Last night he delivered a temperance address at Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, and he will deliver addresses in the city on the same subject to-morrow and Friday nights and at Manchester on next Monday night. THE UNIVERSITY.—At a meeting of the Trustees of the University held on the 31st, the following, among other measures were adopted:

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes, furnished to the city papers for publication, and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to have repaired the old Philosophical, Chemical, &c., apparatus belonging to the University, and provide new whenever necessary.

Resolved, That the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina have received the official announcement of the death of their honored colleague, Hon. W. A. Graham, with the most profound sense of the irreparable loss which the State and the University have sustained in his decease.

Resolved, That the untiring zeal and great liberality with which Gov. Graham devoted his efficient labors to the service of the University during a long life, and especially to its revival in later years, entitle his memory to be enshrined in the hearts of all who love the University and the cause of higher education in North Carolina; and the University will gratefully preserve the memory of his illustrious character as a patriot and statesman, and his high devotion to, and affection for his Alma Mater, among its most cherished treasures.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered on the minutes of the Trustees. We hear that it is in contemplation to raise funds for a professorship to be called after name of Governor Graham which will be a worthy memorial of this great and good man, and ardent friend of education.

Resolved, That the receipts of peaches in New York on Sunday were 61 car-loads by the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad, 4 car-loads by the New Jersey Southern Railroad, and 3,450 crates by the Old Dominion steamer from Lewes, Del. The total receipts since the opening of the season are 2,311 car-loads.

Vance ought to publish the names of the leading men in Richmond—chiefly Senators and Representatives in the Confederate Congress—who requested him to make separate terms with President Lincoln for the submission of North Carolina to the Federal Government.

Westervelt is being tried in Philadelphia for complicity in the Charlie Rose abduction case. There can be very little question that Westervelt knows where Charlie Rose is, if he be alive, or can clear up the mystery of his fate, if dead. The friends of the lost boy hope that if convicted Westervelt can be induced to make a confession that will throw light on this most singular and baffling case. That Charlie was alive at the time of the death of the burglars is certain.
