will be represented.

—We are pleased to see Maj. Hearne upon the streets again. He has been very ill, and seems much reduced.

—The "lost boy" is still in the hands of our kind hearted mayor pro tem. He was three weeks on the road from Hanover Junction to this place.

—Says the Charlotte Democrat: "A friend in Orange writes us that he presumes "it is not generally known that Gov. Graham, sometime since, joined the Presbyterian church."

—Messrs. Wynne & Co., will in a few days have two elegant new omnibusses plying between the Yarboro and National hotels and the depot, and as already announced, the fare on this line has been reduced to 25 cents.

—The Governor has not respited the Weldon Bridge murderers, and unless respite is given between now and Friday they will suffer the extreme penalty of the law. This information we obtain from the courteous and efficient Private Secretary.

—W. C. Stronach, Esq, has been elected Mayor pro tem. of the city, to serve during the painful illness of his Honor Mayor Separk. The election was held yesterday evening by the Board of Aldermen at the request of Mr. Separk. Mr. Stronach will make an excellent officer.

—The prisoners charged with poisoning Policeman Crossan are held closely confined in the cells of the station house, and no one but the jailor is allowed to communicate with them. They are very anxious to know what charge is against them, and for what they are imprisoned, professing not to know anything of the occurrence.

—A good fly paper is made as follows: Boil together, by weight, equal parts of glue and molasses; spread it over common brown paper while hot with a brush. Place a sheet of the paper in every room in your house. It will capture every fly in the room within the day. The paper can be thrown in the fire, and a new one used, when covered with the captured flies.

CONVICT CAPTURED.—The negro convict who last spring struck Mr. Foard, one of the guard, a terrible blow on the head with a hatchet at the rock quarry and escaped, was yesterday captured near Kinston, and brought to the city and replaced in the penitentiary. The rascal ought to have ten more years in prison for the attempt to kill the guard. Mr. Foard recovered from the wounds received at the hands of the villain.

A CONVICT KILLED.—At the last term of the Superior Court for this county, a negro named Stokes was convicted of larceny and sentenced by Judge Watts to the work house, whither he was carried in June. Some time after he escaped. Day before yesterday he was re-captured in Greensboro and brought to this city. Yesterday morning Mr. Ferrell, a deputy sheriff, started with him for the work house. On the way he attempted to escape, when a scuffle ensued and Mr. Ferrell shot him. Two of the shots took effect in the back of the prisoner, and one in the throat, killing him instantly. Stokes came from Charlotte with the Rescue Fire Company in May, as a servant to the company on its return trip from the Centennial.

RESIGNATION OF DR. HAWKINS.—The Raleigh News gives currency to the rumor that Dr. Hawkins has tendered his resignation as President of the Raleigh & Gaston and Raleigh & Augusta Railroad, and says:

"Failing health and the necessity of visiting the Warm Springs of Arkansas under advice of physicians is the cause assigned by report for this resignation."

IMMIGRATION LOOKING SOUTHWARD.—An immigration agent at Minneapolis, Minnesota, has now on his books the names of over three thousand persons scattered over twenty States, Canada, and many in Europe, who apply for documents relative to the Southern States, and he represents the list as increasing at the rate of from fifty to one hundred a day. The attractions of a mild climate and generous soil are generally assigned as reasons for desiring to go South by those making inquiries in regard to the price of lands, &c.

I. O. O. F. ATTENTION!—The members of Seaton Gales Lodge No. 64, I. O. O. F. are earnestly requested to be present at the regular meeting to-morrow (Thursday) the 26th inst.

An amendment to the by-laws will be considered and other business of importance transacted. All members of the order holding tickets for Past Grand Jewel will turn them over to the committee at the same time.

Members of Manteo and Raleigh cordially invited.

PHIL. THIEM,
Secretary.

JOHN C. BRAIN.—Our people will remember this notorious individual. He has turned up in Florida, and we regret to say with a bullet in his side, as appears from the following statement by the Fernandina (Fla.) Courier:

"An attempt was recently made to assassinate Capt. John C. Brain at a brick-yard which he had recently bought on the St. Mary's. He was shot by one George Pollard as he was sitting on his porch on Wednesday morning, the ball entering his left side about an inch above the heart. The ball has since been extracted and the wounded man is reported to be doing well. Pollard has not yet been arrested.

A LOST CHILD.—On Sunday the police picked up a little boy on the street, ragged, dirty and hungry, and the Mayor's court being in session, Alderman Stronach presiding, he sent him to his home to await the order of his parents if he has any. He says his name is George T. Patterson, and came from Hanover Junction, Va. He is about eight or nine years of age and seems to be a sprightly boy. In answer to the enquiry how he came here, he says he was playing about the depot and got in an open box car and fell to sleep; the doors were locked and when he awoke he did not know where he was. He called as loud as he could but the cars were in motion and he cried himself to sleep, when he next awoke he was at the depot in this city.

DEATH OF COL. BENJ AYCOCK.—We are pained to announce the death of Col. Benjamin Aycock, so widely and favorably known among the citizens of Wayne county, and highly respected by all who knew him. He died very suddenly on Saturday last, while in attendance on the Conference at Aycock's Church, about three miles from Fremont. His death will be received with profound sorrow by his numerous friends in this section. Col. Aycock had been in feeble health for some time; on Saturday he went to Aycock's Church to attend the meeting of the Conference, and had just finished reading the proceedings when he fell back in his chair and expired. His death was caused by heart disease. His age was 56 years. Col. Aycock possessed rare qualities.—Goldsboro Messenger.

