The City.

LEA & FERRIS'
is the only GENUINE
WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE.

Sheriff J. H. McBryde, of Watauga county, to-day paid into the state treasury, $1,488.82.

Somebody must have played off on Brother Trecy, of the Eleventh City Economist, as our fair.

Grand meeting of Friends of Temperance at the mayor's office this evening at half past 7 o'clock, to reorganize the council.

The Milton Chronicle, of Nov. 3, inquires: "What has become of the Agricultural Journal, the best paper in the state? We miss it."

The average chin-scraper is only a barber. Scott Brown, Raleigh's chief of the latter-and-shave brigade, rises to the full dignity of a tonsorial artist.

The Raleigh Light Infantry leaves Tuesday morning for the Wilmington fair, accompanied by a number of citizens who are honorary members of the organization.

Cotton receipts yesterday, 214 bales. Market to-day quiet at 12. Orders light. Receipts bid fair to be heavy to-day. Trade to-day better in all directions than any day for the past week.

His honor, the mayor, had but one case before him this morning: Hillary Danston was up for being drunk and disorderly at Tucker hall, last night. City finances expanded to the extent of a $5 fine and $2.25 costs.

The Lambertson Robesonian, of Nov. 3, says: "Hon. Josiah Turner, late editor of the Raleigh Sentinel, is making a canvass of the state in behalf of the amended constitution and the Sentinel, and against railroad and newspaper rings. May his shadow never grow less."

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Miss Emma Karver, of this city, had her hand severely mashed last evening, by the falling of a heavy window. No bones were broken, but the hurt is a very painful one. Dr. E. Hines was called in and dressed the wound.

FIRE.—The house of Nat. Ivey, a sable denizen of that classic village, Oberlin, a short distance west of this city, was burned last Thursday night. Nat. lost everything he possessed so far as the goods of this world are concerned. He is old and infirm, but industrious and bears a good character.

CITY DEBT.—An adjourned meeting of the citizens of Raleigh will be held in Metropolitan Hall, next Wednesday evening, November 10, at 7 o'clock, to receive the report of the joint committee, and take final action on the city debt question. Let every tax-payer be present.

By order of the president,
R. W. BENT,
Secretary.

POSTAL GRANTS.—We, in common with many members of the North Carolina press, are indebted to Thos. B. Long, United States postal agent at Salisbury, for a complete post-office gazetteer, containing everything a man could possibly wish or need to know in regard to mail matters. We appreciate it the more highly, as Mr. Long himself bears the expense and goes to the trouble of sending it. The federal government merits none of our thanks, and gets none.

TUCKER HALL LAST EVENING.—Sheridan & Mack's Mimiques were greeted by a small crowd last evening at Tucker hall. The thinness of the crowd may be in part accounted for by the inclemency of the weather. The performance is much better than we have had from strolling companies for some time past, but does not by any means deserve the extravagant encomiums bestowed upon it by some of our brethren of the press. Miss Leigh's singing is really good, but her repertoire is of rather an old-fashioned cast. The troupe make their farewell appearance this evening.

NEW MASONIC WORK.—A volume entitled a "Masonic Code of North Carolina" has just been issued from the press of John Nichols & Co., of this city, and is now in the hands of the binder, who will have it ready for distribution in a few days. It was compiled by our esteemed townman, D. W. Bain, secretary of the Grand Lodge, and is pronounced by those of the fraternity who saw the advance sheets, a work of great value to the order, and of interest to all who wish to familiarize themselves with Masonic jurisprudence. Mr. Bain is a bright luminary in the firmament of Masonry, and so great is his popularity among his brethren throughout the state, that he is annually re-elected secretary by acclamation.

Masonic Grand Lodge.—This august body holds its annual session in our city, Dec. 5. It meets in the new Masonic hall in the Fisher building, which is being fitted up in a style commensurate with the dignity and importance of the order for whose use it is intended. A large attendance of distinguished gentlemen connected with the mystic brotherhood is expected.

T. M. C. A.—President Armstrong has just rented a wood-yard, and active preparations are being made for a vigorous campaign in behalf of distressed and erring humanity. The colored Young Men's Christian Association has just paid a high tribute to its white brethren by turning over to them all its funds to be used for the common weal. Both bodies are growing daily in numbers, influence and usefulness.

CONCERN.—Under the heading, "A Word about Journalism in North Carolina," the Milton Chronicle, of Nov. 3, says:
"We regret to see so many agents out on the highways beating the bushes to get subscribers. It lowers the standard of journalism to drum for a newspaper like a door-knocker for a snake show. The editor should make his paper draw its own patronage, or die it is not worth taking."

