The City.

W. G. Hill lodge meets this evening.
A grand military ball is on the tapis for Xmas.
The city police will wear their new blue uniforms next week.
Up to 1 o'clock to-day, 63 sheriffs had settled for their state taxes.
The masonic grand lodge meets in this city next Monday evening.
There was a false alarm of fire about 7 o'clock last evening. It was quieted before it had extended far.
It is thought that the U. S. circuit court, now in session in this city, will adjourn by the middle of next week.
Sheriff F. Murrill, of Onslow county, figured with the auditor this morning and dropped $2,649.55 into the state treasury.
The glass doors for the capitol entrances are nearly finished. They will add greatly to the comfort of the building.
The regular monthly meeting of the board of aldermen takes place this evening. An election on the question of funding the city debt will be ordered.
At the request of many citizens, we have introduced our fine "DIAMOND OIL," 30 degrees higher than any in town. Price 40 cents. Law & Co.
Governor Brogden has appointed H. L. Fry, of Monroe, Union county, a notary public. The appointment was made at the request of the officers of the People's bank at that place.
Messrs. A. C. Sanders & Co. have for sale two good mules, one beautiful pony, one new buggy and one second-hand carriage, just repaired and painted as good as new. Call on them at No 2, Martin street, for a bargain.
Weather frightful. Rain, rain, all day. Another deluge threatened, and no Noah with his floatboat ready. Trees all sheeted in ice this morning, bending beneath the weight of their glassy armor. Everything dimly inviting to suicide or "hot scotch."

THE FESTIVAL.—The fair and festival of the young ladies of Edenton Street Methodist church last evening, was a brilliant success so far as the beauty of the decorations, elegance of the tables and charms of the fair attendants were concerned; but was almost a failure as to crowd and financial results. The terrible weather was in the way. It rained ceaselessly and spitefully, and the darkness was so thick you could have stirred it with a stick like tar. A stack of black cats would have looked like a white elephant beside a chunk of it. It is much to be regretted, because really the preparations of the ladies were abundant and exquisitely tasteful.

The flower and fancy table looked like a glimpse of fairy-land, and was managed by Mrs. Kate Primrose, Miss Mattie Yancey and Miss Effie Cooke.
Cake and fruit table, Mrs. D. W. Bain, and Misses Janie Brown and Susie Lamson.
Table of fancy articles made by the young ladies' society, was presided over by Misses Annie Best, Mollie Hill and Narcissa Hutchings.
And the supper table, which staggered and ached beneath its burden of delicacies, was in charge of Mrs. Lucy Evans, Mrs. Betsy Felton and Mrs. W. W. Wrenn.

We trust the ladies may repeat their entertainment under more auspicious circumstances.

HON. JOSHUA TURNER.—Under this head, the Washington (N. C.) Echo, of Nov. 30, says:

"As we go to press (Monday) this gentleman is addressing, with good effect, a very large audience at the courthouse. His topics of discussion are: The constitutional convention, the adoption of the 'lost amendment' by legislative amendment, rings, rogues and railroad corporations, and how the latter have run the Asheville Citizen and Raleigh News. How the Chatham railroad paid $100,000 to Littlefield to get $2,000,000 appropriated to this thieving corporation, and how the Chatham road now defrauds the state by exchanging ten cent bonds for dollar bonds."

Mr. Turner will speak Thursday, Dec. 2, at Leadville; Saturday, Dec. 4, at Swann Quarter; and Monday, Dec 6, at Plymouth."

COMPLIMENTARY.—The Salisbury Watchman, of Dec. 2, says:

The entertainment given by the Daily News, Raleigh, on the 25th, was a most pleasurable affair. There were some excellent speeches made in response to toasts—the best we have read in many a day. That of Rev. Dr. Pritchard was in keeping with the character of the man; his high-toned liberality and steady aim to promote godliness in the land, was just what might have been expected of him.
Mr. P. Donan's response to the toast, "The Press," is certainly a remarkable production, abounding with much original wit and humor, and marked by strong evidences of a high order of intelligence, practical sense and close observation.
There were also other speeches and sayings, which contributed to enliven and intensify the pleasure of the occasion, so creditable to the house which gave it.

TAB DROPS.

