A FEW WORDS TO FEEBLE AND DELICATE WOMEN.

By E. V. FERRIS, M. D., of the World's Dispensary, Buffalo, N. Y., Author of "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," etc., etc. Knowing that you are subject to a great amount of suffering, that delicacy on your part has a strong tendency to prolong it, and the longer it is neglected the more you have to endure and the more difficult of cure your case becomes, I, as a physician, who am daily consulted by scores of your sex, desire to say to you, that I am constantly meeting with those who have been treated for their ailments for months without being benefited in the least, until they have become perfectly discouraged, and have almost made up their mind never to take another dose of medicine, or be tortured by any further treatment. They had rather die and have their sufferings ended than to live and suffer as they have. They say they are worn out by suffering, and are only made worse by treatment. Of any thing more discouraging, we certainly cannot conceive, and were there no more successful mode of treating such difficulties than that, the principles of which teach the reducing and depleting of the vital forces of the system, when the indications dictate a treatment directly the reverse of the one adopted for them, their case would be deplorable indeed. But, lady, sufferers, there is a better and far more successful plan of treatment for you; one more in harmony with the laws and requirements of your system. A harsh, irritating caustic treatment, and strong medicines, will never cure you. If you would use rational means, such as common-sense should dictate to every intelligent lady, take such medicines as embody the very best invigorating tonics and nervines compounded with special reference to your delicate system. Such a happy combination you will find in my Favorite Prescription, which has received the highest praise from thousands of your sex. Those languid, tiresome sensations, causing you to feel scarcely able to be on your feet or ascend a flight of stairs; that continual drain that is sapping from your system all your former elasticity, and driving the bloom from your cheeks; that continual strain upon your vital forces that renders you irritable and fretful,—may all be overcome and subdued by a persevering use of that marvelous remedy. Irregularities and obstructions to the proper working of your system are relieved by this mild and safe means, while periodical pains, the existence of which is a sure indication of serious disease that should not be neglected, readily yield to it, and if its use be kept up for a reasonable length of time, the special cause of these pains is permanently removed. Further light on these subjects may be obtained from "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," in which I have devoted a large space to the consideration of all forms of diseases peculiar to your sex. This work will be sent (post-paid) to any address on receipt of $1.50. My Favorite Prescription is sold by druggists.

GRAPE-VINE TELEGRAM.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE. Yankton, Dakota, Jan. 19, 1876. DR. BLACKNALL: There was error in my statement about your account with the Sentinel office. Old Jo. will correct it for me when he has all the facts to reply to your card, Doctor, you should have remained silent, and remembered the scripture saying, "Oh that mine enemy would write a card or letter; see Holden writing to Blaine. It is not the book but the writing, doctor, that does the mischief. Holden no doubt thought it was the book instead of the writing, and hence his blunder. There are many people, doctor, who can't read the scriptures understandingly.

Your disregard of the "glass house" proverb involved you in a serious difficulty. How do you expect Turner to pay you money if he holds your paper for double what he owes you? I repeat, make Robert draw on you and you draw on Turner in favor of the widow Happer, and settle the whole thing in a decent private way. Never mind if you did take the bankrupt act on the widow, every honest man who has taken the bankrupt act is bound to pay the old debt as it stands. In morals the debt is as much binding as ever. When you are able to pay $1,800 for Bob and $500 in stock in the News you can, could and should have paid it all to Mrs. Happer. How will you get out when old Jo. proves you were a stockholder, "so-called," in the News from the beginning? I believe old Jo. is happy in your card and Holden's letter. Who is your editor now, Woodson or Stone or Uzzell or Hears or who? He writes like he had no stock in the paper. I thought I could tell a man's character by his writing, but I missed it in Donan's case. I thought from his writing he cussed, drank, smoked and chewed and wore patched clothes. Imagine my astonishment when I heard away in Yankton that he did not cuss, chew, smoke, or drink and was a member of the church.

This is so long I had as well make it a letter as a telegram.

Yours, PENNINGTON, Governor of Dakota. By TURNER.

POETICAL TELEGRAM.

FROM A STO. KROLDER TO ROBERT FURMAN. "Old Jo.'s kicking up behind and before," And slugging as he kicks: "Goodbye pets, goodbye Bobs, Jordan's bound to leave you; Goodbye pets, goodbye Bobs, Don't let his parting grieve you. Goodbye Woodson, goodbye Stone, Goodbye Bill Uzzell, W. He the Chatham road exchanged, We cut a mighty swell." Sang to the tune of "Julia Ann don't you cry."

JOSIAH TURNER.

