

The Boston Traveller, which plays "I" spelling its own name, thinks we have too many "talented men," and not one statesman.

Marcus Erwin is going to begin the publication of a radical paper at Asheville. That's enough to make not only his own but any respectable Mar-cus Erwin.

The liabilities of the bankrupt carpet-bag senator, Dancy, of Arkansas, are $168,000. His liabilities in the Ku-klux and rebel outrage line of lynx have been still greater.

Winslow, Boston's revered $200,000 forger and embezzler, was once business manager of Elm's Herald, of which Bishop Gil Haven was editor. Feudalistic birds of a feather.

The dispatches report a decisive battle imminent in Spain. We shall gladly chronicle it, let the decision be what it may. The eternal reports of squad skirmishes, hen-roost captures and corn-cob pillaging, have wasted all creation. Let them kill each other off at once and be done with it, and make room for a newer and better race.

The Richmond Enquirer shows a wicked lack of appreciation of Virginia's legislative solons (not Solons) when it remarks that "a general assembly which persists in doing nothing, not even adjourning, resembles nothing so much as an inexperienced female duck spending her first season on an added egg."

The monstrous thievery of the last fifteen years of governmental brigandage and national nightmare, is simply overwhelming to the common mind. The democratic house committee on the post-office department has just stumbled on a deficit of over $1,000,000 in one year's accounts of the sixth an ditor, McGrew. When called on to explain, he replied that he was "too sick to ome." Haul out the villains, sick or well, dead or alive. If the country has to take advantage of a universal national, state, county, municipal and individual bankrupt act, let it at least have the satisfaction of hanging the pirates who have wrought its ruin.

Hancock, of Texas, says McClure's independent Philadelphia Times, want to have the treasury accumulate $100,000,000 in gold by the first of March next, and apply it forthwith to the retirement of a like amount of greenbacks, $60,000,000 of which he would destroy as soon as redeemed, and $40,000,000 of which he would retain as a reserve. He thinks that in this way greenbacks could be brought to par, and the resumption act be made a dead letter by next June. That would be excellent, barring, of course, the inevitable panic which the sudden contraction would cause; but how would Mr. Hancock get that amount of gold in so short a time? Bristow, who is hard-money to the bone, finds this a serious question. Has Hancock thought of it?

THE WHISKY-RINGERS.

We really begin to believe that God has not utterly forgotten this country. Faint glimmerings of truth and justice begin to illumine the darkness that we had thought eternal. A villain, even though an official one, may yet be punished; and there is still room to hope that the most exalted scoundrel of all may not escape. The war on the gigantic thieves of the whisky-ring which, originating in the White Horse and the Capital, has permeated every hook and corner of the continent with piracy and fraud, is going on with a vigor that is carrying wild condemnation to Washington headquarters. Joyce, McDonald and Avery have already gone to the Missouri penitentiary. McKee, proprietor of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, the great double-header Grant organ of the Trans-Mississippi region, has been convicted, and will speedily play checkers with his nose behind a cross-hatched window grate. In the United States circuit court at Indianapolis, last Tuesday, Judge Graham swept this grand batch of loyal plunderers from the official places they have defiled, and consigned them to a turkey's care: Phillip C. Eberwine, George T. Simonson, David M. Lewis, Harrison Miller, William Mumford, Hiram B. Snyder, Alfred M. McGuff, Jun. E. Phillips, each to two years in the Southern Indiana penitentiary and to pay a fine of $1,000; James K. Hill, three years in the penitentiary and to pay a fine of $1,000; Thomas Robb, one year in the Gibson county jail and to pay a fine of $1,000; Henry Jacques, Christopher Cocconen, John F. Crisp and Dennis Reilly, each six months in the Gibson county jail and to pay a fine of $500; George Hagler, six months in the Vanderburg county jail and to pay a fine of $500. The passing of sentence upon J. W. Blighan has been postponed for a few weeks longer. Several of the prisoners, before sentence was passed, pleaded their honorable wounds and faithful service in the army and various other reasons in mitigation.

WAR RECORDS.

