The City

LEA PERRINS'

is the only GENUINE WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE.

COOL FOR THE SEASON

London Spectator.—I was not a little amused at the proceedings of our Board of Aldermen last night. It seems it was a special meeting to take into consideration the propriety of taking from Edwards & Broughton a contract for printing made by a committee of the Board, whereby this city would save $75 on the work, and it was finally concluded to take it from that firm and give it to the News office.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

By Mr. Manning, of Chatham, from the Committee on the Judicial Department, in behalf of Mr. Robeson, the chairman, submitted a report. The report of the committee was read and approved. Mr. Manning, of Chatham, from the Committee on the Judicial Department, in behalf of Mr. Robeson, the chairman, submitted a report. The report of the committee was read and approved.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT

James B. Lee, charged with assault and battery on Willis Thompson, a young lady, fined $2.50 and costs. Fanchal Hay, colored, charged with stealing a hog belonging to Mr. Mirans Blake. The testimony showed that Blake killed a hog belonging to Mr. Blake, in a cornfield, placed it, and was on his way to Raleigh with it, when he was arrested by Constable Milton Jones, of Gaylesville.

STATE NEWS

Charlotte is proud of her new jail. Last week's cotton sales in Charlotte were 418 bales. A son of Rev. Colin Shaw, of Bladen county, killed two bears one day last week. J. S. Tomlinson takes entire charge of the Piedmont Press at Blakely, J. F. Murray retiring. A Sunday School in Wilmington has been transferred into a military company with the superintendent as captain.

THE BANKRUPT

It is estimated that of the number who launch their fortunes on the stormy sea of commerce, nine out of ten become bankrupt. Many things conspire to effect this result. Prominent among them is "living beyond your means," exchanging your financial strength for it in the physical part, possession of strength and anticipations of a long life, we launch out in the quest of pleasure.

MAGNIFICENT PRIZE

In the window of the Citizens' National Bank stands a splendid silver cup, which is to be presented to-morrow evening to Dr. W. J. Hawkins, is the President of the Raleigh and Greensboro' Association. It consists of a massive pitcher, waiter and a set of goblets, from the factory of the Cutlery Manufacturing Company, of New York, and cost $250.00. It is presented by the employees of the company, as a testimonial of their esteem for the retiring president.

THE SHIP DRAGON

In the ship Dragon, in which the distinguished Prince of Wales is to make his autumn trip, has just departed, the vessel was seen to Great Britain's service, if she had proved for duty on with her burden of weather-captain on the Atlantic.
