HAIL TO THE HEROES!-Our premium article of warriors, Raleigh Light Infantry, got home last evening from their visit to the Wilmington fair, and were greeted with cheers and plaudits. The red glow of blazing tar-barrels lit up the heavens. Congratulations on their victory were showered upon them from every side. At the capitel, F. J. Busbee, in bel alf of the citizens of Raleigh, welcomed them back to their homes, and thanked them for the credit they had reflected upon the city in bearing off the prize, as the best crilled company at the Wilmington contest. The speech was a gem admirably adapted to the occasion. The members of the company express bigh gratifica-tion at the manner of their reception and entertainment in Wilmington. The city by the sea has twisted another cord around our grateful hearts. We are hers for 90 days. MOND AND DANVILLE ROAD-GUESTS AND INCIDENTS.

GREENSBORO, Nov. 11, 1875. EDITOR SENTINEL: This afternoon EDITOR SENTINEL: This afternoon while awaiting the freight-train at Company Shops, the special train of the committee of examination of the North Carolina division of the Richmond & Danville railroad arrived from Golds boro. By invitation of Capt. A. B. Andrews, the efficient and courteons superintendent, I accompanied the party to this place. The EXAMINING COMMITTEE was composed of W. B. Isaacs, chairman, Thos. D. Neal and Dr. Thos. Stokes, of Richmond, and B. F. Garrett, of Halifax county, Va.; James A. Scott, F. B. Isaacs, Col. J. B. McPhail, T. W. Hoenniger, of Richmond, and Col. T. M. R. Talcott, general superintendent; W. H. Green, superintendent of the Richmond & Danville division, and Capt. A. B. Andrews, superintendent of the North Carolina division, ac-companied the committee on their trip. The train was under the immediate charge of Capt. D. P. Ligon, a popular and experienced conductor.

last Tuesday morning and examined the road and all the appurtenances up to Charlotte and from Charlotte down to Goldsboro. The chairman of the committee, W

Sentinel. No. 86. RAILBOAD INSPECTION. RELIGIOUS. OFFICIAL EXAMINATION OF THE RICH-A CHURCH GOING BELLE,

CLERICAL SPORTS,-Rev. N. M. Jurney, the popular young pastor of the Person Street Methodist church, killed Person Street Methodist church, thied 25 quails yesterday. He handles a shot-gun as well as he does the artillery of Zion. Brother Bobbitt, of the Christian Advocate, didn't succeed so well. He slew one bird that he got, and two that got themselves—away. He shoots ink far more effectively than lead.

BROWN BREAD. - This dinteresting vegetable takes its name from Ossawottamic Brown, whose soul is said to be marching along. It is composed of equal parts of clay, flour, coffee-grounds and Butler's boot-blacking, shortened with wagon grease and tar, and flavored with straw out of an old mattress. It is grown in the same way as other kinds, and barvested with a cross-eyed steam baby-jumper. When as other kinds, and barvested with a cross-eyed steam baby-jumper. When baked to a gentle orange tint, turn out and serve in a battered stovepipe hat with warm mustard-plasters and rancid butter. It will be found very palatable and nourishing for invalids wrapped in red flannel.

HALL's COMBINATION.-Last evening this company repeated the popular French sensational drama, "Two Orphans," to a large audience, but not so large as they should have had. We reiterate the statement that it is the reiterate the statement that it is the most meritorious troupe that has visited our city for a long time, and the rendering of the play last evening was equal in all respects to that of Monday. This evening "Led Astray," translated and adapted to the English stage by Dion Boucicault, will be presented. This play had an unprecedented run in London and New York, and is of thrilling interest.

thrilling interest. PLEASURE AHEAD.-We understand the young ladies of the Edenton Street Methodist church propose to have a grand fair, festival and reunion, some time next week. Their entertainments are always charming affairs, and we are assured they intend, if possible, to surpass all their previous ef-forts at being agreeable and rendering their patrons a full return in religious fun for whatever nickels they may see fit to invest. Young men, brush up your Sunday-go-to-meetings, swing your sweethearts—(if you have any, or some other fellows' if you haven't) - to your left arms, and go. You can't get rid of a V more easily or enjoyably. We hope the hall may be crowded to the squeezing point. Place where and time when, will be announced hereaf-

WEATHER AND MOON .- Never in the memory of half a dozen "oldest inhabitants" tied together, was more exquisitely lovely and beautiful weather known in America, than we have been enjoying this week. The nights especially have been transcendently glorious. Air mild and balmy as ever sighed o'er Araby the blest, Skies unclouded as those whose blue arch bends, in crystal purity, above the enchanted bay of Naples. And moonlight bathing hill and valley, city, rock, brooklet and wildwood in a flood of radiance rich and silvery as ever illumed the romance wreathed courts and towers of the Albambra, All, everything conspires to put wreathed courts and towers of the Al-hambra. All, everything conspires to put even the toughest old goaling into a squashily sentimental mood. The temp-tations to stroll around arm in arm with some friend of the opposite gender, star-gazing, whispering soft and tender absurdities, humming gentle ditties, dealing in emotional froth and bottled moonshine, and making an egregious ninny of one's self in general, are alin fact, is one of the best kept hotels in the state. Mr. Moore, the polite diningroom superintendent, thinks you are not pleased if you fail to eat a good square meal.

A Poser.—Mamie and Johnnie, two little five-year-old cousins, of this city, were disputing the other day about the comparative value of their possessions.

Wny ?- "Taxes poured into the sheriff's office to-day quite livelily."

The above, Mr. Editor, is taken from than you have, anyhow!" Johnaie sat silent and puzzled for a moment, and then triumphantly replied: 'I don't care if you have; I cried enough at Mr. H—'s funeral, to make up for all your old dead kin!"

The above, Mr. Editor, is taken from the local columns of your yesterday's issue. Both state and county taxes are paid at the same time, yet the county treasurer was not able to cash an order on himself to-day for nine dollars and fifty cents, nor will be be able for a mouth hence. Why so?

DRAWN PROM LAPR-Is the title of a volume of Dickens' raciest sketches just issued, for the first time in America, by the great publishing-house of E, J. Hale & Son, 17 Murray street, New York. It contains all the inimitable sketches of the various types of young ladies, young gentlemen and young couples, which pin every-day peculiarities and follies, like dried bugs and beetles, to the moral entomologist's walls. Exquisitely bound in green and gold, with twenty illustrations by Hablot Browne. A charming book for a holiday present. Alfred Williams has it for sale.

GREENSBORO TO WINSTON—THE RAIL-ROAD COMMITTEE'S TRIP.

GREENSBORO, N. C., Nov. 12, '75. EDITOR SENTINEL: At the solicitation of the members of the railroad examining committee, I accompanied them to Winston to-day. The entire party, except Captain Green, occupied births in the magnificent Pullman sleeping-car which they had along. We started at 5 o'clock this meraing.
