THE SENTINEL.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1875.

THE CONVENTION.

A more remarkable body never met perhaps than that which assembled in Commons Hall yesterday. Scenes were witnessed which have no precedent in this State. Party tactics of a most novel kind were displayed. There was a series of surprises throughout the day. First, it was not to be expected that every member of the Convention would be in his seat when the gavel of the officer designated by the law to call the body to order descended upon the Speaker's table,—marking the dividing point between two great epochs in North Carolina history. But they were all there. Every man was in his seat—119 in all, representing the sovereign people of our grand old Commonwealth.

There was surprise when Judge Settle assumed the duty of perfecting the organization. The public had been prepared by certain newspaper statements to see the Secretary of State perform the office. There was some feeling of relief on the part of all law-abiding, and peace loving men, when the Associate Justice above mentioned took the Chair instead of Dr. Howerton; for, it had been bruited about that the Secretary of State would have taken what would have been considered an arbitrary and unwarranted step in regard to the Robeson County case. His opinions on that point we are informed differ very pointedly and widely from those of the learned Justices of the Supreme Court, so far as the opinions of the latter on this point are known. Any despotic act on the part of the sweet-voiced officer would almost certainly have led to scenes of violence such as have never before been witnessed in this State, though Louisiana has seen such to her sorrow. The free representatives of North Carolina, like those of Louisiana, are not to be trifled with; and they will not quietly bend the neck at the bidding of men disposed to act tyrannically.

But this surprise was not so gratifying as that occasioned among Conservatives when Judge Settle decided to admit the Robeson County delegates to seats on the floor. It was apprehended that he might yield to the impulses of the zealous partisan, rather than to the dictates of an enlightened judgment. This was the more pleasing as it came after the excitement stirred up by his first announcement that he would consider the Robeson County case after he had finished with all the other delegates.

Judge Settle was probably misunderstood; but certain it is that when he proposed to jump Robeson county, his position was assailed with a boldness, vigor, and tact by Messrs. Manning, Clingman, Turner and Bennett, which elicited the admiration of all who witnessed it. The breeze did not subside until his Honor succeeded in making himself properly understood.

There was another surprise when ex-Gov. Reid, the venerable delegate from Rockingham, arose in his seat, and as the spokesman of the Democratic party within the hall, placed the name of Dr. Edward Ransom, of Tyrrell, in nomination for President of the Convention. An independent nominated by Democrats! Everybody in the hall was thunder struck, except the Democrats who were in the secret. Still greater was the surprise when Dr. Ransom declined the nomination! "He has betrayed the Democrats!" cried the uninitiated, and a shout of applause went up from the Radical side of the house such as has been rarely heard within those famous walls. The excitement and wonder arose to still higher pitch when Dr. Ransom voted for ex-Gov. Reid for President! What does it all mean! was the hurried and anxious enquiry of all who were ignorant of the plan of Democrats, and the intentions of the member from Tyrrell. The second ballot offered no better clue than the first to the mystery. And when the Convention adjourned the mystery was still unsolved. At this writing we do not know the result—the final clearing up of the doubt. We refer the reader to our report of the proceedings of to-day to be found upon the first page.

The Weekly News is the cheapest paper published in North Carolina. It is only one dollar per year, postage paid, contains 32 columns of plain printed news from every section of the country, and important advertisements. Always Cash.—Raleigh News.

Yes, brethren, cheap enough. The editors, Stone & Uzzell, say they lost $25,000. This loss occurred when they charged $7 for the daily and $2 for the weekly. Now the price is $5 for the daily and $1 for the weekly.

Certain stockholders of the Cheatham Railroad furnished most of the $35,000. If they still furnish money to run this Hawkins sheet, House bill 422, stolen through the Senate without being read, and by which ten cent State bonds are exchanged for bonds worth a dollar, will enable the news men to issue their paper at less than $1. When railroads or stockholders of roads run papers they should be cheap. T.

We have enumerated the Raleigh News among the Democratic papers that favored the pardon of Gov. Holden. Some remarks in a recent issue of that paper causes us to doubt the position of the News. We call upon the News to say plainly whether it is in favor of pardoning Holden or no't. A previous article in the News plainly indicated that it was in favor of the pardon and we so stated, but a subsequent article seems to bear a different construction.—Charlotte Democrat.

