LEA & FERBINS' is the only GENUINE WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE The City.

Taxes poured into the sheriff's office to-day quite lively. Baltimore commercial tourists are beginning to swarm in this region.

Our Light Infantry company is expected this evening from Wilmington. "Led Astray," at Tucker hall, to-morrow evening. Hall's troupe. It's good. Go.

J. McCallum, of Raleigh, was registered at the Gaston house, Newbern, yesterday.

Solomon Pool, ex-president of the University of North Carolina, was in the city to-day.

The Mechanics' Building and Loan Association meets in the court-house at 7 o'clock this evening.

Cotton receipts yesterday, 238 bales. Market to-day rather steady at 12. Orders few and light. Trade very dull in all directions.

Lovers of burnt-cork entertainments will be glad to hear that Skiff & Gaylard's minstrels will put in an appearance here before long.

Hall's combination will repeat the play of "Two Orphans" this evening. Go early, if you want a comfortable and desirable seat.

The Sociable at the Good Templars' lodge last evening, was largely attended and was a very pleasant affair. The music was especially good.

Wm. E. Pell, of Cary, is in the city to-day. He will shortly connect himself with the jewelry-house of Edward Farnach, as traveling salesman.

W. S. Mason's new house, on Edenton street, is rapidly approaching completion. It will be a substantially constructed and handsome residence.

Law & Co. have in this city as handsome a china establishment as can be found anywhere in the south. They run a large house in Atlanta, Georgia, as well as here.

John S. Manix, of the Newbern Times, and late member of the state convention, is in the city. He's as good-looking and clever a little radical, as there is in all the Old North State.

Miss Fallie A. Pell, of Cary, has been dangerously ill with peritonitis, for the last two months. She is now thought to be past the crisis of the disease, and on the way to recovery.

Barber Dunston still lathers and shaves under the Raleigh National bank. His hand is steady and his blades are keen. Hair fixated and parted in the middle, when desired, with neatness and dispatch.

J. C. B. Little, formerly storekeeper at the Raleigh & Gaston depot, and now a member of the board of aldermen, has been appointed agent of the North Carolina railroad, to fill the place of Geo. T. Jones, resigned. Excellent selection.

THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.—Our fire department is now fully organized. The board of fire commissioners consists of one member from each fire division of the city. They are R. F. Jones, 1st division; W. H. Bagley, 2d; John B. Neathery, 3rd; W. J. Hicks, 4th. J. H. Green is chief engineer and T. Lamsom, assistant.

SLIGHT TANGLE.—J. A. Green, sheriff of Harnett county, called on the auditor to-day to arrange for the settlement of his state taxes. K. M. McNeill was removed from the sheriffalty of the county in July on account of a default of some $8,000, and Mr. Green was appointed to fill the place. There was a little lack of an exact understanding as to Mr. Green's responsibility in the matter, so that he failed to make a full settlement to-day. He will do so, as soon as the amount is ascertained. Mr. Green reports the people of his county generally doing well, and he has had no trouble whatever in collecting the taxes.

HURRAH FOR US!—Raleigh triumphant. Our flag was there. Our young heroes have swept the field. Competition fled at the nod of their plumes. Victory, sweet bird of the golden crest, perches on their banner. 8,000 spectators threw up their hats and waved their handkerchiefs. Men cheered and fair women scattered approving smiles. Glory enough for one day, and a little left over for to-morrow. Raleigh Light Infantry carries off the prize at the Wilmington fair, over the Norfolk City Guards, and the Wilmington Light Infantry and Light Artillery, and receives the magnificent satin standard. Grand banquet given them at the Cape Fear house, last evening. Hurrah for Capt. Manly and our handsome boys in gray!

DELEGATES.—Governor Brogden has appointed Miles P. Pagan and H. U. Eccles, of Charlotte, delegates to the great Southern Pacific railroad convention that meet in Memphis, Nov. 19, and St. Louis, Nov. 23.

