LEA & PERRINS'
is the only GENUINE
WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE

A new court-house building for this county is again being talked of.

Raleigh juveniles are hoarding nickels vigorously for Saturday—circus day.

"Cold pig" is the latest name for an excessive indulgence in spiritus frumenti.

They are going to put wooden joists in the new post-office building. It is a sham and a shame.

The sheriff and his deputies were busy to-day sweeping in the rag-babies in payment of taxes.

Of the three marriages we spoke of a few days ago, two have come off and the third is looked for next week.

The executive committee of the state Agricultural Society meets in the office of the secretary to-morrow evening.

Lots of country people were in town to-day with cotton, and as a consequence trade was lively in every direction.

Geo. T. Jones has resigned the agency of the North Carolina railroad at this place; the resignation to take effect November 1.

The Concord Sun, in its report of the recent fair, takes occasion to compliment our townsman, J. C. S. Lumsden, on his exhibition.

Cotton receipts yesterday 438 bales. Price, fluctuating to-day between 13 1-4 and 13 1-8 cents a pound, with probability of going down to 13.

A darkey employe of the Raleigh & Augusta railroad was killed last Monday, between Sandford and Cameron, by two flat cars steel-trapping him.

See notice of reduced rates on the Raleigh & Gaston railroad, to the Virginia state fair. Only $6 to Richmond and return; cheaper than walking.

The penitentiary has crape fluttering from its door-knobs, over the departure Monday of 37 of its striped pets to work on the Western North Carolina railroad.

The work of putting in order the musty records in the office of superior court clerk, still goes on. By this means many valuable documents will be preserved.

Our crack company, the Raleigh Light Infantry, has accepted an invitation to attend the Wilmington fair and compete for the prize offered to the best-drilled military organization.

A mass meeting, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian association, of this city, will be held next Sunday evening at the First Baptist church. The programme will be published in a few days.

The Weldon News, of to-day, says: "John W. Carlisle, a deaf mute from this county, and recently connected with this office as a compositor, has returned to Raleigh to resume his studies at the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institute, over which John Nichols so ably presides. Little Carlisle did not like work—especially type sticking."

I. O. O. F.—Attention, members of Seaton Gales Lodge! There will be a regular meeting to-morrow night which requires the presence of every brother. Take due notice thereof and fail not.

SHERIFFS. NOTA BENE!—All North Carolina sheriffs should remember that, unless they settle with the state by the first Monday in December, the penalties of the law will be enforced against them. Only five weeks to run, gentlemen. Walk up to the captain's office and "square."

TANGLED CASE.—Harrison Johnson, a country lothario of color, was hauled up before Justice Magnin this morning, charged with burglariously entering the domicile of Lydia Harp, a female of his own sun-kissed complexion, on the Jeff. Fisher farm, near this city, last Saturday night, and then and there, by force and violence, attempting to deprive the said Lydia of that which, once lost, could never have been regained. From the evidence, the court, with a knowing grin on its phiz, came to the conclusion that the defendant was one of the plaintiff's favored admirers, and that she had made the outcry and lodged the information against him, because her old mother, who lives in the same house, had happened, on the night in question, to wake at an inopportune moment for the amorous pair. The case was dismissed at the cost of Lydia, who now Harps on a rueful string.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Only one victim this morning: John Tabron, a country darkey, drunk and disorderly on the street; discharged on payment of $2.25 costs.

RELIGIOUS.—Raleigh Baptist association meets at Cary to-morrow. Rev. Dr. Pritchard, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, and a large number of the brethren will attend.

GUBERNATORIAL.—Governor Brogden left this morning for his home in Wayne county, to be absent about a week. He has just received an appointment as commissioner from North Carolina to the Southern States Agricultural and Industrial Exposition, to be held in New Orleans Feb. 26, 876.

CHANGE.—It is rumored that H. M. Miller is soon to resign his position as keeper of the capitol, in order to accept the boss-ship of the penitentiary striped-backs who are to work on the Western North Carolina railroad. Miller has made an efficient and popular officer, and will doubtless be a success in his new posish.

HONEY.—No, miss, we didn't speak to you, appropriate as the style of address undoubtedly is. We only want to tell another honeyed tale. Morgan, our noted young artist and apiarist, has seen Mr. Curtis' boast about having taken $20 worth of bee-manufactured sweets from one hive, and goes several better. From 24 hives, he has taken 2,000 pounds of pure honey, and doubled the stock. Next.