Better first require him to make restitution of his portion of the sixteen millions stolen under his administration. And instruct the Governor to have him indicted with Hawkins, Swepson and other Railroad Presidents who have been and are now plundering the State.

Judge Settle's decision yesterday in the Robeson County election case was according to "the law and the precedent."

It is possible for the Convention to make a good Constitution for North Carolina—if they will.

To-morrow is the great day at Chapel Hill—the opening day. The prospects are bright and encouraging.

"Let us have peace" gentlemen of the Convention.

THE DEMOCRATIC VICTORY IN CALIFORNIA.

A democratic success in California says the New York Herald, was not unexpected, but it seems to have surpassed the most sanguine hopes of the party in distant States. There was no election in California last year, and no means of judging whether "the tidal wave" extended to that State. In 1872 Grant's majority over Greeley was between thirteen and fourteen thousand, and in 1873 the democratic vote fell off more than one-half. But that election was held a few weeks in advance of the great September panic, which turned the scale in Ohio and lifted the democratic party from the prostration in which it had been left by the Presidential election. Although California held no election last year the success of the democrats in Oregon showed that on the Pacific coast the same causes were in operation which had given so great an impetus to the democratic party east of the Rock Mountains. Shrewd observers, therefore, came to the conclusion that California would this year go democratic, and the great speculative interests accordingly gave a quiet support to the party. Even Mr. Ralston, who had been a prominent, active republican, contributed money in aid of the democratic canvass. The great speculating interests have so many axes to grind in the Legislature that they did not think it prudent to have the party in power against them.

This state of things does not account for the democratic victory, but it explains why it was so great. It was a foregone conclusion in the minds of the speculators that the democrats would carry the State, and they turned in and helped it because it was for their interest "to have friends at court" The democrats have not only elected their State ticket by a large plurality, but claim to have chosen certainly three and perhaps all four of the Congressmen, where they had but one member of the last House. So signal a success will not only encourage the hopes of the democrats in other States, but will strengthen the hard-money wing of the party in the National Convention next year. Delegates from States which can give electorial votes for the candidates will naturally have more influence than delegates from States which can merely assist in making the nominations without doing anything for the ticket. California would have been a hard money State in any event, but it can protest with more effect against inflation when its delegates virtually hold the electoral votes of the Pacific States in their hands. Nobody should be sorry to see the hard-money wing of the democratic party strengthened.

A County Without a Sheriff.—Sheriff Bell has gone to Raleigh to sit as a member of the Convention (if he can) and we are without a sheriff. But there are any quantity of deputies around in these diggings. What a commentary upon the way things are going on now, not a man in Bertie fit to represent us, except sheriff Bell.—Albemarle Times.

A Fatal Mistake.—Pottsville, Ind., Sept. 4—Two young men driving in a buggy were accosted by two special police, whom they mistook for outlaws, and one fired, wounding the Policeman. The police returned the fire, killing one and the other young man escaped in the woods. A Vigilance Committee is being organized to suppress outlaws.

NOTICE.

I hereby forewarn all persons from hireing, harboring, or otherwise concealing a bright mulatto girl, Aggy Bryan, age fourteen years, under the severest penalty of the law. Said girl was bound to me by the Court. Any information of her whereabouts will be thankfully received,

ELIAS BRYAN,

A C A R D.

To the Editor of the News:—I see a card published in your Daily and Weekly, and also in the Daily and Weekly Sentinel, signed by J. W. Vick, M. D., Selma, N. C., dated Aug. 10th, 1875, which is a wilful falsehood. The Dr. says I assisted in Raleigh to W. H. Hood, Clerk for A. C. S. & Co., that Dr. Vick told negroes at Wilder's Township, who were being influenced by a Convention negro from Smithfield, to vote against "Removal of County Seat," and for the Conservative candidates for Convention, that if they did so, they (the negroes would vote themselves back into slavery. I made no such assertion and W. H. Hood, who the Dr. says his statement came from, authorizes me to say to the public that he made no such statement as that contained in Vick's card.

The M. D. had better stop writing about honest men, and go to cutting old field hickory poles and build him a Courthouse, for he will never get one any other way at Selma.

