The City.

Rose and Harry Watkins, at Tucker's Hall next week.

The Wandering Jew reached our city this morning.

Work has begun on Senator Merrimon's fine residence.

Only one plain little disorderly before his honor, the mayor, this morning.

Cotton receipts during this week, 2,275 bales. Price to-day, 12 3-4 cents, and tendency upward.

Hotels are all filling up with visitors to the fair. Richmond alone sends a delegation of 70 prominent citizens.

The juvenile Mexican troupe, which has been delighting Baltimore and Richmond, will be here next week.

To-day being the Jewish Day of Atonement, the business houses of our Hebrew fellow-citizens have been closed.

Dr. Henry M. Wilder, of Milburnie, was flying around town to-day, looking as if he'd just stepped out of a handbox or a Saratoga.

A citizens' meeting is to be held at Metropolitan hall, this evening at 8 o'clock, to take action on the special tax bond question.

Business in Raleigh good. Streets alive with teams, and stores that advertise are thronged with customers. Not much "hard times" howling hereabouts.

That same ancient cider-press which has so long and regularly filled a niche at our fair, has been repainted and puts in an appearance looking new as ever.

Our lightning-tongued young city auctioneer, Ed. Thomason, rumor says, has resigned his talking position, and embarked as chief engineer and boss conductor of a rip-roaring one-ox team.

The flaming handbills specially announce among Cole's circus attractions, "Bare-back male and female equestrians." Bare-backs be hanged—it's the bare ankles in which our cultivated Oak City youth delight.

LAST OUT.—In a brief and hurried notice of the Wolf case yesterday, two of the strongest and most eloquent addresses of counsel were unmentioned. Col. A. M. Lewis made the opening speech for the prosecution; and Charles Busbee, in one of the most brilliant efforts of his life, entered the plea of guilty for the defendant.

A gentleman hereabouts declares that, in spite of frost for two weeks, the mosquitoes in his neighborhood are as big as woodcocks, and institute as Radical treasury-leeches. A pair of them will, in a single night, drain the last drop of juice out of an ordinary yearling urchin and pick their teeth with its shin-bones. All the panic-stricken mammas are turning preserve-kettles down over their precious darlings when they put them in their little beds.

J. F. GULLEY has an excellent assortment of Fresh clothing, Gents' Hand made Boots and Gaiters for Gents, and full line Dry Goods, also line Hats, and beautiful line Gents' White Shirts all at prices to please. Keep only good goods.
P. S.—Clothing department up stairs.

COMMITMENT.—In court yesterday, Col. A. M. Lewis, one of our most distinguished lawyers, conducted the prosecution of a man charged with wife-whipping. Last evening, playing on the opposite side to Mrs. Lewis at a card party, the colonel was badly euchred. He accounted for his defeat by saying: "I have been laboring all day to establish the fact that a man should never beat his wife, and I'm only practicing what I've preached."

BEAR BEAR.—Morgan, the artist and landscape enthusiast, whose pictures of North Carolina scenery equal any ever taken anywhere, by any man in America, adds bee fancying to art. Not satisfied with depicting the exquisite flowers of our sunny Southern land so naturally that you can smell the perfume, he has gone to robbing them of their honey, draining them of all their sweets. He has, near Hickory, the largest apiary in the state, and his bees seem to understand that they are laboring for an admirer and friend, and work like little railroad hands, digging out all the botanic saccharine stores of meadow, field and wildwood for miles around. As a specimen of their industry, he yesterday took $8 worth of beautiful white honey out of one hive that he has up at his photographic tent on Hillsboro street. Say he has 1,000 such hives, wouldn't his income be enough to satisfy a plain young sand-hill farmer?

RELIGIOUS.

Rabbi Wise has opened a Hebrew college in Cincinnati.

An immense affair is the way of a State Sunday School Convention next in Richmond, Thursday.

Rev. C. H. Vaughan, of Macon, Georgia, having been invited to fill the pulpit of the Presbyterian church in this city, arrived yesterday, and will preach to-morrow morning and evening.

The Right Reverend T. [illegible], assistant bishop of the state of North Carolina, will preach in the free church of the Good Shepherd, to-morrow evening at half-past 7 o'clock.

Professor Swing, of Chicago, swings far toward atheism, pantheism and every other unchristianism, when he declares "the government has no more right to teach the Bible than the Koran in its public schools."