Secretary of War Belknap, having been unshaken as to his political aspirations, has now turned his attention to historic subjects. He has just addressed a long letter to our friend, Dr. J. William Jones, secretary of the Southern Historical Society, at Richmond, in which he says that the fact has been made known to him of the existence in different sections of the country of many records relating to the late war, and that it would be practicable for the war department to secure those for use in connection with the publication of the war records now on hand. He has learned, he says, that an impression prevails that a disposition exists on the part of the administration to make a distinction between the confederate and the federal archives as regards the thoroughness of their completion; but he gives assurance that the department has no thought whatever of discriminating in favor of one section as against the other, the only object being to place on record in an official form for the use of historians and others interested all the data in its possession on the subject. The statement is further made that all official documents pertaining to the war sent to the secretary of war will be copied and returned to the owner, if accompanied with such a request.

THE SENTINEL AND THE SITUATION.

The price of the Weekly Sentinel has been reduced to $2 a year. To railroads and corporations, after attempting to bribe, have with a few of their pet lawyers at the center sought to break down the Sentinel for three years past. President Hawkins and President Bedford, democrats so-called, have furnished money and free passes to the editors and lawyers. The rings and corporations furnish the money for cheap papers. They will be re-im-bursed when they sell out the state's interest in four railroads as they did the Wilmington, Charlotte & Bethel road. The pet lawyers are to have the offices and honors of the state and big fees from the roads. The only offense the Sentinel has given is that it would not join in schemes to plunder the state, and would not sell out to the plunderers for $20,000 and a seat in congress to the editor, as offered by the ring through Dr. Blacknall, stockholder in the Raleigh News. Pay up your old scores for the Sentinel and send us new subscribers and we will yet whip out the rings and railroad corporations, including the Yarbrough house and Chatham wing of the party. TURNER.

MIXED PICKLES AND STEALING.

In Illinois they hang poets, and in Missouri they send them to the penitentiary. "John, if you're going to be out till two o'clock to-night you'll have to stay at home and let yourself in, for I won't."

LETTER SUPPOSED.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, YANKTON, DAKOTA, Jan. 28, 1876. MY DEAR DOCTOR IN STOCK: As Judge Watts said about Turner "tamporing" with the foreman of the grand jury, Peterson Dunn, "I am pained to see" the Yarbrough house and Chatham railroad wing of the party in fresh difficulties. What could have possessed you to write a card to the public, that could do Turner no harm and yourself no good. You say Turner owes you money. Turner says you owe him, and he is ready to pay any difference between you and Mrs. Happer to whom you are indebted. You caused your organ, the Asheville Citizen, to publish that Turner was in your debt, and it involved Furman, the editor, in trouble for no owed Turner.

THE RALEIGH NEWS.

This is the cheapest paper in the state. The money to establish it was furnished by stockholders in the Chatham railroad, which corporation bribed Littlefield, who bribed Cuffee Mayo's convention of 1868 to give $2,000,000 to the road, and to give the locks and dams of Deep river to the road, and the road to give them to Heck, Hawkins, Littlefield and Swenson. Further, the Chatham road was allowed by the same carpet-bag convention of 1868 to exchange bonds on their face payable in Confederate money for good bonds of the company. The Raleigh News and Hillsboro Recorder are the only papers in the state defending this fraud. JOSEPH TURNER.

RUBBER AND CAPSICINE.

There is scarcely a branch of human industry in which India rubber has not in some form found its way. Although widely known and used, but few are aware of its medicinal virtues and great curative properties. Practical experiment has proven that it is a natural reservoir of electricity, containing more than any known substance or compound. Owing to this fact it has been used with success in curing nervous complaints and rheumatism that were invulnerable to drugs.

The most effective way of using the article is in the form of a perineural plaster. The extensive use of ordinary perforated or porous plaster, is a testimony to its merit.

The only objection ever found with the ordinary Rubber Porus Plaster is that it acts too slowly—requiring days and continuous wear to relieve pain or effect a cure.

A celebrated physician of New York, who has long made the medical properties of rubber a study has succeeded in making a great improvement in Porus Plasters by introducing Capsicine, which overcomes all the former objections, causing the plaster to do in a few moments or hours, that which it formerly required days or weeks.

Capsicine is the most valuable ingredient ever used as an external remedy. It operates with astonishing vigor and relieves pain immediately. Its curative properties have become so famous that an enterprising firm in New York, took it in hand, and by bringing Capsicine Plasters to the attention of physicians, have met with unprecedented success.

The article is known as Benson's Capsicine Plaster. The price is the same as the ordinary Porus Plaster, 25 cents. Every Druggist has them.
