

Daily Sentinel

VOL. XXI. RALEIGH, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1916. No. 55.

THE RALEIGH SENTINEL. DAILY, WEEKLY AND SEMI-WEEKLY. Published by the Daily Sentinel Printing and Binding Establishment...

THE DAILY SENTINEL. Published by the Daily Sentinel Printing and Binding Establishment...

Subscription offer for paper

THE CITY

THE "TOLLY" CASE-In court drew another large crowd today. After the evidence was in, able and eloquent speeches were made by E. Graham Baywood and Judge Powell for the state, and F. H. Tumber and Colonel Fuller for the defense. The defendant plead guilty to the charge of assault and battery on his wife, Hattie Wolf. The judge has the case under advisement and sentence will probably be pronounced to-morrow morning.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. THE CONVENTION MET AT 10 P. M., and continued in session until 11:30. The session was held in the room of the Raleigh National Bank, under the leadership of the Hon. J. W. Johnson, Secretary of the Convention.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. THE CONVENTION MET AT 10 P. M., and continued in session until 11:30. The session was held in the room of the Raleigh National Bank, under the leadership of the Hon. J. W. Johnson, Secretary of the Convention.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. THE CONVENTION MET AT 10 P. M., and continued in session until 11:30. The session was held in the room of the Raleigh National Bank, under the leadership of the Hon. J. W. Johnson, Secretary of the Convention.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. THE CONVENTION MET AT 10 P. M., and continued in session until 11:30. The session was held in the room of the Raleigh National Bank, under the leadership of the Hon. J. W. Johnson, Secretary of the Convention.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. HERE ARE SOME OF THE NEW ADVERTISEMENTS THAT HAVE BEEN PLACED IN THIS EDITION OF THE SENTINEL...

THE CITY

THE CITY. THE "TOLLY" CASE-In court drew another large crowd today. After the evidence was in, able and eloquent speeches were made by E. Graham Baywood and Judge Powell for the state, and F. H. Tumber and Colonel Fuller for the defense.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. THE CONVENTION MET AT 10 P. M., and continued in session until 11:30. The session was held in the room of the Raleigh National Bank, under the leadership of the Hon. J. W. Johnson, Secretary of the Convention.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. THE CONVENTION MET AT 10 P. M., and continued in session until 11:30. The session was held in the room of the Raleigh National Bank, under the leadership of the Hon. J. W. Johnson, Secretary of the Convention.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. THE CONVENTION MET AT 10 P. M., and continued in session until 11:30. The session was held in the room of the Raleigh National Bank, under the leadership of the Hon. J. W. Johnson, Secretary of the Convention.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. THE CONVENTION MET AT 10 P. M., and continued in session until 11:30. The session was held in the room of the Raleigh National Bank, under the leadership of the Hon. J. W. Johnson, Secretary of the Convention.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. HERE ARE SOME OF THE NEW ADVERTISEMENTS THAT HAVE BEEN PLACED IN THIS EDITION OF THE SENTINEL...

THE CITY

THE CITY. THE "TOLLY" CASE-In court drew another large crowd today. After the evidence was in, able and eloquent speeches were made by E. Graham Baywood and Judge Powell for the state, and F. H. Tumber and Colonel Fuller for the defense.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. THE CONVENTION MET AT 10 P. M., and continued in session until 11:30. The session was held in the room of the Raleigh National Bank, under the leadership of the Hon. J. W. Johnson, Secretary of the Convention.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. THE CONVENTION MET AT 10 P. M., and continued in session until 11:30. The session was held in the room of the Raleigh National Bank, under the leadership of the Hon. J. W. Johnson, Secretary of the Convention.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. THE CONVENTION MET AT 10 P. M., and continued in session until 11:30. The session was held in the room of the Raleigh National Bank, under the leadership of the Hon. J. W. Johnson, Secretary of the Convention.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. THE CONVENTION MET AT 10 P. M., and continued in session until 11:30. The session was held in the room of the Raleigh National Bank, under the leadership of the Hon. J. W. Johnson, Secretary of the Convention.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. HERE ARE SOME OF THE NEW ADVERTISEMENTS THAT HAVE BEEN PLACED IN THIS EDITION OF THE SENTINEL...