NEWS AND NOTES.

Hudson river navigation closed. Nye, of Nevada, is getting over his insanity. Speaker Kerr's ugliness and his wife's handsomeness combine to form a passable average.

The governor of Tennessee is kept busy commuting the death sentences of guilty murderers. The Massachusetts state grange resolves in favor of taxing churches and savings bank deposits.

Sam. Bowles pronounces Tilden and Lamar the strongest democratic presidential duet just now. Three car-loads of silk-worm eggs, from the Pacific coast, have just been received in New York.

Bismarck can't make a speech. In the attempt, he is awkward, fidgety, muddle-thoughted and thick-tongued. The French Geographical society has elected Gen. Andrew J. Humphreys, of the U. S. army, corresponding member.

Mrs. John Winthrop Chandler, one of the Astor heirs, has swapped her interest in the Astor estate for an astral one. The archbishop of Cologne left that fragrant city Tuesday, never to return. He delegated his powers to subordinate ecclesiastics.

Congressional "messengers" get from $1,200 to $1,800 a year; more than many a learned and eloquent doctor of divinity. The Indianapolis brass company have failed for $80,000. Who'd have thought that company could fall while Morton and Colfax lived?

Old Thad. Stevens' estate is having a hard time. His pill-bagger is suing it for $4,000 of unpaid fees, for seeing that he died scientifically. Tweed hunters are scouring Canada. A general scouring of New York politics, a few years ago, would have saved all this discomfultment now.

More of it. Huge forgeries in Cincinnati. Many banks and brokers victimized by bogus checks of parties doing business at the stock-yards. "He is dead, I thank you," is the soft, sweet style in which New Orleans widows respond to unwelcome inquiries after the health of their dear defuncts.

Jas. Robinson, the darkey owner of the "Robinson house" on the Bull Run battle-field, has left it for a mansion in the skies or somewhere else. "That most pretentious sham and hollowest of humbugs, the National Union League of America," is what the radical Philadelphia Press calls it.

Boston's total vote for mayor was 27,200. Cobb, soft-shelled radical, is re-elected by a majority of 2,500. The radicals elect 8 aldermen and 49 councilmen, and the democrats 3 aldermen and 23 councilmen. Wheeler & Wilson sewing-machine factory at Bridgeport, Connecticut, damaged $500,000 worth by fire Tuesday night. A falling wall added a half-dozen to the population of the village cemetery. 200 workmen thrown out of employment.

Broadhead gets a retainer of $1,000 from the pirate treasury for slacking-up on Henderson's vigorous prosecution of the whisky-ringers even to the White House portals. Gov. Thos. C. Reynolds was tendered the position of assistant counsel, at Grant's suggestion, but declined it. It is reported that all the documentary evidence against Babcock has been stolen and spirited away from the office of the United States district court clerk's office, in St. Louis. Very likely. Million-dollar official thieves would hardly hesitate to perpetrate a burglary to save the head criminal.

It is said that an ex-Confederate officer and a recognized democratic leader in congress will soon introduce a resolution, declaring that the southern war debt shall never be assumed or recognized, that no claim for freed niggers shall ever be lawful, and that the national credit must ever be maintained. The last nine words are flapdoodle of the boohieist kind.

SPECIAL NOTICE. A CARD. To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. Josiah T. Inman, Station D, Bible House, New York City, nov 12-deod&w6m

THE RALEIGH & AUGUSTA RAILROAD.—Under this head, the Wilmington Review, of Dec. 13, says:

Among the important enterprises going on in North Carolina, which appears forgotten in the excitement of our Western connections, is the Raleigh & Augusta railroad. This road is an extension of the Raleigh & Gaston railroad, and will connect Raleigh, via Sanford and Coalfields, with the Carolina Central railway at Sand Hill, a station some four miles east of Rockingham. Here for the next four years the railroad will make its southern terminus. An arrangement will be made with the Carolina Central railway, by which through passenger trains and freight will be taken over the 78 miles between Sand Hill and Charlotte, thus forming the third competing railroad line to Charlotte.

By the construction of this road Wilmington is put in connection with Fayetteville, the coalfields and Raleigh by all rail. The country between the Carolina Central railway and Raleigh is rich in timber and turpentine, which will undoubtedly seek this market. Within the year 1876, we may expect the completion of the Raleigh & Augusta railroad and consequent upon it more trade for the "City by the Sea."

We have seen and heard very little about this important work and doubt if many of our citizens are aware that quietly, yet energetically, a railroad is under construction within twenty miles of the great Carolina Central railway, destined to rival the great Coast Line and the Richmond Air Line, for the business of the interior of Georgia and North Carolina.

It is quite certain also that a railroad will be built from Fayetteville to Shoe Heel or Lumberton, within a short time, adding another important link in the net work of railways, and to the business of Wilmington.

FIRE AT FAYETTEVILLE.—A private letter brings the tidings of the destruction of the extensive Tokay vineyard, near Fayetteville, last Tuesday by fire. Dwelling, warehouse and all the out-houses swept away. 30,000 gallons destroyed. At least 100,000 first-class drunks and three-day headaches wasted. H. R. Horne & Co. were the owners of all these lost "horas." Damages heavy. Insurance, $15,000, which is far short of covering the losses.

