Royal Arch Chapter meeting this evening.

Mexican troupe at Tucker hall this evening.

Secretary of State Howerton left this morning for New York, on official business.

Tim. Lee's refreshment rooms are already securing a considerable run of patronage.

See notice of Mrs. Clifford's boarding-house, on Morgan street, near the Presbyterian church.

Meeting of the executive committee of the state fair association, at Secretary Winder's office, next Thursday evening.

James Norwood, of Orange county, walked away from our fair with over $700 in premiums; a pretty fair week's haul.

J. Q. Bryant gave the required bonds yesterday, for his appearance at the next term of court to answer to two charges of robbery.

We are glad to learn that A. P. C. Bryan, our popular express agent, is rapidly recovering from his serious illness.

Nearly every landmark of the old fair ground has disappeared. Some 15 or 20 new tenement houses are now in process of construction in that locality.

If you want to preserve in one compact body all the physiognomies of the late convention,—if you want the living, breathing, speaking likenesses of the men who overhauled the Canby constitution, go to Watson's art gallery. See his advertisement.

RADICAL ARRIVALS.—Deputy Sheriff Sutton, of Bladen county, arrived yesterday morning with a couple of sable recruits for the loyal legion in penitential walls. They were sentenced for three years apiece, for a small imitation of Ben. Butler and Columbus Delano. Their cognomens are George Washington Hatcher and Benjamin Franklin Eagle.

WESTERN N. C. R. R.—Gov. Brogden yesterday finished signing the mortgage bonds of the Western North Carolina railroad, and they were shipped last evening. The commissioners of the road, recently appointed by the governor, met to-day at Salisbury. We understand the Southern Express company will re-open its old line over this road in a few days, which will doubtless be a gratifying bit of information to the people living west of Salisbury.

COTTON.—The receipts of the fleecy staple in this city yesterday were 194 bales; and the price 13 3-8, with a strong upward tendency. There were over 1,000 bales at the Raleigh & Gaston depot last night, awaiting shipment. So pressed has this road been during fair week, that freights have accumulated almost beyond precedent. Major Grice, the able and indefatigable president, with his efficient corps of assistants, is rapidly clearing out the blockade, and everything will be moving smoothly again in a few days.

BYE-O, BABY BUNTING.—Daddy's gone a huntin'. But he will have to hunt a long, long time before he finds a match for one little paregoric cherub we know of. Beat it, equal it, domino to it, who can? A baby was born in this city a few days ago, that has now living a father and mother, two grandfathers, two grandmothers, three great-grandfathers and four great-grandmothers, with several counties yet to hear from. Really, we think it a remarkable case, and we trust the hapless little voyager may survive all the coddling, petting, spoiling and sugar-plumming that surely lies ahead of it.

WERY TIRED.—An old fellow, wofully fatigued by a persistent effort to discharge the double duty of a man and a demijohn, lay down to rest last night on the big stone slabs in front of the new postoffice building; thus affording a "monument" of the kind that one of our old friends once need in a fruitless attempt to reform his inebriate son. Pointing to a chap sprawling on the floor, maudlin drunk, the old gentleman said: "Jeems, behold that monument of intemperance." Jim steadied himself against the back of a chair, and with a tipsy leer, as he swayed back and forth, hiccuped out: "Humps, (nic) I gad, I (hic) always thought (hic) monuments stood up!"

THE CITY DEBT.

MEETING OF CITIZENS LAST EVENING.

The debt of our city is comparatively a trifle, but loose and floating as it is, there is enough of it to impair seriously our municipal credit. A Raleigh city warrant should be as good as a greenback, but every one knows it is not, and no one knows how much it lacks of it. If the debt were funded at a reasonable rate of interest, with say twenty years to run, the interest could be met by a merely nominal tax, and long before the principal became due, as our city is now improving, a sinking fund could be established sufficient to meet it. The necessity for some decisive, intelligent action is being felt by every one who has the real interests of our rapidly growing city at heart. The board of aldermen, some days ago, issued a call for a citizens' meeting at Metropolitan hall last evening; and a large number of our most substantial tax-payers responded. The meeting was called to order by Mayor Manly, who briefly but forcibly stated the object of assembling. Alfred Williams was elected president; W. C. Upchurch, Sylvester Smith and M. B. Barbee, vice-presidents; and R. W. Best and Wm. M. Brown, secretaries.

