THE RALEIGH SENTINEL.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

1st Amendment: That section 4, of article 9, be substituted out and two new sections be substituted. The section to be stricken out is in regard to lands given to the state by congress and the appropriation of fines, penalties, &c. The section to be substituted gives all lands or proceeds of lands, given by the United States to the state, to educational purposes; and all swamp lands, fine, &c., are to be used for purposes of education.

2d Amendment: That section 17, article 3, and substitute a section providing for the establishment of a bureau of agriculture, immigration and statistics, and the protection of sheep husbandry.

3d Amendment: That section 25, of article 1, that "secret political societies are dangerous to the liberties of a free people and should not be tolerated."

4th Amendment: Section 10, article 3, by providing that the governor, with the advice of the senate, shall appoint all officers whose appointments are not otherwise provided for.

5th Amendment: That section 15, 16 and 17, of article 4, and allow the general assembly to elect and distribute all judicial power among the several counties except that of the supreme court, which is fixed by this constitution.

6th Amendment: That section 1 and 2, of article 13, and forbid calling a convention without first consulting the people at a public meeting.

7th Amendment: Providing for submitting the amendments to the constitution to the people at the polls, Tuesday after the 1st Monday in November, 1874.

8th Amendment: Providing for publishing the ordinances for the information of the people.

9th Amendment: Requiring the judge to reside in the district for which he is elected, and forbids his holding court in the same county more than once in four years.

10th Amendment: The number of judges from 12 to 9, and authorizes the legislature to increase or diminish the number.

11th Amendment: Providing for the assembling of the legislature in January instead of November.

12th Amendment: Hits civil rights on the head by forbidding white and black children going to the same school, and providing that no discrimination shall be made to the prejudice of either race.

13th Amendment: Fixes the pay of members of the general assembly at $4 a day and 10 cents mileage, and limits the session to 60 days. If the session is prolonged beyond 60 days, members receive no pay.

14th Amendment: Provides that the term of office for senators and members of the legislature shall begin at the time of their election.

15th Amendment: That section 29, of article 2, is amended to allow the general assembly to change the time of holding elections for the general assembly.

16th Amendment: Strikes from the constitution section 4, of article 3, which is the old republican gerrymander of the senatorial districts in 1868.

17th Amendment: Reduces the number of supreme judges from five to three, as our fathers had it.

18th Amendment: Declares the judicial power shall be vested in a court for the trial of impeachments, a supreme court, superior courts, courts of justice of the peace, and such others inferior to the supreme court as may be established by law.

19th Amendment: Establishes the supreme court in Raleigh, and otherwise provided by the general assembly.

20th Amendment: Strikes section 5, article 2, from the constitution. This section was the old republican gerrymander of the county of representatives, and the people can do without it.

21st Amendment: Forbids vacating any office or term of office now existing under the constitution.

22nd Amendment: Provides for the election of judges of the supreme court and superior courts, by general ticket, or vote of all the people; but allows the general assembly to change the mode of electing superior courts judges from general ticket to district elections.

23rd Amendment: Requires 12 months' residence in the state, and 90 days in the county, before a man can vote, and excludes felons and ex-convicts from holding office or voting until restored to citizenship by due process of law. There was two days' debate on this ordinance, Messrs. Dockery, Albertson and Burton, with all the negro delegates, speaking against it and declaring it was aimed at the negro.

24th Amendment: Provides for the removal by the legislature of any judge of the superior court, for mental or physical disability. It also provides for the removal of clerks of the supreme and superior courts by the judges of the courts for the same reason. Appeal in case of removal is allowed as in other cases or suits.

25th Amendment: Provides that article 7 of the constitution be amended by adding that the general assembly shall have power to modify, change or abrogate any and all of the provisions of the article, and substitute others in their place, except section 10, 7, 9 and 13. This allows the legislature to appoint magistrates as under the old constitution.

26th Amendment: Gives jurisdiction to justices of the peace over civil actions founded on contract, when the sum does not exceed $200; and allows the justices to call in a jury of six men in certain cases.

27th Amendment: Authorizes the employment of convicts on public works and highways.

28th Amendment: Adds the following new section to article 4: "In case the general assembly shall establish other inferior courts, the presiding officers and clerks thereof shall be elected in such manner as the general assembly may prescribe."

29th Amendment: Provides for the election of judges of the supreme court and superior courts, by general ticket, or vote of all the people; but allows the general assembly to change the mode of electing superior courts judges from general ticket to district elections.

30th Amendment: Requires 12 months' residence in the state, and 90 days in the county, before a man can vote, and excludes felons and ex-convicts from holding office or voting until restored to citizenship by due process of law. There was two days' debate on this ordinance, Messrs. Dockery, Albertson and Burton, with all the negro delegates, speaking against it and declaring it was aimed at the negro.

31st Amendment: Provides for the removal by the legislature of any judge of the superior court, for mental or physical disability. It also provides for the removal of clerks of the supreme and superior courts by the judges of the courts for the same reason. Appeal in case of removal is allowed as in other cases or suits.

32nd Amendment: Provides that article 7 of the constitution be amended by adding that the general assembly shall have power to modify, change or abrogate any and all of the provisions of the article, and substitute others in their place, except section 10, 7, 9 and 13. This allows the legislature to appoint magistrates as under the old constitution.

33rd Amendment: Gives jurisdiction to justices of the peace over civil actions founded on contract, when the sum does not exceed $200; and allows the justices to call in a jury of six men in certain cases.

34th Amendment: Authorizes the employment of convicts on public works and highways.

35th Amendment: Adds the following new section to article 4: "In case the general assembly shall establish other inferior courts, the presiding officers and clerks thereof shall be elected in such manner as the general assembly may prescribe."

WEIKEL'S ESTABLISHMENT. Men in search of FIRST-CLASS GOODS, the very Latest and Fashionable, and put up in a style that will suit the most fastidious taste, go to WEIKEL'S ESTABLISHMENT, on Fayetteville Street, one door South of the Southern Express Office. It is a Conceded Fact that Weikel can put up the best and most satisfactory JOB in the way of fine suits of Clothing, or Wedding or a Business suit, that can be turned out in Raleigh. The old and young men say it, the ladies (God bless them) endorse it and the children cry over it, cry for joy as their revered "dada" puts on a suit of "dada's" clothing. Weikel takes this occasion to return his thanks for the large and liberal patronage heretofore received, and respectfully asks for a continuance of the same. His stock of CLOTHES, CASSIMERES, TWEEDS, SUITINGS &c. is much larger than ever before, and comprises all the Latest Novelties in Style, having been recently purchased at low prices from FASHION HEADQUARTERS. As usual his force of Workmen are picked men, whose skill and ability are known to the "dreaded" public. Come one and all to the Emporium of Fashion, where the Merchant Tailor, for a first class suit of Clothes, of first class goods, put up in first class style. Oct 6-3
