Nothing at the police court this morning.

A. W. Shaffer left this morning for New York.

Col. Jasper Stowe, of Gaston county, is in the city.

J. L. Turner, of Statesville, is at the Yarborough house.

The Royal Arch Chapter meets at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

Judge Seymour, of the 3d judicial district, is in the city.

The county board of commissioners meets the first Monday in next month.

By getting Zeigler's cigars you will not be deceived. All he asks is a trial.

J. J. WOLFENDEN & Co., dealers in grain. Corn a specialty. Newbern, N. C. 3m.

Nigger festivals have broken out afresh in our midst, and perfumery is cheap.

Hereafter there will be only one gas-light at each of the gates of the capitol square.

There was an alarm of fire in the 2d ward last night at 8 o'clock, caused by a burning chimney.

Cotton very dull. Middlings 12; deep stains 6½; light stains 10. No orders in the market.

Zeigler's Raleigh favorite cigar store is the place to get the best and the purest cigars in the city.

The finest stock of chewing and smoking tobacco, pipes, &c., at Zeigler's, next door to the Yarborough House.

Think of it, J. D. Whitaker offers good round wood delivered at $3.00 per cord, cash. You will find him in rear Citizens' National bank.

We hear that cow-thieves are troubling the good people of Little River. Two cases last week. We did not learn the names of the unfortunate parties.

Fannie Thompson, an African damsel, made her escape from jail this morning. She went into the yard to empty slops and made her exit through a hole in the sink.

The prize flag won by the Raleigh Light Infantry, at the Wilmington fair, reached this city at 11 o'clock this forenoon, and will be unfurled to-morrow when the company parades.

The members of the Wake bar want a special term to dispose of the civil docket, which was not touched during the recent term. An application for it will be laid before the governor.

Messrs. A. C. Sanders & Co. have for sale two good mules, one beautiful pony, one new buggy and one second-hand carriage, just repaired and painted, as good as new. Call on them at No. 2, Martin street, for a bargain.

There will be an important meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association this evening at 7 o'clock. Election of officers will take place, and matters of great importance will come before the meeting. Every member is urged to be present.

DR. COLUMBUS MILLS, the grand old boss granger of North Carolina, is in the city. He has recently returned from a three weeks cruise in Kentucky, where he had a glorious time. He speaks with special enthusiasm of our gallant, true and tried friend, Col. D. S. Hounshell, of Newport, whom he met during his trip. They were congenial souls, which is saying all that could be said in favor of each and both.

TOURNAMENT AND CORONATION BALL.—There is to be a tournament and coronation ball at Egypt, Chatham county, Thursday. The stick-poking comes off at 1 o'clock in the day and is to be followed in the evening by a grand ball. The affair is under the auspices of Messrs. L. A. Tysor, Chas. Conniber, J. L. Tysor, T. H. Seagraves and Thomas Harrington. The marshals appointed for the occasion are A. G. Roberson and C. E. Godwin. We return thanks for an invitation.

SUICIDE.—G. W. Lawrence, the excellent secretary of the state grange, who is in the city, furnishes us the particulars of a sad occurrence in Fayetteville. Williamson Whitehead, a worthy auctioneer and commission merchant of that venerable burg, last Friday night, shot himself with a pistol, the ball entering near the left temple, inflicting a wound from which he will die. Depression of spirits, resulting from gloomy business prospects, is the only assignable cause. He has a wife and three little children, who will be left in great distress by his death.

GRANGE MEETING.—The executive committee of the state grange met at the Yarbrough house at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. As our paper goes to press about the appointed hour of meeting, a more extended notice must be postponed until to-morrow. The executive committee is composed of G. Z. French, of New Hanover; Azariah Graves, of Caswell; A. T. Mial, of Wake. The officers of the state grange, Columbus Mills, grand master; G. W. Lawrence, of Cumberland, secretary; P. C. Carlton, of Iredell, treasurer; are present, and meet with the committee.

MERCANTILE INDICTMENTS.—At the last term of our superior court, Solicitor Harris indicted 253 merchants of this city and county for failure to take out licenses to do business. By coming up and paying about $10 costs, they can get out of the bobble. This little flank movement on the part of the solicitor, if it carries well, will put about $1,000 in clean, cool cash into his little breeches pocket. Verily, Logan will soon swell into millionairey proportions, if he keeps on striking breezes like this and the poll-tax business. Make hay while the sun shines, Logan, for you'll never get another whet.

