WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE
Cotton to-day active at 12.
Col. E. W. Humphrey, president of the Atlantic & North Carolina railroad, is in the city.
Judge Bond arrived yesterday afternoon, to attend to his duties on the bench of the U. S. circuit court, now in session in this city.
There is good beneath many a strange disguise. A convict in the penitentiary contributed $1 to the Oxford orphan asylum, this morning.
As the request of many citizens, we have introduced our fine "DIAMOND OIL," 30 days as higher test than any else. Price 40 cents. Law & Co.
For high prices carry your tobacco to the Durham warehouse. Beams is peeled, and fine smokers and fancy wrappers bring fancy prices when sold by him.
A large number of delegates to the conference of the Methodist Protestant church, in session at Union Chapel, Greenville county, passed through the city this morning.
J. C. Helms, of Fayetteville, one of the best members of the present general assembly and the chairman of the commission on internal improvement, is in the city in attendance upon the U. S. circuit court.
Messrs. A. C. Sanders & Co., have for sale two good mules, one beautiful pony, one new buggy and one second-hand carriage just repaired and painted, as good as new. Call on them at No. 2, North street, for a bargain.

BEAUFORT AFIRE!
DISASTROUS CONFLAGRATION.
Dispatches received here to-day state that a fire broke out in Beaufort, about two o'clock this morning, and at last accounts was still raging. The whole business portion of the town is in a-hes. Every building between Orange and Mercer streets, except two dwellings, has been swept away by the flames.
There is as yet no estimate of the damages, but many families are homeless and, unless relief is promptly afforded, great destitution and suffering must ensue.

WASH. D.C. Summary.—Since the assured they will be applied in the manner the law directs. Well done, Dunn, you have redeemed the county.

NEWS AND NOTES.
The Hudson river freezes up.
Cattle-stealing brisk along the Rio Grande.
Ex-Senator Ira Harris very ill at Albany.
The Cubans claim another decisive victory.
Sardinia, Mississippi, being a pair of niggers last Friday.
Famine of the stomach is what's the matter with O'Connor.
Havans celebrated Alfonso's birthday Monday. And why?
Thermometer 1 degree below zero at Millford, Pennsylvania, Monday.
Peter Kelly found dead in bed at Barnum's hotel, Baltimore, last Friday.
Washington halt, Wheeling was burned yesterday, causing the legislature. Loss $50,000.
South England had a general snowstorm yesterday. Bright, mild and beautiful in Carolina.
Old Bill Allen has appointed Milliken, treasurer-elect of Ohio, to fill the vacant space of defunct Welch.
E. J. Croun, a prominent lawyer of Westminster, Maryland, fell dead in the court-room a few days ago.
New England nipped by bitter cold.
Thermometer Sunday, heading the bottom out at 4 to 22 below zero.
The U. S. court at Indianapolis is snatching the Hoosier whisky-ringer friends of the president bald-headed.
Boston turned out a huge crowd Monday to welcome Wilson dead. Bells toll and cannon fired all through New England.
The democratic caucus meets in the hall of the house of representatives, Washington, at two o'clock next Saturday afternoon.
A lively old gait went scallyhooping along the "stern and rock-bound coast" of Yankeeedom Monday, and shook up things considerably.
The outrageously insolent conduct of Gen. Stone, chief of staff to the Egyptian head-nigger, infuriating all the American officers out of his service.
Humbung activity in all the navy yards.
A half-donkey first-class Spanish screw climbs could sink our last tub and wreck the coast from Maine to Maryland.
General Hancock, Admiral Rowan and Governor Tilden, with their full staffs, reviewed the vice-presidential corps, as it passed through New York.
The report of Chas. O'Connor's death is pronounced false. We thought he died when he headed Blanton Duncan's mob convention in Louisville in 72.
Oberlin, Ohio, had a $45,000 blaze yesterday. Our eyes wouldn't have spilled more than a tin-cup of tears, if the whole place and the ground it stands on had gone.
Old Zack Chandler is whacking off clerk-hands by the dozen in the Indian departments of governmental piracy. It will take fresher and greedier thieves to Zachy suit so ponderous a villain.
The trial of whisky-ringer Avery, of St. Louis, has brought out a vast number of dispatches between Washington officials and the thieves, and Grant's pet and partner in villainy Babcock, stands bridle-bit deep in spoils.
These are the contents before the incoming house of representatives: Finley vs. Wells, of Florida; Bromberg vs. Haralson, Alabama; Spencer vs.
Morcy and Breux vs. Darrall, Louisiana; Lee vs. Rainey, South Carolina; Plate vs. Goods, Virginia.