HONORS.—Scott Brown, our noted prince of lather-and-shavers, has just received from Secretary Cleator of the Wilmington Industrial Association, a certificate of his selection by the board of directors, as the representative of Wake county, at the fair to be held Dec. 27. The association is composed of colored citizens, and Scott will make an excellent delegate. Hon. O. H. Dockery, late member of the convention from Richmond county, is to be the orator of the occasion.

POLICE COURT.—Acting Mayor Stronach had time this morning to loaf and contemplate, through his justice-mill window, the beauties of autumnal crimson and gold, as displayed in the insane asylum groves. Only two cases came before him, both plain inebrieties. Alfred Flowers, a darkly-tinted and not over-fragrant blossom, bloomed out $7.25 worth.

Wm. Hicks, of the same dusk type of beauty, was reduced to a similar Hickstremity, was fed out of the same spoon.

STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—APPOINTMENT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.—The premiums awarded at the recent fair are being paid as rapidly as the claims are presented to the secretary and treasurer. Both these officers are energetic gentlemen and display commendable zeal in furthering the interests of the association. The executive committee for the ensuing year consists of this long and distinguished array: Messrs. W. J. Hicks, W. G. Upchurch, Walter Clark, Thomas H. Briggs, D. M. Carter, W. R. Cox, John Nichols, N. S. Harp, A. Creech, I. J. Young, Julius Lewis, John G. Williams, John C. Blake, D. G. Fowle, J. D. Whitford, R. H. Jones, R. G. Dunn, G. W. Blackwell, P. E. DEATH OF MAJOR GRICE.—Our whole community was startled and shocked to-day by tidings of the death of Major George W. Grice, president of the Raleigh & Gaston railroad. He passed down the road to his home yesterday, the very picture of health; and, this morning at 7 o'clock, with scarcely a moment's warning, died under an apoplectic stroke. Major Grice was born in Portsmouth in 1825. His early education was received at Elizabeth City, in our state; one of his preceptors being Edwin M. Stanton, afterward Lincoln's secretary of war. He was four years mayor of Portsmouth, and once represented Princess Anne and Norfolk counties in the Virginia senate. He served in the Confederate army through the war, and at its close was chief quartermaster of the department of Georgia, Alabama and Florida. He was President of the Union Car Works at Portsmouth, and furnished the equipment for what was then known as the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford railroad—now the Carolina Central. In 1867, he founded the National Bank of Portsmouth, of which he remained president, until the 29th of last September, when he resigned to accept the presidency of the Raleigh & Gaston and Augusta Air-Line railroads. At the time of his election to this position, he was president of six different corporations. He was in Portsmouth arranging to move his family to Raleigh, when he died. Although he had been among us so short a time, he had made many warm and sincere friends; and his sudden death has spread a general feeling of sorrow through all our community. The sympathies of our people go out to his bereaved family, his widowed wife and orphaned children. May the God of the afflicted bind up their wounded hearts, and enable them to feel that "all is well" with him who has only "gone before."

"All over the world Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is making its way, and every place it reaches consumptive people are more seldom met. It is truly a blessing to humanity, and only costs 25 cents."

"O wearisome condition of humanity!" How many wretched homes in our land! How many heart-broken invalids! Life with many signifies a mere onerous existence. All are subject to disease, but when health is removed the hope is nearly gone out. Sickness is usually incurred through exposure or carelessness. Especially is this true with those diseases peculiar to women. Through her own imprudence and folly she is made to drag out a miserable existence—a source of annoyance and anxiety to her friends, and any thing but a comfort and pleasure to herself. Exposure to the cold at times when she should be most prudent, and overtaxing her body with laborious employment are both fruitful causes of many of the maladies from which she suffers. Gradually the bloom leaves her cheek, her lips grow ashy white, her vivacity departs, she continually experiences a feeling of weariness and general languor and altogether presents a ghastly appearance. What does she need? Should she take some stimulating drug, which will for the time make her "feel better," or does her entire system demand repair? She requires something which not only restore to health the diseased organs, but will tone and invigorate the system. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do this. It imparts strength to the diseased parts, brings back the glow of health, and restores comfort where previously there was only suffering.

