The City.

The police court machine didn't grind this morning.

Deeds, liens, mortgages and such were registered in this county last month to the extent of 86.

Cotton receipts yesterday, 248 bales. Market to-day rather active at 12 to 12¼. Orders good. Trade dull.

Dr. Thos. J. Moore, of Charlotte, after helping a friend into a scrape out of which he keeps himself, leaves for home this evening.

At the request of many citizens, we have introduced our fine "DIAMOND OIL," 30 degrees higher test than any in town. Price 40 cents. Law & Co.

Gideon Davenport, a well known and popular young business and society man, of Richmond, is in the city and stopping at the Yarboro house.

There will be a called meeting of W. G. Hill lodge of masons to-morrow evening at half past 7, for work in the second degree. Brethren in good standing are invited to attend.

Mrs. A. T. Mial and Miss Ella Mial, Miss Neta Jones, Miss Nannie Jones and Messrs. W. B. Doub and Needham Jones, all of this county, left for the conference at Wilmington, this morning.

Plummer Batchelor, than whom no plummer and handsomer young bachelor ever airs his broadcloth and lavender kids in this region, is in the city, attending operas and weddings and circulating among his friends.

Messrs. A. C. Sanders & Co., have for sale two good mules, one beautiful pony, one new buggy and one second-hand carriage, just repaired and painted as good as new. Call on them at No 2, Martin street, for a bargain.

Capt. Sam. Williams, of Nash county, formerly editor of the News, and as good a fellow as could be scared up in a hundred Sundays' travel, is attending the U. S. court, and reports for hash at the sounding of Blacknall's horn.

Winstead Prince and Ross Joiner, a couple of sable victims of the U. S. circuit court, now in session in this city, were placed in our jail this morning to await shipment to the Albany, N. Y., penitentiary, for a two years' sojourn.

MARRIED.—Christ (Episcopal) church was filled last evening, to witness the nuptials of Dr. F. J. Haywood, Jr., and Miss Nannie Grimes, both of this city. Rev. Dr. Marshall officiated. After the ceremony there was a reception at the residence of the bride's father, William Grimes. The couple have the good wishes of a large circle of friends.

AND STILL THEY COME!—To-day, the state treasury underwent the wholesome process of further inflation. Tax-collector M. F. Battle, of Swain county, paid in $386.48. Sheriff Orlando Hubbs, of Craven, came to time with $9,324.95. Sheriff J. M. Gentry, of Stokes, got a receipt for $3,584.80. Sheriff J. W. Griffin, of Union, made his county square by paying in $6,625.56. Sheriff D. D Ferebee, Jr., of Camden, handed over $1,911.20, and got a diploma for being one of the youngest and best looking sheriffs in the state.

JUSTLY PROUD.—The Greensboro Patriot man evidently has an eye for home beauties, an appreciation of the goods the gods provide. In his issue of Dec. 1, he says:

"R. W. Best, of the Raleigh Sentinel, spent some days in our little city recently and says some very handsome things about her and her people, especially her ladies. There never was a masculine visitor, single or double, among us, whose optics were properly constructed, who was not struck with their beauty. We'll put them against any place outside of Paradise, (where they came from and where they'll go when they wing their flight from earth."

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Court met this morning at 10 o'clock, Judges Bond and Brooks presiding. The jury in the case of U. S. vs. D. W. Wheeler, for removing tobacco without being stamped, were unable to agree, six for acquittal and six for conviction. Judge Bond withdrew a juror, a mistrial declared and the case continued. The civil trial docket was called over, and several cases were continued. The argument of the motion for a new trial in the case of Cuyler & Wiggins vs. Bryan Grimes, tried at last June term, was gone into and continued until the court adjourned to meet again at half-past 3 o'clock.

HUGE BUCK.—Col. D. M. Carter, of this city, received to-day from Dr. J. T. Watkins, of Newbern, one of the biggest bucks ever brought here. It weighed, dressed, 103 pounds.

FESTIVAL.—The festival of the Edenton street Methodist ladies begins this evening, at Petty & Jones' old stand, opposite Tucker's. The hall is handsomely decorated, and the tables are beautiful. Many of Raleigh's fairest daughters will be among the waiters, and everything will be furnished and done to make it a delightful affair to all who attend.

ACCIDENT.—Just as Gen. W. R. Cox and wife were driving away from the reception last evening, a hack belonging to Kelly's livery-stable ran into their carriage, badly damaging it, and plunging the pole into the side of one of the general's fine match horses. Terribly wounded as he was, the animal stood quietly with the pole sticking in his body, till Mrs. Cox escaped from the wreck of the carriage.

DR. MUNSEY.—This distinguished orator and divine will deliver, in Lexington, next Monday evening, Dec. 6, what he himself pronounces "his choice of his whole series of lectures." The good citizens of the little burg extend a cordial invitation to all their neighbors to attend and share the feast of intellectual fat things. Our young friend, Wilmont Leach, will please accept the Sentinel's regrets at its non-ability to be present.

AMERICAN HOTEL, CONCORD.—Is running under a full head of hospitable steam under the management of that prince among landlords, J. M. Blair, formerly of the Yarborough house in this city. Visitors to Concord will find the American the hotel of the place. Commercial travelers are provided with large, comfortable rooms in which to exhibit their goods, wares and merchandise. Blair always would feed well, and still maintains his reputation.