F. H. Busbee, city attorney, made a statement as to the amount of the debt, and strongly urged its funding.

John Nichols, Kemp P. Battle, H. M. Miller and James H. Harris made short speeches taking the same position, and enforcing their views by every possible argument.

On motion of Alderman Harris, the president was authorized and instructed to appoint a committee of three from each ward, to co-operate with a committee from the board of aldermen, and thoroughly investigate the whole subject of the debt. This committee is to report at a subsequent meeting, in order that the matter of funding may be intelligently acted on by our people. The meeting then adjourned, subject to the call of the president.

The president has to-day appointed these gentlemen as the committee:

1st Ward—N. S. Harp, H. M. Miller, J. J. Litchford.

2d Ward—G. T. Stronach, Osborne Hunter, W. H. Bagley.

3d Ward—Kemp P. Battle, Henry Mahler, W. N. H. Smith.

4th Ward—C. B. Root, Norfleet Dunston, H. S. Keith.

5th Ward—W. G. Upchurch, John C. Gorman, Alex. Creech.

The committee from the board of aldermen consists of Dr. James McKee, 1st ward; Stewart Ellison, 2d ward; J. G. Blake, 3d ward; J. H. Harris, 4th ward; R. H. Jones, 5th ward.

We hope our citizens may awake at once to the necessity for vigorous, prudent, intelligent action upon this important question. What we do, should be done speedily. Our credit suffers with every day's delay.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—"Answer a fool according to his folly," saith the scripture; and she did it. One of our most estimable Hillsboro street ladies, whose proportions are somewhat majestic, recently ordered a fall bonnet from a famous northern establishment. It came a few evenings since; was admired; was pronounced a love, a duck, awful pretty, splendid and nice; but alas, alas, on trial, proved infinitely too small. Perched on her noble coil of natural back-hair, it looked like a humming-bird on a hay-stack or a bumble-bee on the dome of St. Peter's. Her reasonable lamentations over the disappointment were cut short by a presumptuous youth's advising her, when she wished another bonnet from such a distance, to forward the measure of her head more carefully, or send a peck-basket for a frame. That rash young man, we need hardly say, now bewails his folly in a brand-new wig, sees this world dimly through green glass goggles, and has an idea of renting out his countenance for a sticking-plaster dealer's sign. A soft answer turneth away wrath; but as hideously soft a remark as that, justly stirreth up a woman's broomstick and finger-nails.

MARRIED.—At the residence of Hon. Wm. H. Howerton, secretary of state, in this city, Oct. 18, by Rev. M. M. Marshall, D. D., Dr. J. O. Wilcox, member of the recent convention from Ashe county, and Miss Maggie Henry, daughter of the late Louis E. and Mrs. Jennie E. Henry The attendants were Mr. Thos. H. Bailey and Miss Annie Perkins. Immediately after the ceremony, the newly made husband and wife took the cars for their mountain home, attended by the heart-felt good wishes of a large circle of warm friends.

CHANGE.—Capt. A. B. Andrews, for eight years past, the pushing, vigilant, able superintendent of the Raleigh & Gaston railroad has resigned to accept a similar position on the North Carolina road, one of the great Piedmont Air-Line's branches and feeders. Understanding his business thoroughly in all its details great and small, knowing everybody and known by everybody in our state, wide-awake, courteous and universally popular, Capt. Andrews will be an invaluable addition to Buford's grand corps of locomotive lieutenants, and we trust he may find his new post as pleasant as his old one has been.