Every invalid lady should send for "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," in which over fifty pages are devoted to the consideration of those diseases peculiar to Women. It will be sent post-paid to any address, for $1.50. Address, H. V. Pierce, M. D. World's Dispensary, 140th St., N. Y. Agents wanted to sell this valuable work.

BISHOP LYMAN'S APPOINTMENTS.—Nov. 27, Flat River, Orange county. Nov. 28, Hillsboro. Nov. 30, Salisbury, Rowan county. Dec. 1, Concord, Cabarrus county. Dec. 3, Monroe, Union county. Dec. 5, Wadesboro, Anson county. Dec. 7, Rockingham, Richmond county.

FRUITS OF ADVENTURE.—Mr. Atkinson, of Johnston county, hitched his mule in Adams' wagon-yard, and the long-eared kinsman of much American statesmanship was stolen. He advertised in the Sentinel describing the animal, and soon received a letter from a citizen of Rockingham county, saying in classic phrase, "Here's your mule."

Pogue, the Hillsboro tin man, advertised a large lot of his wares in the Sentinel. A Petersburg man saw the notice, went to Hillsboro, and bought him out.

Rev. Mr. Timin, of Orange county, read an advertisement of a stolen horse, in the Sentinel. Going on his gospel circuit in Chatham county, he discovered the steed and had it restored to its owner.

Last week, J. A. Temple, of Millburn, bought in Harnett county, a dog named Heck, for $9. The new purchase strayed or ran away, and was promptly advertised in the Sentinel. A man in Harnett read the advertisement, captured the fugitive, and now, tied to a stake in the back-yard of the Sentinel office, he nightly serenades the moon while awaiting the coming of his owner to retake him home.

THE CAREER OF ANDREW JOHNSON. This statesman and patriot has passed away, but his deeds will live at er him. What a commentary is his fame on the advantages of an American citizen! Unlettered and unaided, relying upon himself, he advanced step by step from the lowest station in life, to the highest office in the gift of the American people. All this was accomplished by unswerving integrity, dauntless courage, and persevering research. By the exercise of these principles, it is in the power of any poor and friendless boy to attain the same grand result. The same success is attainable in the commercial world as in the political, as is proven in the case of Dr. Tuit's Standard Preparation. He, conscious of their value, labored patiently, and to day no medicine has taken so firm a hold on the public estimation as his Liver Pills. They stand on the foremost round of the healing ladder.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. By the Governor of North Carolina. A PROCLAMATION.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 10, 1875. WHEREAS, THE PEOPLE OF NORTH Carolina have been abundantly blessed with the favor and protection of Divine Providence, which has crowned the past year with plenty and general prosperity, presented to us the enjoyment of civil and religious liberty, exempted us from the ravages of war, pestilence, famine, and other calamities which have scourged other peoples and states, permitting no evils to befall us but such as are incident to the common lot of man:

Now, therefore, as it becomes us, a Christian people, to render thanks to Almighty God for these and sundry other blessings showered upon us by His great mercy, I, CURTIS H. BROGDEN, Governor of North Carolina, in obedience to law and in conformity with an honored precedent, do proclaim and set apart

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 26th, 1875, as a day of public Thanksgiving throughout the State.

And I do earnestly invite the clergy of every denomination to open their respective houses of worship, and the people to abstain on that day from all pursuits inconsistent with the sacred duties of the occasion, and with devout hearts to assemble in their respective churches and offer the prayer of thanksgiving, and unite in the songs of praise to Him who has given us peace and plenty, and vouchsafed all the privileges and blessings we enjoy. Let gratitude inspire our hearts and enlarge our benevolence. And remembering the poor and unfortunate among us, let us add to our devout deeds of charity and works of love. And I especially recommend on that day of thanksgiving and rejoicing, that donations be solicited in all places of public worship in this state for the benefit of the needy children of the Orphan Asylums at Oxford and Mars Hill.

With gratitude for the mercies of the past, let us seek wisdom from above to guide us in the future, that our feet may be kept in the paths of rectitude, and that our days may be a blessing to ourselves and those with whom we associate.

Done at the city of Raleigh, on this the 10th day of November, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy five, and in the one hundredth year of American Independence. C. H. BROGDEN.