LEE MAUSOLEUM.—Gen. R. D. Lilley, whose empty-sleeve attests his gallantry and devotion in the cause of the south, leaves this evening for Fayetteville in the interest of the Lee Mausoleum. His stay in Raleigh has been exceedingly pleasant to his friends, who are legion wherever he is known, and profitable to the sacred mission in which he is engaged. We are glad to learn that a number of our most prominent ladies are moving in the matter of giving an entertainment, as suggested a few days ago by the Sentinel, in aid of this fitting tribute to the south's dead hero. We hope they may. Lee belonged no more to Virginia than to Carolina and all the ground sisterhood of states.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—At a regular meeting of Raleigh Typographical Union, No 54, yesterday evening, the following gentlemen were elected to fill the various offices for the ensuing term:

Joseph A. Harris, president; J. W. Marcom, vice-president; F. T. Booker, recording secretary; J. R. Ray, corresponding secretary; J. C. Birdsong, financial secretary; E. M. Uzzell, treasurer; J. M. Sutton, sergeant at-arms.

At the same meeting, Mr. L. O. Lougee was elected to represent the Union at the next meeting of the International Union, which meets in Philadelphia July 4.

JOURNALISTIC.

[From the Wadesboro Herald, Dec. 1.]

"The billowed sunshine of the Mexican gulf dallying with coasts of everlasting green and gold," we call poetry. Donan of the Sentinel said it.

Some editor asked if it was right to spell "filibuster" with two l's—whereupon Donan replied "No; not by an 'l of a sight!"

Furthermore he says: "The Helena Independent knocks many a sweet vision to Helena minnie"—by some statement it makes.

Ah, Donan—Donan! Do—not be aither the killing av us.

"FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS."—Thousands of human beings are yearly borne on the swift current of disease down to the grave, just because they do not possess a sufficient knowledge of themselves. A man meets his neighbor, and the first salutation is, 'How are you?" or "How is your health?" The reply frequently is, "Oh, I am well, with the exception of a cold." Most persons lightly regard a cold. Reader, do you know that a cold is one of the most dangerous of maladies? A cold not only clogs up the pores of the entire system, and retards circulation, but it is productive of Catarrh, which is quite apt to lead to Consumption. "Oh," you say, "it is nothing but a cold in my head." True, but that cold is really a mild form of Catarrh, and if not arrested in its course will become chronic. Catarrh is one of the most disagreeable, offensive affections in the catalogue of diseases. The passage to the nose is obstructed, the sense of smell impaired, and there is a disagreeable sensation of pressure in the head. In the more advanced stages, there is a discharge having an offensive odor. If the disease be allowed to continue in its course, thick, hard incrustations will form in the head, the bones of which sometimes become softened and break away in pieces. Why will persons continue to suffer from such an annoying, disgusting disease, when they can just as well be cured of it? Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will cure the worst forms of Catarrh; in fact, it is the only sure and safe remedy which has yet been offered to the public. Many harsh, irritating preparations may, for a time, relieve the urgency of the symptoms, but they do not cure the disease. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy is soothing and healing in its effects, and when used with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, according to directions, does not fail to effect a cure. Sold by all Druggists.

WE MUST ALL DIE.—This is a sad fact, and it behooves us to be prepared to do right when the time comes. Few of us expect it until old age overtakes and admonishes us with grey hairs that the time has arrived when we must die. Then we look around to find out the best way. We will tell you. Use no other dye than Dr. Tutt's, and you will dye right. Your grey hair will disappear like magic, and in thin places you will have glossy, black whiskers, moustache and hair—a perfect imitation of nature, so natural that it can not be detected, and your dyeing expenses will be but one dollar.

FROM THE SOUTH!—C. E. Sale, Richmond, Va., says he has sold a great deal of WISHART'S PINE TREE CORDIAL. Also says "it takes well and gives general satisfaction." It purifies the blood, cures coughs, colds diptheria, sore throat, weak lungs, asthma and catarrh, and destroys consumption!

The Junction railroad, connecting the Savannah & Charleston and Atlantic & Gulf roads, was completed Tuesday, and trains passed over it.

Elizabeth City's blue-devils have disappeared before legions of blue-fish, which she is shipping north.

WOMAN IN BATTLE

A narrative of the exploits, adventures and travels of Madame L. J. Velasquez, otherwise known as

Lt. Harry T. Buford, C. S. A.
A TRUE
Southern Heroine

Edited by C. J. WORTHINGTON,
Late U. S. Navy.

MADAME VELASQUEZ disguised as a Confederate officer, participated in a number of the hardest fought battles of the late war, and greatly distinguished herself by the extraordinary valor she displayed. She also distinguished herself as a

SPY and SECRET SERVICE AGENT, and on numerous occasions ran through the Federal lines and obtained information of vital importance to the Confederate commanders. Obtaining admission behind the

SCENES AT WASHINGTON,

she established confidential relations with prominent Federal officials; was concerned in the great

by which the United States Treasury suffered to the extent of millions of dollars; was actively engaged in blockade-running, and in encouraging by which the work of recruiting the Federal armies was so seriously impeded; and was the heroine of a number of exploits even more interesting than those of the battlefield. It also contains a history of her Mining on the Pacific slope, her travels in Europe, South America, and among the Mormons, Love, Courtship, Marriage, etc.

SUBSTITUTING and BOUNTY FRAUDS,

The above facts are substantiated by leading men both South and North who participated. No book of such varied and intense interest as the Woman in Battle has ever been issued in America.

Agents wanted in every county in the United States. Agents can make more money by canvassing for this book than any others, as it is the cheapest as well as the best selling Agents' book ever published. The book is a large octavo volume of over 600 pages, profusely illustrated. We print, bind and publish our own books; hence, can allow larger commissions than any other house. Harper's Bazar,

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The Bazar is edited with a combination of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.

The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion-plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to paterfamilias by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing-gowns. But the reading-matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the fireside enjoyment it affords.—N. Y. Evening Post.

In its way there is nothing like it. Fresh and trustworty as a fashion guide, its stories and essays, its poetry and squibs, are all invigorating to the mind.—Chicago Evening Journal.
