John of Congress

The City.

LEA & PERRINS' to the only GENUINE WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE.

Gov. Brogden arrived this afternoon. He spent a short time at the Weldon fair.

John D. Williams, one of the most prominent business men of Fayetteville, was in the city to-day.

Col. W. McI. McKay and W. A. Guthrie, two prominent lawyers of Fayetteville, were in the city to-day.

The police court docket up to 6 p. m. to-day did not show an item. A moral epidemic seems to have set in.

Notice.—The editor of this paper is compelled to be absent this week. His place will be filled by Hon. Josiah Turner.

We acknowledge the courtesy of a card of admission into the Sampson county fair, which commences at Clinton, Nov. 3.

Cotton receipts yesterday amounted to 236 bales. The market is quoted to-day as firm at 12 3/8 and weak at 12 1/2. Trade dull in all branches.

During the present season, A. C. Sanders & Co., one of our most enterprising and go-ahead commission merchant firms, have purchased and shipped 3,500 bales of cotton.

Col. Wm. Hammett, of Durham, put in an appearance here to-day. He indignantly denies having been hit by the sharp New Orleans tobacco speculator.

A social will be held this evening at the Good Templar lodge. Speeches, singing and recitations will be the order of the night. Rev. Drs. Burkhead and Fritchard will be present. The public are invited to attend.

A very near approach to perpetual motion was discovered this morning, at the courthouse, in the tongue of an African shrew. All of the deputy sheriffs fainted, and several bystanders underwent voluntary incarceration in the county jail for several hours.

Master Joseph Batchelor, of this city, was the successful candidate before the examining board for the West Point cadetship from this congressional district. The examination closed at too late an hour for this announcement to be made in our issue of yesterday afternoon.

Last night Charles Lee, a No. 1 printer and resident upon Salisbury street, was awakened from deep sleep by noises which he supposed proceeded from burglars in an adjoining room. Reinforcements were summoned and obtained, guns seized, the room entered when a grinning "poesum" greeted the warlike array.

RETURNED.—The many friends of Isaac F. Dortch, and his accomplished lady, will be pleased to learn that they returned yesterday afternoon from an extended bridal tour. They are stopping at the residence of the bride's father, Thos. D. Hogg.

CONNECTION.—In reporting the remarks of Dr. Fritchard, at the Baptist church Sunday night, in Monday's issue of the Sentinel, we stated that the grand-daughter of Judge Potter died in great poverty in the kitchen of Major Boston Gale. We should have stated that she died in a kitchen on the lot formerly occupied by the late Joseph Gale.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—In reply to the large numbers of letters asking "when will the premiums awarded at the late fair be paid?" we call attention to the following letter of Maj. J. C. Winder, secretary of the N. C. Agricultural Society:

MA. EDWARDS: To the numerous enquiries as to when the premiums will be paid, I will say that it is usual to pay them within thirty days time, and due notice will be given of the time in the daily papers of this city.

MARRIED.—Again two souls have been made glad and two hearts to beat as one. This morning at 9 o'clock, Capt. Alex. Miller, of Newbern, N. C., led to the altar one of Raleigh's loveliest daughters, Miss Bettie M., eldest daughter of Rev. W. J. W. Crowder. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's father by Rev. J. B. Bobbitt, of the Christian Advocate, and was witnessed by a large number of the friends and relatives of the happy pair. After many congratulations they were escorted to the North Carolina depot by a number of young ladies and gentlemen, where amid kisses, hearty handshakings, and a few silent tears, they took their departure for a northern bridal tour.

D. S. WAITT & BRO.—Merits always wins. These young men had but little money, but a full stock of pluck and merit upon which to do business. Their business has greatly increased, and they are on the road to fortune. D. S. Waitt is now in New York making his second purchase this season.

ORNAMENTAL AND USEFUL.—Our friend S. M. Merrill should congratulate himself that all of his four daughters, ranging from 12 to 18 years of age, are not only ornamental to his home and society, but very useful. Misses Della, Maggie, Tena and Lida all took premiums at our recent fair for the exhibition of useful articles in floral hall.

THAT BRIDGE.—A local correspondent sends us the following communication. We are not able to give Citra the desired information. Doubtless our present efficient city authorities will look after the matter:

Mr. Editor: Please inform the public when the Raleigh & Gaston railroad company will put the bridge over Morgan street, called for by the city authorities some time ago.

IN THE OLD PATHS.—We are gratified to learn that the Wicket-Gate Sabbath School, near the fair grounds, under the superintendence of that clever type, Josiah Jones, is doing a good work in the good old way. Under his efficient management and active encouragement, his school has acquired a degree of proficiency in singing seldom attained in so short a time, especially without the aid of any professional teacher of vocal music. They are now, true to the spirit inculcated by their superintendent, having "all things common," as regards the christian work in which they are engaged; and are visiting, as time and opportunity offers, isolated country churches, for the purpose of awakening an interest in the Sabbath school work, where it is now almost, if not entirely, neglected. And in addition to this, they are going from house to house in the neighborhood, giving social entertainments, by way of practice and improvement, with marked effect—producing a general good feeling among all classes. This smacks somewhat of the days of said lang syne, and is as it should be.

