CHURCHES YESTERDAY. CHRIST (EPISCOPAL) CHURCH.

Notwithstanding the exceeding inclemency of the day, the services at Christ church were well attended. The rector, Rev. Dr. Marshall, read the service and preached from the gospel for the day (second Sunday in advent :) Luke, chap. 21, verse 33 : " Heaven and earth shall pass away; but my words shall not pass away." The sermon was exhaustive in argument and learned in historical citations. The reverend speaker showed from the testimony of profane and antichristian authority-Tacitus, Josephus and other writers how literal and terrible had been the fulfillment of our Lord's prophecy of the signs and events that shall precede, and the circumstances that should attend the destruction of Jerusalem by the Roman armies. But the Saviour's prophecy had a double meaning, referring as well to the destruction of the world and the judgment, as to the overthrow and desolation of the holy thoughts and deeds of our lives. The sermon was one of much power and ii : 15, 19 : "Quench not the spirit." in every way appropriate to the solemn season which the church is now com-city! The one would as certainly come as the other had been surely and awfully accomplished. When that awful day shall come, heaven and earth would pass away, but His word would stand, as it had always infallibly stood, and by it we should be judged for all the words.

SWAIN STREET BAPTIST CHURCH. At the Swain street Baptist church, the pastor, Rev. J. D. Hufham, preached in the morning from Peter 1: 2 and 7 "Unto you, therefore, which believe, he is precious." The aim of the discourse was to show that Christ was precious to the believer, in his person and in his offices as priest, prophet and king.

At night the text was Hebrews ii 25: "The pleasures of sin for a season." The preacher after referring to the choice of Moses, gave some tests by which we might know what are sinful pleasures and some reasons for avoiding CHUBCH OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD. At the Free Church of the Good Shepherd (Episcopal,) Rev. J. E. C. Smedes preached in the morning from Isaiah v : 4: "What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in livered by Rev. W. S. Pettigrew from Romans xv : 3 : "For even Christ pleased not himself."

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH. At St. John's (Catholic) church, Rev. Father Rielly gave his flock an excelent discourse from the text : "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul ?" Man in his last moments, the deat's sweat on his brow, was exhibited. What must be his thoughts on the nothingness of the world? The hollowness and emptines of the soon-fading pleasure of the world were dwelt upon, and the bliss of the persevering christian eloquently portrayed. Father Reilley urged his congregation to prepare to celebrate the coming Christmas day in a manner worthy of those who believe in the atoning blood of Him who came into the world to redeem it by his holy cross. Vespers were sung in the afternoon. Each Sunday gives a marked evidence of and 2 as the text : 1. He showed first the nature of Adoption, distinguishing between civil and spiritual adoption, between regeneration and adoption. 2. The privileges of adoption.

(1.) As regards this world, christians have God's name put upon them; all temporal and spiritual blessings belong to them; they also have the divine protection; they hold communion with God, and they have a good hope of eternal

(2.) In the world to come, they shall be like Jesus-like him in body, in mind, in honor and dignity and power; in purity, and in happiness.

3. The evidences of adoption : John says every one that bath this hope purifieth himself even as Christ is pure Second, the adopted child will love his father. Third, he will love his brothers, and fourthly, he will try to bring others into the enjoyment of the same great blessings bestowed on him.

At night there were probably a hundred persons present, to whom the pastor preached about Peter's sermon on the day of Pentecost.

PRESETTERIAN CHURCH

ushered in by an exquisitely rendered contracto solo, with chorns from the oratorio of Daniel.

The reverend doctor took as his text, Mark viii : 36 and 37 : "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul, or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul." After a conclusive argument showing the immortality of the soul, filled with cogent reasoning and personal application, the notions of value were clearly set forth. Some have thought that man was only a high animal, but revelation teaches us that while God spake the world into existence, that on the 6th day when man's hour drew near, God said, "Come let us make man in our own image," and while this mighty planet was created at once by the word of God, man was formed in the deep councils of eternity, and then in the image of God. Man thus formed was dignified with dispositions that would never have been implanted within him had not his soul been ormed immortal. If the whole world could become the reward of man's work what would it all be worth in exchange for his never-dying soul? Yet many men barter away their soul not for the entire world, but for an infinitessimal part thereof.