Moody and Sankey open out in Philadelphia November 1. Some of the high-toned, kid-gloved and rose-watered parsons refuse to countenance them, because they have never been "ordained."

A Missouri preacher has swapped his apostolic robes for the striped tights and peaked crown of a circus clown, giving as a reason, that "$5 a week and three square meals a day, are better than $400 a year payable in dried apples, hay and old clothes."

Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy, don't mean to use its sacred hours only to show off the latest fall fashions. Yet in how many churches to-morrow, from Maine to Mexico, will the new bonnets be a more important feature of the services than the prayer-books.

Bishop Atkinson's appointments for his autumnal visitation are at Leaksville, to-morrow; Greensboro, Oct. 12; Lexington, Oct. 14; Salem, Oct. 12; St. Andrews, Rowan county, Oct. 16; Christ Church, Oct. 17; Salisbury, Oct. 18 and 19; Graham, Oct. 21; St. Mary's, Orange county, Oct. 22; Hillsboro, Oct 23; Chapel Hill, Oct. 24; Durham, Oct. 25; Gaston, Nov. 10; Ridgeway, Nov. 11; Warrenton, Nov. 12; Henderson, Nov. 14; Williamsboro, Nov. 15; Sassafras Fork, Granville county, Nov. 16; Goshen, Nov. 18; Oxford, Nov. 19.

At Person Street Methodist church, 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., by Rev. M. M. Jurney. Sunday School 9 a. m.

At Catholic church, mass at 11 a. m., vespers at 5 p. m., by Rev. Father Reilly. Sunday school at 10 a. m.

At Presbyterian church, 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by Rev. Dr. Vaughan. Sunday school at 9 a. m.

FAIR SERMON.—Mr. Chamberlain, Republican, addressed the convention, last Wednesday, upon the passage of the ordinance requiring 30 days' residence in counties of electors, and disfranchisement of all persons convicted of infamous crimes, in a well-prepared speech of twenty minutes. He showed conclusively the superiority of the whites as a race over the colored, but at the same time expressed a desire that all legislation should tend to the elevation and instruction of the latter, in furtherance of good government and the purity of the ballot-box. His motto was legislation for the good of the whole with as little injury as possible to the few.

GOOD.—We received to-day from an esteemed friend in Alamance, a powerfully written appeal to the convention in behalf of the nigger ruled and ruined eastern counties. He has doubtless seen, see this, that the convention yesterday passed an ordinance affording prompt and complete relief—giving the legislature entire control of the county judiciary. Good. We congratulate our long-suffering brethren on the prospect of speedy redemption.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

Saturday, Oct. 9.

The President [illegible] in the chair.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. [illegible].

The journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Mr. Chapman, [illegible] a petition from the mayor of Charlotte in regard to the [illegible] of the branch mint in that city. The petition was appropriately referred.

Mr. [illegible], from the committee on the judiciary department, reported a resolution that the committee were unanimously of the opinion that this convention has no power to grant divorces.

By Mr. Badger, an ordinance to amend art. 7. Referred.

By Mr. Wilcox, a resolution to allow S. M. Brower, the contestant from Surry county, mileage and per diem. Calendar.

By Mr. Bryant, an ordinance to regulate and establish salaries of state officials, &c. Referred.

Mr. Turner, of Orange, offered the following petition from the grand jury of Wake; now in session:

"To the Honorable the Delegates of the Constitutional Convention of North Carolina, now in session:

The undersigned, grand jurors for the county of Wake, at the court now in session, would earnestly and respectfully ask of your honorable body to so ordain that the $15,000,000 of bonds known as special tax bonds, should not be paid by the legislature before the people of North Carolina who are to pay them shall be allowed to pass upon their merits and validity at the polls. Your grand jury and each member of it do believe said bonds were issued in bribery and scandalous corruption. And they will, as in duty bound, ever hope and pray for such an ordinance.

(Signed,) W. A. Rhodes, foreman; E. C. Fowle, clerk; W. D. Alford, G. W. Atkinson, W. H. Edwards, Wm. C. Bledsoe, John J. Eskine, W. H. Chamblee, S. C. Chamblee, T. Broadwell, E. L. Mills, L. Watkins, Mike Jones, colored, T. G. Stephens, Carlos Yates, B. F. Hodges.