HAVE WE A POTTER AMONG US.—"Who struck Billy Patterson?" and "have we a Bourbon among us?" are questions that have been frequently and persistently asked the American people for the past half century without eliciting a satisfactory response. It falls to our unfortunate lot to propound to the good people of Raleigh an interrogatory of equal magnitude: have we a poetess in our midst? Read the following acrostical gem, and roll up an answer in the affirmative in tones loud enough to resound throughout the length and breadth of the state, reverberating in the gorges of the Blue Ridge, earthquakeing the centre and tidal-waving the ocean washed sands of the east:

"Blessed are he who don't expect nothing because he will not be disappointed!"—But—Lord ever preserve you, and keep you from evil, for Each day that you live brings you nearer the Devil. Whose majesty sits in his big arm chair, Impatient to get a good pull at your hair. So for a residence on Brimstone Avenue Prepare, Prepare.

Carruth, the Vineland editor who was shot by Dr. Landis, and has carried a bullet in his brain since last spring, is dead. The case has attracted great attention in medical circles. The case having terminated fatally within a year, according to law, Dr. Landis will be tried for murder.

The U. S. Trust Company has been ordered by the Surrogate court to hand over to the New York treasury $500,435, the amount of the judgment obtained in the case of the People vs. Watson, the late county auditor—certain funds belonging to Watson's estate are deposited with this company.

Singer, the sewing machine man, left 5 wives and 22 children living. He bequeathed a life interest in a $4,000,000 estate in England to the last married wife, $5,000,000 to her 6 children, and $3,000,000 to the rest of the numerous progeny.

The negro tried for murder at the recent term of the Caswell county superior court, was acquitted, the chief witness against him, a negro, confessing that he wanted him hanged because he was an "old issue free nigger."

One of our most estimable citizens may be thankful for the introduction of Dr. Full's Cough Syrup, for its timely use has saved his life.

The best dressed men in town are wearing Warwick collars. They say there is nothing like them for comfort.

TAR DROPS

Rutherford college has 150 students. Ex Governor Vance has gone to St. Joseph, Mo., to lecture.

Tramps are attracting the attention of the Wilmington police. Charles Taylor, Caswell county, had a fine horse stolen last week.

The Centennial is the name of a new paper published at Hickory. Wakeham county rejoices in an abundance of squirrels and pheasants.

The little girls of Oxford concertized a few evening ago, making $22.50. Hillsboro has improved to the extent of a fence around the Baptist church.

Credulous people are taking the Bulgarian priest for the Wandering Jew. Ex Confederate Lieutenant-General Pemberton is in Charlotte. He is now a railroad man.

Bishop Atkinson confirmed a number of persons in St. Luke's church, Salisbury, on Oct. 19. Charlotte young ladies have been seized with a mania for collecting different varieties of leaves.

Several residences in Wilmington have recently been burglarized, and chicken roosts alarmingly depredated upon. Kate Watkins, an ebony female, was lodged in Danbury jail, a few days ago, for murdering her newly born infant.

Rev. J. H. Fitzgerald, pastor of the Hillsboro Presbyterian church, has returned from Virginia and resumed his duties. The Republicans of New Hanover have lost another vote. Jesse Nicholson has been sentenced to the penitentiary for five years.

A letter has been received in Wilmington from General B. E. Calston, now serving in the Egyptian army. He is still unable to walk. Dr. S. S. Stachwell, of Wilmington, represented this state at the recent convention of Confederate surgeons at Richmond. He was chosen one of the vice presidents.

A chiropodist in Charlotte the other day was at work on the foot of a dumb man, not only pulled out the corn, but extracted several worms from the mouth—the first ever spoken by the man, a Mr. Flow.

Rev. D. J. Sanders, colored, pastor of the First colored Presbyterian church, Wilmington, has gone to Scotland to stir up the Kirk in regard to the wants of their colored southern brethren.

A Mr. Crumpler, of Nash county, a few days ago wounded a 177 pound deer and pursued it into Tar river, where the deer sank to the bottom, when one of the dogs dived down, brought up the game and safely landed it on shore.

"HEAL THYSELF."—The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book of about 900 pages, illustrated with over 250 engravings and colored plates, and sold at the exceedingly low price of $1.50, tells you how to cure Catarrh, "Liver Complaint," Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, Sick Bilious, and other Headaches, Scrofula, Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Diseases; all diseases peculiar to women, and most other chronic as well as acute disorders. It contains important information for the young and old, male and female, single and married, nowhere else to be found. Men and women, married and single, are tempted to ask their family physician thousands of questions on delicate topics, but are deterred from doing so by their modesty. This work answers just such questions so fully and plainly as to leave no one in doubt. It is sold by Agents, or sent by mail (postpaid) on receipt of price. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., World's Dispensary, Buffalo, N. Y.

EXTRAORDINARY OPPORTUNITY FOR THE RELIEF OF THE AFFLICTED.

The surgeons of the National Surgical Institute, located at Indianapolis, Indiana, have finally yielded to the many urgent appeals to visit the South. Three or more of the surgeons will be at the Pavilion Hotel, Charleston, S. C., November 3, 4, 5 and 6, 1875.

They will have with them a great amount of surgical apparatus, appliances, etc., and competent assistants and workers to change, fit and make such apparatus as may be required. They will come especially prepared to treat all Surgical cases: Paralysis, all kinds of Deformities of the Face, Spine and Limbs, Dislocated Joints, Dissected Eyes, Cataracts, Private Diseases, Piles, Fistula, etc. On account of the great expense attending such a trip, they will not make another; therefore, all who wish to avail themselves of the advantages of the Institute, without the long journey to far distant places, must do so at this time, as cases will be undertaken without a far hope of relief. It is needless to say that the Institute is entirely responsible, and the largest and most popular of the kind in America, curing thousands annually. Remember the time and place, and come early. Send to the Institute for circular.