In the evening Dr. Vaughan preached an earnest sermon from Thessalonians

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING. In the afternoon a sunday school meeting was held in the sunday school room of Tupper's (colored) Baptist church, which was addressed by Dr. Randolph, Dr. Pritchard, Col. J. M. Hech and Judge Bond. Dr. Randolph has been giving the colored Baptists of the city instructions in the Sunday School work for several days. He leaves to-day for Louisburg, and will afterwards visit Tarboro and Wilmington in the interests of the same good work. He is accompanied by the Rev. Mr. Shepherd, a worthy colored man of this city, who is the Baptist Sonday School missionary of the colored people in this state.

OFFICERS NOMINATED FOR THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The telegrams from Washington of Saturday night bring the information that the caucus of the Democratic members of the house of representatives that no doubt, had good reason for stating that John Hamerton, of South Carolina, afternoon nominated M. C. Kerr, of Indiana, for speaker on the third ballot. The vote stood : Kerr 90 ; Randall 63 ; Cox 7. Mr. Kerr was born near Titusville, Pa., March 15, 1827; graduated as a law-student at the university of Kentucky in 1851; commenced the practice of the law in 1852 at New Albany, Ind. : and after filling several public position in his state-among them that of representative in the legislature—he was elected to the thirty-ninth congress in 1865. He has served in every subsequent congress save the forty-thirdthe one which immediately preceded that in which he now takes his seat. He has much experience and has shown great readiness as a parliamentarian.

Mr. Adams, of Kentucky, was nominated for clerk of the house, Mr. James M. Steuart, of Alexandria Va., was nominated for postmaster, and Messra. Thompson, of Ohio, sergeantat-arms; C. H. Fitzhugh, of Texas, doorkeeper; Rev. J. L. Townsend (Episcopalian,) of Washington city,

MASONIC GRAND LODGE.

ANNUAL COMMUNICATION FOR 1875-A SHORT HISTORICAL SKETCH.

In this city this evening, in the hand some room of W. G. Hill lodge, in the Fisher building, the masonic fraternity of this state hold their annual communication for 1875. Judging from the large number of a rivals Saturday and this morning, the attendance is unusually large. Grand Master G. W. Blount arrived Saturday afternoon, and will preside. The appended brief historical sketch of masonry in this state will be found of interest even to those outside of the craft.

HISTORICAL SYNOPSIS.

The early history of freemasonry in North Carolina is not as definitely and satisfactorily known as might be de-sired. Such information as is furnished by records, regarded as authenic, is em-bodied in the following historical synopsis. The statements given respecting the reorganization of the grand lodge in 1787, are compiled from the original official records of the grand lodge.

There exists what is stated to be " There exists what is stated to be "a list of regular lodges according to their seniority and constitution," on the register of the grand lodge of England, published in 1762, which contains the following entry: "213. A lodge at Wilmington, on Cape Fear river, in the province of North Carolina, March, 1755."

It is probable that this was the first lodge organized in the state, as the grand lodge in 1791, after a full investiration of the claims of all the lodges to priority, in the award of the numbers, gave this lodge (St. John's) the numbers, gave this lodge (St. John's) the number I, although the honor was contested by Royal White Hart Lodge, No. 2, of Halifax. It thus appears that St. John's Lodge, No. 1, at Wilmington, has claim to antiquity, which the records sustain.
The "Ahiman Rezon and Masonic Ritual," published at Newbern, North Carolina, in 1805, contains an address by Judge Francois Xavier Martin, from which the following extract is taken: "Masonry crossed the Atlantic with the first settlers of the British colonier in America, and the grand masters of England appointed provincial grand masters who constituted regular lodges in the new world. The Carolinas had no provincial grand master until 5736, when the Earl of London appointed John Hamerton to that dignity. From him a regular succession can be traced to Joseph Montfort who was appointed by the Duke of Beaufort in 5769."

Judge Martin was an accurate his torian, as well as a zealous mason, and, for the Carolinas.

The date of appointment of Joseph Montford, as stated by Judge Martin, (1769) does not accord with the date of his commission, still preserved, which is 14th of January, 1771, but the mere date of a commission does not affect the statement of fact of appointment.

