

The papers report a financial crisis at Paris, Kentucky. The bottom has dropped clear out, and some of the most solid business men have been closed up.

Among the New York lawyers it is said that David Dudley Field's income is $375,000; Samuel G. Conroy's, $300,000; Brown, Hall & Vanderpool's, $240,000; E. A. Senghron's, $180,000, and William M. Ewart's, $130,000.

Governor Swain at the university used to tell of the largest fee received at the bar in North Carolina. We have forgotten whether it was $1,500 or 2,500.

CRIME ON THE INCREASE.

The New York World says in the past five years there have been only 231 cases of homicide in the moral city of New York, and only 31 of the murders were convicted.

QUALIFIED.

Judge Whipper, the man whom Gov. Chamberlain refuses to commission as judge, has shown himself little qualified for the place.

was presented by the grand jury and the judge pocketed the presentment on the bench. Of another distinguished judge who won $50,000. Of another judge who tried to make low count out before Jack when his adversary had turned Jack.

DEPENDING THE BLAINE LETTER.

Oxford, Jan. 20th, 1876.

MR. EDITOR: I have heard you often say you seldom read republican papers. If you will read the last Em I think you will find the smooth style of Governor Holden in labored and repeated efforts smiling ex-President Davis.

us in that body, I see no necessity for departing from the precedent, although our state elections have been postponed to November.

MIXED PICKINGS AND STEALINGS.

Mrs. Anderson, the widow of a soldier, has been elected enrolling clerk of the Kansas legislature.

Judgment has been rendered in New York against the defunct firm of Hoyt, Sprague & Co., for $156,746.87, at the suit of J. S. Morgan & Co.

Another of Mr. Blaine's friends heard from it in Moses, poor, persecuted Moses, of South Carolina, who raised the Palmetto flag over Fort Sumter.

Gen. Robert Patterson, of Philadelphia, has been selected as orator for the Mexican veterans, who will celebrate the centennial at Philadelphia, the 4th of July.

The women of Henry, Ill., where the notorious Glenshawing is now preaching, say he talks so sweet and looks so guileless they don't see how folks can say he's guilty.

The Russians are about to establish a university in Siberia, which will make the eighth in that empire. It is to be at Tomak, and is to have faculties of law and medicine only.

Sir Peter Tait, the great English army clothing contractor, who supplied the Confederates during the war in this country, has been compelled to close his factory for want of orders.

Col. W. S. Oudry, who was assassinated in St. Landry parish, La., a few days since, was elected democratic senator in 1868, and was in New Orleans as a member of the democratic convention a few weeks ago.

Herr Krupp, the great German gun-maker, is at work on a steel 150 ton gun of forty-six centimetres, or about eighteen and one half inches calibre.

Several of the old historic Pilgrim names are not now represented in Plymouth. There is no family in town bearing the name of Cushman or Alden or Winslow or Alliston or Prince, and but one of the name of Brewster.

The London correspondent of the New York Tribune says Schenck is to be prosecuted along with the original directors of the Emma Mine company. Well! what the Perfect Poker Player don't know about "suits" isn't worth knowing.

It is announced that the investigation of the accounts of the late treasurer of Dartmouth college, Daniel Blaisdell, shows that at the time of his death he was a defaulter to the college in the sum $35,000, and it is doubtful whether his estate can make up so large a deficit.

The Maguoheta, Wis., authorities have adopted a very simple but effective method of regulating the liquor saloons. They have passed an ordinance prohibiting the use of blinds, screens, stained glass, or anything that hinders observation through the windows.

A number of the grape growers of the Gronde, in France, have sent to the United States for slips of the Concord and other American varieties of grapes, as the native vines have of late years, in many portions of the department, been greatly injured by the ravages of the phylloxera.

The greenback people of Wisconsin held a convention in Madison on the 18th instant, and resolved that a new party must be formed if neither of the old ones declines in favor of soft money. They numbered about forty, and none of the representative men of either of the two great parties participated in the proceedings.

Marshall Soule, once showing the picture he stole in Spain, stopped before one and remarked: "I will give you five cents; it saved the lives of two estimable persons." An aid-de-camp whispered in the listener's ear: "He threatened to have them both shot immediately unless they gave it up."

The London Graphic proposes to send a corps of ten artists to the centennial exposition to take illustrations for that paper during the summer. It is announced that Mr. Russell will leave India in March and proceed to Philadelphia for the purpose of writing up the opening ceremony for the London Times.

Senator Sargent has introduced a nice little bill into congress, which provides, among other things, that the heretofore stamp for stockholders, for the establishment of a new postal telegraph system. The government is not to own or control the lines, but it is to furnish the operators, as it were, in the persons of its postmasters.

One of the loveliest islands of the east has just suffered a tremendous misfortune. An enormous landslide of earth and rocks occurred near St. Denis, in the island of Reunion, over an extent of two kilometers, which buried no fewer than sixty-two persons under a mass of ruin fifty metres in depth, and of course destroyed everything within its range.

While we are having a snowless winter, the south of Europe has had an experience of the other extreme. On the 10th instant there was snow a foot deep in Madrid, a circumstance almost unprecedented. At the same date the town of Mende, in the department of Lozere, France, was completely surrounded by it, and all access cut off for three days.

The police of Kingston, Jamaica, are said to have gone wild in their search for the runaway "Boss" Tweed, of whom they have descriptive accounts, and photographs attached, with promises of a large reward. Every American who happens to arrive there is suspected and followed whether he bears a very remote resemblance or not. Two or three persons have already been arrested on suspicion of being the missing man, but on being examined were released.

W-daily illustrates the difference between the social temperaments and tastes of England and of France that, while the English commander-in-chief, the Duke of Cambridge, has just sentenced an English officer, as a chastisement for some offense, to wear his uniform at all times when he appears in public for one calendar year, the French Minister of War, General De Cissey, has just been obliged to issue an order forbidding officers of the new territorial army of France from wearing their uniform in public unless upon ceremonial occasions, or when on duty.

A FEW WORDS TO FEEBLE AND DELICATE WOMEN.

By R. V. PIERCE, M. D., of the World's Dispensary, Buffalo, N. Y., Author of "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," etc., etc.

Knowing that you are subject to a great amount of suffering, that delicacy on your part has a strong tendency to prolong it, and the longer it is neglected the more you have to endure and the more difficult of cure your case becomes.

It is announced that the investigation of the accounts of the late treasurer of Dartmouth college, Daniel Blaisdell, shows that at the time of his death he was a defaulter to the college in the sum $35,000, and it is doubtful whether his estate can make up so large a deficit.
