NOTICE OF THE PRESS.
 The Bazar is edited with a combination of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.
 The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion plates in endless variety, to the prudent matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to the paternalist by its tasteful designs for embroidered clippers and luxurious dressing-gowns. But the reading-matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the fireside enjoyment it affords.—N. Y. Evening Post.
 In its way there is nothing like it. Fresh and trustworthy as a fashion guide, its stories and essays, its poetry and quips, are all invigorating to the mind.—Chicago Evening Journal.