DRAKE OF AN OLD CITIZEN.—Michael M. Prendergast, one of Raleigh's oldest citizens died yesterday about noon. He was born in Trelee, county Kerry, Ireland, May 1, 1805, and consequently was over 70 years of age. He came to this country in 1828, and worked at his trade, as a carpenter, in New York, for some years. In 1838, he came to Raleigh, to work on the present capitol which was then in process of construction, and made this place his permanent home. Mr. Prendergast was of a kind and gentle disposition, possessing all the generous impulses universally attributed to his countrymen, and no man in this city had a larger number of warm friends. The funeral services will take place at St. John's Catholic church, Monday morning at 9 o'clock, and the remains will be buried in the Catholic cemetery. Request in pace.

THE NEW POLICEMEN.—The regular monthly meeting of the board of aldermen was held last evening, and an election for policemen for the ensuing 6 months, took place, resulting in these selections: J. W. Lee, chief of police; James S. Parham, assistant chief; J. M. Carter, J. H. Mullin, B. E. Betts, W. C. Parker, Samuel Betts, A. L. Moore, Miles Goodwin, John Waters, H. C. Turner, R. W. Bryan, J. K. Ferrell, P. P. Williams, Thomas Mitchell and S. A. Pichan, policemen.

The duties of the clerk of the market were consolidated with the assistant chief of police. The janitor's salary was raised to $30 a month, and he is to take care of the market-house as well as the city hall and offices. R. C. Fowler was chosen janitor.

Thomas W. Blake is the new keeper of the city clock.

The fire department committee were allowed further time in which to report upon the proposition to build an engine house for the Victor (colored) fire company.

PREMIUM.
It will be seen by the following letter that the Singer sewing machine received the first premium at the late fair:

N. O. AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY,
Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 5, 1875.
T. W. HENNE, Esq., Manager Singer Manufacturing Company:
My Dear Sir: On examination it appears that the old medal awarded to J. & J. Johnson, managers of the Wheeler & Wilson manufacturing company for best sewing machine with most useful attachments, was so entered by a mistake of the reporting committee.
The executive committee have ordered that the medal be awarded to you, and it now stands in your name on the premium list.
Respectfully,
J. DEVEREUX, Sec'y.

ATTENTION BATTALION!
Friend, we mean you. Are you in debt to the Sentinel? Hundreds of good men are. You may be. If so, we are speaking to you. "One man anything" is as much a scriptural command as "Thou shalt not steal" or "Thou shalt not kill." To give you an opportunity to obey this long-neglected injunction of holy writ, we have just started R. W. Bent, of this city, on a general collecting tour. He will call upon all our friends along the railroad from here to Charlotte, and we trust they may find it convenient to do their christian duty promptly and fully. We have recently bought a press and ordered a large lot of new material, to furnish you an improved paper; and we need all that is due us to meet the payments we shall have to make. Brethren, friends, pay up!

RELIGIOUS.

SATURDAY EVENING.
The week is past, the Sabbath dawn comes on;
Rest—rest in peace—thy toll is done;
And, standing as thou standest, on the brink
Of a new scene of being, calmly think
Of what is gone, is now, and soon shall be,
As one that trembles in eternity.
For such as this poor clanking week is past,
So much advancing time will close my last,
Such as to-morrow shall the awful light
Of the eternal morning hail my sight.

Spirit of good! in this week's verge I stand,
Tracing the guiding influence of thy hand;
That hand that leads me gently, calmly still,
On life's dark, stormy, throned, thorny hill;
That, thou, in every storm, hast sheltered me
Beneath the wing of thy benignity.
A thousand graves my footsteps circumvent,
And I exist—thy mercy's monument;
A thousand wails upon the best of paths,
Five, and pleasure flows through every vein;
Want o'er a thousand wretched waves her
I, crested by ten thousand mercies, stand.

How can I praise thee, Father? how express
My debt of reverence and thankfulness?
A debt that no intelligence can count,
While every moment swells the vast amount;
For a week's duties thou hast given me strength,
And brought me to its peaceful close at length,
And here my grateful bosom faint would raise
A fresh memorial to thy glorious praise.

NEWS AND NOTES.
Hocking valley, Ohio, coal miners have struck for higher wages.

New York Tribune's stereotyped presidential ticket, Tilden and Bayard.

Three small children were burned up in some old shanties at Washington, yesterday.

The venerable Mrs. Partington is an applicant for senatorial honors in Massachusetts.

Population of London, 3,500,000. Twelve births to eight deaths every hour of the past year.

Spain is buying up provisions and munitions of war in this country, to resist interference in Cuba.