This is the first time in my life that I have had to appear before the public, and will be my last so far as Vick's card is concerned.

Marriage.

Married persons, or young men contemplating marriage, suffering from Organic and Physical Weakness, Loss of Procreative Power, Impotency, Prostration, Exhausted Vitality, Involuntary Discharges, Non Erectility, Hasty Emissions, Palpitations of the Heart, Nervous Excitability, Decay of the Physical and Mental Powers, Derangement of all the Vital Forces and Functions, Nervous Debility, Loss of Manhood, General Weakness of the Organs, and every other unhappy disqualification, speedily removed, and full Manly vigor restored.

Mentality.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, etc., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a sallow appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of consumption.

TESTIMONIALS:

Goldsboro, N. C.

After spending eighteen months in a southern climate to restore my Lungs I gave up in despair, and came home to die with my children in Goldsboro, N. C. While there I obtained a box of Dr McMannen's Tar Mixture. Its first effect was to enable me to sleep; my strength began to return; hope revived; my cough gave way. After using six boxes, I was restored to health. I now weigh 160 lbs. I owe my life to this mixture, and wish this published to the world

E. E. ROBISON.

I have been afflicted with a cough for thirty years. I have used all the popular remedies for coughs. I have never found anything to remain on the stomach or give any relief, until I used Dr. McMannen's American Tar Mixture. Its use enables me to sleep well; my lungs have regained their strength, and I find myself entirely free from a distressing cough that attacked me in the morning. I am rapidly recovering.

MRS. POTTER PASCHAL.

My Lungs gave way while on my circuit. I was forced to retire from my work, and had but little hope of recovery. I used one box of Dr. McMannen's Tar Mixture, my cough improved, my strength returned, and I was soon able to resume my work. I recommend it to all who have a cough, or weak lungs.

LUDWIC SUMMERS.

Durham, N. C.

I was taken with an alarming cough; was fearful of its result; suffered for want of sleep. I used one box of the American Tar Mixture. From the first day I used it, I felt its good effects. I slept sound, and my strength increased; a few weeks found myself again. I can conscientiously recommend it to all who are afflicted with consumptive symptoms or weak lungs.

W. K. STYRON.

Durham, N. C.

I have used Dr. C. T. McMannen's American Tar Mixture myself, and in my family. I do not hesitate to recommend it as a remedy to be used in all cases of Cough, Colds, Sore Throat, Hoarseness and Lung diseases.

The second annual session of this school will begin WEDNESDAY, September, 1st, 1875. The Principals have procured for the school the commodious and attractive residence on Newbern Avenue, well-known in Raleigh as the "Cotton Place," more recently owned and handsomely refitted by Col. R. Kingsland.

Besides continuing their Day School they propose taking a limited number of boys of good character and conduct to board in their own family.

The training of the school, as heretofore, will be full, thorough and accurate, preparing its pupils for college or for business life.

Competent assistants will be provided in all departments, as may be required. The Principals trust that it is scarcely necessary for them to say that whilst the school will continue to be conducted on Christian principles, it will be entirely without denominational aim or bias.

Six Reasons Why
YOU SHOULD INSURE IN
The Penn Mutual
921 CHESTNUT STREET.

1st. Because it is one of the oldest Companies in the Country, and past the day of experiments.

2nd. Because every policy-holder is member of the Company, entitled to all its advantages and privileges, having a right to vote at all elections for trustees, and thus has an influence in its management.

3rd. Because it has as large a percentage of assets to liabilities as any Life Insurance Co. in the Country.

4th. Because by economical management, its ratio of expenses to total income is far below the average of Life Companies. (See Official Insurance Reports.)

5th. Because it has declared more dividends in number, and of a Larger Average Percentage, than any Company in the United States.

For example: Policy No. 16, for $8,000 has been paid to the widow of a Philadelphia Merchant, upon which twenty-three dividends had been declared. Averaging fifty-seven per cent. Had these dividends been used to purchase additions to this Policy, $6,048 more would have been realized, making the Policy worth $14,048.00.

6th. Because it is liberal in its management, prompt in its settlements, safe beyond a contingency, and its rates are as low as any first-class Company in the Country.

Principal Features.—Small expenses, absolute security, large return premiums, prompt payment of losses, and liberality to the insured.
