The City.

Dr. W. W. Green, a prominent citizen o' Franklinton, was in the city to-day.

Get your reserved seats at Tucker hall for to-morrow evening. The "Two Orphans" will draw a jam.

Remember that A. C. Sanders & Co. have for sale five (5) a No. 1 young and and well broke mules. They will sell them cheap.

There will be a meeting of the Mechanics' Building & Loan Association to-morrow evening. The committee of investigation will report.

The regular annual meeting of the Raleigh Light Artillery takes place Friday evening at the mayor's office. There will be an election of officers for the ensuing year.

Cotton receipts yesterday, 247 bales. Market to-day firmer at 12½. Orders large and cotton coming in freely. Trade dull except in dry-goods line.

There will be a sociable at Good Templars' lodge this evening. Speeches, recitations and music compose the programme of exercises. The public is invited to attend, and a pleasant time may be expected.

In the medical association at Baltimore, yesterday, Prof. W. C. Kerr, state geologist of North Carolina, made a report on the sanitary relations of draining and water supplies in North Carolina and the South Atlantic states as affected by topographical and geological conditions.

The citizens of Raleigh and adjoining towns are no longer obliged to send to Baltimore and elsewhere for WEDDING PRESENTS, BIRTHDAY PRESENTS, or GIFTS of any kind; a very fine stock of all these goods, of every grade, may be found at the large CROCKERY AND CHINA ESTABLISHMENT OF LAW & CO., FAYETTEVILLE STREET, at very low prices.

The Atlanta Constitution, of Nov. 5, unfeelingly says: "Edwin Booth will play one night in Charlotte and no night in Raleigh. This moves the Raleigh Sentinel to exclaim: Can it be possible that Edwin Booth will slight Raleigh, when he goes to 'such rural hamlets' as Charlotte? It seems that he will."

The Charlotte Southern Home, of Nov. 7, perpetrates this wanton atrocity on an innocent and unprotected orphan: "Col. Patroclus Donan, of the Sentinel, has an effective article on Raleigh as a manufacturing point, and the advantages it offers to capitalists. Is there a future father's-in-law property in the case? Rumor stands on its hind legs and discourses loudly in that direction."

Col. S. D. Pool, of this city, writes to the Charlotte Southern Home that he will begin, in December, the publication of a "Southern Historical Monthly." It is to be a 144-page magazine, devoted to preserving the records of southern soldiers and sailors during the late fraternal misunderstanding. The work could have been undertaken by no more competent hand, and we trust that what is now a labor of love may prove a venture of profit.

CITY INSURANCE.—Here is a new ray of light on the water-works question. A friend suggests that the city might, by insuring the property of her citizens against fire, for say 50 per cent. of its value, accumulate a sinking fund sufficient to redeem the bonds at maturity. Owning as she does all the fire engines, she might organize a vigilant and effective fire department, and reduce the risk to the lowest possible fraction of a figure. And her insurance policy would certainly be better than many of the wildcat northern concerns now patronized by our people at heavy rates of premium.

ANOTHER WEDDING.—Two of them yesterday. We mentioned the marriage of Mr. Mordecai and Miss Grimes, which took place yesterday morning. In the evening another young couple took upon themselves the solemn but blissful matrimonial vows. At half-past 8 o'clock yesterday evening, at the Grange hotel, Mr. George H. Wainwright and Miss Annie, daughter of George T. Cook, plighted their faith to each other, for better or worse, while life endures. The mystic ceremonial was impressively conducted by Rev. L. S. Burkhead, in the presence of the family and a few invited friends. We trust the radiant sunshine of to-day, after the gloom and chill of yesterday, may be emblematic of their wedded existence.

MORE SHERIFFS.—Sheriff Hughes, of Orange county, called on the auditor to-day and afterwards deposited $8,618.43 in the state treasury. Sheriff Pritchett, of Jones county, left $2,287.02 behind him.

UNION LEAGUE HOTEL.—This well-known and, in radical ranks, popular establishment had 5 additions to its numerous guests to-day. They all hail from Orange county, and were brought here under charge of Sheriff Hughes. The roll is: James Bolling, for attempted rape, 15 years; George Lineberry, for larceny, 5 years; Giles Mebane, larceny, 3 years; Green Stroud, larceny, 3 years; Dilsey Snipes, of the softer sex, larceny, 3 years. All niggers.

