

THE RALEIGH SENTINEL. PUBLISHED DAILY, WEEKLY AND SEMI-WEEKLY. Official Organ of North Carolina. STATE PRINTING & BINDING ESTABLISHMENT. P. D. TAYLOR, Editor.

Daily Sentinel

THE RALEIGH SENTINEL. Advertisements will be inserted in the Daily Sentinel at the following rates per square of one inch, or ten insertion lines.

VOL. XXI. RALEIGH, N. C. SATURDAY, JANUARY 8, 1876. No. 128.

LEA & FERRIS' is the only GENUINE WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE.

THE CITY.

Bronchitis is said to be prevalent in some portions of this county.

Up to this evening the grand jury of this county has found 65 true bills.

By getting Zeigler's cigars you will not be deceived. All he asks is a trial.

Cotton dull at 12 1/2 for best grades. Low grades lively at 11 to 11 1/2. Orders good.

Zeigler's Raleigh favorite cigar store is the place to get the best and the purest cigars in the city.

Katie in "Little Barefoot" at Tucker hall this evening. Everybody that has seen it says it is a good thing.

The finest stock of chewing and smoking tobacco, pipes, &c., at Zeigler's, next door to the Yarrowborough House.

At the request of many citizens, we have introduced our fine "DIAMOND OIL," 30 degrees higher test than any in town. Price 40 cents. Law & Co.

Weldon, Wilson and Rocky Mount are shipping cotton to this place. This is correct. We have as good a cotton market as can be found in the whole south.

Rufus Morgan, North Carolina's most noted artist in the landscape line, left for Hickory last evening. A more extended notice of him and some of his artistic projects is crowded out till our next issue.

Messrs. A. C. Sanders & Co. have for sale two good mules, one beautiful pony, one new buggy and one second-hand carriage, just repaired and painted, as good as new. Call on them at No. 2, Martin street, for a bargain.

Bradley has gone into candy-making in addition to his regular confectionery business. Leonard, well known from his long connection with Royster's factory, assists. They will make a strong team in the sweetening line.

The young gentlemen of the Oak City Pleasure Club purpose giving before long at the National hotel, another of their hops, which are becoming noted as among the most charming entertainments our city ever enjoyed.

SUPERIOR COURT.—The session of the superior court was taken up to-day with the argument of the case of State vs. J. Q. Bryan. Bryan is charged with robbing Dr. J. O. Wilcox, of Ashe county, in this city, Oct. 12, of his watch and $120 in greenbacks. The case was given to the jury about 3 o'clock.

WHY?—The board of aldermen have just resolved to plunge us into the darkness of Egyptian night three times twisted and tangled. They have ordered the discontinuance of the street gas-lamps. Trot out your old kerosene burners. But isn't it rather strange that a city of 18,000 inhabitants should be left to flounder and grope through blackness and mud-holes, like a cross roads village of a postoffice, doggerly and 15 loafers?

SUPREME COURT.—Court met this morning at 10 o'clock. All the justices present. The following cases were argued:

HORNER & GRAVES vs. Jos. H. Baker, from Edgecombe. J. L. Bridgers for plaintiffs, and Howard & Perry for defendants.

G. T. Daniel, ex. vs. commissioners of Edgecombe. Howard & Perry for plaintiff and Fred. Phillips for defendant.

John B. Mercer vs. James Wiggins, from Edgecombe. Howard & Perry for plaintiff and Fred. Phillips for defendant.

The court adjourned until Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

KATIE PUTNAM.—This bright little actress certainly has reason to feel gratified with her reception in Raleigh. Tucker Hall was jammed last evening with the cream of our city's amusement-going people. Every seat was taken.

Katie, as Jane Eyre, was always interesting, and at times thrilling and impassioned, and received applause that showed she had captivated her audience. J. J. Sullivan, as Lord Rochester, sustained his part very creditably. Miss Ida Raymond, as Mrs. Harleigh, was good. And S. H. Vreney, as Sam, brought down the house at every appearance by his stiff and pompous flunkeyism. All the other characters were passably sustained, and taken altogether the play was a success. The piece for this evening is "Little Barefoot," and we expect to see a full house.

WEEK OF PRAYER.

SWAIN STREET BAPTIST CHURCH, LAST EVENING.

