The price of lightwood-knots is steadily increasing. Soon the poor will have no means of illuminating. The struggle between gas and astral is something frightful to behold.

The old friends of Rev. Dr. Wadsworth, pastor of the Edenton Street Methodist church in 1842, but now of Mobile, Alabama, will be glad to hear that he contemplates visiting this city on the occasion of the Methodist Centennial.

Rev. Father Reilly, pastor of St. John's Catholic church, of this city, left yesterday for Company Shops. He will return to-morrow and leave again for Fayetteville, where he will remain over Sunday. There will consequently be no mass at St. John's next Sunday.

Think of it ye managers of boarding houses, ye heads of families: Eggs 15 cents per dozen; Sugar 10 cents per pound; Butter 3 pounds for $1, and other things proportionately cheap. Why? Because we sell strictly for cash at No. 5, Hargett street. D. T. Johnson.

The very fine results and increasing demand of the Star Ammoniated Soluble Phosphate seem to have created quite a sensation among manufacturers of and dealers in commercial fertilizers. Other manfacturers have even commenced manipulating and offering for sale a fertilizer called the "Star Bone Phosphate." Farmers should beware of imitations. The original and only genuine Star Ammoniated Soluble Phosphate has the trade mark of a star printed on each sack with the analysis manufactured by Lorentz & Ritter of Baltimore, Md., and for sale by A. C. Sanders & Co., or their agents.

The best collar ever made is the Elmwood. It fits better and looks better than any other.

I. O. O. F.—There will be a special session of McKee Encampment, No. 15, I. O. O. F., to-morrow evening, Feb. 18th. Purpose—Conferring the Royal Purple.

MARDI GRAS AT NEW ORLEANS, 29TH INST.—We are requested to say that all persons wishing to attend will report at once to the agent at N. C. depot, that arrangements may be made to run sleeping cars through to New Orleans. Round trip from Raleigh $37.65.

OFF FOR SALEM.—Major Seaton Gales left this morning on the train for Salem, where he is to lecture to-night before the order of Odd-Fellows. To-morrow night he lectures before the literary society of Salem. Salem is said to be ahead of most towns in the state for work, and behind none in schools, education and appreciation of literary merit.

THE STATE GRANGE.—This body of representative agriculturists assembled, for its annual session, in Greensboro yesterday. Some 250 delegates, including 50 ladies, were in attendance from the various subordinate organizations of the state. The address of Grand Master Mills was earnest, sensible and practical; insisting on the one great vital point, that our farmers should raise their own supplies at home, and thus render themselves materially independent. The meeting presents a very fine appearance and embraces many of North Carolina's best citizens whose interests are identified with the culture of the soil. The next annual session will be held in Goldsboro in February, 1877. The publication of a Grange organ will soon be commenced in this city or Greensboro.

MAJOR HENRY GILLIAM. This gentleman is in the city, in attendance upon the supreme court. He talks law only on the circuit, and fish and farm when off it. He told fish stories yesterday which astonished Major Anderson and the life insurance agents. He said William T. Sutton, at one haul, caught 10,000 rock-fish, weighing from 6 to 115 pounds apiece, averaging 45 pounds each, 10,000 herring and 4,000 shad. Eels, catfish, perch and suckers were not counted. Cowper, Dr. Martin and Col. Carter were ready to bull up the major, if his word had been doubted. Col. Carter said, at Dr. Wm. R. Capart's, he saw 140,000 pounds of rock fish caught at a haul. Fish were never more abundant in our eastern waters. Wood, Capart, Holly and Patrick Winston will have sport equal to the Christmas fox-hunt in Halifax, and much more profitable. Look to them all and to every honest man who wets a line and swims a cork this spring.

MERCHANTS' MEETING.—In accordance with a generally signed call, a majority of the merchants and business men of this city met at Metropolitan hall last evening to consider what action they should take in regard to the indictments brought against them by Solicitor J. C. L. Harris. Jordan Womble, Sr., was called to the chair, and J. C. Marcom appointed secretary. Messrs. J. H. Ennis, J. C. Palmer, W. B. Hutchings, L. H. Adams and R. F. Cheatham were appointed a committee to consult a lawyer, and get an opinion as to whether or not the indictments could be fought. A purse was at once made up to carry out this plan. The opinion was expressed that the solicitor, in his greed to pick up a few fees, had placed a most violent construction upon the law in regard to the time of taking out licenses, and it was determined to resist the indictments to the bitter end. The meeting adjourned to meet again at the same place next Wednesday evening.