"FACTS ARE STRONGER THINGS." Thousands of human beings are yearly borne on the swift current of disease down to the grave, just because they do not possess a sufficient knowledge of themselves. A man meets his neighbor, and the first salutation is, "How are you?" or "How is your health?" The reply frequently is, "Oh, I am well, with the exception of a cold." Most persons lightly regard a cold. Reader, do you know that a cold is one of the most dangerous of maladies? A cold not only clogs up the pores of the entire system, and retards circulation, but it is productive of Catarrh, which is quite apt to lead to Consumption. "Oh," you say, "it is nothing but a cold in my head." True, but that cold is really a mild form of Catarrh, and if not arrested in its course will become chronic. Catarrh is one of the most disagreeable, offensive affections in the catalogue of diseases. The passage to the nose is obstructed, the sense of smell impaired, and there is a disagreeable sensation of pressure in the head. In the more advanced stages, there is a discharge having an offensive odor. If the disease be allowed to continue in its course, thick, hard incrustations will form in the head, the bones of which sometimes become softened and break away in pieces. Why will persons continue to suffer from such an annoying, disgusting disease, when they can just as well be cured? Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will cure the worst forms of Catarrh; in fact, it is the only safe and safe remedy which has yet been offered to the public.
Many have, irritating preparations may, for a time, relieve the urgency of the symptoms, but they do not cure the disease. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy is soothing and healing in its effects, and when used with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, according to directions, does not fail to effect a cure. Sold by all Druggists.

RARE CASE.—An old gentleman named Richardson, of Chatham county, who was in this city yesterday, furnished a rather singular instance of stay-at-home-iveness. He is 76 years old, hale hearty and active; has lived in Chatham county, within 40 miles of Raleigh, all his life; and was never here before. He is a skillful worker in wood and iron, and is of more than ordinary sprightliness in conversation.
Is there any other man, who has lived nearly four-score years, almost within hearing of the bells of the capital of his state, without seeing it?

TAR DROPS.
Asheville is suffering with epizoot.
Dismal Swamp canal holds a "fall hard" of water.
Wilson county has a new post-office christened Saratoga.
Lindelston is enjoying more sickness than she has known for 30 years.
A Richmond county hunting party recently massed 8 deer in a day.
Judge Bonds, of the supreme court, is recovering from his recent illness.
Amateur concerts agreeably knock thunder out of the monotony of Monroe.
Hendersonians didn't thinkgive much on account of the tangle in cotton and tobacco.
Wilkesboro paid her devotions last week to 58 boys, 177 pigs, 18 sheep, 3 calves and 2 deer.
Elizabeth City's blue-devils have disappeared before legions of bluejays, which she is shipping north.
A. H. Tate, of Charlotte, has just buried little Ida, the fourth child he has lost within a month by diphtheria.
Rocet robbers run rampant round Wilkesboro. The shanghai market is on the rise since conference met.
The state game of North Carolina meets Feb. 15, just a week before Washington was born to hatchet and cherry-tree glory.
It is reported that work will soon be begun on the Coalfield railroad, which is to run from Danville, Virginia, via Winston, to Statesville.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—The court met at 10 o'clock this morning. Judges Bond and Brooks on the bench.
The criminal docket being called upon the following cases; violation of the revenue laws, were taken up: U. S. vs.
W. T. Bennett, put off the docket; U.
S. vs. James Kirkpatrick, put off the docket; U. S. vs. Wm. Britt and Franklin Hodgson, put off the docket, (two cases); U. S. vs. John Jones, con-continued; U. S. vs. W. C. Smith, continued; U. S. vs. A. J. M. Nelson, the defendant called and failed and judgment nisi, sureties forfeit a bond of $200; U. S. vs. W. H. Butler, plea not guilty and verdict not guilty; U.

S. vs. Jas. B. Kinton (two cases), continued; U. S. vs. J. G. Caraway, defendant called and failed and judgment nisi, bond forfeited; U. S. vs. J. J.
Powell, continued.
The case of the U. S. vs. D. W.
Wheeler, charged with delivering tobacco without stamps, occupied the court up to the hour of recess, 2 o'clock, and at 4 o'clock the court resumed its sitting and the trial proceeded.

CAPT. A. B. ANDREWS.—The police chief and superintendent of the North Carolina division of the Richmond & Danville railway, is laboring assiduously to remedy the evils that have so long evaded in some localities on the line; and he is making every warm friend to the interest by manifest in looking up the irregularities. A little time and patience will develop in Capt. Andrews a great railroad man, and the Richmond & Danville managers may congratulate themselves upon securing his services.
North Carolina are certainly well served.
