THE CITY.

Judge S. W. Watts is in the city.

What has become of the graded school movement?

Three more marriages are reported on the tapis.

Road overseers should be looked after and spurred up to their work.

The board of county commissioners meet in this city next Monday.

J. J. WOLFENDEN & Co., dealers in grain. Corn a specialty. Newbern, N. C. 3in.

W. P. Caldwell, of Greensboro, is in the city in attendance upon the supreme court.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of aldermen takes place Friday evening.

Cotton market quiet. Middlings 12¼; good ordinary 11; clear stains 10; deep stains 8.

This city needs a chain-gang for the benefit of the chronic cases at the police court.

The absence of Col. Donan, editor of this paper, explains the difficiencies of the past week.

"Two Orphans" is soon to be rendered in this city by a first-class New York company.

Manteo lodge, No. 8, will meet this evening at 7 o'clock. Visiting brethren are invited to attend.

There is to be a hop at Mrs. Slater's dancing hall, over Allcott's store, Fayetteville street, Thursday evening.

Woods' pine at $3.50; seasoned oak at $4.00; field pine at $3.00. Call on J. D. Whitaker near Citizens Bank for supplies.

The editor of the Friend of Temperance is distressed because he don't know the policemen in their smart, new uniforms.

The lower portion of Fayetteville street is redolent with the fragrance of commercial fertilizers. Some people seem to like it.

We are glad to see that the bridge on the Holleman road, a short distance southeast of this city, has been repaired. It sadly needed it.

A number of workmen have been discharged from the government building, and others put on in their stead. Politics are made the test, not mechanical skill.

A countryman late yesterday afternoon lost a pocket-book, containing $860, on Hargett street, but was fortunate enough to find it just when it had been dropped.

"E. H. Poteat & Co. will have their first grand special sale of Leaf Tobacco at Webb's Warehouse" Hillsboro, on the 8th and 9th of February. They claim that Hillsboro is at present the best market for all grades. d9t.

J. M. Heiskell, representing Bigelow & Co., varnish manufacturers, Newark, N. J., is in the city. Mr. H. represents an old and reliable house, and those who wish articles in his line will do well to consult him.

We again call the attention of the Memorial Society to the condition of the head-boards to the soldiers' graves in the Confederate cemetery. Many of them have rotted down, and on most of them the inscriptions are becoming so faint as to be scarcely legible.

That veteran teacher, J. M. Lovejoy, has opened his school with over 70 pupils, with a prospect of reaching 100 before the middle of the session. He is assisted by his son, Mr. R. W. Lovejoy, who is an excellent teacher, being a thorough "chip of the old block."

Our street lamps are being fixed to blaze with astral oil. When oil gets beyond the means of the city treasury, we suppose the advice of the Raleigh Gas Light Company will be followed, and lightwood-knots will dispel the nocturnal darkness of the city. In this city the wealth of the average inhabitant is estimated by illumination—the rich burn gas; those in medium circumstances use oil, while the poor have their choice between tallow candles, lightwood-knots and outer darkness.

PROTRACTED MEETING.—Last night a protracted meeting commenced at the Salisbury Street Baptist church. Rev. Dr. Thomas, of Norfolk, Va., preached. The meeting will be continued through the week. Dr. Thomas left for home this morning, being summoned there by a telegram requesting him to officiate at the funeral of one of the prominent members of his congregation. He will, however, return in a few days.

VOL. XXI. RALEIGH, N. C. TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1876. No. 139

WHICH PAPER.—Mr. L. Dabney, of Norwood postoffice, Stanly county, sends $5 for the Sentinel, but fails to mention whether he wants a daily, semi-weekly or weekly. We start him the semi-weekly until further heard from.

FACETIÆ.—This individual aired himself last evening at Tucker hall in the role of a prestigiator and a lavish giver away of sundry elegant gifts. As usual in this city, with much clap-trap concerns, the house was crowded with people who fancy being humbugged when it is cheaply done—they don't mind investing 25 cents in it occasionally. The only square thing about the concern was in the announcement of the performer that he was the "prince of humbugs." His gifts were fraudulent few-and-far-betweens, and the few exhibitions of legerdemain came into vogue long before the flood.

ANCIENT.—Seeing an old man, with lean, trembling limbs, going into the court-house, we asked his age and township. He said he was 92. "Did you see Lafayette when he was here?" "Oh, yes; I came to town to see him." We promised to call at the court-house and interview the old gentleman, but when we did he had gone, and we are without his name. While writing this, Mr George Norwood came in to renew his subscription to the Sentinel, and he told all he knew about old people in Wake. Edward Chapel is 88 and a constant reader of the Sentinel; John K. Moore is 99; Mrs. Fowler, on Crabtree, is 92; John Hunter, colored, is 110; an old colored woman, at Rolesville, is 111. Mr. Norwood says Peter Norwood, a colored man of his acquaintance, had 42 children and four wives.