Rev. J. D. Hulham, the pastor, read the 2d Psalm and prayed—Song: Prayer by S. J. Fall.

The pastor stated the object of the meeting to be the subject of Foreign Missions. There had been a great falling off in contributions during the past year, and it was peculiarly appropriate that this meeting should be held, that we should be reminded of the work. He had hoped that these meetings would prove God's set time for pouring out a gracious revival of religion upon our city, and he still prayed to that end.

Song: "Precious name."

S. J. Fall: no subject had been less discussed during his sojourn in Raleigh. Methodists in North Carolina only gave ten cents per member per annum to this cause; in England $2.50 per member. He thought we should hold meetings on this subject oftener. The sailors ought to be prayed for. If they were godly men a great missionary work might be done through them. They formed no small part of our population; hundreds and thousands of them are on the briny deep to-night. If their captain does not happen to be a godly man, it may be months before over a word is heard by them of Jesus.

Prof. Kerr: He believed this week of prayer was the result of a consultation of missionaries held in India. The reflex influence was to be regarded. And from these meetings must come a higher and broader view of christian life. We are only beginning to realize that we must occupy those countries now occupied by Romanists. The bible had been hidden from them. He had traveled for weeks in Romish countries and never seen a bible. China was more open to-day to missionaries than were Austria, Spain and other countries occupied by Romanists. Let us remember in our prayers these so-called christian countries.

Prayer by Col. Heck. Song: "Hold the fort."

Dr. Burkhead: The field has been spread out before us. There can be no real christianity where the bible is ignored. He was ashamed of what his denomination had done for this work. But there was a difference between the condition of our people and those of England. We used to give largely before the war, but now we are poor. And yet we give more for tobacco and other luxuries than toward the spread of the gospel. Why is this? Because we have not enough of the love of God in our hearts. We should pray first for our own souls and having our own hearts filled with the love of Christ, we will go out after others. He looked forward to the time when the little army now being trained in the Sunday schools should, with their banners and stirring songs, carry this work on with greater zeal, and the world be redeemed.

John Armstrong: He believed in giving for foreign lands. But there was a greater missionary work needed at our own doors. Nineteen years ago he was engaged in a missionary work near where this church now stands, and he then saw as much heathenism as existed anywhere. Are all converted who are present to-night?

Rev. W. R. Atkinson: He believed the key-note to this work was the text, "Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus." Christ gave himself a sacrifice for our sins. He felt the gospel taught us to give and do more for the heathen than ourselves. We had gospel privileges. If our pastors are called away the officers of the church can carry on the work. The heathen have no such privileges. We must give until we feel the sacrifice. Almsgiving had been made to the property lost during the war. We were compelled to surrender thousands and millions. We felt it. Suppose it had been for the work of carrying the gospel to the heathen? We gave up a great deal, but how much treasure was laid up in heaven by the sacrifice? If we want blessings at home let us send blessings abroad.

Dr. Vaughan: Two and two make four. No man, not an idiot, needs to be told that, it is so plain. So with the gospel injunction, "Go preach the gospel to every creature." And yet the apostles alone seem to have understood it, and put it into practice by carrying the gospel to regions beyond. Since that time every step taken was to the rear. Why? Because we do not realize our situation as christians. If I should ask a mason why he belonged to that organization he would say for mercenary purposes—to do masonic business. So with the christian. He is in the church to do christian work—the business of Christ. Jesus organizes this band and that band, not to save souls—He does that—but to concentrate their energies, their money and their prayers. Each one has a work to do. No one else could do that work. I would not do your work if I could. I would not do your praying—it would be cheating you out of two much. The heathen may lose by our neglect but the loss is also most assuredly ours. If we were alive to the subject of missions we should have more spiritual life. The best index to the condition of a church is its interest in missions. He reviewed the reformation. How the standing still of Protestants emboldened the Romanists to go into their ranks and reap some of their richest spoils. When Protestants stop Romanism and infidelity move forward. The house was jammed with a deeply interested audience. The last of the week's series of meetings will be held this evening in the Presbyterian church. The special subject is: Prayer for all nations; for the maintenance of peace; for the cessation of tumults, wars and civil strife; for the removal of intemperance, immorality and infidelity from the land; and that the fruits of the earth may be brought forth plentifully in their season. It is earnestly desired that every christian in Raleigh who can possibly do so will attend. The subject for the sermons to-morrow is: "The ultimate triumph." Psalm lxxii: 17.