TAR DROPS. Another centennial nigger heard from. Nash county has him. A. Nichol's gin-house at Kinston, was burned Monday night. Loss $3,000; insurance, $1,800. The ball of the Cape Fear Light Artillery, of Wilmington, last Friday evening, was a brilliant affair. Wilmington turkeys are sitting round on the fences, counting upon their toes how many days till Christmas.

A house in Wilmington, belonging to Bishop Atkinson, and occupied by Walker Menzes, was burned last Friday. There is a ten-mile-square tract in Anson county on which no tick ever set his foot. Too much lime and sulphur in the soil. The Pee Dee Herald goes for Governor Brogden on the pardon biz, as Bret Harter's friend, Nye, went for that heathen Chinese.

Halifax and Northampton counties still howl about cotton thieves. Can it be possible that our old Raleigh cow has got down there? Did Judge Daniel L. Russell entertain the buck African Smyth, at his dinner-table? Is the question agitating Wilmingtonian gossip.

Before accepting an invitation to spend Christmas at Polkton, Liles, of the Pee Dee Herald, begs to be informed whether eggs are plenty up there? Alex Birmingham and Milton Jowers, of Wadesboro, had a misunderstanding Dec. 9, and Jowers was buried with a musket-ball hole through him. Chief Engineer Moore, of the Wilmington fire brigade, dislocated his shoulder last Friday morning by tumbling through the floor of a burning kitchen.

Mrs. Lacy Phillips, an aged lady boarding with Mrs. Ferrebee, of Newbern, was burned to death in her room last Tuesday evening, by her clothes taking fire from a grate. A tussle between two stump-tailed rural bulls enlivened the streets of Windsor a few days ago. The most exemplary christians of the village "walked Spanish" around the exhilarating scene.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets are so compounded from concentrated principles, extracted from roots and herbs, as to combine in each small granule, scarcely larger than a mustard seed, as much cathartic power as is contained in any larger pills for sale in drug-stores. They are not only pleasant to take, but their operation is easy—unattended with any griping pain. They operate without producing any constitutional disturbance. Unlike other cathartics, they do not render the bowels costive after operation, but on the contrary, they establish a permanently healthy action. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them.

$500 reward is offered by the proprietor to any one who will detect in these Pellets any calomel or other form of mercury, mineral poison or injurious drug. They are sold by Druggists.

"When the swallows homeward fly," then is the time when coughs and colds begin to appear. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup cures every disease.

APPOINTED.—Governor Brogden has appointed J. E. Webb, of Greensboro, Ala., a commissioner of deeds for North Carolina.

DISCHARGED.—We learn that 30 employes on the new government building were discharged yesterday, on account of orders from Washington to reduce the force and contract expenses. This contraction business does very well for rich bankers and brokers, but it has a tendency to render a poor working-man pale about the gills.

POLICE COURT.—This court had a slim attendance this morning. E. B. Rogers was fined $5 and $2.35 costs, for being disorderly on the street last night. Isaac Young was arraigned for the same offence and was punished in like manner. John Ryan was made to pay $2.25, the cost of his arrest, for getting drunk. James Parish's hilarious exuberance cost him $5.

ANOTHER COMMUTATION.—Governor Brogden has commuted the death sentence of Robert McDonald, nigger, of Cumberland county, to imprisonment for life in the state pen. McDonald was to have swung at Fayetteville to-morrow. He was convicted at the January term of the Cumberland superior court of burglary. The commutation was recommended by the jury.

DEATH OF MRS. A. J. RUTJES.—We regret to learn that a telegram was received in this city last evening announcing the death, at Greenwick, Connecticut, yesterday morning, of Mrs. A. J. Rutjes, the wife of A. J. Rutjes, who is well known in Raleigh, especially as a hotel man. Mrs. Rutjes was an estimable lady, and the intelligence of her death will be received with genuine regret by the many friends of her family in this city. Her death was caused by a stroke of paralysis.

OUR GOVERNOR AND THE DEAD-BEAT EXCURSION.—Governor Brogden left this morning for Philadelphia, accompanied by Col. I. J. Young, his aide-de-camp, in order to join the presidential dead-beat excursion to the centennial grounds. The cabinet, supreme court and as many congressmen as are sober enough at the time will participate in the free-lunch and free-drunk affair. Our governor got his bid to the frolic Tuesday, and now hastens to answer the invitation in person. The centennial grounds will be invaded Saturday.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—At a congregational meeting held in the Presbyterian church of this city last Tuesday evening, a resolution was unanimously adopted instructing the session to secure the services of Rev. Dr. Vaughan, as stated supply for the year 1876. Dr. Vaughan has filled the pulpit of this church for the past few months and has endeared himself not only to his immediate charge, but to the community. He is a man of rare ability and oratorical grace and power, and a zealous and ardent worker in the Master's harvest-fields. We are glad to learn that he has accepted the position.

