THE CITY

Cotton dull at 12 1/2. Secretary of State Howerton issued about 60 land grants to-day.

By getting Zeigler's cigars you will not be deceived. All he asks is a trial. Dr. J. O. Wilcox, of Ashe, member of the late constitutional convention, is in the city.

The presence of the supreme and superior courts has drawn a large number of strangers to the city.

Zeigler's Raleigh favorite cigar store is the place to get the best and the purest cigars in the city.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard preaches in Durham Sunday. His pulpit here will be filled by Rev. W. R. Atkinson.

Joseph, the well known saloonist, is bottling Schalk's celebrated lager beer, which he sells at New York prices.

The finest stock of chewing and smoking tobacco, pipes, &c., at Zeigler's, next door to the Yarborough House.

Sam. Bolling, nigger, was before the mayor this morning for stealing geese from Mr. Cohen, and was jugged in default of bail.

At the request of many citizens, we have introduced our fine "DIAMOND OIL," 30 degrees higher test than any in town. Price 40 cents. Law & Co.

There will be a meeting of the committee of arrangements on the public installation of officers of the various Odd-Fellow lodges in this city this evening, at 7 o'clock, at the store of G. D. Cully, Wilmington street.

Messrs. A. C. Saunders & Co. have for sale two good mules, one beautiful pony, one new buggy and one second hand carriage, just repaired and painted, as good as new. Call on them at No. 2, Martin street, for a bargain.

There was an elopement in plover high life the other day in Oak Grove township, this county. Geo. Holloway ran away with the wife of one Cloud. It seems that she had made up her mind not to remain under a cloud any longer.

NINETEEN NAILS AND A ROCK.—Mr. Alfred Lamb, in Court-House township, Camden county, is the man who was having geese dressed for market, Dec. 14, and found 19 nails and a small rock in the craw, or gizzard, of a goose. This is so much like the fish story we must add that Mr. Lamb is a man of truth and can prove by others the nail and goose story.

DECLINED TO DINE.—Jordan Stone and the News men invited us to dine with them. It was a dinner given to the board of trade by Jordan & Co., or the News & Co. We declined and our letter shall be published to-morrow, giving the reasons why we would not break bread at a table set by one of the best cooks in Virginia during the war. No doubt the board of trade had a good dinner, for Captain Pollard, of company B, gives Jordan Stone the praise as a cook. It was the first time we ever knew a gentleman to call a man a "thief" and then invite him to dine.

ESCORTED OUT OF TOWN.—Since writing the local in regard to tramps, we have become aware of the fact that our vigilant mayor, Major Manly, last evening had a number of these perambulating gentlemen arrested and lodged in the calaboose. Early this morning they were escorted by the police beyond the limits of the city, and told if they returned they would be fattened in the county jail. The names they gave were, Onah McGrath, Tom McAvoy, Henry Bauman, Redrick Harris and Milton Merrick. If any one of these fellows could have been identified as the party, or parties, intruding upon private premises a severe punishment would have been inflicted. Our police system is the best by far we have ever had and is daily improving.

TRAMPS.—We are reliably informed that a large number of tramps have put in an appearance in our city, and have already imposed upon some of our citizens. Their object is plunder. They deliberately walk into a house when a door is found open, or unlocked, without giving any notice, and when detected beg pardon and ask for something to eat, saying they have been thrown out of employment north, and have not had anything to eat for days, all of which are lies out of the whole cloth manufactured for the occasion. Should any be thus detected, we advise our people to call for help and have them arrested. Keep your front doors locked. All well-meaning persons will ring the door-bell or knock.

WEEK OF PRAYER

EDENTON STREET METHODIST CHURCH.

Last night, according to previous announcement, the union prayer meeting was held at Edenton street Methodist church. The congregation was the largest ever known to assemble in this city at a prayer meeting. The church was filled, and the deep interest manifested showed not only a union of people, but a union of sentiment, a union of purpose, and as the immense congregation would join in singing those old soul-stirring, familiar hymns, such as "All hail the power of Jesus' name," "There is a fountain filled with blood," and "Alas and did my savior bleed," the hearts of the true Christians were made to rejoice and feel glad to see the different denominations, laying aside, for the time, all denominational creeds and ceremonies, meet together around one common altar, in one common cause, to unite in earnest prayers to Almighty God for the same objects.

Dr. Burkhead, the pastor of the church, read the xvii chapter of St. John, and announced the subjects for discussions and prayers to be: "Prayer for the church of Christ.—For the members recently added to the church; for the union of true believers in fraternal fellowship and active co-operation; for the removal of error, the increase of godliness and a clearer testimony among believers to the doctrine and power of the gospel of the grace of God." He then addressed the audience for a short time upon the topics in connection with the subjects mentioned in the chapter that had been read.

Short and stirring addresses were made by Dr. Pritchard, Rev. W. D. Taylor, Rev. F. M. Jordan and Rev. W. R. Atkinson. Earnest prayers were offered by Rev. W. D. Taylor, Rev. R. Burwell, Dr. Pritchard, A. M. McPheeters and Rev. J. D. Hulman, and as these Christian men would seem to bring their faith into lively exercise, as they addressed a throne of grace, the responses could be heard all through the congregation as they came forth from hearts in unison with those who were leading in prayer.

The exercises were about two hours in length, but so full of interest were they that no one seemed to tire, but all reluctant to leave. Services this (Wednesday) evening at Person street Methodist church, and the subject will be: "Prayer for families; for godless parents; for prodigal sons; for children at school; for those entering upon professional and commercial life; for widows and orphans; for sons and daughters in foreign lands; and for all who are mentally or otherwise afflicted."