I. O. O. F.

PUBLIC INSTALLATION.

The elective officers of the various lodges of Odd-Fellows of this city were publicly installed last evening. The elegant hall was well filled, notwithstanding the union prayer meeting and the amusements, a large number of ladies gracing the lodge room with their presence. W. H. Bagley, P. G. M., acted as grand-master, with W. B. Hatching, P. G., as grand marshal, and J. C. S. Lumsden, P. G., as grand warden. The exercises were as follows:

Opening ode,—"Mighty Jehovah"—with alto solo by Mrs. George C. Jordan; grand anthem. Prayer by P. G. John Taylor, as grand chaplain. Address by Chas. M. Busbee, P. G. This address was all that the most enthusiastic member of the order could have desired, while the eloquence of the gifted orator, as he portrayed the good resulting from the brotherhood held spell-bound his hearers. Ode,—"Inspire and Hearer of Prayer," with soprano solo by Mrs. Baumann, and bass solo by Mr. W. S. Primrose. Both good voices and well sung; a very fine piece of music.

The installation followed, the grand officers acting their respective parts. The "Installation Ode" was sung by the choir, the familiar air of "Auld Lang Syne" being soul-stirring.

After the usual charge to the presiding officer, the closing ode was sung, being a selection from the Oratorio of Daniel; solo carried by Mrs. Geo. C. Jordan; soprano singers, Mrs. Baumann, Miss Hattie Jordan; alto, Mrs. Geo. C. Jordan; tenor, Mr. Geo. C. Jordan; basso, Messrs. Wm. S. Primrose and Walton M. Busbee; organist, Prof. A. Baumann, of Peace Institute, whose knowledge of the training of the voice and command over his choir, together with his accomplished performance on the organ render him truly a master in his profession.

The exercises were interesting and it is believed that much good will result from the occasion.

The order return thanks to the choir of the Presbyterian church for the fine music made.

RECAP: Ode.—Col. Donan, though now at home, has been raled out of our ranks during the war. We felt it. Suppose it had been for the work of carrying the gospel to the heathen? We gave up a great deal, but how much treasure was laid up in heaven by the sacrifice? If we want blessings at home let us send blessings abroad.

Dr. Vaughan: Two and two make four. No man, not an idiot, needs to be told that, it is so plain. So with the gospel injunction, "Go preach the gospel to every creature." And yet the apostles alone seem to have understood it, and put it into practice by carrying the gospel to regions beyond. Since that time every step taken was to the rear. Why? Because we do not realize our situation as christians. If I should ask a mason why he belonged to that organization he would say for mercenary purposes—to do masonic business. So with the christian. He is in the church to do christian work—the business of Christ. Jesus organizes this band and that band, not to save souls—He does that—but to concentrate their energies, their money and their prayers. Each one has a work to do. No one else could do that work. I would not do your work if I could. I would not do your praying—it would be cheating you out of two much. The heathen may lose by our neglect but the loss is also most assuredly ours. If we were alive to the subject of missions we should have more spiritual life. The best index to the condition of a church is its interest in missions. He reviewed the reformation. How the standing still of Protestants emboldened the Romanists to go into their ranks and reap some of their richest spoils. When Protestants stop Romanism and infidelity move forward. The house was jammed with a deeply interested audience. The last of the week's series of meetings will be held this evening in the Presbyterian church. The special subject is: Prayer for all nations; for the maintenance of peace; for the cessation of tumults, wars and civil strife; for the removal of intemperance, immorality and infidelity from the land; and that the fruits of the earth may be brought forth plentifully in their season. It is earnestly desired that every christian in Raleigh who can possibly do so will attend. The subject for the sermons to-morrow is: "The ultimate triumph." Psalm lxxii: 17.

I. O. O. F.

PUBLIC INSTALLATION.

