CURE THAT COUGH!
Dr. C. T. McMANNEN'S
AMERICAN FAMILY
MIXTURE
TAKES ONE DOLLAR.

After spending eighteen months in a southern climate to cure my lungs I gave up in despair, and was told by a friend to try Dr. C. T. McMANNEN'S American Family Mixture. Its first effect was to enable me to sleep; my strength began to return; hope revived; I coughed away. After using six boxes, I was restored to health. I now weigh 140 lbs. I owe my life to this mixture, and wish this published in the world.
W. K. STYRON.

I have been afflicted with a cough for thirty years. I tried every remedy for relief, but for some time past I have been unable to remain on the job, and I am now confined to my bed. I used one box of Dr. C. T. McMANNEN'S American Family Mixture, and I was soon able to resume my work. I recommend it to all who have a cough.
M. J. HUNTER,
Gen'l. of Greensboro.

My Lung troubles, which on my circuit, I was treated by Dr. C. T. McMANNEN'S American Family Mixture, my cough improved, my strength returned, and I was soon able to resume my work. I recommend it to all who have a cough.
M. J. HUNTER,
Gen'l. of Greensboro.

Of all the medicine you have taken, the Mixture is the only one that has done me any good.
M. J. HUNTER,
Gen'l. of Greensboro.

I was taken with an alarming cough, and to relief of the result suffered for a week. I used one box of the American Family Mixture. From the first day I used it, I felt its good effects. I slept sound, and my cough gradually subsided. I am now again able to do my work, and I recommend it to all who are afflicted with this consumptive symptom or weak lungs.
W. K. STYRON.

I have used Dr. C. T. McMANNEN'S American Family Mixture myself, and in my family, I do not hesitate to recommend it as a remedy to be used in all cases of Cough, Croup, Hoarseness, and other diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and Chest.
J. P. H. RUSSELL,
Baptist of other Testimonials could be offered. Taken at all times in portions of half a teaspoonful or less. No danger whatever.

BOARDING HOUSE.
Mrs. Beckwith has opened a first class Boarding House at the Corner of Martin and Wilmington Streets, in the residence formerly occupied by the late Dr. W. H. McKee. She is prepared to accommodate permanent as well as transient boarders. The table is always supplied with the very best the market affords, and the rooms kept neat and comfortable.

A Complete Pictorial History of the Times.
Harper's Weekly.
Illustrated.

Harper's Weekly is the ablest and most powerful illustrated periodical published in this country. Its editorial is scholarly and convincing, and carries much weight. Its illustrations of current events are full and fresh, and prepared by our best designers. With a circulation of 150,000, the Weekly is read by at least half a million persons, and its influence as an organ of opinion, simply tremendous. The Weekly maintains a positive position, and expresses decided views on political and social problems.—Louisville Courier.

Its articles are models of high-toned discussion, and its pictorial illustrations are often corroborative arguments of no small force.—N. Y. Examiner and Chronicle.

Its papers upon existent questions and its humorous cartoons help to mould the sentiments of the country.—Pittsburg Commercial.

Harper's Weekly stands at the head of illustrated journals in the United States, in circulation, editorial ability, and pictorial illustrations.—Ladies' Repository, Cincinnati.

A REPOSITORY OF FASHION, PLANNING, AND INSTRUCTION.
Harper's Bazar.
Illustrated.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.
The Bazar is edited with a combination of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.

The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion plates in endless variety, to the prudent matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to the fatherly by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing-gowns. In the reading-matter of the Bazar is an army of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the fireside enjoyment it affords.—N. Y. Evening Post.

In its way there is nothing like it. Fresh and trustworthy as a fashion guide, its stories and essays, its poetry and squibs, are all inviting to the mind.—Chicago Evening Journal.

Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World.
Harper's Magazine
ILLUSTRATED.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed when we think it to how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as a public good, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth and literary culture that has kept pace with it has not been the least, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the day of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

27 Years Old.
Six Reasons Why
YOU SHOULD INSURE IN
The Penn Mutual

1st. Because it is one of the oldest Companies in the Country, and has the benefit of experience.
2nd. Because its policy is not a member of the Company, but a stockholder, and its interests are therefore identical with those of the insured.

3rd. Because it has a large percentage of assets' liabilities as any life Insurance Company in the Country.
4th. Because its economical management, its ratio of expenses to total income is far below the average of Life Companies. (See Official Insurance Reports.)

5th. Because it has declared no dividends in number, and of a Larger Average Percentage than any Company in the United States.
For example: Policy No. 16, for $5,000 has been paid to the widow of a Philadelphia Merchant, on a which twenty-three dividends had been declared. An average fifty-seven per cent. of these dividends had been used to purchase additions to this Policy, $6,048 more would have been realized—making the Policy worth $11,048.

6th. Because it is liberal in its management, prompt in its settlements, safe and a contingency, and its rate of interest is as good as any first-class Company in the Country.

PRINCIPAL FEATURES.—Small expense, prompt payment of losses, and liberality to the insured.