DEATH.—We find, in the Norfolk Landmark, of Feb. 11, this notice of the death of a lady who has many relatives in our city, Major A. M. Lewis among the number:

Died, in Norfolk, February 9, 1876, Mrs. Claudia Hilliard, wife of Judge Louis Hilliard, of North Carolina. She had been in feeble health for several years, and it was hoped her removal here, a few months ago, would restore her; but it is otherwise ordered, and she is now numbered with the dead. She leaves to mourn her loss a disconsolate husband, four interesting children, and a deeply distressed mother who had just arrived from New York to witness her dissolution. She was kind, generous and affectionate in all her relations, a member of the Baptist church, and her death will be deplored by her numerous friends, relatives and acquaintances in North Carolina and elsewhere. Our consolation in this heavy affliction is that she gave evidence of a "good hope through grace," and that our loss is her eternal gain. May God comfort and sustain her bereaved husband, the dear children and her sorrowing mother.

As far as heard from the municipal elections in Pennsylvania have resulted in radical gains. Titusville elects a republican mayor, for the first time in 3 years, by a majority of 113. In Easton the republicans carry 4 out of the 7 wards, and their whole ticket is reported successful in Danville. In Philadelphia the election was quiet, the democrats gaining councilmen in several of the wards. Harrisburg elects a republican mayor by 1100 majority.

MEETING OF THE STATE DEMOCRATIC-CONSERVATIVE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

ROOMS OF THE DEM. CON. EX. COM.
RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 29, 1876.

At a meeting of the Central Executive Committee of the Democratic-Conservative party this day held, it was resolved that a meeting of the State Executive Committee be called to assemble in the city of Raleigh on Wednesday, the 15th day of March, 1876. The object of the meeting is to decide upon the time and place of holding the State Convention of the Democratic-Conservative party and to consider such other matters as may come before the Committee.

Each member of the Committee is earnestly requested to be present.

W. R. COX, Ch'm.
J. J. LITCHFORD, Sec'y.

Darling, you look very bad,
And I fear you've caught a cold;
But Papa says you'll soon be glad,
After you have once been told—
To take Dr Bull's Cough Syrup.

The darkeys on D. P. Hutchinson's place, near Charlotte, killed an adder last Tuesday, as it lay basking in the sun. Rather early, it strikes one, for these diminutive kinsmen of the great grandpa of radicalism to be stirring themselves around thus promiscuously; the campaign hasn't begun yet.

The committee of arrangements, consisting of J. P. Moore, L. S. Burkhead, J. B. Bobbitt, W. J. W. Crowder and W. J. Young, request the press of the state to copy this programme. There may be some slight changes made in it hereafter, and other announcements will be given next week. They close with these stirring words: "Let there be a grand rally at Raleigh; and let all our ministers and people pray for a tidal wave of salvation to sweep over the whole state."

TAR DROPS.

Wilmington has a case of smallpox, and don't brag much on it.

The Wilmington Cornet Concert club gives a magnificent ball, Feb 25.

Has McDowell, of the Charlotte Observer, been on north to get his trousseau? Is it true so?

J. H. Judge, of Duplin county, was clubbed and robbed by a nigger tramp, near Kenansville, last Saturday.

A 14-year-old son of Jas. T. Carroll, of Magnolia, committed suicide last Tuesday by blowing his brains out with a rifle in his room.

Josh Billings didn't make his expenses in Charlotte, and they say he'll have to give free tickets and chromos to get anybody out next time.

Sheriff Satchwell, of Beaufort county, paid $300 for a fine horse at Greenville, and in a few minutes after he got home the animal laid down and died.

Frank M. Fremont, of Wilmington, is to be chief marshal at the next Chapel Hill commencement, and E. B. Engelhard, of the same village, is one the managers of the ball.

Mecklenburg county has an Enoch Arden case. A fellow married 18 months ago. Everything was lovely and the connubial poultry dangled "altitudinibus," to quote Jerry and Bab's expressive phrase, until one day last week. Another chap walked in and claimed the lady as his wife. Proved priority of right. Register of deeds, called on as arbitrator, advised them to let the doubly wedded fair one pick her choosings. Agreed to; and she chose No. 2. And peace and love reign undisturbed.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.
By virtue of a mortgage executed to A. J. Bynum & Bro., on the 11th of September, 1872 by I. N. Clegg, and by virtue of a second mortgage executed by the aforesaid I. N. Clegg to A. J. Bynum on 2 th of March, 1875, the undersigned will sell on the premises at public auction on the 17TH DAY OF MARCH, 1876,
for cash, that valuable farm on Deep river, in the county of Chatham, opposite the town of Lockville, known as the Clegg farm, containing FIVE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-TWO acres. The Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line railroad divides the tract, and Deep river is navigable for steamboats about 30 miles above and 12 miles below Lockville. The farm is about 30 miles from Raleigh and 42 miles from Fayetteville by rail. The tract contains 100 acres of Deep river low ground; 50 acres of branch land and 100 acres of long leaf pine is well adapted to the raising of grasses, cereals, garden and vegetables, and can be divided easily into three excellent farms. The railroad depot is within 150 yards of the farm and Merchants' mills, saw mills and flour dry within 75 yards. The state geologist, describes this farm as within the rich coal and iron formations of the Deep river basin.
For further information apply to A. J. Bynum, Sheriff; Hon. John Manning, Fayetteville or I. N. Clegg, Lockville, N. C.