AN APPEAL FOR THE ORPHANS.—In his proclamation setting apart Thursday, Nov. 25, as a day of thanksgiving, Governor Brogden requests that collections be taken up in all churches that hold services on that day, for the benefit of the orphan asylums at Oxford and Mars Hill. It is to be hoped that this request will meet with a cordial and liberal response. We have no class in our midst that appeal more strongly to the tenderest and broadest charity than these little waifs, thrown upon the world without the least hope save in the redeeming traits of human nature and the, in these days, apparently distant care of the God of the fatherless. Remember the orphans while giving thanks for your own mercies and blessings.

POLICE COURT.—This morning acting Mayor Stronach had several cases to deal with.

James Sanerford, darkey, charged Christopher Sampson, a sable brother, with an undue familiarity with his spouse, and an assault for reproaching him about it. His honor thought they were both in fault and discharged the case.

William Dewey, charged with disorderly conduct, was discharged; Henry Christopher, ditto; Chas. Waltering, ditto.

T. L. Beacham, violation of huckstering ordinance, discharged.

Ellen Buncombe, not a very prepossessing African damsel, charged with keeping a disorderly house, passed over a $5 and $2.25 costs.

Patsy Dunston, Jennie Dunston and Sallie Dunston, all of the dark type, charged with keeping a disorderly house, were next called to law, and all sent on their way rejoicing except the unfortunate Patsy, who was levied on for a $5 contribution to the city treasury.

DEATH IN THE CAPITOL.—This morning a short time ere the sun had reached his meridian splendor, a dying scene transpired in one of the offices at the capitol. An omnipresent and appreciative local topician happened along just in time to witness the affecting spectacle. It was enough to move the heart of a hickory saw-log, and melt the eyes of a potato to tears. A mouse lay gasping out his little soul upon the floor, tenderly watched-over by a war-scarred general of the North Carolina militia, and a state official whose boundless political ambition is only equaled by the gentleness of his heart. Struck by the electric current of tear-dewed sympathy which encircled the chamber of death, our peripatetic news-noser's pencil burst forth in this touching gush of

POET-NOSER'S MEDLEY.

In Carolina's capitol
One bright November day,
A little, sad-eyed, dying mouse
Upon the carpet lay.
Singen, fate Singen on the Rhine.

He had just skipped about the room,
And looked as bright and gay,
No one had dreampt that he so soon
Would breathe his ghost away.
Leaves have their time to fall.

But sudden frenzor seized his frame
And on the floor he fell,
Deader than Rector known to fame,
Quicker than I can tell.
The solemncholy days have come, the saddest of the year.

The general gently took him up
And through the window flung him,
While I sat wrapped in divine afflatus
And thus a requiem sung him.
Not a drum was heard, nor a funeral note,
As his corse to the ramparts we hurried.
Gone to meet his mother-in-law.

EXTRACT FROM PROVIDENCE PAPER.—From the reports which come to us, there is at least one establishment in the city which does not feel the effect of the hard times, and that is the Miles Alarm Till Company, A. O. Miles, Treasurer. We understand that orders are coming in large numbers from every part of the country, and also from many foreign parts, more especially South America. The amount of business done last month, was double that of September, last year, and the present month promises to be equally as good. These celebrated Alarm Cash Drawers are for sale at Fairbanks' Scale Warehouse, 311 Broadway, and by the hardware trade generally.

We claim that the Elmwood collar will fit better, look more like linen, and keep clean longer than any other.

THE CITIZENS' MEETING.

PLAN FOR FUNDING THE CITY DEBT ADOPTED.

In accordance with previous announcement, an adjourned citizens' meeting was held last evening at Metropolitan hall, to receive and consider the report of the committee in regard to a basis of settlement of the city debt. The meeting was called to order by Alfred Williams, chairman, and in the absence of R. W. Best, the regular secretary, Jordan Stone was appointed pro tem. R. H. Battle, chairman of the committee, submitted this communication and report:

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 8, 1875.