WEDDING IN HIGH LIFE.—Christ church was thronged yesterday evening with the cream of the cream of Oak City society to witness the marriage of Captain Carl Woodruff, U. S. A., and Miss Effie, daughter of Dr. R. B. Haywood. The attendants were Capt. Hamilton, U. S. A., and Miss Levina Haywood, Mr. Walton Busbee and Miss Bettie Haywood, Mr. J. Iredell Johnson and Miss Annie Smedes, Mr. Hubert Haywood and Miss Maggie Fowle, Mr. James Boylan and Miss [illegible] Sherwood Haywood and Miss Maggie Tucker. The bride and her fair attendants looked lovely as winged creatures of another sphere, and their gallant cavaliers were more than ordinarily handsome by reflection. The brief and beautiful ceremony of the Episcopal church—that strange mathematical formula by which two are made forever one—was impressively said by the rector, Rev. Dr. Marshall. Greetings and congratulations were exchanged. A hasty but delightful reception at the residence of the bride's father followed. And at 8 o'clock, the young couple, before whom life's path seems luminous with light and strewn with flowers, took the train for Summersville, South Carolina, where the command of the young bridegroom is stationed. A legion of warm, true friends unite in the ardent wish and hope that realization may be to them as bright and gladsome as anticipation; that their future may bring all the prosperity and happiness of a perpetual honeymoon.

AN ANCIENT DOCUMENT.—There are many quaint and curious papers of the olden time on file in our Superior Court Clerks office. Here is a copy of one, dating back before the Revolution, which is still well preserved, the paper comparatively clean and the ink unfaded:

NORTH CAROLINA, } ss.
Wake County. }

Know all men by these presents that we James Duffie, William Blake and John Parnal, all of the county and province aforesaid are held and firmly bound unto our Sovereign Lord the King, his Heirs and Successors in the penal sum of fifty pounds, proclamation money, to which payment will and truly to be made to our said Soverei gn Lord the King, we bind ourselves and each of us and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators jointly and severally and firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals and dated this 23d day of November, Anno Domini, 1772.

THE CONDITION of the above obligation is such that whereas the above bounden James Duffie hath this day applyed for and obtained a Licence to be joined with Anna Drummond in the Holy Estate of Matrimony. Now if therefore there be no Lawful cause to obstruct the marriage for which the said license was obtained, then the above obligation to be void and of no effect, elce to remain in full force and virtue.

The new channel through Snow's marsh, below Wilmington, is open and vessels are short-cutting it.

Cole's circus carried away $16,000 from Cleaveland county. That's enough to make any patriotic sir-cuss.

An Oxford colored mamma sold one of her dusky darlings to the circus for $5. That's plenty for a free nigger.

The Rowan Rifle Guards, of Salisbury, will attend the Jackson statue dedication in Richmond, accompanied by their fine cornet band.

Unceremonious tramps around Charlotte enter houses and give the startled inmates just fifteen minutes to get them up a good square meal.

Hon. A. M. Waddell delivered his lecture on this jaw-breaking subject, "Hvitramannaland," to a large audience in Wadesboro, yesterday evening.

Mrs. Armstrong was knocked senseless on the street in Wilmington, last Saturday night, by a nigger ruffian, who escaped before the strong arm of the law could nab him.

A gasoline lamp burst in R. L. Hunt's store at Oxford, a few nights ago, and but for vigorous effort on the part of a number of citizens, would speedily have furnished a diminutive imitation of Sherman's "grand march to the sea."

The railroad employes at Charlotte complain of overwork. Cotton is pouring in so rapidly that they are kept in a dog-trot, day and night, Sundays not excepted. Haven't time to say their prayers or see their sweethearts, or, sadder still, to air their green necktie and salt-cellar diamond breastpins on Sabbatic promenades.

Charlotte is gently simmering over the disappearance of Caroline Simmer, a young feminine shade who went to the circus last Saturday, and has never since been seen. She is supposed to have been swallowed by the anaconda, or to have discovered and joined some of her long lost Darwinian kin in the monkey cages. We only publish this item as a warning to our Raleigh juveniles of the same persuasion.

Isaac Beaver, of Cabarrus county, challenges all creation to show ears of corn with him. If it had been "ears" only, we'd have entered almost any average legislator. If it had been "corn" alone, we'd have shown any tight-booted dandy of our acquaintance. But as its "ears of corn," and as his ears have 22 rows to the cob, and 62 grains to the row, we acknowledge the corn, we're compelled to tip our beaver and pass.

A NICE DESSERT.—Our estimable Raleigh housewives will doubtless profit by this excellent receipt for making a simple corn meal pudding: Take one corn-meal and wrap it up securely in a two-year-old yarn stocking with a darned hole in the heel. Drop it head-foremost into fourteen gallons of boiling water, and stir vigorously with an ancient slipper-sole, for some thirty or forty hours, till it gets stiff enough and sweet enough to turn a somerset out of its stocking-limb. Dress it with melted tallow and beeswax, seasoned with onion-juice and extract de dog-fennel. Garnish with hard-bouled shanghai-berries, and a few delicately scrambled pig-tails, and serve red-hot in a sun-bonnet to your grumbling husband. He'll never growl again.

NEW SQUIRE.—Superior Court Clerk Bunting has appointed J. C. Gorman a magistrate for this township, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Joseph Backalan.

J. & W. Dudgeon, of London, have gone under for $600,000. Some of their creditors will doubtless take the news in "high dudgeon."