LUNAR RAINBOW.—This morning we clipped from the Raleigh SENTINEL an account of a rainbow of this character, and remarked upon what we supposed was the rarity of such occurrences. Since then, upon the streets, we have heard numbers of our people speak of one which was seen here last night, the night after the one spoken of by the Raleigh papers. The subdued grandeur and beauty of the one seen here is described as something most exquisitely admirable and pleasing to the view. It formed a complete arch in the Western sky, and was as distinctly marked as is the Solar rainbow, without, however, so plain an appearance of the colors.—Alamance Gleaner.

A VISIT TO CHAPEL HILL.

We, a few days ago, had the pleasure of visiting the grand old educator, Chapel Hill. We left home on Tuesday morning last, went via Clover Orchard, and as we did not spend any time there, saw little or nothing of interest; and thence to Saxapahaw where we remained a few hours, saw some of our old acquaintances and friends. After traveling for a few hours more, we arrived at our destination.

And, soon after our arrival, being late in the evening, we made some inquiries in reference to the hotel, and were informed that it, like many other things since the dark ages, had ceased to flourish, but was then being renewed and refitted generally, and will again be ready to accommodate her old customers. However, we shared hospitality with Mr. Barbee and family, a gentleman in every respect, and whose sons are prominent merchants of the place and gentlemen in the superlative degree.

On Wednesday morning Mr. Barbee asked us if we would like to visit the Campus and the Society Halls, if so he would get some one to accompany us, to which we responded in the affirmative. We were then introduced to Mr. Meachal, a very pleasant gentleman, who went with us through the Campus, which was then being mowed and repaired generally. It is very large, containing several acres, and exceedingly beautiful, and will at no distant day be not inferior in beauty but superior to any in the land. May such it be. We then visited the Society Halls and found them far superior to what we anticipated. The Halls were beautifully ornamented with portraits of eminent men, a very neat carpet and many other things no less beautiful.

The college buildings are being renewed both inside and out. In a word everything within the Campus presents a view of prosperity, while the village itself is not in any case being neglected, but will soon be one of the prettiest and most desirable places in the South.

May the day so long looked for and expected soon dawn upon us.

During our stay in the village we had the pleasure of being introduced to a number of people, among whom were the Rev. A. W. Mangum and Charles Phillips, members of the Faculty, and high toned and refined gentlemen. This is what we know about Chapel Hill.

THE HERSEGOVINA DIFFICULTIES.

LONDON, August 23.

A special to the Times from Constantinople says the Porte has accepted the proposition of friendly powers to counsel a submission of the Insurgents to the Turkish authority, and to represent to them their utter hopelessness from foreign intervention. Servor Pacha has been appointed special commissioners to examine into the grievances of the disaffected people. It is confidently expected that the insurrection will thus soon terminate. A Berlin special dispatch to the Times says the Austrian Embassador at Constantinople suggested to the Turkish government the expediency of allowing Hersegovina a semi-independent administration. Had this suggestion been accepted the three northern powers would have been prepared to assist its accomplishment. The Porte, however, rejected the proposition. The intervention of Austria is no longer considered altogether improbable. The Austrian government seems to consider that a change has become indispensable and that it had best be effected at a time when Austria may exercise a leading influence.

The Times in a leading article says if any mode could be devised of giving Hersegovina and Bosnia an independence similar to that enjoyed by Servia it would be great relief to the Porte and an advantage to Europe. The writer points to a gradual and inevitable disruption of the Ottoman Empire, and protests against the supposition that the foreign policy of England might be governed in the interests of the holders of Turkish bonds. The article concludes: "Whenever the moment arrives for a further step toward the liberation of the outlying provinces of Turkey we need not hesitate to assist the movement, if that course should appear desirable."

A special to the London Daily News from Rome says the Pope has invited the Archbishop Ledochowski to Rome on the expiration of his term of imprisonment in February next, to attend a special consistory, at which he will receive the insignia of Cardinalate

THE GEORGIA NEGRO INSURRECTION.

AUGUSTA, August 23.

Several of the prominent negroes connected with the troubles in the counties below here have made confessions. Jake Moorman, first lieutenant of the negro company, testifies on oath that 19 counties were to be embraced in the insurrection. Last Friday was appointed for the uprising, all white men and ugly white women were to to be killed, the pretty white women were to be spared, and land and spoils were to be divided among the negroes. All who have so far confessed testify substantially to the same as Jake Moorman. Governor Smith arrived here this afternoon from Waynesboro. He is determined to preserve peace, enforce the laws and do justice to whites and blacks.

JUDGE WATTS.—The Newbern Journal of Commerce says:

We are informed that Judge Watts was drunk at the time he signed the order enjoining our city authorities, and that he did not read a word of the instrument to which he attached his signature. We are further reliably informed that ex-Mayor Campbell publicly stated that Watts was drunk when he procured his signature to the document in question. What will our State legislative body do in the premises? We shall see.

A RAILROAD FIGHT.

PATTERSON, N. J. Aug 23.

It is said that the N J & N Y R R owes the Erie R R $30,000 and refuses to pay. The Erie therefore to-day seized two cars of the former road at Long Dock and tore up the other company's track at Hackensack junction. There was great excitement, but the police from Jersey City preserved order