The prosecution of H. B. Clafin, of New York, for smuggling silk goes on. Motion to quash the indictment failed.

Some of the denizens of the White Nile region have revolted and defeated the Egyptian troops with a loss of 100 killed.

Gowen, the American wrecker, has been invited by the British government to be a bidder for the job of raising the Vanguard.

The immense failure of railway contractor Strasburg has seriously shaken Russian commercial credit, and many smash-ups are occurring.

Know-Nothingism with all its mysterious grips, passwords, billy-goats and dark lanterns, is being revived in New Jersey, Maryland and Pennsylvania.

Brigham Young is sick and guarded by a United States marshal. Poor old patriarch, he's on the down-grade, and everybody's ready to give him a kick.

The eastern division of the St. Joseph and Denver railroad has been bought by the bondholders, for $10,000, and a new company is to be formed to push it to completion.

Mrs. Moulton has been expelled from Plymouth church, for non-attendance. She gave as a reason for her neglect, the confession made to her by H. W. B. and Elizabeth T.

The Sunny South, published at Atlanta, Georgia, is a credit to the entire section from which it takes its name. It is infinitely superior to all such northern weeklies, as Bonner's namby-pamby Ledger.

Break into a dan of official thieves where you will, and the tramp leads to the White House. Among the indicted whiskey-sing robbers in St. Louis are Orville Grant, brother of Ulysses, and Gen. Babcock, grand chamberlain.

COMPLIMENTARY.—The Milton Chronicle pays this neat little tribute to a popular Raleigh official:
"Few men there are in this state who know no party in the discharge of the duties of their office. But we can point to one man who is popular as an officer with all classes and all parties. Dr. Eugene Grison, in the management of the state insane asylum, pleases the people and gives entire satisfaction to the state at large."

Even if we are not smart we know what to do when troubled with a bad cough or cold. No doctor's bill for us. We take a twenty-five cent note, go to the nearest drug store and buy a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. One dose relieves us and one bottle cures us.

[From the Lafayette Daily Courier.]
A VALUABLE WORK.
Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, distinguished in surgery, and the general practice in the profession he honors, has made a valuable contribution to the medical literature of the day, in a comprehensive work entitled "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser." While scientific throughout, it is singularly free from technical and stilted terms. It comes right down to the common sense of every-day life. Dr. Pierce is a noble specimen of American manhood. He has sprung from the people; and, with many sympathies in common with the masses, has sought to render them a substantial service in this the great work of his life.

FLOURISHING TOWNS.

DURHAM AND CARY—COTTON FACTORIES AND MACHINE SHOPS—MARRIOTT TOBACCO ESTABLISHMENTS—PERSONAL MENTION, ETC.

DURHAM, N. C., Nov. 5, 1875.
EDITION SENTINEL: You will observe from the heading of this letter that I am at present domiciled at the GREAT TOBACCO CENTER of the western hemisphere. In my travels, and at this place, your article in Wednesday's issue on "Manufactures in North Carolina and the South," is very much commented on. A number of prominent citizens say it is a move in the right direction; that they like to see some man at the head of a newspaper in North Carolina with courage and sense pride enough to come out boldly and lead public opinion instead of following, and that they believe the Sentinel now has that man at its head, (if you will pardon me for the expression, as I do not wish to flatter.)

I find at Cary, eight miles west of Raleigh, a spirit of progress. In addition to the machine shops for making sash, doors, blinds, shingles, cotton-gins, plows, &c., A. F. Page has

A COTTON FACTORY in successful operation, and will start 15 looms to weaving next week. He is an enterprising, go-ahead man, and I hope some of our Raleigh monocled men will see it and go still better. Mr. Page expects to make 700 yards of cloth a day, all of which the Durham smoking-tobacco manufacturers have agreed to take. That will give you some idea of what this place is doing in the way of smoking tobacco.

From the depot agent, I learn that during the month of October W. T. Blackwell & Co. alone shipped URWAGES OF 800,000 POUNDS. Yesterday they shipped 2,900 pounds, and a large order to-day; and there are in addition to theirs, 10 other establishments in town, and some 6 or 8 in the vicinity, which are selling all they can make.

There are many improvements going on here, such as dwellings and store-houses and new factories. The large hotel is nearing completion very fast, and is very much needed, for at present the accommodations are not as good as one would desire. Still the good-looking, kind and obliging manager, A. A. Searns, does his best to render his guests comfortable, and when the new one is completed he can spread himself, which he, no doubt, will do.