P. R.—A pair of highly incensed and colored fellow-citizens of Ulysses Seizer I, repaired last evening to the deep cut on the railroad track near the government stone-dressing sheds, to settle their misunderstanding according to the rules of the ten-foot ring, a la Heenan and congressman Morrissey. For a few minutes, wool flew at a brilliantly entertaining rate, and the adjacent atmosphere waxed aromatic with warm phlogistic exhalations. But at the close of the second round, one of them drew an ivory-handled razor, and indicated a desire to make chip-beef of his antagonist; and just at this interesting juncture, one or two policemen appeared on the scene. The combatants were collared, by which they were speedily uncholered; and in calaboosal coolness and quiet, they will doubtless have ample time and opportunity to calm their perturbed feelings, and meditate retirement from the arena of back-alley warfare.

TAR DROPS.

Prof. Hensler, formerly of Shelby, died recently in Memphis.

Dr. G. W. Long has been appointed poor physician in Alamance.

Sell's circus and menagerie are billed for Snow Hill, Oct. 26. Its an admirably well-named concern.

Frank Cox, of Greenville, S. C., recently paid Capt. Bryce $6,250 for a building lot in Charlotte.

S. B. Holt challenges all Alamance county to beat his corn. He ought to call in a steam chiropodist.

Mt. Airy thinks her narrow gauge railroad prospects are fair. Let her beware lest it turn out a narrow gouge.

Western Carolina Reds are passing round the hat for nickels and brass buttons, to monument the late Tod Caldwell.

All the Mecklenburg planters who tried the so-called Direct Trade Enterprise of shipping their cotton to Liverpool, lost money.

Between 7 and 11 o'clock last Wednesday morning, 300 wagon loads of cotton, corn and other produce came into Charlotte.

Gen. Wm. Phillips, president of the Marietta & North Georgia railroad, is to speak in Clay county at an early day, in behalf of his enterprise.

Some sewing machine company is buying walnut lumber in Shelby, and prices are climbing. One walnut tree in lumber form brought its owner $44.

Noah Taylor, charged with the murder of Nathan Grimes, was tried at the recent term of Beaufort superior court, but the jury hung, instead of hanging him.

Rev. John A. Mathison has the contract for building Clay county's new jail. Instead of preaching deliverance to the captives, he's going to construct the jug to hold them.

One of Charlotte's fond hubbies offers to bet that she, whom he once mentioned as "the dearest, darling little duck," can heave a skillet twenty yards and spat a fellow's conjugal affection bump every pop.

Chatham county has got ahold of some genuine old Jonah gourd-seed, and brags of a gourd five feet in circumference. All that is necessary to complete her happiness is a "hard cider" campaign in '76.

Peter S. Bowman, a young man of 21 years, in the neighborhood of Mt. Airy, had his neck broken Friday, Oct. 8, by an unintentional somerset from his wagon-horse. It grieves us to add that his neck was not long enough to tie.

North Carolina's pet Cherokees are in a squabble. The delegates of the eastern band met in council at Robbinsville, Oct. 4, but couldn't agree. Two rivals for the chieftainship came in attended by their followers, and a regular row ensued.

Too much bellicose whisky led to a miscellaneous row at Company Shops, Monday night of last week. In the course of the discussion, James Sellars was investigated with a knife, so that he will probably have an opportunity of stepping behind the curtains of eternity. T. R. Simpson has been called on to deposit a $1,000 bond to secure his appearance for trial, as the user of the deadly cutlery.

Mrs. Jones, how is your health this morning? Thank you, madam, much improved. I bought a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup last night, and after the first dose my cough was checked. I slept well, and have not coughed once this morning.

NEWS AND NOTES.

Thiers has been banqueted.

A five-inch snow at Port Jervis and Susquehannah, Monday.

Suits instituted against a number of St. Louis firms for whisky frauds.

It is said that Grant has offered the secretaryship of the interior to drunken Zack Chandler.

There was no supreme court Monday; the judges called on Ulysses, the would-be third-termer.

A terrific tornado tore up the country around Milford, Delaware, last Saturday, doing a vast amount of damage.

Austin Davis and his wife will be hanged in Toronto, Canada, December 8, for the murder of Miss Gilmore.