SUPREME COURT. The court met this morning at 10 o'clock, all the justices present. The following cases were disposed of:

Vandiver Teague vs. W. S. & Moses Teague, executors, from Alexander. Argued by M. L. McCorkle for state and R. F. Armfield and Johnstone Jones for defendants.

E. O. Elliott vs. E. J. Robards et. al., from Catawba. Argued by R. F. Armfield, Johnstone Jones and W P. Caldwell for plaintiff and M. L. McCorkle for defendants.

State vs. Leander Cruse, from Iredell, (2 cases, numbers 210 and 211.) The first case was argued by Attorney-General Hargrove for state and Scott & Caldwell for defendants. In the second case the appeal was dismissed on motion of Attorney-General Hargrove.

William Clark vs. D. M. Wagner et. al., from Iredell. Argued by M. L. McCorkle, Johnstone Jones and R. F. Armfield for plaintiff and Scott & Caldwell contra.

Court adjourned until to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

MEETING OF THE STATE DEMOCRATIC-CONSERVATIVE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

ROOMS OF THE DEM. CON. EX. COM.,
RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 29, 1876.

At a meeting of the Central Executive Committee of the Democratic-Conservative party this day held, it was resolved that a meeting of the State Executive Committee be called to assemble in the city of Raleigh on Wednesday, the 15th day of March, 1876. The object of the meeting is to decide upon the time and place of holding the State Convention of the Democratic-Conservative party and to consider such other matters before the Committee.

Each member of the Committee is earnestly requested to be present.

W. R. COX, CH'M.
J. J. LITCHFORD, Sec'ty.

THE METHODIST CENTENNIAL.

ADDRESS OF THE COMMITTEE.

The committee appointed at the recent conference at Wilmington to issue an address to the Methodists of the state in regard to the centennial celebration in this city, March 21, 1876, consisting of Revs, R. O. Burton, Wm. Closs and N. H. D. Wilson, have fulfilled that duty, and publish their address in the Christian Advocate. We should like to publish it in full, but find it too lengthy to give more than an extract:

* * * * * *

We can but believe that the members and friends of the Methodist family, numbering about 80,000 in the state as embraced in the North Carolina, Virginia and Holston conferences, are ready to commemorate this great event of Divine providence by offering praise and thanksgiving to God, through Jesus Christ our Lord, for the countless blessings flowing from this form of religion, as expressed in the doctrines and usages of Methodism. The memory and recollection of great events in individual, social, national and religious history have happily and deeply affected men in all ages. When we stand at the mausoleum of the great and good who have passed away, and left us a legacy of wealth of character and influence, how sadly, and yet how fondly, does memory travel over the past and gather the flowers that regale and the fruits which feast the soul as their bright deeds shine on their pathway from manhood to the tomb!

* * * * * *

On the 21st of March next, at Raleigh, we propose to hold a mass meeting beginning on that, the centennial day—and, with adoring gratitude to God, recount his goodness to us as a people. We invite and urge you to attend, or send from the different charges, some representatives. We urge you to honor the occasion. Show that the spirit of consecration still lives and that the spirit of self-denial abides with you in pristine vigor. Unite with your bishops and ministers and laity and speak of what God has wrought. We urge farther on you the celebration of this event everywhere in the state under the guidance of your pastors, and that you lay as a thank offering on the altar of thanksgiving the amounts asked by conference.

Finally, allow us to exhort you to consider how ardently our great founder, John Wesley, loved learning, and how much you are indebted to it for the influence God has given you. We hope the review you will take of the past century will greatly animate your hopes, enlarge your hearts, and deepen your humility, enliven your zeal and increase your efficiency. May the God of grace bless you, and "make you a thousand times so many as you be."

SUPREME COURT.—The following opinions were filed by the justices on yesterday:

BY PEARSON, C. J.

THE BEST FERTILIZERS IN USE.

The Star Ammoniated
SOLUBLE PHOSPHATE

Mape's Nitrogenized
SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

We have found by several years experience in selling the above Fertilizers, as well as by actual observation, that they have no superior, if any equal among Commercial Manures. Our prices are much lower than others, not so universally popular, and that have proven unequal in results, upon sworn statements from many of our best farmers. All we ask is a fair trial with anything sold in the South. We refer to the following gentlemen of large experience, who have used our Phosphates for several years:

R. IVEY, Wake County.