CONCLUDING LECTURE. Professor Tripp delivered the concluding lecture of his course at the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association last evening, to a highly intelligent audience who manifested their appreciation by frequent applause. Besides the public course of four lectures, Prof. Tripp has delivered a full course of six lectures at St. Mary's college, a full course before the Peace institute, four lectures at the Baptist institute, and two at the insane asylum by invitation of Dr. Grissom. Prof. Tripp as we understand is contemplating a visit to several of the principal places in North Carolina until the middle of March, when he will proceed to Philadelphia where engagements to lecture await him for the rest of the season.

METHODIST CENTENNIAL.

GRAND JUBILATORY MASS MEETING TO BE HELD IN RALEIGH.

A hundred years ago, the 21st day of March, the advance-guard of Methodism planted its first banner on North Carolina soil, and the centennial anniversary of this momentous event in the religious history of our state is to be the occasion of a grand celebration. It will be a matter of national interest to one of the most powerful ecclesiastical organizations in the new world. Such an assemblage never was witnessed in Raleigh, as will muster around our capitol then. From near and from far, the hard-riding cavalry of Zion, the engineer corps, the sappers and miners, who prepare the way of the Lord and make straight his paths, through trackless wildernesses and desolate solitudes, will gather for a grand, glorious ovation of jubilation over the triumphs and progress of a century. Then, a feeble half-dozen raw recruits; now, a mighty, resistless host of 80,000 soldiers of the Cross, within our borders. Well may they celebrate. The Christian Advocate, a worthy organ of their growing cause, in its issue of to-day, publishes this circular letter from the committee of arrangements:

The committee are at work arranging programme and inviting speakers. These will be published in due time. We have just received a letter from Bishop H. N. McTyeire, D. D., in answer to an invitation from the committee of arrangements. We take the liberty of publishing an extract from his letter. The Bishop says: "I rejoice that you are all in earnest, and that North Carolina Methodists intend to have a centennial. Your programme seems to be well drawn and comprehensive. It will give me great pleasure to be with you and the brethren in March. Put me down for what I can do. It seems that you have done that already. Let the religious services be emphasized in the performance as in the bill."

Will the committee appointed by the last conference, to wit: Rev. Dr. Closs, Rev. R. O. Burton and Rev. Dr. Wilson, hurry up their appeal to the Methodists of North Carolina in reference to this centennial celebration? Let us hear from you at once.

Oh, for a grand rally of North Carolina Methodists from the Atlantic to the Tennessee line.

SUPREME COURT.—Court met to-day at 10 o'clock pursuant to adjournment. All the justices present. The argument commenced on yesterday, in the case of James Campbell et. al., vs. J. J. Wolfender et. al., from Craven, was concluded to-day.

Benjamin Bynum vs. George W. Barefoot, executor, from Wilson; argued. George Green and Alex. Justice for plaintiff and Smith & Strong and Kenan & Murray for defendant.

Webb & Rountree vs. W. M. Gay et. al., from Wilson; argued. George Green and F. A. Woodard for plaintiffs, and D. G. Fowle and Kenan & Murray for defendants.

S. T. Jones vs. E. B. Stanly, from Craven; continued. J. H. Haughton for plaintiff and R. F. Lehman for defendant.

Martha Evans vs. Robert Raper, from Wilson; argued. Kenan & Murray for plaintiff, and no counsel contra.

B. M. Isler vs. H. M. Dewey et. al., from Wilson; continued. Geo. Green and S. W. Isler for plaintiff and Smith & Strong for defendants.

Alex. Mitchell vs. Commissioners of Craven county; argued. Clarke & Roberts for plaintiff and R. F. Lehman for defendants.

Court adjourned until to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE.—Last evening a meeting of the leading Baptists of this city was held in the mission room of the Salisbury Street Baptist church, for the purpose of inaugurating measures for the permanent and sufficient endowment of Wake Forest college. Speeches were made by N. B. Broughton, Rev. Dr. Pritchard, Rev. C. E. Taylor, John Armstrong, W. W. Holden, J. M. Heck, W. H. Pace, J. S. Allen and others. A committee was appointed, consisting of Rev. Dr. Pritchard, Rev. C. E. Taylor and J. M. Heck, to mature plans of endowment which are to be laid before a mass meeting of Baptists to be held in the Salisbury Street church Thursday evening.

JUGGED.—This morning Isaac Slocum, African and republican, was jugged for stealing cabbages from a brother African and republican, one Virgil Hicks. He was caught in the patch and in default of a $100 bail-bond was dispatched to jail; and though Slocum, didn't come slow.