Alfred Williams, Esq., Chairman of Citizens' Meeting:

The committee appointed at a late meeting of the citizens of Raleigh, of which you were chairman, to consider the question of the city indebtedness, and, if deemed expedient, to report a plan for funding the same, have had the matter under consideration, and have agreed upon the accompanying report, which I, as secretary of the committee, have been directed to transmit through you to the citizens, with the recommendation of the committee that the same be adopted. In submitting the report of the committee it has been made my duty to say that, while the plan proposed by the report was not entirely satisfactory to many of the committee, as a practicable scheme, looking to success, it is believed by them, under the circumstances, to be the best that can be done. The report was adopted by the committee with but one or two dissenting votes.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
WM. H. BAGLEY,
Secretary of Committee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE.

The committee appointed by a meeting of the citizens of Raleigh, to consider and recommend a practicable plan for funding the outstanding debt of the city, after having carefully considered the questions submitted to them, respectfully report:

1. That they are satisfied, after conferring with a number of their fellow tax-payers and others, that no scheme for funding said debt will be ratified by a majority of the citizens that looks to issuing bonds for the full amount of the outstanding scrip and bonds not constitutionally issued.

2. That, believing seventy-five (75) per centum represents about the average sum paid in cash for such scrip and bonds, they recommend that an ordinance be submitted to the people providing for the funding of such scrip and bonds, at seventy-five (75) per centum of the amount thereof, with interest from the date of the issue of the scrip, and adding coupons for interest in case of coupon bonds.

3. That the bonds to be issued, be interest-bearing bonds, at the rate of six (6) per centum per annum, with coupons attached, to represent such interest, payable semi-annually.

4. That such bonds shall run twenty (20) and thirty (30) years, and be of the denomination of fifty dollars, ($50) one hundred dollars ($100,) and multiples of one hundred dollars ($100.)

5. That the details for issuing such bonds, providing a sinking fund for payment of interest and principal as they become due, &c., be provided for in the ordinance to be prepared for submission to the citizens for ratification or rejection as aforesaid.

Mr. Battle said, in submitting the report, that the majority of the committee thought the tax-payers were opposed to funding at face value, and therefore 75 cents had been agreed upon as a compromise.

H. S. Keith wanted $1 instead of 75 cents, and 5 per cent. interest.

W. H. Bagley opposed Mr. Keith's amendment. He thought its adoption would cause the people to vote the whole matter down.

The amendment was rejected.

W. H. Pace moved for 8 per cent., but was voted down.

J. C. Birdsong thought bonds should be issued of a smaller denomination than $50, in order that those holding small amounts might have the advantage of funding.

R. H. Battle said this matter had been considered, and it was thought but little if any scrip was in the hands of parties in a less amount than $50.

Alderman Harris, colored, did not think the laboring class held any scrip, as none had been issued for 7 months.

Joseph A. Harris thought this funding would increase city taxes, and as they were heavy enough now he was opposed to it.

Alderman Harris, colored, responded that unless something was done to settle the matter, the city would be sued by creditors and forced to pay the whole amount.

The legality of the city debt was discussed by Messrs. Marcom, Keith, Jas. H. Harris, colored, and others.

R. H. Battle stated that the debt proposed to be funded had been carefully considered, and it was the opinion of the committee that the city was in every way responsible for it.

C. M. Busbee described the bad position the city would be placed in if she should be sued and brought into court, as it was well known that immediate payment would be enforced.

The report was adopted, though a number dissented, and the meeting adjourned sine die.

We suppose the board of aldermen, at their next meeting, will order an election, and submit the proposition to the voters of the city for adoption or rejection. It is a difficult matter to express an opinion as to the result of such an election, as there are so many and such wide differences of opinion. Some think 75 cents too little, others too much, while a large number are opposed to funding at any price. We feel that some measure of improvement is necessary. The credit of Raleigh should be as good as that of the federal government. We wish to see the wisest, cheapest and best plan that our sages can devise, put forward and adopted; and our columns are open to all who know, or have reasonable grounds for thinking they know, anything about the questions at issue, for a full, fair and free discussion. But boil down what you have to say. A thimbleful of cream is worth a gallon of chalk-and-indigo water.

TAR DROPS.