Mr. Turner said the boldest man Kentucky ever saw said on a great occasion, "there was a courage he did not possess, a courage he did not covet; he could not lay himself down in the way of the glory and prosperity of his country; he was too cowardly for that." The subject matter of this petition had produced a clamor for the past nine years from one end of this state to the other. This monstrous debt was built up as in the way of the glory and prosperity of the state. He hoped that before night the prayer of the grand jury would be granted, and that his Democratic friends at least would not be found lying themselves down in the way of the prosperity and advancement of the common mother of us all. It was said this would be our last day; he had heard as much out of doors, but he could not believe that this convention would adjourn without settling this vexatious question.

The ordinance to amend sec. 1, art. 9, was taken up and adopted after some amendment.

The ordinance to strike out sec. 31, art. 4, and to add an additional section was taken up and, after amendment passed its several readings.

The ordinance in relation to the election of officers of such courts inferior to the supreme court, as the general assembly may establish, was taken up. It provides that said officers are to be elected in a manner to be prescribed by law. It passed its several readings.

The ordinance prohibiting marriage between white persons and negro persons to the third generation was taken up and passed its several readings.

[Owing to a press of matter on our columns nearly all of our detailed report has to be omitted. It will appear in the next issue.

WANTED HIS WOOL.—A venerable colored gentleman, in his Sunday-gotten meetings, stove-pipe hat, white cotton gloves and all, passed up Fayetteville street this morning straddle of an old horse skeleton about whom the buzzards hovered longingly and tenderly. As he fanned his aged crow-bait with a No. 19 brogan, he ejaculated: "Git up hyar, you ole cuss! Hole up yo' head an' tail! Put on style. Don't you know de Far's a comin'? Cock yo' ears up, an' look like one of dem furrow-breds!" When all at once the old bunch of bones took him at his word and there was a confused streak of nigger, ancient broadcloth, plug hat and other sich, skytrolaling through the air in a style that would have made Cole's bareback somersetters die of envy. As he gathered his fragments together and picked himself up, he muttered: "Fus, dat's always de way wid a dam hoss. Niggah an' a mule, dat's de match made in hebben. Cibil rights don't bust up dat ole family 'rangement. Arter dis I sticks to my fewm."

GOOD SALE.—Our townsman, G. T. Stronach, as an experiment, recently shipped a lot of cotton graded as middling, to Murchison & Co., 74 Wall street, New York. The result is satisfactory and some to spare. They sold it last Wednesday, at 12½ cents, where 12 1-8 was the highest quotation of the market.

Our City Digest.—At an adjourned meeting of the board of aldermen at the mayor's office last evening, the printed report of the committee of fifteen was received. It showed the entire debt of this city to be $[illegible]. In this connection we will say that a meeting of the citizens of Raleigh is called for Monday evening, October 18, to consider the funding of the [illegible] bonded debt, which, now ($50,000) has been already provided for. The ordinance relating to the Department was received, and Joseph H. Greene, of the Raleigh and Gaston railroad, was elected chief engineer of that department. There was a commissioner elected from each fire division; 1st division, R. F. Jones; 2d division, W. H. Haywood; 3rd division, J. B. Neathery; 4th division, W. J. Hicks.

CHEAP FARE.—For the accommodation of visitors attending the North Carolina State Agricultural Fair, general ticket agent S. E. Allen, of the Piedmont Air Line, announces that his road will sell tickets to Raleigh and return with one admission coupon, from the 10th to the 16th of October, as following low rates: From Goldsboro to Raleigh and return, $2.00; Princeton 1.65; Pine Level 1.45; Selma 1.35; Wilson's Mills 1.20; Clayton 95cts.; Cary 75; Morrisville 90; Durham 1.30; Hillsboro 1.70; Mebanesville 2.00; Haw River 2.15; Graham 2.25; Co. Shops 2.30; Gibsonville 2.65; Greensboro 2.95; Jamestown 3.25; High Point 3.40; Thomasville 3.60; Lexington 3.95; Linwood 4.10; Salisbury 4.45; China Grove 4.70; Concord 5.10; Kartzburg 5.35; Charlotte 5.75; Spartanburg 8.00; Greenville 9.00; Atlanta 13.75; Kernersville 3.50; Salem 3.85; Reidsville 3.70; Ruffin 3.95; Danville 4.45; Burkesville 6.50; Richmond 6.50.

TOPLOFTICAL SQUIRTS.—The gallant boys of Rescue fire company were out yesterday for grand inspection, dress parade and squirtatory exercise. They looked handsome as speckled ponies and gay as larks—(though we really can't see why a lark should be any gayer than a whippoorwill or a puddle-duck.) In the aquatic part of the display, their engine squirted clear over the dome of the Capitol, and performed a wholesale and miscellaneous infant baptism on a lot of white and black urchins that had congregated in the square.