NEWS AND NOTES.

The Mississippi legislature is discussing a compulsory educational bill.

There has been a reduction of 5 per cent. in wages in the factories of Lowell.

Helder, a Philadelphia wife murderer, has been convicted of voluntary manslaughter.

The frigate Congress has arrived at Port Royal, S. C., and the Jawnita has sailed for St. Thomas.

Banks' amnesty bill excepts ex-President Jefferson Davis, though Banks himself will move to strike out the exception.

Yesterday morning the democratic caucus of the Kentucky legislature unanimously nominated Beck United States senator.

Monday night George Klinesteen, of New York, had a tussle with a burglar in his room, and received two dangerous stabs in the abdomen.

Yesterday Thurman presented to the U. S. senate the credentials of Jas. B. Eustis, claiming to be elected from Louisiana. Laid over.

The judiciary committee of the house of representatives have reported an amendment to the constitution limiting the presidential term to 4 years. The bill was made special order for to-morrow.

The Boston committee of ladies and gentlemen yesterday presented to the Norfolk Light Artillery Blues, who participated in the Bunker Hill centennial, the white banner of peace and other mementoes. The committee were welcomed to Norfolk by the mayor, J. B. Whitehead. Dr. Robt. White was chairman of the committee.

Returns show that the French conservatives have elected a majority of their senatorial delegates in a number of departments. Returns from 40 departments show that the conservatives have carried 40; republicans 30, leaving 6 in doubt. But few legitimatists or orleanists are elected, the prevailing element is supposed to be Bonapartists.

A WORD WITH THE GRANGE.

You have some lawyers among you, and bob-tails at that. They know no more about farming than Jordan Stone. Having in early life done all manner of work on a farm, and made one trip to Petersburg with a wagon, if any lawyer or editor is taken in we have claims before the bob-tails or ring editors, who don't know how to husk corn. We say to Dr. Mills, Col. Stowe, Azariah Graves, G. W. Lawrence, A. T. Mial and W. B. Saunders, let ring editors and bob tail lawyers go out of the grange, and let the grange move with us upon the organized rings and rogues who are robbing the state.

POETRY.

BY JOSIAH TURNER.

Jordan flowed over the ridge,
With anger in his mind;
He left his darling Woodson,
And all the railroad ring behind.

He's gone to work the Citizen,
Beneath Bald Mountain's shade,
He's gone to strengthen Robert,
Whose paper bill's not paid.

When he left his darling Woodson,
"Sugar Lips" and all the rest,
He said the News is united,
All because I go west.

But when I do reach Asheville,
I'll make old Bald quake,
For if they fail to pay me,
I bet that ring will shake.

I'll let out all their secrets,
Show all their money traps,
And then if they don't pay me,
I'll see that something drops.

They'll find when I'm gone, Woodson,
And left the last Rose on the tree,
They'll find they've lost their backbone,
Their everything to me.

Be sure I did not promptly pay the hands,
But then I cooked their hash,
No matter if their bonds were due,
And all their stock but trash.

I hate to leave my office,
With my carpet and soft chairs,
Just because that liar Turner
Chose to put on honest airs.

I believe he has a telegraph,
Direct from the devil;
He finds out every thing we do,
But only tells the evil.

Good-bye, dear John and Woodson,
"Sugar Lips" and all the rest;
I would not hate to go so bad
But Turner——going west.

There is an educated tramp circulating in the western part of the state. He is full of Shakespeare and the scriptures.

Harve Perkins, the Cleaveland county nigger who recently attempted the murder of W. A. Coggin, has died to parts unknown.

Friday morning the body of a white man was drawn from the Cape Fear river at Wilmington. The letters W. A. W. were found on the shirt, and marks of a severe blow on the forehead. The question is, murder or no murder.

Copying the Sentinel's suggestions of names more in keeping with its expansion of dimensions and dignity, the Newbern Nutshell, of Jan. 17, says: "While we heartily thank friend Donan for his pleasing notice of our 'Sharyvarry,' as one of our Newbernites calls it, we must decline to accept his suggestions, as we are opposed to 'pumpkin-heads' and think watermelon-rinds would be too suggestive of a hoggishness we disclaim in our make-up. However, when we enlarge twenty or thirty times more, we will drop the 'Shell,' feeling confident it will not be large enough to hold the 'Nut.'"

Try it, for it never disappoints. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Per bottle, 25 cents; large size, 50 cents.