The records of St. John's grand lodge at Boston, Massachusetts, October 2, 1767, contains this statement, which is published in the "Cyclopedia of Masonry" by Robert Macoy: "A dispensation was made out for the Right Worshipful Thomas Cooper, master of Pitt county lodge, in North Carolina, constituting him grand master of that pro-vince. And he was commissioned with power to congregate all the brethren there residing, or who should afterwards reside in said province, into one or more lodges as he should think fit, and in such place or places within the same as should most redound to the benefit of masonry." The first lodge established under this authority was, it is said, at Crown Point, in Pitt county.
On the 14th of January, 1771, the following authority was issued by the com-mand of the grand master of England: Beaufort, G. M.

[SEAL.] To all and every our right worshipful and loving brethren. We, Henry Somerset, Duke of Beaufort, Marquis and Earl of Worcester, Earl of Glamorgan, Viscount Grosmont, Baron Herbert, Lord of Ragland, Chepston and Gower, Baron Beaufort of Caldeen Castle, grand master of the most ancient and honorable society of free and nccepted masons, greeting: KNOW YE THAT WE, of the great Trust and Confidence reposed in our Right Worshipful and well beloved Brother Joseph Montford, Esquire of Halifax, in the Province of North Carolina, in AMERICA, do hereby constitute and appoint him the said JOSEPH MONTFORT, Provincial Grand Master of and for AMERICA with full power and Authority in due form to make Masons and Constitute and Regulate Lodges as Occasion may Require. And also to do and execute all and every such other acts and things appertaining to the said Office as usually have been and ought to be done and executed by other Provincial Grand Masters, he the said JOSEPH MONTFORT taking special care that all and every, the Members of every Lodge he shail constitute have been regularly made Masons and that they do observe, perform and keep all and every the Rules, Orders and Regulations contained in the Book of Constitutions (except such as have been or may be repealed at any Quarterly Communication or other general meet ing together,) a so with all such other Rules, Orders, Regulations and Instructions as shall from time to time be trans mitted by us, or by the Honorable CHARLES DALLON our Deputy or by any of our Successors, Grand Masters or their Deputies for the time being. And we hereby will and require you our said Provincial Grand Master to cause four yearly, one whereof to be upon or near the last day of Saint John the Baptist as conveniently as may be, and that you promote on those and all other occasion whatever may be for the honour and Advantage of Masonry and the Benefit of the Grand Charity, and that you yearly send to us or our successor Grand Master an Account in Writing of the proceedings therein and also of what Lodges you constitute and when and where held with a list of the members thereof, and copies of all such Rules, Orders, Regulations as shall be made for the Government of the same, with whatever else you shall do by virtue of these presents. And, that you at the same time remit to the Treasurer of the Society for the time being at, London, three pounds, three shillings sterling for every Lodge you shall constitute, for the use of the Grand Charity and other quarterly communications to be held necessary purposes.

Given at London under our hand and seal of Masonry this 14th day of January, A. L. 5771, A. D. 1771. By the Grand Master's Command

CHAS. DILLON, D. G. M.

JAS, HESELTINE, G. S.
Under this authority, Joseph Montfort established lodges in North Carolina.
The present Royal White Hart Lodge, No. 2, at Halifax, derived its original warrant from this source. It was registered on the rolls of the grand lodge of England as No. 403, which number it appears to have sustained when the grand lodge of North Carolina was reorganized in 1787. This indicates, also, an existence under the authority of the grand lodge of England, after the grand lodge of North Carolina had ceased to exist, during and subsequent to the Revolutionary war.

From the best evidence existing, it seems that most of the lodges which organized the grand lodge in 1771, derived their authority from the grand lodge of England, but other lodges were, no doubt, established under the grand lodge of Scotland, if not under other authority also. The disputes which arose between them as to priority of number, after the reorganization of the grand lodge in 1787, indicates this.

It is evident that a grand lodge was organized in North Carolina in 1771, but the precise date of its organization is not known. It appears of record, however, that it was "first constituted A. D. 1771," and that it "convened occasionally at Newbern and Edenton, at which latter place the records were deposited previous to the Revolutionary war. During the contest the records were de-stroyed by the British army, and the meetings of the grand lodge suspended.'
At close of the revolutionary war a convention was held in Tarboro in 1787 which reorganized the grand lodge of the state, electing the following grand