The elective officers of the various lodges of Odd-Fellows of this city were publicly installed last evening. The elegant hall was well filled, notwithstanding the union prayer meeting and the amusements, a large number of ladies gracing the lodge room with their presence. W. H. Bagley, P. G. M., acted as grand-master, with W. B. Hatching, P. G., as grand marshal, and J. C. S. Lumsden, P. G., as grand warden. The exercises were as follows:

Opening ode,—"Mighty Jehovah"—with alto solo by Mrs. George C. Jordan; grand anthem. Prayer by P. G. John Taylor, as grand chaplain. Address by Chas. M. Busbee, P. G. This address was all that the most enthusiastic member of the order could have desired, while the eloquence of the gifted orator, as he portrayed the good resulting from the brotherhood held spell-bound his hearers. Ode,—"Inspire and Hearer of Prayer," with soprano solo by Mrs. Baumann, and bass solo by Mr. W. S. Primrose. Both good voices and well sung; a very fine piece of music.

The installation followed, the grand officers acting their respective parts. The "Installation Ode" was sung by the choir, the familiar air of "Auld Lang Syne" being soul-stirring.

After the usual charge to the presiding officer, the closing ode was sung, being a selection from the Oratorio of Daniel; solo carried by Mrs. Geo. C. Jordan; soprano singers, Mrs. Baumann, Miss Hattie Jordan; alto, Mrs. Geo. C. Jordan; tenor, Mr. Geo. C. Jordan; basso, Messrs. Wm. S. Primrose and Walton M. Busbee; organist, Prof. A. Baumann, of Peace Institute, whose knowledge of the training of the voice and command over his choir, together with his accomplished performance on the organ render him truly a master in his profession.

The exercises were interesting and it is believed that much good will result from the occasion.

The order return thanks to the choir of the Presbyterian church for the fine music made.

RECAP: Ode.—Col. Donan, though now at home, has been raled out of our ranks during the war. We felt it. Suppose it had been for the work of carrying the gospel to the heathen? We gave up a great deal, but how much treasure was laid up in heaven by the sacrifice? If we want blessings at home let us send blessings abroad.

Dr. Vaughan: Two and two make four. No man, not an idiot, needs to be told that, it is so plain. So with the gospel injunction, "Go preach the gospel to every creature." And yet the apostles alone seem to have understood it, and put it into practice by carrying the gospel to regions beyond. Since that time every step taken was to the rear. Why? Because we do not realize our situation as christians. If I should ask a mason why he belonged to that organization he would say for mercenary purposes—to do masonic business. So with the christian. He is in the church to do christian work—the business of Christ. Jesus organizes this band and that band, not to save souls—He does that—but to concentrate their energies, their money and their prayers. Each one has a work to do. No one else could do that work. I would not do your work if I could. I would not do your praying—it would be cheating you out of two much. The heathen may lose by our neglect but the loss is also most assuredly ours. If we were alive to the subject of missions we should have more spiritual life. The best index to the condition of a church is its interest in missions. He reviewed the reformation. How the standing still of Protestants emboldened the Romanists to go into their ranks and reap some of their richest spoils. When Protestants stop Romanism and infidelity move forward. The house was jammed with a deeply interested audience. The last of the week's series of meetings will be held this evening in the Presbyterian church. The special subject is: Prayer for all nations; for the maintenance of peace; for the cessation of tumults, wars and civil strife; for the removal of intemperance, immorality and infidelity from the land; and that the fruits of the earth may be brought forth plentifully in their season. It is earnestly desired that every christian in Raleigh who can possibly do so will attend. The subject for the sermons to-morrow is: "The ultimate triumph." Psalm lxxii: 17.

I. O. O. F.

PUBLIC INSTALLATION.

The elective officers of the various lodges of Odd-Fellows of this city were publicly installed last evening. The elegant hall was well filled, notwithstanding the union prayer meeting and the amusements, a large number of ladies gracing the lodge room with their presence. W. H. Bagley, P. G. M., acted as grand-master, with W. B. Hatching, P. G., as grand marshal, and J. C. S. Lumsden, P. G., as grand warden. The exercises were as follows:

Opening ode,—"Mighty Jehovah"—with alto solo by Mrs. George C. Jordan; grand anthem. Prayer by P. G. John Taylor, as grand chaplain. Address by Chas. M. Busbee, P. G. This address was all that the most enthusiastic member of the order could have desired, while the eloquence of the gifted orator, as he portrayed the good resulting from the brotherhood held spell-bound his hearers. Ode,—"Inspire and Hearer of Prayer," with soprano solo by Mrs. Baumann, and bass solo by Mr. W. S. Primrose. Both good voices and well sung; a very fine piece of music.