The Erie railroad statement shows receipts from July 1 to Aug. 8, to be $5,000,000; disbursements, $4,500,000.

By direction of the postmaster-general the exact distances of all railway routes are to be taken. Mails are to go by shortest route whenever practicable.

Edwards and Foster, the St. Louis dueling editors, have been indicted. It is a penitentiary offence under the laws of the state.

The Turks have crossed the Austrian line and menace the town of Ersey. They seem determined to keep up their foolishness till they raise a row.

The Pandora, of the English Arctic expedition, has returned to London. The graves of Sir John Franklin's crew were found on Beechy Island.

Rogers & Burchfield, iron manufacturers of Pittsburg, have woodbined for an unknown amount. Really, this superabundance of money is growing serious.

Bradley Johnson is having a bitter canvass in Richmond, for the state senate. The Whig's correspondents charge him with every description of villainy and infamy.

The Philadelphia Union League refuses to endorse four of the Rad nominees for city offices. The proscribed quartet certainly haven't been able to prove themselves thieves.

Clark Edmondson, the nigger assassin of a white woman in Fayette county, Georgia, was hanged by a mob last Sunday night, to the same limb from which his brother dangled a week ago for the same crime.

Hamilton county, Ohio, gives Hayes 1,295 majority for governor, and Young 3,257 for lieutenant-governor. The Wood county canvassing board have decided to throw out the Perrysburg vote, thus electing Brown and Swat, Reps, to the senate, and giving to Hayes a majority of 723.

Revenue officers for the present are not to seize cigars packed in paper or tin boxes, when they are satisfied the tax has been paid. The attorney-general decides that the law does not prevent the use of cigar boxes when the marks required by law have not been burned by a branding iron.

Isaac McAffie, a nigger, was sentenced Monday, at Selma, Alabama, to 20 years' imprisonment for causing the terrible accident which occurred on the Selma, Rome & Dalton railroad about a year ago. Two white men are to be tried as partners in his crime.

High moral styles in the north: Joseph Ricker, of Hackettstown, New Jersey, went into the wholesale and retail family butcher business, yesterday; killed his two sons, shot his wife, and wound up by putting a bullet in his own head. The coroners and undertakers are gleeful.

Col. J. H. Cooke and P. McHenry, of Senatobia, Mississippi, settled a little political controversy the other day, in the good old way. And two families have been compelled to pay funeral expenses, and go into black without time to consider whether or not it is becoming to their style of beauty.

The Indian investigating committee has made its report, recommending the abolishment of superintendent of Indian affairs in the west and the appointment of inspectors; territorial government for the Indian territory; extension of United States criminal laws over the reservations, and the exaction of individual responsibility from the Indian for his acts; and the recognition of individual rights of property in their hands. The report handles Delano as a guilty party, and condemns Dr. Saville as honest and weak. It asks the department of justice to bring the Indian ring to punishment.

A New York dispatch says a whole family consisting of an aged man, a millionaire named Francois De L'Escale, his son-in-law, Mons. Cartier and his wife and two sons and daughter, and one Falquet, the keeper of their villa, were foully murdered on the morning of October 5, or late on the night of the 4th, at M. De L'Escale's mansion, situated about a half mile outside of the town of St. Pierre, the French colony in British North America. Mr. De L'Escale had never had the custom of depositing his money in banks, and it is therefore certain that the burglars and assassins have secured an enormous booty.

"THROW PHYSIC TO THE DOGS; I'LL NONE OF IT."—We do not in the least feel like blaming Macbeth for this expression of disgust; indeed, we are rather inclined to sympathize with him. Even nowadays most of the cathartics offered to the public are great, repulsive-looking pills, the very appearance of which is sufficient to "turn one's stomach." Had Macbeth ever taken Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets he would not have uttered those words of contempt. It is really encouraging, when one is ill, to find that a little, sugar-coated Pellet, no larger than a grain of mustard, will as promptly produce the desired effect as a dose of great, nauseating pills. These little Pellets, unlike other cathartics, are really nature's physic. They do not debilitate, but tone and invigorate the system. No family should be without Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets.