THINK OF IT.—Mr. J. D. Whitaker offers good wood's pine wood delivered for $5.00 per cord. You can find him in rear of Citizen's National bank.

SPECIAL SERMON.—Rev. Charles E. Taylor will fill the pulpit of Swain Street Baptist church to-morrow at 11 o'clock. He will, by special request, repeat the able and excellent sermon delivered in Salisbury Street church last Sunday.

Roway.—They had a breezy old time of it at the court-house meeting, last evening, of the Mechanics' Building and Loan Association. Ugly words flew thick and fast, as when two wrathful washerwomen clinch over a dirty shirt, or two congressmen over a bloody one. Fierce imputations of being "no such a thing," were met by vigorous "you're another's." And, for a time, confusion thrice confounded cavorted around on a stilled steed. No coroner's investigations were rendered necessary, but the financial compromise submitted by the committee was rejected.

GOOD OUT OF NAZARETH.—We have always and utterly repudiated the claim of the New York World to be, in any sense, regarded as a democratic organ. Controlled by gold-gamblers and bond-holding pirates, and edited by a bitter and malignant sugar-coated radical and original abolitionist, the thing is preposterously, absurdly impossible. It never draws democratic breath. Not one drop of democratic blood ever pulsated in its veins, or one drop of democratic ink in its columns. And yet, it's a good newspaper; and the World Almanac, which it has just issued, is all it could be—a complete compendium of American political information.

SUPREME COURT. Court met at 10 o'clock this morning pursuant to adjournment, all the justices present.

George R. Troxter vs. Richmond & Danville railroad company, from Guilford. Argued by Dillard & Gilmer for plaintiff and J. T. Morehead, Jr., for defendant.

William Pugh vs. Leander York, from Randolph. Argued by Scott & Caldwell for plaintiff and Mendenhall & Staples, and Fongee & Gregory for defendants.

M. C. Dixon vs. Richmond & Danville railroad company, from Guilford. Argued by Mendenhall & Staples for plaintiff and J. T. Morehead, Jr., for defendant.

Court adjourned until 10 o'clock, Monday.

Y. M. C. A. AND ITS WORK.—The executive committee of the Young Men's Christian Association have had under consideration the revision of the city districts and the appointment of distributors, with a view to more readily and conveniently supplying the needs of the poor. The collecting committee, appointed by the association, have been, and are still, making strenuous efforts to raise funds for the purchase of wood and rations sufficient to relieve the wants of all actually suffering. It is needless to say that the charities of this association are wisely and judiciously dispensed. The perfect system under which the organization prosecutes its work prevents anything like imposition on the part of the unworthy. W. S. Primrose, of the State National bank, is treasurer of the association, and any of our citizens on whom the committee have not called for funds can leave their contributions with him.

EPISCOPAL CONVOCATION.—Last evening, at 7:30 o'clock, the church of the Good Shepherd was filled to overflowing. An interesting paper on the parochial system was read by Rev. A. A. Denton, which was followed by a discussion on the advantages and disadvantages of the system, participated in by Bishop Lyman, Rev. Charles Curtis and others.

This morning a large congregation attended the convocation. Services were opened with the morning prayer and closed with a sermon by Rev. J. P. Curran, of Warrenton, in the absence of Rev. M. H. Vaughn, of Loulbourg.

This evening papers on the offertory system will be read by Revs. A. S. Smith and J. E. C. Smedes, and the matter discussed as to its connection with worship and as to its systematic and generous practice.

To-morrow morning Bishop Lyman will preach the sermon and communion will be celebrated. In the evening at 7:30 o'clock, a missionary meeting will be held, and a paper on "The love of Christ the true and only efficient cause of mission work," will be read by Rev. J. C. Huske, of Fayetteville. The discussion that is to follow will be confined to thoughts and ideas suggested by the paper.

Married and yet unhappy. How many a home has been robbed of sunshine and happiness and rendered sad and desolate by the loss of some dear and petted child. This is a dangerous season for children, and parents should keep Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup handy.

Deal, conductor; A. L. Woodall, assistant conductor; James Joss, inside sentinel. There was one initiation and several applications for membership. The council is in a flourishing condition.

FINE CANDY.—In two of the sweetest articles in creation, Raleigh's home manufacture can't be beat—her girls and her candy. The girls—God bless them!—speak for themselves. And one who has tasted all the famous candies of the country—Oake's, of St. Louis, Maillard, of New York, and Taylor, of Philadelphia—says he has never found more delicate caramels anywhere than those made by Bradley & Leonard in our city. All the styles of plain and fancy candies manufactured fresh every day. Give them a call.