The installation followed, the grand officers acting their respective parts. The "Installation Ode" was sung by the choir, the familiar air of "Auld Lang Syne" being soul-stirring.

After the usual charge to the presiding officer, the closing ode was sung, being a selection from the Oratorio of Daniel; solo carried by Mrs. Geo. C. Jordan; soprano singers, Mrs. Baumann, Miss Hattie Jordan; alto, Mrs. Geo. C. Jordan; tenor, Mr. Geo. C. Jordan; basso, Messrs. Wm. S. Primrose and Walton M. Busbee; organist, Prof. A. Baumann, of Peace Institute, whose knowledge of the training of the voice and command over his choir, together with his accomplished performance on the organ render him truly a master in his profession.

The exercises were interesting and it is believed that much good will result from the occasion.

The order return thanks to the choir of the Presbyterian church for the fine music made.

RECAP: Ode.—Col. Donan, though now at home, has been raled out of our ranks during the war. We felt it. Suppose it had been for the work of carrying the gospel to the heathen? We gave up a great deal, but how much treasure was laid up in heaven by the sacrifice? If we want blessings at home let us send blessings abroad.

Dr. Vaughan: Two and two make four. No man, not an idiot, needs to be told that, it is so plain. So with the gospel injunction, "Go preach the gospel to every creature." And yet the apostles alone seem to have understood it, and put it into practice by carrying the gospel to regions beyond. Since that time every step taken was to the rear. Why? Because we do not realize our situation as christians. If I should ask a mason why he belonged to that organization he would say for mercenary purposes—to do masonic business. So with the christian. He is in the church to do christian work—the business of Christ. Jesus organizes this band and that band, not to save souls—He does that—but to concentrate their energies, their money and their prayers. Each one has a work to do. No one else could do that work. I would not do your work if I could. I would not do your praying—it would be cheating you out of two much. The heathen may lose by our neglect but the loss is also most assuredly ours. If we were alive to the subject of missions we should have more spiritual life. The best index to the condition of a church is its interest in missions. He reviewed the reformation. How the standing still of Protestants emboldened the Romanists to go into their ranks and reap some of their richest spoils. When Protestants stop Romanism and infidelity move forward. The house was jammed with a deeply interested audience. The last of the week's series of meetings will be held this evening in the Presbyterian church. The special subject is: Prayer for all nations; for the maintenance of peace; for the cessation of tumults, wars and civil strife; for the removal of intemperance, immorality and infidelity from the land; and that the fruits of the earth may be brought forth plentifully in their season. It is earnestly desired that every christian in Raleigh who can possibly do so will attend. The subject for the sermons to-morrow is: "The ultimate triumph." Psalm lxxii: 17.

I. O. O. F.

PUBLIC INSTALLATION.

The elective officers of the various lodges of Odd-Fellows of this city were publicly installed last evening. The elegant hall was well filled, notwithstanding the union prayer meeting and the amusements, a large number of ladies gracing the lodge room with their presence. W. H. Bagley, P. G. M., acted as grand-master, with W. B. Hatching, P. G., as grand marshal, and J. C. S. Lumsden, P. G., as grand warden. The exercises were as follows:

Opening ode,—"Mighty Jehovah"—with alto solo by Mrs. George C. Jordan; grand anthem. Prayer by P. G. John Taylor, as grand chaplain. Address by Chas. M. Busbee, P. G. This address was all that the most enthusiastic member of the order could have desired, while the eloquence of the gifted orator, as he portrayed the good resulting from the brotherhood held spell-bound his hearers. Ode,—"Inspire and Hearer of Prayer," with soprano solo by Mrs. Baumann, and bass solo by Mr. W. S. Primrose. Both good voices and well sung; a very fine piece of music.

The installation followed, the grand officers acting their respective parts. The "Installation Ode" was sung by the choir, the familiar air of "Auld Lang Syne" being soul-stirring.