I. O. O. F. INSTALLATION.—It has already been announced that the various Odd-Fellow lodges of this city will have public installation ceremonies Friday evening at their beautiful hall, over the Citizen's national bank. The choir of the Presbyterian church, under the leadership of Prof. Baumann, of Peace Institute, will furnish the music. The following order of exercises will be observed:

Opening Ode. Prayer. Address by C. W. Busbee, P. G. Ode selected by choir. Installation of officers. (Installation ode at proper place.) Address by installing officer. Closing ode of the order. Closing prayer.

Ms. Errors: Will you give me a few lines in the Sentinel that I may speak to the printers and workmen of the state, though I am not distressed at seeing Stone, Woodson and Uzzell moved out by the power of money and the rich men who have backed them? They have damaged and degraded journalism in the city to elevate a few leaders and advance free money or 20 per cent. I care not whether the News is run by corporations, as you say, or the gentlemen who claim stock in it. It is an establishment to crush out labor and laboring men, and elevate bondholders, or their candidates for office and place. I cannot, for my life, see why it is important for the Clarks, Hoffs and Camerons to run a cheap newspaper in this city. I know there are printers who have wanted bread and work which they would have obtained but for the stockholders and bondholders who have supported the News. Yours, &c., A. PRINSTER.

The Ohio building on the centennial grounds will be 49 feet square inside, 2 stories high, with an attic, a hall 9 feet wide through the centre, on one side of which is a ladies' parlor 25 by 154.

METHODIST CENTENNIAL

LIST OF MINISTERS OF EDENTON STREET M. E. CHURCH—LETTER FROM REV. DR. BURKHEAD.

From the last issue of the Christian Advocate we take the appended letter of Rev. Dr. Burkhead, giving a list of the pastors of the Edenton street M. E. church in this city who have had charge of the church since 1808, and calling attention to the grand centennial celebration of the introduction of Methodism into this state, in this city, some time next March. Here is the letter:

Many of these men have finished their course and entered into rest. Some others are old and infirm, waiting by the river. Others are in vigorous health, and still leading on the hosts of "God's elect." In March 1876 a grand centennial will be held in the city of Raleigh, to celebrate the introduction of "organized Methodism" in the state. A collection will be taken to build a Metropolitan church in Raleigh. I was appointed at our last conference an agent to raise funds for this object. I hereby invite all the former pastors of Edenton street church, and also of Person street church, who are now living, to attend our centennial and take part in the exercises of that occasion. Dear brethren and fathers, gather up such incidents and reminiscences of N. C. Methodism as you can, and come prepared to add to the interest and pleasure of the occasion.

L. S. BURKHEAD, Raleigh, N. C. Saturday the postal Union, which was perfected last summer, sent into effect over the whole of Europe, Russia, and Turkey in Asia, Egypt and the United States. The rates of postage from one country to another, as fixed by this agreement, are 5 cents per one-half ounce of letters; 2 cents on postal cards; 2 cents each for newspapers, if not exceeding 4 ounces.

"KNOW THY OPPORTUNITY."

The grim monster, Death, was stealthily approaching. I could almost feel his hot, fiery breath upon my forehead. My faithless goddess, Hygieia, had utterly deserted me. Only now and then would Morpheus befriend me, but on this auspicious day, he had deemed to moisten my eyelids with heavenly ambrosia, and I slept. As I slept, behold, I had a dream! I thought that I was roaming upon foreign soil whither my physician had sent me to recover my health. I was in a great metropolis—one of the grand mart of the world. In one of my strolls I chanced to meet a man who had in his hand a handsome, lay-bound volume, entitled "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," and who said that he was an agent for the sale of the book. The title was such a novel one that I was impelled to give the work a casual notice. As I hastily glanced over its pages, I observed that it contained treatises not commonly found in medical works. But I had too many times been hoaxed by appearances, and I determined that I would have nothing to do with it. A voice within me, like a faithful monitor, whispered, "Know thy opportunity; in that book is thy salvation!" I began reasoning with myself. Although doubtful and distrustful, yet I put forth my hand to take the book, and lo! the agent was gone! I was miserable. In my agony I awoke. Great drops of perspiration were upon my brow. By my bedside was a friend who had called during my slumber to see me. Said my friend, "I have brought with me a book, just published, which I thought might interest you." One glance at the work, and I was assured that it was "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. Surely, this was the veritable book which I had seen in my dream. My friend loaned me the work, and every day, as my strength permitted, I perused its pages. Although it contained very interesting treatises on Biology, Cerebral Physiology, Human Temperaments, Nursing of the Sick, etc., yet, being an invalid, I was most interested in the subjects of Diseases and Remedies. I believed that I had a liver affection, and yet more than one medical attendant had pronounced my disease consumption, and that I would fall with the autumn leaves. In that book I found my symptoms perfectly portrayed. I was then confident that I had not deceived myself. I reasoned thus: "Any man who can so truthfully depict my feelings, and apparently understands my constitutional tendencies, must know just what my physical system demands. I will trust my case with Dr. Pierce. I will take his Golden Medical Discovery as recommended for my disease." The result is, that after having perseveringly followed his prescribed treatment, I once again enjoy the blessings of health. Therefore, I would say to the afflicted, "Know thy opportunity," and take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. QUIS.