One of New York's wealthiest and most widely known society leaders was caught smuggling the other day, and forked over $1,000 to get herself out of the scrape.

The Baltimore races began yesterday. Lizzie A. won the 3-4 mile dash; time 1:20. Tom Ochiltree gathered the Cyril went ahead in the mile dash; time 1:49. The fourth race, 2 mile heats, was won by Kade; time 3:50 1-2, 3:46 1-2.

Here is a full report of Grant's address to an admiring herd, from a western hotel balcony the other night: "My friends, I have got a bad cold and sore throat. I don't think this cool air will do me any good. I'm going in anyhow. I will be here in a few days, and you can see me then."

ON A STRIKE.—Tom Evans is the authority for this: The general is a distinguished broken-winded politician of this state, who lives altogether in the past and gets as drunk as Billy-to-busted. An old mate was talking of him this evening in the portico of the National hotel at Raleigh.

"Is the old fellow pretty bad off?" asked a gentleman sitting by.

"Yes, he's pretty well on the ragged edge. He spoke of his last will and testament to me, and some of his parting injunctions were quite amusing; said he, 'old fellow, I'm afraid my jig's up, and the howling blue season has set in; the blue birds won't sing any more. I want you to bury me in a pine coffin, hard pine, and have me put in standing up—and—say—old boy—have the coffin made open at both ends so when the devil comes in at one end I can run out at the other.'"

And did the old fellow die? "No, he delivers an address next week on virtue and the fine arts to a female school."

A VERDICT.—A jury is supposed to represent fairly the general intelligence of the community from which it is taken. The guilt or innocence of a party, the value or worthlessness of an article is established by its verdict. A verdict has recently been rendered by a jury composed of the best men taken from every country on the globe; the evidence was clear and impartial, and thousands of witnesses gave their testimony. The trial was a long one, occupying ten years, and the jury have at last brought in a verdict which was, "That DR. TUTT'S PILLS possess greater power over disease than any medicine invented since the foundation of the world." It is pronounced by all a righteous verdict. T4

OBITUARY.

On the 14th of Sept., 1875, Thomas D. Rountree, son of Gordon and Emeline R. Rountree, breathed his last at the residence of his mother, near Sunsbury, Gates county, aged 16 years, 1 month and 3 days, a victim of Bright's disease.

Never robust, and in delicate health from his infancy, he was doubly endeared to his widowed mother whose anguish for his death no words can express. He passed away amid such excruciating suffering that from his lips were wrung the words: "Ma, I would rather die than live this way."

Nature had given to Thomas such a gentle and loving disposition that even the agonies that embittered the last few months of his existence did not ruffle his innate amiability. He was dutiful to his mother, affectionate to his brother and sister, and respectful and considerate to all with whom he came in contact. His feeble frame did not stunt the quick intelligence which nature gave him, and his great desire to be industrious often times conquered physical infirmities, and pain was made to come under the subjection of will.

His was but a brief span and full of pain, but there is every reason to hope that perfect rest has been gained. He bore his heavy afflictions so patiently and resignedly that He who sent them will reward a thousand-fold. While it is hard to suppress the natural instincts of grief for those whom we have loved and lost, yet an abiding faith in our holy religion should lead us to find consolation in the mercy and goodness of Him who doeth all things well. TESTIMONIALS.

Goldsboro, N. C.
After spending eighteen months in a southern climate to restore my Lungs, I gave up in despair, and came home to die with my children in Goldsboro, N. C. While there I obtained a box of Dr. McMannen's Tar Mixture. Its first effect was to enable me to sleep; my strength began to return; hope revived; my cough gave way. After using six boxes, was restored to health. I now weigh 140 lbs. I owe my life to this mixture, and wish this published to the world.
R. E. ROBISON.

I have been afflicted with a cough for thirty years. I have used all the popular remedies for coughs. I have never found anything to remain on the stomach or give any relief, until induced to use McMannen's American Tar Mixture. Its use enables me to sleep well; my lungs have regained their strength, and I find myself entirely free from a distressing cough that attacked me in the morning. I am rapidly recovering.
MRS. POTTER PASCHAL.

My Lungs gave way while on my circuit. I was forced to retire from my work, and had but little hope of recovery. I used one box of Dr. McMannen's Tar Mixture, my cough improved, my strength returned, and I was soon able to resume my work. I recommend it to all who have a cough, or weak lungs.

Durham, N. C.
I was taken with an alarming cough; was fearful of its results; suffered for want of sleep. I used one box of the American Tar Mixture. From the first day I used it, I felt its good effects. I slept sound, and my strength increased; a few weeks I was myself again. I can conscientiously recommend it to all who are afflicted with consumptive symptoms or weak lungs.
W. E. STYRON.

Durham, N. C.
I have used Dr. C. T. McMannen's American Tar Mixture myself, and in my family. I do not hesitate to recommend it as a remedy to be used in all cases of Cough, Colds, Sore Throat, Hoarseness and Lung diseases.
