A Richmond paper says: "Gringo," that long-haired and short-eared Texan, has been lost between here and Raleigh, leaving neither track, trace, nor remembrance. Perhaps the natives have taken his scalp. It would make a splendid cognign for some fair Tarheelian.

THE ROSE HARBANA.—Yesterday at 6 p. m., our fellow-citizens of the Hebrew faith commenced to celebrate the feast of Rosh Hashana, the civil new year 5636 of the creation of the world. This morning interesting ceremonies were held at the new synagogue over the store of M. Rosenbaum & Bro., Fayetteville street, conducted by Mr. Grassman. The celebration of the feast closes at 6 this evening. During the services this morning the Shahr (ram's horn) was sounded and sincere prayers were sent up to God for the peace and happiness of all mankind. The new synagogue is plainly but neatly fitted up, and the curtain of the ark, containing the Holy Scroll, and the covering of the reading desk are of elegant white satin.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

THURSDAY, Sept. 30.

At 10 a. m. Mr. President Ransom called the Convention to order.

Prayer by Rev. John Snodden of the city.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Mr. French presented a petition from ladies of Wilmington, Fayetteville and surrounding towns for the convention to make laws to put down the saloon liquor. On motion of Mr. Tourgee, the petition was rejected on account of not being signed.

Mr. Manning of New Hanover, submitted a report from the Committee on Amendments.

Mr. French again offered the petition from the ladies of Wilmington in regard to the sale of liquor, saying that the objection to it on account of being anonymous was removed, as he and the delegates from Henderson, Mr. Woodfin, had signed it in behalf of the ladies. The petition was received and appropriately referred.

Mr. Reid, from the Committee on Revision, made a report.

Mr. Roberts, of Gates, from the Committee on Enrolled Bills, reported the correct enrollment of several ordinances.

Mr. Shepherd, from the Committee on Municipal Corporations, submitted a report.

Mr. Durham, from the Committee on Revenue, Taxation and Public Debt, submitted a report.

Mr. Shober, from the Committee on Suffrage, &c., submitted a report.

On motion of Mr. Durham the rules were suspended and the various ordinances in relation to special tax bonds were made the special order for Saturday next at 11 a. m.

By Mr. Holton: An ordinance to submit the question of the pardon of W. W. Holden to the people of the state at the election upon the amendments to the constitution adopted by this convention. Referred.

By Mr. Vaughn: An ordinance to amend sec. 9, art. 2. Referred. (This ordinance makes age for senator 21 instead of 25.)

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The bill to reduce the number of state senators to 25.

The question recurred upon Mr. Baringer's substitute, published yesterday.

Mr. Avery moved to recommit the whole matter to the Committee on the Legislative Department, and on the motion called the previous question.

The yeas and nays were called and the call for the previous question was sustained by a vote of yeas 57, nays 55.

The question then recurred on the motion to recommit and prevailed by a vote of yeas 58, nays 54.

The announcement of the vote taken yesterday on the motion to lay on the table Mr. Chamberlain's motion to reconsider Mr. Jarvis' resolution recommending the Robeson county case to the Committee on Privileges and Elections, was announced at the next thing in order.

Mr. Tourgee said that he raised the same objection which he did on yesterday, to-wit: that Messrs. McEachin and Sinclair had no right to vote and asked a decision of the chair.

The chair said that he had already decided some four or five times and would reiterate the decision.

The chair ruled that it was not the proper time for an appeal and that the vote must be announced. It was a storm of calls of "object!" "object!" and "yells" and louds burst from the Republican side, which put the convention in a state of confusion from which it did not recover for nearly two hours.

Various gentlemen denounced the scene as being pre-eminently disgraceful.

After a disorderly and loud debate Mr. Tourgee withdrew his appeal and the chair announced the vote at standing yeas 59, nays 57, so the motion to table the question to reconsider the vote by which Mr. Jarvis' resolution recommending the Robeson county matter was adopted lay on the table.

Mr. Tourgee moved that the ballot be verified by expunging the names of Messrs. McEachin and Sinclair.

Mr. Dunn next took the floor. He said that the resolution of Mr. Jarvis was simply recommending the question to the Committee on Privileges and Elections to ascertain what was the true will of the people of Robeson. He proceeded to prove that all the requirements of justice went to show that the matter should be recommended.

Here another long debate arose, and at several times a number of delegates were speaking at once, almost refusing to obey the decisions of the chair.

Mr. Manning, of Chatham, demanded the previous question.

The yeas and nays were called and the call was sustained by a vote of yeas 59, nays 52.

The question recurred upon the motion of Mr. Tourgee to disallow the votes of Messrs. McEachin and Sinclair and on the demand of Mr. Justice the yeas and nays were called.

During the ballot Mr. Badger objected to the vote of Messrs. McEachin and Sinclair.

The chair ruled that the objection could not be made during the call of the vote and not until after the announcement of the vote.

Mr. Tourgee's motion was rejected by a vote of yeas 54 nays 55.

Mr. Chamberlain for the minority of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, presented a protest against the action of the convention in recommending the Robeson county contest matter. The protest was ordered to be spread on the Journal.

By Mr. Byrd: An ordinance to amend art. 5 of the constitution. This amendment provides that the general assembly shall levy no tax to pay any part of the public debt until the act laying the same is ratified by the people.