After the usual charge to the presiding officer, the closing ode was sung, being a selection from the Oratorio of Daniel; solo carried by Mrs. Geo. C. Jordan; soprano singers, Mrs. Baumann, Miss Hattie Jordan; alto, Mrs. Geo. C. Jordan; tenor, Mr. Geo. C. Jordan; basso, Messrs. Wm. S. Primrose and Walton M. Busbee; organist, Prof. A. Baumann, of Peace Institute, whose knowledge of the training of the voice and command over his choir, together with his accomplished performance on the organ render him truly a master in his profession.

The exercises were interesting and it is believed that much good will result from the occasion.

The order return thanks to the choir of the Presbyterian church for the fine music made.

RECAP: Ode.—Col. Donan, though now at home, has been raled out of our ranks during the war. We felt it. Suppose it had been for the work of carrying the gospel to the heathen? We gave up a great deal, but how much treasure was laid up in heaven by the sacrifice? If we want blessings at home let us send blessings abroad.

PROF. TRIPP'S LECTURE COURSE IN RALEIGH.

As may be seen by advertisement, Prof. Tripp's course of lectures in Raleigh will be delivered under the auspices and for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association, in their new hall on Fayetteville street, Monday, Tuesday, Friday and the following Monday evenings, Jan. 10, 11, 14 and 17, beginning at 8 o'clock.

The opening lecture Monday evening next will be on Louis Napoleon from his birth to the imperial throne, preceded by a brief account of the brilliant Paris revolutions of February and June, 1848, as witnessed by the lecturer.

A considerable number of our leading citizens have already secured family and course tickets, and the lectures promise to be in Raleigh, as they have elsewhere, a gratifying success.

The tickets have been placed at the moderate sum of $1.50 for the course or $1.00 for the course for family tickets, with a further reduction to students, less than half the sum paid for the same lectures in Boston and New York. The transcendent interest of the subjects treated, and the high reputation of the lecturer cannot but insure a good success in our intelligent community.

RING RASCALS.

MR. TURNER: I am a printer. I have worked in the News office. I know you are fighting the biggest ring that was ever organized in North Carolina. The Raleigh News is the smallest and weakest part of it, though the News has some of its strongest supporters in the different churches. The railroad corporations and politicians are mostly in with the News. I have heard that Mr. Woodson has denied that he said you could prove all you had said of the News by him. Ask Mr. Upchurch and the printers in your office and they with a dozen others will testify to his having said so.

There is no politics in Raleigh except to break down the Sentinel and put up candidates for governor, senators and the various offices of the state.

Dr. Blackwell, I am sure, is sustained by the same persons who sustain the News, and the Agricultural Journal. How you have withstood them is astonishing. The combination is politicians, lawyers, railroad presidents and all bondholders not content with eight per cent. It is a combination of capital and bad men against labor. The Agricultural Journal and some grange lawyers were as deep in the conspiracy as were Mr. Stone and a portion of the bar.

Mr. Pickrell, living in Warren county, a Wall street broker, can show letters that would prove guilt upon many distinguished men of the state. When you see such a man constantly in the speaker's room, as he was, you may be sure that there is something going on for the good of individuals and not the state. How far they will succeed in running the grange I cannot tell. But Mr. Jordan Stone joined them for that purpose, and a railroad president said in the hearing of an editor of the Agricultural Journal that he intended to run the grange to the devil. I think he has succeeded in running the Journal into the ground. You are on the right track. It is all the Chatham road, lawyers and capitalists. God grant you may whip them is the prayer of a

CHURCHES SUNDAY.

At Christ church, Episcopal 11 o'clock a. m. and 4 p. m., by Rev. M. M. Marshall, D. D.—Sunday School at 9 a. m.

At church of the Good Shepherd, Episcopal, 11 a. m. and 7 p. m., by Rev. E. R. Rich.—Sunday School at 9 a. m.

At Salisbury Street Baptist church, 11 a. m., by Rev. W. R. Atkinson and 7:30 p. m., by Rev. J. D. Hulham. Sunday School at 9 a. m.

At Swain Street Baptist church, 11 a. m., by Rev. J. D. Hulham, and 7:30 p. m., by Rev. J. M. Atkinson. Sunday school at 9 a. m.

At Edenton Street Methodist church, 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m., by Rev. L. L. Burkhead.—Sunday School at 9 a. m., W. J. Young, Superintendent.—Singing exercises at 3:30 p. m. Seats free at all services.