Mayor Canady, of Wilmington, is still sick.
Twenty-five stores swept away in the Beaufort conflagration.
The Eastern North Carolina Medical association meets in Wilmington next Tuesday.
An Onslow county hunting party, headed by Sheriff Murrill, killed 21 deer in four days.
The ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Wilmington, give an elegant supper this evening.
A lighter, loaded so that it was heavier than lighter should be, sank in Cape Fear river at Wilmington, Tuesday.
The Greensboro'ans weekly devour 4,000 pounds of beef, 2,000 of pork and 700 of mutton, beside fish, poultry and game.
Deputy Sheriff Henry Fields, of Sampson county, had a fierce scuffle, the other day, with a nigger desperado, Owen Lee, whom he was taking to jail. Lee finally escaped, though badly wounded by a pistol-shot.
R. B. Hatch was assassinated Thanksgiving night, at his home near Faison, Duplin county. He was sitting before the fire reading, when he was shot through the door which his daughter had just opened to drive out a dog.
The Central Protestant office in Greensboro has no sign up, and its callers bother brother Wilson, of the Masonic Journal, who headquarters in the same building, so much that he threatens double-barreled meat-axes, crossed-eyed howitzers and nitroglycerine.
Parents, mothers, nurses, do not fail to give Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup to the little ones for all cases of coughs and colds. Only costs 25 cents.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CONFERENCE.

FIRST DAY'S PROCEEDINGS OF THE 39TH ANNUAL SESSION OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH.

[From the Wilmington Star, Dec. 2.]
For the last two or three days the delegates, both clerical and lay, of the above body from different parts of the state have been arriving in our city, until yesterday morning the greater number had reached here. Among them are many prominent men both in church and state, and the body being as it is the collection of all those in authority in the N. C. division of the Southern M. E. church, its meeting are naturally looked forward to with considerable interest, especially by our Methodist fellow citizens.

The N. C. Conference comprises the following districts: bounded on the east by the Atlantic ocean; on the north by Albemarle Sound and Roanoke river to its intersection by the Virginia state line and by said state line (but including Union church in Mecklenburg county Va.), to the Blue Ridge; on the west by the western boundary of Surry, Wilkes, Caldwell, Burke, McDowell, Rutherford and Polk counties, to the South Carolina line; on the south by the state line of South Carolina to the ocean. This section comprises ten districts, each under the jurisdiction of a presiding elder, as follows: Rev. J. P. Moore, Raleigh district; Rev. L. L. Hendren, Hillsboro district; Rev. N. H. Wilson, Greensboro district; Rev. D. R. Burton, Salisbury district; Rev. L. S. Burkhead, Shelby district; Rev. J. S. Nelson, Charlotte district; Rev. S. D. Adams, Fayetteville district; Rev. W. S. Black, Wilmington district; Rev. E. A. Yates, Newbern district; Rev. W. Cross, Washington district.

THE PROCEEDINGS.

The delegates met yesterday morning at 9 o'clock in Front Street M. E. church. The edifice had recently been under the care of the ladies of the congregation, and their industrious and tasteful hands had made everything bright and cheerful to greet the delegates. The genial warmth of a glowing fire in the furnace could be felt throughout the entire building, serving to dissipate the chill of the morning, while an array of flowers peeped from just in front of the pulpit, adding a charm to the surroundings.

It was evident that the delegates had been nicely prepared for the opening hymn, "And are we yet alive and see each other's face," which was sung by the assembled delegates, assisted by a number of ladies and gentlemen of the congregation who were present.

The bishop then offered up a long and fervent prayer to the Throne of Grace, begging the blessing of the Most High on the assembled delegates, to enable them to do and act His will in the deliberations about to take place.
At the conclusion of his feeling and impressive prayer, the bishop read the 12th chapter of Romans, after which he called upon Rev. L. S. Burkhead to deliver a prayer. That gentleman responded in a fervent supplication of some length.

Then was sung by the assembled body the hymn "Amazing grace, how sweet the sound," after which the conference proceeded to regular organization.
By direction of the bishop, the secretary of the last conference, Dr. B. Craven, called the clerical roll of the conference, when the following named gentlemen answered to their names:

The bishop then stated that the election of a permanent secretary was in order.

Rev. Dr. Craven was nominated and unanimously elected to occupy that position, no other nomination being made.
A motion to form a committee consisting of one minister and one layman from each district to nominate standing committees was made by Rev. L. S. Burkhead, which was afterwards amended to create the ten presiding elders that committee and adopted.
The members of the committee then retired to make their nominations.
On motion of Rev. L. S. Burkhead, the committee of presiding elders were instructed to appoint also a committee to take into consideration the celebration of the 100th anniversary, which occurs next year, of the introduction of Methodism into North Carolina.
Revs. W. S. Black, J. E. Mann, J. T. Gibbs and Capt. J. E. Leggett were appointed a committee on public worship.

On motion, Revs. W. H. Moore, H. H. Gibbons and T. W. Guthrie were appointed a committee on memoirs.
The rolls of the examiners of the 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th years of ministers of the conference were called and a partial report made, the final report being postponed.