O. R. Smith, THE GREAT HOUSE MOVER, surprised the guests of the hotel last Wednesday morning; while they were at the breakfast table, he put his machine in motion and carried the long dining-room about 50 feet without any of them being disturbed or even finding it out.

Major W. N. Patterson, one of THE ARMY DELEGATES, is stopping at the hotel. He has been confined to his room for several days with a sore foot; otherwise he is in fine health and spirits. His major is becoming much interested in political matters; he made this county and the state a faithful representative in the convention and stood shoulder to shoulder with Tamm and others on all the vexed questions of bonds, debts and swindles—for the people and against their plunderers. By his course, he justly merits the encomium, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

Let I weary your patience, I will close.
Yours,
R. W. B.

TAR DROPS.
Clara Wildman played in Goldsboro yesterday evening.

The employees of the Patterson cotton factory, in Caldwell county, have struck.

A Louisville man leaned against the bear's eye the other day to rest, and had to wear a long-tailed coat home.

Tommie Pate, aged 14 years, got mashed into a jelly a few days ago, in his father's cotton gin in Northampton county.

A Guilford county farmer has a queer pet, which is half cat and half rabbit. It will catch rats one day and nibble cabbage leaves the next.

E. P. Edgerton, of Wayne county, has a little son who picked 200 pounds of cotton in one day. The diminutive cherub only weighs, hitherto and all, 50 pounds.

The Dialectic society of the University of North Carolina have tendered T. B. Kingsbury the use of their library to assist him in writing a history of the state.

The Elizabeth City Economist furnishes this astonishing: Dr. J. W. Parkinson, of Baltimore, aged 69 years, walked from Norfolk to Elizabeth City in two days. He is the father of 40 children, 18 of them living, and 45 grand-children.

The lion's cage of Sell's show tipped over the other day near Milton, and the scatterment of the spectators did away with any need of cornstalk-breakers in that region for a year to come. The beast was soon secured and order reigned again.

The retirement of Capt. Willoughby Avery from the editorship of the Charlotte Observer, has elicited a universal expression of regret from the journalists of the state. The whole press teems with exalted tributes to his ability and worth. An editor has not lived or worked in vain, who can draw forth such a eulogy as the Wilmington Journal pronounces upon him. We trust he may soon remount the printer's stool.

EXTRAORDINARY OPPORTUNITY FOR THE RELIEF OF THE AFFLICTED.

The surgeons of the National Surgical Institute, located at Indianapolis, Indiana, have finally yielded to the many urgent appeals to visit the South. Three or more of the surgeons will be at the Pavilion Hotel, Charleston, S. C., November 6, 4, 6 and 6, 1875.

They will have with them a great amount of surgical apparatus, appliances, etc., and competent assistants and workmen to change, fit and make such apparatus as may be required. They will come especially prepared to treat all surgical cases: Paralysis, all kinds of Deformities of the Face, Spine and Limbs, Dislocated Joints, Dislocated Eyes, Cataract, Private Diseases, Piles, Fistula, etc. On account of the great expense attending such a trip, they will not make another; therefore, all who wish to avail themselves of the advantages of the Institute, without the long journey to fair dismount, must do so at this time. Any cases will be undertaken without a fair hope of relief. It is needless to say that the Institute is entirely responsible, and the largest and most popular of the kind in America, curing thousands annually. Remember the time and place, and come early. Send to the Institute for circulars.

"O wearisome condition of humanity!" How many wretched homes in our land! How many heart-broken invalids! Life with many signifies a mere onerous existence. All are subject to disease, but when health is removed the hope is nearly gone out. Sickness is usually incurred through exposure or carelessness. Especially is this true with those diseases peculiar to woman. Through her own imprudence and folly she is made to drag out a miserable existence—a source of annoyance and anxiety to her friends, and any thing but a comfort and pleasure to herself. Exposure to the cold at times when she should be most prudent, and overtaxing her body with laborious employment, are both fruitful causes of many of the maladies from which she suffers. Gradually the bloom leaves her cheek, her lips grow ashy white, her vivacity departs, she continually experiences a feeling of weariness and general languor and altogether presents a ghastly appearance. What does she need? Should she take some stimulating drug, which will for the time make her "feel better," or does her entire system demand reparation? She requires something which not only restore to health the diseased organs, but will tone and invigorate the system. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do this. It imparts strength to the diseased parts, brings back the glow of health, and restores comfort where previously there was only suffering.

Every invalid lady should send for "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," in which over fifty pages are devoted to the consideration of those diseases peculiar to Women. It will be sent post-paid to any address, for $1.50. Address, R. V. Pierce, M. D. World's Dispensary, Buffalo, N. Y. Agents wanted to sell this valuable work.