NEWS.

Ashland, Pennsylvania, had a $30,000 illumination, Thursday night.

Alcorn, late Radical U. S. Senator, in a dispatch to the attorney general, lays all the blame of the Mississippi outbreak on the niggers. Wrong; it rests on the shoulders of Grant, Ames, and the third term conspirators.

The Peabody educational board elected Henry C. Jackson to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Gov. Graham, and adjourned to meet here August at White Sulphur Springs, Virginia—the most charming watering place beneath the skies.

The Georgia niggers, in convention assembled, at Augusta, condemned Grant's appointments down there, discussed African emigration, established a bureau of information, and declared that in their state a white man still thinks he's better than a nigger.

TAR DROPS.

Pender county is to have a knightly pole-poking, Nov. 4.

Chapel Hill university has 75 students, with reinforcements arriving every day.

Hon. Geo. Davis, of Wilmington, has returned from Alleghany Springs much improved in health.

Snow Hill township, Greene county, has a nigger magistrate with an alias—Harper Gatlinger alias Harper Miller.

New Hope township, Wayne county, has a board of trustees composed of two niggers and one white, and a school committee similarly mixed.

A mare stolen from J. H. Newbon, of Greene county, Thursday night, Sept. 30, was found the other day pushing for home, having escaped from her would-be confiscator.

A REGRET.

EDITOR SENTINEL: As a true blue old Confed, I am sorry to see that the Democratic party have assumed the special tax bonds debt by refusing to repudiate it themselves, or let the people have a say so on it at the ballot box. RED.

Few are aware of the importance of checking a cough or common cold in its first stage. That which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon preys upon the Lungs. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup affords instant relief. Price, 25 cents.

The Warwick cellar is made like the Elmwood with all the edges folded, so they will not turn out.

From the New York Tribune.

A WANT SUPPLIED.

The American mind is active. It has given us books of fiction for the sentimentalist, learned books for the scholar and professional student, but few books for the people. A book for the people must relate to a subject of universal interest. Such a subject is the physical man, and such a book "The People's Common Sense Medical Advertiser" a copy of which has been recently laid on our table. The high professional attainments of its author—Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y.,—and the advantages derived by him from an extensive practice, would alone insure for his work a cordial reception. But these are not the merits for which it claims our attention. The Author is a man of the people. He sympathizes with them in all their afflictions, efforts, and attainments. He perceives their want—a knowledge of themselves—and believing that all truth should be made as universal as God's own sunlight, from his fund of learning and experience he has produced a work in which he gives them the benefits of his labors. In it he considers man in every phase of his existence, from the moment he emerges "from a rayless atom, too diminutive for the sight, until he gradually evolves to the maturity of those conscious powers, the exercise of which furnishes subjective evidence of our immortality." Proceeding upon the theory that every fact of mind has a physical antecedent, he has given an admirable treatise on Cerebral Physiology, and shown the bearings of the facts thus established upon individual and social welfare. The Author believes with Spencer, that "as vigorous health and its accompanying high spirits are larger elements of happiness than any other things whatever, the teaching how to maintain them is a teaching that yields to no other whatever," and accordingly has introduced an extensive discussion of the methods by which we may preserve the integrity of the system and oftimes prevent the onset of disease. Domestic Remedies—their preparation, uses, and effects—form a prominent feature of the work. The hygienic treatment, or nursing of the sick, is an important subject, and receives attention commensurate with its importance. Nearly all diseases "to which flesh is heir" are described, their symptoms and causes explained, and proper domestic treatment suggested. To reciprocate the many favors bestowed upon him by a generous public, the author offers his book at a price ($1.50) little exceeding the cost of publication. Our readers can obtain this practical and valuable work by addressing the author.

"THE BOYS IN GRAY."—We were wont to admire the boys who wore the grey alone, but for the noble, chivalrous hearts that beat under it. They commanded the admiration of the true and the brave in every land. But how few admire a fine head enveloped in grey hair and whiskers—very few. We all love admiration and nothing in our appearance is more calculated to secure it than pretty hair. If old age, sickness or sorrow has robbed you of it, you can regain it by the use of Dr. Tutt's Hair Dye. Its popularity is so great that it can be found on the shelves of every druggist in the land. oct 2-2w