At Person Street Methodist church, 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m., by Rev. W. C. Norman.—Sunday School 9 a. m.

At St. John's Catholic church, mass at 11 a. m., and vespers at 4:30 p. m., by Rev. Father Rittly.—Sunday School at 10 a. m.

At Presbyterian church, 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., by Rev. Dr. Vaughan. Sunday School at 9 a. m.

COMPARATIVE COTTON STATEMENT.—NEW YORK, JAN. 7.—The following is the comparative cotton statement for the six days ending January 7:

Receipts at all U. S. ports, 189,686. Same week last year, 80,420. Total to date, 2,482,238. Same date last year, 2,295,982. Exports for the week, -323,422. Same time last year, 71,230. Total to date, 1,364,981. Same date last year, 1,126,843. Stock at all U. S. ports, 795,820. Same time last year, 842,474. Stock at all interior towns, 1,302,340. Same week last year, 1,321,008. Stock at Liverpool, 650,000. Same week last year, 769,000. American stock for Great Britain, 291,000. Last year, 299,000.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

VALUABLE LOTS FOR SALE.

On Monday, the 15th day of February, 1876, by virtue of a judgment of the Superior Court of Wake county, I will expose to public sale on the premises, these valuable lots in the northern part of the city of Raleigh, on Person street adjoining the lots of Mrs. Wm. G. Parker, Thomas Badger and others, containing about 2 1/2 acres; the lot of about one acre at the intersection of Peace and Person streets, adjoining lots of J. M. Beck and S. F. Mordecai, and several lots on the eastern side of Person street, lying north of Mrs. Ellen A. Ordeal's lot, and along said street as extended, all belonging to the estate of the late Henry Mordecai.

The lots will be sold in several parcels to suit purchasers, for one-third cash, remainder in 9 and 21 months, with interest.

Jan 8-1m MARTHA MORDECAI, Executor.

HALL OF THE M. C. ASSOCIATION, FAYETTEVILLE STREET.

Monday, Tuesday, Friday and Monday Evenings, January 10, 11, 14, and 17, at 8 o'clock, Prof. TRIPP'S Grand Descriptive Series.

France and Europe, since 1848.

Come. Tickets $1.50. Evening 50 cents. At the usual places and at the door. Jan 8, 10, 11, 14, 17.

NOTICE.

Application will be made at the office of the North Carolina Railroad Company in thirty days from date, for issue of a duplicate of Certificate No. 2318 dated February 14, 1874, for three shares of stock in said company, the original being lost or mislaid this 7th day of January, 1876.

KEMPP RATTLE, Adm. MRS. E. T. SMITH.

GATTIS & JONES' FEEDS FOR HORSE AND COW FOOD.

We take this method of informing the people of Raleigh and vicinity that we have formed a partnership for conducting this business, and hope by strict attention to business to merit a liberal share of patronage. We respectfully solicit all those in need of Meal,

Flour, Mill Feed, Bran, Corn, Peas, Oats, Hay, Fodder, Shucks, and all kinds of Horse and Cow Food to give us a call. We will not be undersold. GATTIS & JONES, Adams Building, Wilmington street.

W. A. GATTIS, J. A. JONES.

Orders for wood and coal received by J. A. Jones at same place. The third cargo of coal now arriving.

BUCKER HALL.

Two Evenings, Friday and Saturday, Jan. 7 & 8.

America's Favorite Artists! The Peerless Comedienne and Vocalist, MISS KATIE PUTNAM AND HER Unrivalled Comedy Company.

ALEX CALROUN, Manager. J. J. SULLIVAN, Director.

FRIDAY EVENING, the great Society Play, from Charlotte Bronte's celebrated novel, entitled, JANE EYRE, THE ORPHAN OF LOWOOD.

JANE EYRE with songs, Miss Katie Putnam.

SATURDAY EVENING, the beautiful Domestic Play, entitled THE LITTLE BAREFOOT!

Amry, the Little Barefoot—KATIE PUTNAM with original Songs & Dances.

Full Cast of Characters in Programmes. Prices as usual. Seats can be secured at Carner's Drug Store. Jan 8-6t.

COAL!