Gen. Bob Ransom was in Weldon Tuesday.

Corn selling at 60 cents a bushel at Hamburg.

Oxford is proud of her mayor, Jas. B. Crews.

Land in Cabarrus county sells at from $18 to $83 an acre.

A doll at the Weldon fair brought $26 for the Oxford orphans.

Austin Rhodes, of Stokes county, was badly hurt a few days ago, by a mule kicking his heels.

The Durham Farmers' Warehouse has a third of a page advertisement in the Oxford Torchlight.

The door of the Orange county jail stands open for lack of somebody to turn the key upon.

Jas. B. Hobgood, of Greenville county, had his shoulder-blade broken by a log falling on him, Nov. 4.

The gin-house of W. P. Grimsley, of Greene county, with twenty-six bales of cotton, was burned the other night. Loss $2,500.

Messrs. Joyce and Carter, of Stokes county, indulged in a discussion with knives, and Mr. Carter's estate will probably have to pay for black-bordered handkerchiefs.

A nigger beast named Whitfield has just been jailed in Goldsboro, for attempting to outrage two young ladies. He ought to have been hung first, and taken to jail afterward.

T. A. Granger, of Wayne county, is a granger indeed. At the Weldon fair he took a $20 premium for the largest yield of oats on an acre; $10 for largest yield of peas; $10 for largest yield of turnips; $5 for best family flour; and several smaller ones for best oats, corn and rye. His wife swept away a half dozen prizes on bread, and home-made wines; and his little son got one on a rat-trap of his own invention.

Life is but short, but we should do all we can to prolong it. Check a cough or cold at once and use an old reliable remedy such as Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

THE CAREER OF ANDREW JOHNSON.

This statesman and patriot has passed away, but his deeds will live after him. What a commentary is his fame on the advantages of an American citizen? Unlettered and unaided, relying upon himself, he advanced step by step from the lowest station in life, to the highest office in the gift of the American people. All this was accomplished by unswerving integrity, dauntless courage, and persevering research. By the exercise of these principles, it is in the power of any poor and friendless boy to attain the same grand result. The same success is attainable in the commercial world as in the political, as is proven in the case of Dr. Tutt's Standard preparation. He, conscious of their value, labored patiently, and to day no medicine has taken so firm a hold on the public estimation as his Liver Pills. They stand on the topmost round of the healing ladder.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

By the Governor of North Carolina.

A PROCLAMATION.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 10, 1875.

WHEREAS, THE PEOPLE OF NORTH Carolina have been abundantly blessed with the favor and protection of divine Providence, which has crowned the past year with plenty and general prosperity, preserved to us the enjoyment of civil and religious liberty, exempted us from the ravages of war, pestilence, famine, and other calamities which have scourged other peoples and states, permitting no evils to befall us but such as are incident to the common lot of man:

Now, therefore, as it becomes us, a christian people, to render thanks to Almighty God for these and numberless other blessings showered upon us in His great mercy, I, CURTIS H. BROGDEN, Governor of North Carolina, in obedience to law and in conformity with an honored precedent, do appoint and set apart

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 25th, 1875

as a day of public Thanksgiving throughout the State.

And I do earnestly invite the clergy of every denomination to open their respective houses of worship, and the people to abstain on that day from all pursuits inconsistent with the sacred duties of the occasion, and with devout hearts to assemble in their respective sanctuaries, and offer the prayer of thanksgiving, and unite in the songs of praise to Him who has given us peace and plenty, and vouchsafed all the privileges and blessings we enjoy. Let gratitude inspire our hearts and enlarge our benevolence. And remembering the poor and unfortunate among us, let us add to our devotions deeds of charity and works of love. And I especially recommend on that day of thanksgiving and rejoicing, that donations be solicited in all places of public worship in this state for the benefit of the needy children of the Orphan Asylums at Oxford and Mars Hill.

With gratitude for the mercies of the past, let us seek wisdom from above to guide us in the future, that our feet may be kept in the paths of rectitude, and that our days may be a blessing to ourselves and those with whom we associate.

Done at the city of Raleigh, on this the 10th day of November, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy five, and in the one hundredth year of America a Independence.

C. H. BROGDEN.
