THE CONSTITUTIONAL CON-VENTION.

FIRST DAYS PROCEEDINGS.

DELEGATES SEATED.

Chief Justice Pearson, Judge Bysum, and Roade and So t'on in regard to performing this serneed assi tance, and would designate Mesers. Young of Granville, French of New Hanover, Cunningham of Person. and Bennett of Amon to assist him came forward, took their seats at the desk of the Clerks, and proceeded to perform clerical duties. In order to ascertain whether there was a quorus present, the chair pro tess direct d th roll of counties to be called.

The roll of counties, in alphabe order, was called by Mr. Young, one of the temporary clerks until the county of Robeson was reached. During the that they have on han I the Fall style pendency of this call, Mr. Tourgee wantthe duty of the chairman, pro fem to ascertain if there was a quorum present

> The chair responded that there every indication that this was the largest opening of any deliberative body over assembled in the State, but if the gentleman desired it, he would order the name of each individual member elect to be called. Mr. Tourgee did not desire it.

The call, as above mentioned, proceeded, when,

Mr. Tourges offered the following to the Convention, protest against the validity of the oath prescribed in the act of the General Assembly calling this Convention as being beyond the control of any Legislature to impose; contrary to the political history, usages and precedents heretofore acknowledged and acted upon for forty years by the dignity of the people of the St

Davis, A McCabe, W P Mabson, J J Nowal JO Wilcox, B F Jones, J M Justice, RB

The chair said that the protest would be received and filed with the Conven-

Mr. Turner thought that this whole proceedings was out of order. The chair had no right to do synthing but qualify the members elect. The protest and other matters could be disposed of afterwards.

Mr. Tourgee said it that would be too late for amomber to protest against an oath after he had taken it

The chair said that the matter has been disposed of and ordered the roll; proceed. Under this call the follo members qualified:

Measrs Boyd, Watts, Venghan, Bennett, Wilcox, Shepherd, Bell, McDonald, Taylor, Clingman, Coleman, Avery, Allison, Jones of Caldwell, Chamberisin, Rumley, Withors, Carvy, McCorkle, Manning of Chatham, Stroud, Cooper, Page, Anderson of Clay, Durham, George, Lehman, Mannix, Buxton, Blocker, Crowell, Blivens, Price, Stallings Hofman, Roberts, Young, Bullock, Dixon, Tourges, Rolton, O'Hara, Goodwyn, Bar-rington, Love, Woodfin, Horton, Carter, Micholson, Summers, Spake, Massey, Hinerior, McCabe, Mabson, Wheeler, Green uant, Scott, King, Moty, Allman, Anderson of Madison, Hassell, Neal, Barringer, Kerr, Bowman, Jordan, Block, Bunn, French, Manning of New Hanover, Smyth, Barrow, Scott of Onslow, Turner, Munden, Albertson Cunningham, Jarvis, King, Hampton, Bean, Lowe and Dockery.

When the county of Robeson was called Mesers. Sinclair and McEachin, Conservatives, bearing the certificates of the Sheriff of the county, presented mselves, as also did Messrs, Norment and Neill, presenting certain cer-tificates from poll-holders.

Judge Settle, the chairman pro tem, said that from what he knew and from other evidences, that the question of qualification of the alleged members from Robeson county would create dee in the interest of ony and to facilitate the orea tion of the Convention, he would order that the alloged members from Hobert county stand aside for the pres

Mr. Turner wanted to know by what fig. Turner was profess ordered and ght the chairman profess ordered agency egates elec', holding proper certificates, each aside.

Judge Settle. —I have not seen any certificates in the case—do not know know what certificates the other parties

Mr. Turner said that the organisa-tion had proceeded thus far, and why now this jump in the counties? The was his duty to qualify those who pro-uted at the deak the certificate of that a copy of the letter of Judge

Mr. Cimgman said that the chairman had opened and passed upon his and the certificates of other gentlemen and did not see why an exception should be made in this case.

Mr. Manning, of Chatham, said that the rul ng of his Honor was taking the bers of his side at a disadvantage It was the understanding, according to his Honor's recent ruling, that the qualifying officer could not refuse the certificate of he lawful and regular returning officer. The present ruling was in effect to throw the organization into the hands of party of his Bonor, though he (Mr. ning,) did not mean to say that it was intended so.

Judge Settle said that he did propose to put this question off until the Convention adjourned. but merely nntil the qualification other members had been finished. Se would say that it was now his impression that the contiemer holding the certificates of the Sheriff should be admixted to qualification, but he wished to have all the light possible

After some debate the chair agreed that all others who held certificates subject to c'allenge should stand saide and come up cotemporaneously with the Robeson queston.

Under this agreement Messers, Badger of Wake, Dula and Brynn, of Wilkes. Bateman of Washington and Jones of Yadkin were made to stand aside on the objection of Mr. Manning, as they were office-holders and there was question as to their eligebility

On the objection of Mr. Tourgee Mr. Dobson, of S rry, was made to stand aside on account of illegality of certificate

Then Messrs Reid, Shober, Hender on, Justice, Kirby, Faison, Marshall, McCandless, Everett, Wilson, Redwine. Davis, Hodge, Nowell, Thorne, Creeby, Bingham, Faircloth, Grantham, Single tary and Bird were qualified.

After the qualification of members was over the Judge then ordered the clerk pro, tem to read the certificates and other papers presente I by the gentlemen claming to be elected.

The clerk read the sheriffs certificate presented by Messrs, Sinclair and Mc-Eachin, and then proceeded to read a statement of the poll-hold ra in the different precincts in Robeson during the recent election.

After the conclusion of the reading of the papers the chair announced after citing authority, that the gentlemen holding the Sheriff's cortificate (Messrs. Sinclair and McEnchin) had a right to qualify. It was then agreed that all who had been ordered to stand saide should come forward, present their certificates and be qualified, which was accordingly done.

The chair announced that nominations for President were in order.

Mr. Albertson, Rep., nominated O H. Dockery. Fr. Reid, Dem., nominated E. Ran