On motion, it was decided to have with open doors the examination of character, which consists in asking the 20th question according to conference rules, viz., with regard to a minister, "Has he been blameless in life and in official character?"
The committee on the nomination of standing committees entered and made the following report, to which no objection being made, it was adopted:

The hour of adjournment having arrived the doxology was sung, and after benediction by the bishop, the body took a recess until this morning at 9 o'clock.

NEWS AND NOTES.

The steamer Alaska is to cruise on the Liberian coast.
Los Angeles, California, has made 800,000 gallons of wine this year.

Old Thad. Stevens' nigger wife is suing his estate for six years' services.
Eleven lives lost by the sinking of the steamer Sunnyside by Hudson river ice.

A railway collision in New York yesterday killed two persons and wounded many.
A boiler-explosion at New Harmony, Indiana, yesterday, added two to the population of eternity.

C. D. Wetmore, of Milford, Pennsylvania, has been arrested for incest with a 17-year-old daughter.
The telegraph still persists in burdening itself and the country with bulletins of Chas. O'Connor's health. The last one says he was slowly sinking yesterday.

A queerly speculative Wisconsiner has 30 acres of swamp fenced in for a bull-frog pasture, and ships thousands of these water nightingales to New York.
Schooner J. G. Jenkins lost in Monday's gale on lake Erie, and 9 unfortunate added to the list of those that shall come forth only when "the seas shall give up their dead."

Speakership and clerkship excitement in Washington bubbling over at 140 in the shade and still a-rising. Public and private gamblers gambling freely on the result. Lamar, of Mississippi, is to preside in the caucus.

One of Chicago's pet railroads has caught a sniff of the contraction policy and woodbined, with $1,500,000 worth of liabilities, and about 15 cents of assets which may possibly be discovered by the vigorous use of a mathematical fine-tooth comb.

It will doubtless be saddening intelligence to many of the Sentinel's readers to learn that Hon. Ira Harris, of New York, is dead. Every paper in the south pays for such calamitous bits of telegraphic tidings. This is another vanity under the sun.

It is said Spain promises his imperial littleness and lowness, Ulysses I time, that she will gradually emancipate her Cuban niggers, give more commercial facilities, afford legal redress for past injuries, and behave herself generally like the sweet old cut-throat that she is.

The New York chamber of commerce has appointed a committee to consider the Cuban throat-cutting question in a commercial point of view. The dollar is the true yankee standard and test of all political, military and moral moves. "Touch my pocket, touch my soul," is the rule.

The gallant boys in blue, whose exploits consist chiefly of old squaw massacres, nigger protecting and southern ballot-box bursting, number 1,540 shoulder-strappers and 24,061 hard-tackers. Let the incoming democratic congress raze these legions of useless janizaries down to 10,000.

The Hawaiian authorities, instigated doubtless by some underling of our Ulyssian pirate government, prevented Capt. Waddell, of the steamship City of San Francisco, from proceeding on his trip to Sydney via Honolulu. They even threatened him with arrest on a charge of piracy in destroying one of their clumsy scows, while in command of the Confederate cruiser Shenandoah.

"FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS."—Thousands of human beings are yearly borne on the swift current of disease down to the grave, just because they do not possess a sufficient knowledge of themselves. A man meets his neighbor, and the first salutation is, "How are you?" or "How is your health?" The reply frequently is, "Oh, I am well, with the exception of a cold." Most persons lightly regard a cold. Reader, do you know that a cold is one of the most dangerous of maladies? A cold not only clogs up the pores of the entire system, and retards circulation, but it is productive of Catarrh, which is quite apt to lead to Consumption. "Oh," you say, "it is nothing but a cold in my head." True, but that cold is really a mild form of Catarrh, and if not arrested in its course will become chronic. Catarrh is one of the most disagreeable, offensive affections in the catalogue of diseases. The passage to the nose is obstructed, the sense of smell impaired, and there is a disagreeable sensation of pressure in the head. In the more advanced stages, there is a discharge having an offensive odor. If the disease be allowed to continue in its course, thick, hard incrustations will form in the head, the bones of which sometimes become softened and break away in pieces. Why will persons continue to suffer from such an annoying, disgusting disease, when they can just as well be cured of it? Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will cure the worst forms of Catarrh; in fact, it is the only sure and safe remedy which has yet been offered to the public. Many harsh, irritating preparations may, for a time, relieve the urgency of the symptoms, but they do not cure the disease. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy is soothing and healing in its effects; and when used with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, according to directions, does not fail to effect a cure. Sold by all Druggists.

FROM THE SOUTH!—O. E. Sale, Richmond, Va., says he has sold a great deal of WINSOR'S PINK DRESS COGNAC. Also says "it takes well and gives general satisfaction." It purifies the blood, cures coughs, colds, dyspepsia, sore throat, weak lungs, asthma and catarrh, and destroys consumption!