RAMSAY IN WILMINGTON.—Under the head of "The Temperance Meeting," the Wilmington Journal, of Dec. 14, contains this article:

Theodore N. Ramsay addressed a large audience of the citizens of Wilmington last night at the Temperance hall. His subject was "The Evils of Intemperance." He began his address by stating that he had been a member of the temperance army for eight years. He enlisted as a private—is now an officer. He had rather march in a temperance procession than in any other army that ever marched under God's sun. He had traveled over the entire state and had enlisted hundreds of men and women into his ranks—men of rank and influence had enlisted under his banner—drunkards have been reclaimed—the forsaken wife and widow could now breathe forth the prayer of thankfulness and praise—resolute heemes have been made happy—and little orphan children clothed, happy and free. He spoke of the large number of rum mills in Wilmington—said it was a disgrace to the city—and that if it was in his power he would sink every one into the lowest depths of perdition. He concluded his address with a strong appeal to all present to unite their influence with the Good Templars of Wilmington in driving intemperance from the city. He poured hot shot into Old King Alcohol and shewed no quarters to this demon. His speech was interspersed with poetry and humor. At the conclusion of the lecture a meeting of the lodge was held, when quite a number of citizens were duly initiated. We are glad to hear of the rapid progress of the Good Templars in our city and wish them abundant success in the future. A choir composed of a number of ladies and gentlemen furnished excellent music on the occasion.

J. E. A. PERRINS' is the only GENUINE WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE.

The City.

Prof. Charles Phillips, of the state university, is in the city. Eggs are distressingly scarce. Won't our good granger lady friends squeeze their old hens a little? Cotton firm at 12 1/2 for best grade. Orders good. Trade a little more lively than for the past few days.

Turkeys are pouring into the city from every direction. A large number came by railroad this morning. Frank P. Dunn, brother of the sheriff, arrived in this city last evening from Enfield with his bride, who was Miss Olivia Tillery.

At the request of many citizens, we have introduced our fine "DIAMOND OIL," 30 degrees higher test than any in town. Price 40 cents. Law & Co.

Judge M. L. Eure, of Gates county, one of the soundest jurists and truest men in the state, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon, to attend the meeting of the university trustees.

R. F. Moore, as chairman of the committee of the Wake bar, has selected Hon. Montford McGeehee, of Person county, to deliver in this city, at a day yet to be named, a eulogy on the late Governor Graham.

Messrs. A. C. Sanders & Co. have for sale two good males, one beautiful pony, one new buggy and one second-hand carriage, just repaired and painted, as good as new. Call on them at No. 2, Martin street, for a bargain.

Andrew Mickle, burser of the university of North Carolina, will be in this city next Tuesday in order to pay the coupons of the Bonds in the Swazey case, in obedience to a decree issued at the present term of the U. S. circuit court. He will also be in the city on the Tuesday of the following week for the same purpose.

WAKE SUPERIOR COURT.—This court begins its term in this city the first Monday in next month. We understand that the largest ever presented in our county, with Christmas week to hear from, which may be safely counted on to add at least 30 new cases. There are 30 inmates of the jail, and about 50 bills already prepared for the action of the grand jury.

MEETING OF THE UNIVERSITY TRUSTEES.—In accordance with previous appointment, the board of trustees of the University of North Carolina convened in the executive office at 10 o'clock this morning. Present: Mills H. Eure, of Gates county; J. E. Dugger, of Warren; B. F. Moore, D. M. Carter, K. P. Battle and W. H. Battle, of Wake; P. C. Cameron, of Orange; W. T. Faircloth, of Wayne; C. W. Broadfoot, of Cumberland; and Rev. C. H. Wiley, of Forsythe. The board prefer not having daily reports of the proceedings published, but will give them for publication when completed and revised. A resolution was adopted postponing the commencement of the next session at Chapel Hill until Jan. 6. At half-past 1 o'clock the board took a recess until 4.

U. S. Circuit Court.—The jury in the cases of W. H. Bledsoe vs. the Atlantic fire insurance company, of New York, and the same vs. the city fire insurance company of Richmond, late yesterday afternoon returned a verdict for the plaintiff of $3,375 in each case, with interest from Feb. 28, 1874. The full amount sued for was $7,500. A motion for a new trial is pending. This morning the equity docket was called over and disposition of the following cases made: E. C. Lawrence vs. N. C. Mutual life insurance company, continued; A. H. Swazey vs. North Carolina railroad, report of the receiver and order for distribution filed, and case continued; Charles Dovey, assignee of the bank of N. C., vs. the trustees of the university or N. C., continued; E. D. Andrews vs. George Lauder, continued on account of the death of defendant; Western railroad company, vs. H. J. Rogers et al., continued; W. T. Camp vs. R. H. Smith, executor, dismissed on motion of defendant; Harvey Terry vs. J. D. Williams et al., continued; the Goodyear Vulcanite company and Josiah Bacon vs. Chas. S. Campbell, continued; same vs. W. N. Berkley, continued; same vs. G. K. Bagley, continued; same vs. A. R. Miller, continued; same vs. J. H. Crawford, continued; same vs. Ervin Floyd, continued. The petit jurors have been discharged and the court will probably adjourn to-morrow afternoon.
